XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, or Persons shall or may think such Estimate or Valuation, or any Part thereof, to be erroneous, whether in respect of any excessive Estimate of any Premises belonging to such Person or Persons, or of an insufficient and inadequate Estimate of Premises belonging to any other Person or Persons, it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons dissatisfied with such Estimate or Valuation, at any Time during or within Seven Days from the Termination of the Period of Ten Days appointed for the Inspection of such Estimate or Valuation, to deliver to the Clerk of such Commissioners a Notice in Writing of the Intention of such Person or Persons to dissatisfy to appeal to such Commissioners against such Estimate or Valuation, or any Part thereof; and such Notice shall specify the Grounds of such Appeal; and the Clerk of such Commissioners shall make an Entry of such Notice, and shall and may receive for the same the Fee of One Shilling; and such Commissioners shall appoint a Time and a Place for hearing such Appeal, and the Clerk of such Commissioners shall, at least Seven Days before the Time so appointed, give Notice of such Time and Place to the Party lodging such Appeal, and also to any other Person or Persons immediately concerned in the Matter of such Appeal; and at the Time and Place appointed it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, Two Thirds at least of the whole Number of such Commissioners being present, to hear such Appeal, and to determine the same by Majority of Votes, and to make such Amendment in such Estimate or Valuation as to such Commissioners shall seem fit and proper.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That such Estimate or Valuation, as finally settled by such Commissioners, shall be conclusive upon all Persons whomsoever, until the End of the Term for which such Commissioners shall have been elected; and it shall be lawful for each successive Body of Commissioners subsequently elected, and they are hereby authorized and required, to cause the existing Estimate to be examined, examined, and to be awarded, if need be, as soon as may be after such Commissioners shall come into Office; and such Estimate or Valuation so examined, whether the same shall be accepted or not, shall (before such Commissioners so coming into Office shall proceed to assess or levy any Assessment) be submitted to Inspection in like Manner as is heretofore directed with respect to the original Estimate; and the Non-fulfilment of Time and Place or Places for Inspection thereof shall be given, and it shall be lawful for all Persons thinking themselves aggrieved to appeal against such Estimate in like Time and Manner as is heretofore directed with respect to such Estimate or Valuation when originally made; and such Estimate or Valuation as finally settled on such Appeal, or in case the same shall not be appealed against, shall be conclusive during the Continuance in Office of the Commissioners by whom it shall have been so examined and settled, and no longer.

XXXVIII. And he it further enacted, That the Commissioners first elected to carry this Act into Execution in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, shall with all convenient Speed after the Election proceed to make an Estimate of the Expenses and Charges attending upon carrying the Purpose of this Act into Effect, and the Thirty-first Day of July then next ensuing, and shall fix, ascertain, and impose certain Rates and Assessments for defraying the same, to be applied open and to be raised and levied from and off the Owners, Occupiers, or Tenants of all Houses, Shops, Warehouses, Cellars, Mills, Yards, Gardens, and Tenements within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, or the Suburbs or Liberties thereof, as determined by the said Commissioners; (that is to say, on the Owners, Occupiers, and Tenants of all such Houses, Shops, Warehouses, Cellars, Mills, Yards, Gardens, and Tenements of the yearly Value (as computed under the Valuation heretofore directed to be made) of Five Pounds, and not exceeding to Ten Pounds, One or more Rate or Rates not exceeding in the Whole the Amount of Sixpence in the Pound of such yearly Value; on the Owners, Occupiers, or Tenants of all such Houses, Shops, Warehouses, Cellars, Mills, Yards, Gardens, and Tenements of the yearly Value (computed as aforesaid) of Ten Pounds, and not amounting to Twenty Pounds, One or more Rate or Rates not exceeding in the whole Nine-pence in the Pound of such yearly Value; and on the Owners, Occupiers, or Tenants of all such Houses, Shops, Warehouses, Cellars, Mills, Yards, Gardens, and Tenements of the yearly Value (computed as aforesaid) of Twenty Pounds or upwards, One or more Rate or Rates not exceeding in the whole One Shilling in the Pound of such yearly Value; and that each individual House, Shop, Warehouse, Cellar, Mill, Yard, Garden, and Tenement shall be separately rated, without reference to or including in the Apportionment of such Rate, any other House, Shop, Cellar, Warehouse, Mill, Yard, Garden, or Tenement belonging to or occupied by the same Person; provided that all contiguous Houses, Shops, Cellars, Warehouses, Mills, Yards, Gardens, and Tenements occupied by one and the same Person or by the same Persons, and forming One entire Concern or undivided Tenancy or Holding, shall be rated together and not separately.

XXXIX. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the Rate which shall be at any Time imposed under this Act, upon Premises of the Value of Five Pounds and not exceeding Ten Pounds, shall be equal to Two Thirds of the Rate at the same Time imposed upon Premises of the Value of Ten Pounds and not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and shall be equal to One Half of the Rate at the same Time imposed upon Premises of the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds or upwards; and that the Rate to be imposed upon Premises of the yearly Value of Ten Pounds and not exceeding Twenty Pounds, shall be equal to Three Fourths of the Rate imposed upon Premises of the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds or upwards; and that it shall not be lawful to or for such Commissioners to impose and levy any such Rate so or in respect of any Premises situate beyond the Limits to which the lighting, paving, watching, and cleansing by this Act provided shall extend; and that all Premises under the yearly Value of Five Pounds, as computed under the Valuation aforesaid mentioned, shall be exempt from any and every such Assessment.

XL. And he it further enacted, That such first-elected Commissioners having determined upon and imposed such first Assessment and Apportionment, shall issue Orders to their Collector or Collectors to collect such Rates as aforesaid, and such Collector or Collectors, and each of them, shall be furnished with a written Warrant or Order empowering him or them in that behalf, subscribed by the Chairman and Clerk of the Commissioners for the Time being, and shall also be furnished with a Copy of such Apportionment, or such Part thereof as shall be requisite for any such Collection, respectively attested by the Signatures of the Chairman and Clerk of the Commissioners for the Time being, and every such Collector shall, if so required, exhibit such Warrant and Copy of Apportionment upon demanding the Sum apporportioned; and such Collector or Collectors, on receiving the Sum apporportioned, shall give a Receipt for the same, and such Receipt shall be to the Party holding the same a full Acquittance and Discharge for the Sum expressed therein to have been received; and every such Collector shall proceed with all due Diligence, after receiving such Warrant and Copy of Apportionment, to collect and levy the Rates assessed upon the said several Premises, and shall make Demand of the same, upon the Premises chargeable, of and from any Person found therein in Occupation of the Whole or Part; and if no Person so occupying be found therein, then and in such Case such Collector shall make Demand of the Rates so assessed at the Dwelling House of the Party chargeable for and in respect of such Premises, if such Person reside within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, or the Suburbs or Liberties thereof; and if no such Person do not reside therein, and if no Person be found in Occupation of the Premises chargeable, then and in such Case such Collector shall affix on some Part of such Premises a Notice, bearing Oath the Day and Year of affixing the same, subscribed with the Name and Abode of the Collector affixing the same, requiring Payment of the Sum apporportioned within Fourteen Days from the Date of such Notice, and in case upon making Demand of the Sum appointed as before directed, either from any Person found in Occupation of the Whole or Part of the Premises rated, or at the Dwelling House of the Party chargeable, the Sum demanded be not paid, such Collector shall deliver to such Person, or shall leave at such Dwelling House, a Notice of the like Tenor and Purport, dated, subscribed, and expressed as aforesaid, and within the Fourteen Days specified in any such Notice the Money demanded may be paid to the said Collector at his House or Office; and if not paid within that Time, such Collector, or any other Collector duly authorized, shall make further Demand of the same upon the Premises chargeable, or at the Dwelling House of the Party chargeable, or shall affix a Notice of such second Demand upon some Part of the Premises chargeable, in like Manner as is heretofore required and directed in case of the first Demand of such Money; and if such Money be not paid to such Collector upon such second Demand, or within Three Days after making the same, then such Collector may at any Time afterwards procure a Warrant, subscribed by the Chairman of the said Commissioners, which Warrant the said Chairman of the Commissioners is hereby authorized and required to grant, upon a Certificate, signed by the said Collector or Collectors, of such Demands having been made, and such Notices having been given or affixed, and such Money remaining unpaid, and it shall be lawful for such Collector, by virtue of such Warrant, and such Collector is hereby authorized, and empowered, to enter upon the Premises chargeable, and to seize and distrain the Goods and Chattels of any Person whatsoever which he can find thereon; and if no sufficient Distress can be found thereon, then to seize and distrain the Goods and Chattels of the Party chargeable for and in respect of such Premises wherever the same can be found; and for that Purpose to enter any Dwelling House or other House, Shop, Warehouse, or other Tenement within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, or the Suburbs or Liberties aforesaid, belonging to such Party; and if the Sum charged be not paid within Fourteen Days from such Seizure, together with the Costs of Distress, it shall be lawful for such Collector to sell the Goods so seized by public Auction for such Sum and Costs, such Costs to be set forth and specified in the Warrant authorizing such Distress; and the Surplus, if any, shall be paid to the Party distrained, or his Representatives.

Occupiers chargeable with Rates.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the immediate Tenant or Occupier, or Tenants or Occupiers, of any Premises charged with any Assessment or Apportionment under this Act, shall be deemed chargeable with and liable to every Assessment or Apportionment made and imposed in respect of the same; provided that if any Premises or any Part thereof be tenanted or occupied by the Month or any shorter Period, it shall be lawful for any Person so holding or occupying, and such Person is hereby authorized and empowered (any special Covenant or Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding), to deduct from out of the Rent paid or payable by such Person, for and in respect of such Holding, Tenancy, or Occupation, any Sum or Sums paid or levied by or from such Persons for or in respect of any such Assessment, such Person producing the Receipt for such Sum or Sums subscribed as before directed by the Collector receiving the same.

Premises shall remain at all Times chargeable, and Parties paying may recover against former Parties rated.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if no sufficient Distress can be found on the Premises chargeable, and if the Sum or Sums assessed or charged or apportioned upon or in respect of any Premises be not otherwise paid or satisfied, the Premises for or in respect of which such Sum or Sums shall have been charged shall remain at all Times chargeable with the same, into the Hands of whatsoever Person or Persons such Premises may come or fall; and as soon as at any Time sufficient Distress can be met with thereon, it shall be lawful for any such Collector or Collectors to enter upon such Premises, and to distrain any Goods or Chattels therein or thereon, and to levy all Arrears of Rates and Assessments, with all Costs, at any Time previous accrued or incurred for and in respect of such Premises: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, or whose Goods or Chattels such Arrears and Costs may be levied by Action at Law or otherwise, to recover of and from the Person or Persons, or his or their Representatives, primarily chargeable with the same, and during whose Tenancy or Holding or Enjoyment of such Premises the same may have accrued, the full Amount thereof, together with full Costs and Damages for the Injury sustained by such Levy as aforesaid.

Future Commissioners after 1st of August in each Year, to make an Estimate and Assessment.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That as soon as consecutively may be after the First Day of August in every Year, the Commissioners for the Time being for the Execution of this Act, in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, shall estimate the Charges, Costs, and Expenses of carrying the Purposes of this Act into Effect during the ensuing Year, and shall, for the Purpose of defraying such Charges, Costs, and Expenses, direct any Rates, Assessments, and Apportionments to be made, and shall impose, collect, and levy all such Rates, Assessments, and Apportionments, and Sums of Money, in the like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions and Regulations, and in the same Proportions, as any Assessments, Apportionments, Rates, and Sums of Money are directed to be made and levied by the first-elected Commissioners.

Surplus of any preceding Year shall be applied in succeeding Year, and preceding Deficiencies may be supplied.

XV. And be it further enacted, That any Surplus or redundant Funds which may remain after defraying the Expenses of any preceding Year, shall and may be applied towards defraying the Expenses of a succeeding Year; and that any Deficiency of Funds on the Expenditure of a preceding Year, shall and may be made good and supplied out of the Monies raised in a succeeding Year; provided that such Monies raised in such succeeding Year shall not exceed the several Assessments heretofore authorized to be raised or assessed within any One Year, unless in the Case of an extraordinary Assessment to be made pursuant to the Powers hereinafter reserved, mentioned, and contained.

An extraordinary Assessment may be

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in case it should happen that the Sums to be raised in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, by the Rates of this Act heretofore authorized to be levied, should be deemed insufficient within any one Year, and if Two Thirds of all the Commissioners for the Time being elected for the Execution of this Act in such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, at a Meeting of such Commissioners, should be of Opinion that an extraordinary Rate or Assessment should be made and levied for the Purposes of this Act, to an Amount to be specified in a Resolution of such Commissioners, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Chairman of such Commissioners for the Time being, and he is hereby required, to appoint and convene a Special Meeting of all Persons in such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, subject to the Assessment under this Act, and duly registered as by this Act is before directed, and such Meeting shall be convened within such Time and shall be conducted in such Manner, and the Time and Place of the same shall be notified in like Manner as a heretofore directed with regard to any Triennial Meeting heretofore appointed to be convened by the Chairman of any such Commissioners; and at such Meeting such Chairman shall cause the Resolution adopted as aforesaid by Two Thirds of such Commissioners to be read, and shall require such Meeting to determine by Majority of Voices whether such Resolution of such Commissioners shall be affirmed or negatived, and if at such Special Meeting of Persons subject to Assessment as aforesaid, such Resolution of such Commissioners shall be affirmed or agreed to, either to the Amount specified in such Resolution or to any less Amount, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to levy such extraordinary Assessment to such Amount as shall be so affirmed or agreed to, together with or in addition to the ordinary Assessment or Assessments, any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and all the Powers, Duties, and Authorities by this Act given, created, or conferred, and the Regulations and Provisions ordained for the raising or levying any ordinary Assessment, shall be good, valid, obligatory, and effectual towards the levying and raising of such extraordinary Assessment; provided that such Resolutions, so affirmed or agreed to, shall not be held or construed to extend the Limits or to raise the Amount of the ordinary Assessment made or to be made in or for any subsequent Year; and if such Meeting of the Persons subject to such Assessment shall wholly disagree such Resolution of such Commissioners, then and in such Case such Meeting shall adjourn die Dec. and it shall not be competent for such Commissioners, at any Time within One Year from the Day of such Adjournment, to propose or adopt any Resolution for any such extraordinary Assessment, nor for the Chairman of such Commissioners to convene any such Meeting of the Persons subject to Assessment, as heretofore directed, nor in any Manner to impose or levy any Assessment other than the ordinary annual Assessment, nor otherwise than subject to the Limitations heretofore appointed to be observed in such ordinary annual Assessment: Provided also, that upon and after the Expiration of each Year, it shall and may be competent for such Commissioners to propose and to adopt such Resolutions, and thereupon to convene such Meeting, and to proceed thereon in manner heretofore directed, and as on and after ante quarto.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to direct and cause the several Streets, Squares, Lanes, and Passages within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, to be lighted in such Manner as such Commissioners shall judge proper, either with Oil or Gas, and to contract with any Company or Companies of Proprietors, or any Body Corporate, or any other Persons or Persons for that Purpose; and also to order Lamp Posts to be erected in the Streets, and Lamp Irons to be fixed on the Walls of Houses and other Buildings, and from time to time to alter and remove the same, as such Commissioners shall judge proper.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to appoint a sufficient Number of able Watchmen, to keep watch within any such City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, or the Suburbs and Liberties thereof, and to appoint and pay proper Salaries and Wages for such Watchmen, and to provide proper Watch-houses, and all necessary Articles for such watching, and to appoint the Times of Watch, and the Stations and the Duties of the several Watchmen, and to fine and punish any such Watchmen at the Pleasure of such Commissioners.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Watchmen, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to apprehend all such idle and disorderly Persons as they or any of them shall find committing any Breach of the Peace during the Night, or making any improper Noise or Disturbance, and to detain such Persons till Morning, and then to carry such Persons or Persons before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Borough, City, Town, or Place in which such Person or Persons shall have been apprehended, to be dealt with according to Law.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Victualler, Publican, or other Person or Persons selling Spirituous Liquors, shall entertain or harbour in his or her or their House any Watchmen appointed under this Act, during such Watchmen's appointed Hours of Duty, every such Victualler, Publican, or other Person shall forfeit for such Offence any Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings.

L. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, to employ or contract with Scavengers to cleanse and sweep and water the Streets, Squares, Lanes, and Passages within any such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, or the Suburbs and Liberties thereof; and to direct in what Manner and how often the said Streets, Squares, Lanes and Passages shall be swept and cleaned and watered, and to provide all necessary Articles for such Purposes.

LI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall take or carry away any Dirt, Dung, Ashes, or Soil out of any of the said Streets, Squares, Lanes, and Passages, other than the Scavengers levied upon in any Year, if notwithstanding by Two Thirds of all the Commissioners, and sanctioned by a Meeting of Persons subject thereto.

LII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to employ or contract with any Person or Persons to pave, flag, maintain, and keep in order the Streets, Squares, Lanes, and Passages within any such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, and the Suburbs or Liberties thereof as aforesaid, in such Manner as such Commissioners shall direct, and to provide all necessary Articles for the said Purpose; and any Street forming Part of a Road running through any such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, or the Suburbs or Liberties thereof as aforesaid, which may at any Time before the Appointment of such Commissioners have been paved, macadamized, or repaired as Part of such Road by any Board of Turnpike Commissioners, or Trustees, or by Grand Jury Processment, or by any other Body or Person or Persons, or in any other Manner whatsoever, shall and may, from and after the Appointment of Commissioners for the Execution of this Act in any such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, be paved, maintained, and repaired only by such Commissioners, if such Commissioners shall think fit so to determine and require: Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to exonerate any such Turnpike Commissioners or Trustees, or any other Body or Person or Persons whatsoever, from his or their Duty or Obligation to maintain and repair such Street or Road, unless such Commissioners shall desire to take upon themselves such Duty or Obligation; and in such Case such Commissioners shall become liable in like Manner as the Party or Parties originally liable in such Duty or Obligation, and shall in like Manner answer for and be punishable for any Default in the Discharge or Observance of such Duty or Obligation.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to cause Wells to be dug, and Pumps to be had, and Pumps to be erected in any Streets, Squares, Lanes, and Passages of any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, as such Commissioners shall think most advantageous for supplying Water to the Inhabitants; and also to make and maintain, or cause to be made and maintained, Fire Pumps for extinguishing Fire.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to make or cause to be made Common Sewers, Drains, and Watercourses, and the same from time to time to repair and cleanse, and to purchase One or more Fire Engine or Engines, with all necessary Apparatus, and to name and appoint, during Pleasure, or to contract with a proper Person or Persons to take charge of such Engine or Engines, with such Number of Persons as may be necessary to work such Engine or Engines, with such Salaries and Allowances, and under such Regulations, as such Commissioners shall judge proper, and to hire or rent any convenient House or Houses for keeping such Engine or Engines.

LV. And be it further enacted, That all private Drains or Sewers within any such City, Borough, or Town, issuing into any Public Drain or Sewer, shall, when and as the said Commissioners shall require, be repaired or cleaned under the Inspection and Direction of any Person therein authorized or appointed by the said Commissioners, at the Costs and Charges of the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers of the Premises to which the said private Sewers or Drains may belong.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to cause the said Streets, Squares, Lanes, and Passages to be named, and the Name of each to be painted or otherwise inscribed at or near the End or Corner thereof, and also to cause the Houses, Buildings, Shops, and Warehouses to be numbered, and the Figures denoting the Numbers to be painted on the Doors.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to cause any Penthouses, Bow Windows, Signs or Sign Posts, or Balconies, or Grates, or any Cellar or other underground Apartment, or any Stair or Opening into such Apartment, or any other Thing encroaching upon or projecting into any Street, Lane, Square, or Passage, which may seem dangerous to Passengers, to be removed, altered, closed up, or grated over, or otherwise sufficiently secured, and for such Purposes it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to require any Attention to be made, in such Manner as they may deem fit, and within such Time as they shall appoint, by written Order, signifying their Order in such respect, and subscribed by the Chairman and Clerk of the Commissioners for the Time being, issued and expressed to be issued pursuant to a Resolution adopted at a Meeting of such Commissioners, and delivered to the Occupier of the Premises causing such Encroachment, if the same be occupied, and if not occupied, then and in such Case to the Owner of such Premises, if resident within the same City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Town, and if not resident within the same, and if the Premises be unoccupied, then and in such Case affixed on some Part of the same Premises; and if any such Alteration shall not be made, done, or performed agreeably to such Order, within the Time therein specified, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to cause the same to be made, done, and performed, and to levy the Expenses thereof, together with the Costs of Distress, upon any Goods and Chattels found upon such Premises, or upon the Goods and Chattels of the Owner (whosoever found); and every such Distress shall be made in like Manner as by this Act is directed in the Case of Distress for Assessments remaining unpaid, and with and subject to the like Powers and Regulations.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, in any City, Borough, Town Corporate, Market Town or other Town, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, so often as to them may seem fit, to break up or upon, or by Warrant, subscribed by the Chairman and Clerk of the Commissioners for the Time being, to authorize any Person or Persons with whom they shall or may contract to break up or upon any Street, Square, Lane, or Passage within any such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, or the Suburbs and Liberties thereof as aforesaid, for the Purpose of laying Pipes or digging Wells, or any other of the Purposes of this Act, notwithstanding any such Street, Square, Lane, or Passage may form Part of a Turnpike Road or County Road: Provided that such Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to cause such Holes and Openings to be properly secured and fenced at Night, and Lights set up thereby, so as to warn Passengers and prevent Accidents.

LIX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners acting in Execution of this Act, in any City, Borough, or Town, if they shall so think fit, to direct and require the respective Owners and Occupiers of all Houses or other Buildings or Premises abutting upon any of the Streets, Squares, Lanes, or Passages within such City, Borough, or Town, so often, and at such Times, and at and under any such Penalty as to the said Commissioners shall seem meet, not exceeding Two Shillings for each Defect, to cause the Footways or Foot Pavements to be well and sufficiently swept and cleaned before, behind, and on the Sides of the same, in the Situation thereof shall require, and the Dirt and Soil arising from such sweeping and cleaning to be collected and put together in such Place and Manner as to the said Commissioners shall seem meet; and the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit to establish such Order and Regulation, shall cause the same to be publicly notified in manner herebefore appointed for the Notification of the Election of Commissioners under this Act.

LX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend so prevent any Person or Persons from proceeding by Indictment, Action, or otherwise, against any such Commissioners, their Officers, Servants, or Workmen, or any Body Public or Corporate, for or in respect of any Negligence or Injury arising from or occasioned by Gas Works.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That the Expenses of Printing, Stationary, Costs and Charges, for the Purpose of this Act, and all Expenses of lighting, watching, cleansing, and paving, of digging Wells, laying Pipes, and erecting Pumps, of making and maintaining Fire Pumps, and making Sewers, Drains, and Watercourses, of purchasing Fire Engines and employing Workmen, and of meeting Officers for the Transaction of Business, or Houses for keeping Fire Engines, and of naming the Streets, Squares, Lanes, and Passages, and numbering the Houses, Buildings, Shops, Warehouses, and all other Costs and Charges of providing the necessary Articles for all and every of the aforesaid Purposes, and relating to all other Things which under this Act any Commissioners for the Execution of this Act are directed or empowered to do in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, shall be paid out of any Rates, Assessments, and Sums of Money authorized to be raised and levied under this Act in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, respectively, and from the other Funds by this Act directed to be applied to such Expenses: Provided always, that such Rates, Assessments, Modes, and Funds, or any Part thereof, shall not be applied to delay or satisfy any Penalties to which any such Commissioners may render themselves liable, or any Damages or Costs which may be recovered against and incurred by any such Commissioners in any Suit or Process at Law or Equity whatsoever, for or by reason of any wilful Misfeasance or Malfeasance on the Part of any such Commissioners.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That the Property of all Pavements, Flags, Lamps, Wells, Buckets, Pipes, Pumps, Fire Pumps, Fire Engines, and any and every other Material, Article, or Thing purchased or paid for by any Money applicable to the Purpose of this Act, shall be vested in the Commissioners for the Time being for the carrying this Act into Execution in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town respectively; and it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to bring Actions or prefer Indictments against any Person stealing or carrying away or injuring any such Articles, Matters, or Things, relating the Property to be in such Commissioners by virtue of this Act; and so Charge made or happening to or among the Persons composing any Body of Commissioners shall in any Action, Indictment, or other Civil or Criminal Proceeding whatsoever, by, for, or on behalf of or against or concerning the said Commissioners or their Property, state, or otherwise stay, delay, or affect any such Action, Indictment, or Proceeding.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully injure, damage, or destroy any Warehouse, or Watchbox, or any Lamp, Lamp Post, or Lamp Post, or any Well, Pipe, Spring, Pump, Watercourse, Fire Pump, Sewer, Drain, or Fire Engine, or shall wilfully extinguish any Lamp or Lamps, or shall tear up the Pavement or Flagging in any Street, Square, Lane, or Passage within any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, or the Suburbs or Liberties thereof, in which this Act shall be carried into Execution, or shall in any other Manner wilfully damage, injure, or destroy any Article or Material, Matter or Thing employed for effectuating the Purpose of this Act, or any Work which any Commissioners for the Execution of this Act may undertake for such Purpose, or any of them, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to apprehend and detain any and every such Offender, until such Offender can be carried before any Justice of the Peace; and every Person so offending, being convicted of such Offence before such Justice, shall for the First Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and for the Second Offence a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, and for the Third and every subsequent Offence a Sum not exceeding Fifteen Pounds; provided that the paying any such Penalty shall be no Bar to any Action at the Suit of the said Commissioners.

V. And be it further enacted, That until further Provision be made as hereinafter directed for proceeding by Juries, all Crimes, Misdemeanors, and Offences, cognizable in the said Courts respectively, shall be prosecuted by Information, in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General, or other Officer duly appointed for such Purpose by the Governor of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively; and all Issues of Fact joined on every such Information shall be tried by One or more of the respective Judges of the said Courts, and Seven Commissioned Officers of His Majesty's Sea or Land Forces, whether on Full or Half Pay; and such Officers shall from time to time be nominated for the Purpose aforesaid by the Governor of New South Wales or Van Diemen's Land respectively; and the said Officers shall severally be liable to be challenged or objected to upon the special Ground of direct Interest or Affection, to be specified in open Court at the Time of Challenge; and in case of such Challenge or Objection being allowed by the Judge or Judges of the said Courts respectively, the Officer or Officers so challenged or objected to shall be succeeded by another such Officer or other such Officers as aforesaid, who shall in like Manner be nominated by the Governor as aforesaid, and be liable in the same Manner to Challenge or Objection, until Seven Officers shall appear duly qualified for the Trial of any Offender in the said Courts respectively; and the said Officers shall thereupon severally take and repeat in open Court the same Oath as is taken by Petit Jurors impanelled for the Trial of any Crime or Misdemeanor in any Court of Record in England, and shall return their Verdict in open Court, by the Mouth of the Senior Officer serving on such Trial; and the Proceedings of the said Courts respectively shall be under the Control and Direction of the respective Judges thereof, and all Matters of Law arising in the Course of any such Trial shall be determined by such Judges respectively; and the Judgments of the said Courts respectively shall be pronounced by them in the Manner by Law established on the Trial of Persons indicted in any Court of Record in England: Provided nevertheless, that if at the Time of the Meeting of the Supreme Court of Van Diemen's Land there should not be Seven Commissioned Officers of His Majesty's Sea or Land Forces within the Distance of Ten Miles from the Place of holding such Court, or in case of the Sickness of any such Officers, the Governor of Van Diemen's Land shall nominate such Magistrates of the said Island, or of any District or County of the said Island, as to him shall seem meet, to act on the Trial of such Crimes, Misdemeanors, or Offences as aforesaid, together with such and so many Commissioned Officers as aforesaid as may then be within such Distance as aforesaid, and competent to act upon such Trial, as in that there may in every Case be Seven Officers or Magistrates, or Seven Officers and Magistrates, for the Trial of the said Crimes, Misdemeanors, and Offences; and the Magistrates so to be appointed by the Governor of Van Diemen's Land shall be liable to be challenged or objected to in such and the same Manner, and shall, if necessary, be succeeded by some other Magistrate, to be nominated by the said Governor of the said Island, and shall severally take and repeat such Oath as is heretofore directed with respect to the said Commissioned Officers of His Majesty's Sea and Land Forces.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, by Leave of the said Supreme Courts respectively first had and obtained, to exhibit a Criminal Information against any other Person, or Persons in the Name of the said Attorney General, or of such other Officer as aforesaid, for any Crime or Misdemeanour not punishable by Death, by him or her or them committed, or alleged to have been committed; and in granting any Rule for exhibiting any such Criminal Information the said Courts shall not be bound to require from the Parties or Party applying for the same any excoipatory Affidavits, unless the Justice of the particular Case may in such Courts appear to require that such Affidavits should be first made; and any Information so exhibited as aforesaid by Leave of the Court shall be heard, tried, and determined in such and the same Manner in every respect as any other Informations are heretofore required to be heard, tried, and determined.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by a Warrant or Warrants under His or Their Royal Sign Manual, at any Time hereafter as aforesaid to authorize the Governor of New South Wales or of Pan Diemen's Land respectively for the Time being to convene a Court or Courts as often as Occasion may require, for the Trial of all Crimes and Misdemeanours committed within any Place or Places in New South Wales or Pan Diemen's Land, or the Dependencies thereof, which, by any Order in Council for that Purpose issued or to be issued as aforesaid, hath been or shall be appointed for the Reception of transported Felons and other Offenders; which Court or Courts shall be of Record, and shall have and exercise all the Powers and Authorities incident and belonging to a Court of Record, and shall consist respectively of a Judge, to be appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and such and so many proper Persons, not fewer than Three or more than Five, as shall be appointed for such Purpose by such Governor, by Commission, to be duly made and executed under his Hand and Seal; and such Persons shall be sworn in such and the like Form, and the Verdict of the whole of such Persons shall be taken and recorded in such and the like Manner, and the Proceedings of the said last-mentioned Court or Courts shall be conducted, and the Judgments thereof pronounced by the Judge or Judges presiding at every such Trial, according to such and the like Law and Usage as is heretofore directed with respect to the Trial of Persons prosecuted before the said Supreme Courts of Judicature of New South Wales and Pan Diemen's Land respectively; and in all Cases where the Offence charged against any Person tried before any such Court or Courts as to be established, in any such Place or Places as aforesaid, shall not be punishable by Death, the Judge or Judges of the said Court or Courts respectively shall and he and they in and are hereby authorized to adjudge the Offender to any corporal Punishment, not extending to Life or Limb, as the Circumstances of the Case may require: Provided always, that the Particulars and Grounds of every such Sentence shall in all Cases be made known by the Judge or Judges of the said last-mentioned Court or Courts respectively to the Governor of New South Wales or Pan Diemen's Land, as the Case may be, for his Approbation.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in any Actions at Law to be brought in the said Supreme Courts of New South Wales and Pan Diemen's Land respectively, whenever the Parties Plaintiff and Defendant in any such Action shall join Issue on any Matter of Fact, the Trial of such Issue or Issues shall be by One or more Judge or Judges of the said Courts respectively, and by Two Assessors, being Magistrates or Justices of the Peace in and for the said Colony, or some County or District thereof; and the said Magistrate shall be nominated from time to time, for the Purpose aforesaid, by the Governor for the Time being of New South Wales and Pan Diemen's Land respectively, and shall be liable to Challenge upon such and the same Grounds as may lawfully be alleged as Causes of Challenge against any Person impanelled as a Juror for the Trial of any Issue of Fact joined between the Parties in any Action depending in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, and such Challenges shall be made in open Court, and decided by the Judges of the said Supreme Courts respectively; and in case any such Challenge shall be allowed by the said Judges respectively, another Justice of the Peace shall be nominated in manner aforesaid, in the Place of the Justice against whom such Challenge shall have been as allowed, who may in like Manner be challenged, until Two Justices shall appear competent to act as Assessors of the Court upon the Trial of the said Issue or Issues of Fact; and the said Two Assessors shall thereupon severally take and repeat in open Court such and the same Oath as is taken by any Juror sworn upon the Trial of any Issue of Fact in any of His Majesty's said Courts of Record at Westminster; and the Judges of the said Supreme Court respectively presiding at any such Trial shall, together with the said Two Assessors, give their Verdict upon every such Issue or Issues of Fact as aforesaid; and in case any such Judge and Assessors cannot agree upon such Verdict, the Verdict of the major Part of them shall be taken, entered, and recorded as the Verdict of all; Provided always, that if either of the Parties Plaintiff and Defendant in any such Action shall be desirous of having any such Issue or Issues of Fact as aforesaid tried by a Jury, and shall apply for that Purpose to the said Supreme Courts respectively, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for the said Courts respectively to award or to refuse a Trial by Jury, as the Justice of such particular Case may seem to such Courts as require; the Qualifications, Numbers, and Summonings of which Juries, and all other Rules for their Constitution and Proceeding, shall be fixed in each respective Colony by some General Law or Ordinance to be passed by the Governor thereof, with the Advice of his Legislative Council.

Any Person by Leave of the Courts may exhibit a Criminal Information.

His Majesty may authorize Governor of New South Wales and Pan Diemen's Land to convene Courts.

Jury Issues shall be tried.

IX. And Whereas by a certain Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty * intituled An Act for the Transportation of Offenders from Great Britain, Provision is made for vesting * in the Governor of the Colony to which Offenders may be transported, or to such other Person as
 * therein mentioned, the Property in the Service of such Offenders, and it is expedient to make further
 * Provision in that Behalf, as far as respects the said Colonies of New South Wales and Van Diemen's
 * Land; Be it further enacted, That any Offender who hath heretofore been or shall hereafter be * assigned to any Person or Persons within the said Colonies respectively, under and in pursuance of the * said Act, shall not, by any such Assignee or Assignees, be assigned over to any other Person or Persons, * except with the written Consent and Licence of the Governors of such Colonies respectively; and that
 * it shall and may be lawful for the Governors of the said Colonies respectively from time to time, as to * them shall seem meet, to revoke any such Assignments of Offenders as may have been or as shall here* after be made in pursuance of the said Act, and to grant to any Offender or Offenders transported to the * said Colonies such temporary or partial Remissions of their Sufferance as to such Governors may seem
 * best adapted for the Reformation of such Offenders, and such temporary or partial Remissions from time * to time to revoke and renew, as Occasions may require; any thing in the said Act, or in any other Act * of Parliament, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Persons without the Consent of the Governors

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by any Order to be by Him or Them issued, with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, at any Time or Times hereafter in authorizing the Governor of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively, or either of them, with the Advice of the Legislative Council of the said Colonies respectively, or either of them, further to extend and apply the Form and Manner of proceeding by Penal and Petit Jurors, or either of them, as the Presentment and Trial of all Crimes, Misdemeanours, Issues, Matters, and Things properly cognizable by Jurors, in such Parts of the said Colonies and their Dependencies respectively, at such Times and with, under, and subject to such Limitations, Modifications, and Rules in respect thereof, as to the said Governors and Councils respectively shall seem meet, and as shall from time to time be specified in any Law or Ordinance to be by them made in such Behalf; and whenever and so far as such Manner of proceeding by Jurors shall from time to time be extended and applied as aforesaid, then the Form and Manner of proceeding heretofore directed, as well in the Prosecution of Offences as in the Trial of Issues, shall cease and determine.

Supreme Courts to be Courts of Equity.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Supreme Courts respectively shall be Courts of Equity in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, and the Dependencies thereof respectively, and shall have Power and Authority to administer Justice, and to do, execute, and perform all such Acts, Matters, and Things necessary for the due Execution of such equitable Jurisdiction, as the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain can or lawfully may within the Realm of England, and all such Acts, Matters, and Things as can or may be done by the said Lord High Chancellor within the Realm of England, in the Exercise of the Common Law Jurisdiction to him belonging.

Supreme Courts to have Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the said Supreme Courts respectively shall be Courts of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, and shall have full Power and Authority to administer and execute, within New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, and the Dependencies thereof respectively, such Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction and Authority as hath been or shall be committed to the said Supreme Courts respectively by His Majesty's said Charters or Letters Patent as issued or to be issued as aforesaid; provided that in all Cases where the Executor or Executors of any Will, upon being duly cited, shall refuse or neglect to take on Probate, or where the next of Kin shall be absent, and the Effects of the Deceased shall appear to the said Courts respectively to be exposed and liable to Waste, it shall be lawful for the said Courts respectively to authorize and empower the Registrar, or other ministerial Officer of the said Supreme Courts respectively, to collect such Effects, and hold or deposit or invest the same in such Manner and Place, or upon such Security, and subject to such Orders and Directions as shall be made, either as applicable in all such Cases, or specially in any Case, by the said Courts respectively, in respect of the Custody, Control, or Disposal thereof.

His Majesty may appoint Circuit Courts.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any such Charters or Letters Patent as aforesaid, or by any Order or Orders to be by Him made, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to institute Circuit Courts, at such Times, and in such Districts or Counties within the said respective Colonies, as shall from time to time be deemed necessary; and the said Circuit Courts shall be holden by any One Judge of the said Supreme Courts respectively, and shall have such ministerial Officers in His Majesty shall appoint or direct, and the said Circuit Courts shall be Courts of Record, and shall have Jurisdiction to hear and determine Crimes and Misdemeanours committed within the said Colonies respectively, and to try all Issues in Fact, and to enquire into and assess Damages in any Action at Law commenced in the said Supreme Courts respectively, and shall proceed in the like Form and Manner as the said Supreme Courts, and shall be and stand in the same relation to the said Supreme Courts as Courts of Oyer and Terminer and of Assize and Nisi Prius in England are and stand in relation to the King's Superior Courts of Record at Westminster.

How Evidence shall be taken on Trial of Issues.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That on the Trial of every Issue of Fact joined between the Parties in any Action at Law by this Act made cognizable in the said Supreme Courts, where the Sum or Matter at Issue shall exceed the Amount or Value of Five hundred Pounds Sterling, and where such Trial shall not be by a Jury, the Judges of the said Supreme Courts respectively presiding at any such Trial shall cause the Evidence to be taken down in Writing by the Clerk or other proper Officer of the said Supreme Courts respectively, and repeated in open Court by the Witnesses respectively giving the same, and the Evidence

Evidence as taken and reported shall be entered upon the Proceedings of this Court, and be of Record; and in every Case in which any Appeal to His Majesty in Council shall be made or allowed under the Provisions of this Act, Copies of all Documents and Papers which shall have been produced and given in Evidence at such Trial shall be certified by the said Clerk, or other proper Officer of the Court to be appointed for that Purpose, as authentic; and also Copies of any Documents and Papers which shall have been produced and tendered in Evidence, and rejected, shall, if required by the Party producing the same, be in like Manner authenticated, but marked by such Officer as aforesaid as rejected, in order that all such Copies may be entered to the Record as Part thereof, in case of Appeal.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by the said Charters or Letters Patent respectively, or by any Order or Orders of His Majesty in Council, to allow any Person or Persons feeling aggrieved by any Judgement, Decree, Order, or Sentence of the said Supreme Courts respectively, to appeal therefrom to His Majesty in Council, in such Manner, within such Time, and under and subject to such Rules, Regulations, and Limitations, as His Majesty, by any such Charters, or Letters Patent, or Order or Orders in Council respectively, shall appoint and prescribe.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Supreme Courts in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively to make and prescribe such Rules and Orders touching and concerning the Time and Place of holding the said Courts respectively, the Forms and Manner of proceeding, and the Practice and Proceedings upon all Judgements, Informations, Actions, Suits, and other Matters to be therein brought, the appointing of Commissioners to take Oath and examine Witnesses, the Form and Manner of Bail, the taking examinations of Witnesses de bene esse, and allowing the same as Evidence, the granting of Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration, the Proceedings of the Sheriff and other judicial Officers, the Process of Forcible Attachment, and all other the Process of the said Courts and the Mode of executing the same, the Admission of Attorneys, Solicitors, and Barristers, the Fees, Pendency, or Penalties to be lawfully demanded by any Officer, Attorney, or Solicitor in the said Courts respectively, and all other Matters and Things whatsoever, as to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall seem meet, for the Conduct of Business in the said Courts respectively, and as may be adapted to the Circumstances and Condition of the said Colonies; and such Rules and Orders from time to time to alter, amend, or revoke, as to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall seem requisite; and all Rules and Orders so to be made and prescribed as aforesaid shall be of such and the like Force and Effect as if the same had been inserted in this present Act: Provided always, that all such Rules and Orders shall be subject and liable to be disallowed by His Majesty, and upon such Disallowance being signified through the Governor or Acting Governor of the said Colonies respectively, the same shall become void and of no Effect.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governors of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively, with the Advice and Consent of their respective Legislative Councils, to institute Courts of General and Quarter Sessions within the said Colonies, by Ordinances to be from time to time for that Purpose made and enacted as hereinafter mentioned, and to give and grant to such Courts Power and Authority to take cognisance, in a summary Way, of all Crimes, Misdemeanours, and other Offences or Misconduct, not punishable by Death, which have been or shall be committed by any Felons or other Offenders who have been or shall be transported to the said Colonies respectively, and whose Sentences have not expired and have not been remitted; and also to give and grant to such Courts Power and Authority to take cognisance of all Matters and Things cognisable in Courts of General and Quarter Sessions in England, so far as the Circumstances and Condition of the said Colony shall require and admit; Provided always, that all Crimes, Offences, and Misdemeanours, not committed by such Felons and other Offenders as aforesaid, shall be prosecuted and tried before the said Courts of General and Quarter Sessions respectively, in such and the same Manner, and subject to all such and the same Rules and Regulations in every respect, as are heretofore made and prescribed with respect to Trials before the said Supreme Courts respectively.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governors of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively, with the Advice of their said Legislative Councils, by Laws or Ordinances to be from time to time for that Purpose made and enacted as hereinafter mentioned, to institute Courts of Civil Jurisdiction, to be called "Courts of Requests," in different Parts of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, or the Dependencies thereof, as Common shall require, with full Power and Authority to hear and determine in a summary Way all Actions, Suits, and Suits for the Payment or Recovery of any Debt, Damages, or Matter not exceeding Ten Pounds Sterling, except the Matter in question shall relate to the Title to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to the taking or demanding of any Duty payable to His Majesty, or to any Fee or Office, Annual Rent, or other such Matter, where Rights in future may be lost, or to any general Right or Duty, and to award Costs thereon; and the Determination and Award of such Courts of Requests, in all Cases within the Jurisdiction thereof, shall be final, and shall be carried into Execution by Attachment and Sale of the Goods and Effects, or by corporal Arrest of the Party or Parties against whom such Determination or Award shall be made; and each of the said Courts of Requests respectively shall be held by a Commissioner to be appointed by His Majesty, with such Salary as His Majesty shall think proper to appoint, which Salary shall be in lieu of all Fees, Profits, or Emoluments whatever in respect of the Office of such Commissioners as aforesaid.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the Governors of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively shall and may, with the Assistance of the Judges of the said Supreme Courts respectively, Appeal to His Majesty in Council.

Judges of Supreme Courts may make Rules for regulating such Courts.

Governors of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land may appoint Courts of General and Quarter Sessions.

Governors may appoint Courts of Civil Jurisdiction.

Governors may with Advice of Judges and

from time to time settle such Forms of Process, and such Rules of Practice and Proceeding, for the Conduct and Dispatch of Business in the said Courts of Sessions and Requests respectively, and appoint such reasonable Fees to be taken, as shall seem necessary and proper for expediting the Business of the said Courts with most Convenience and least Expence to the Parties concerned therein; and such Rules and Forms shall be followed, and such Fees shall be paid accordingly, and no other.

Appointments of Council.

XX. And Whereas it may be necessary to make Laws and Ordinances for the Welfare and good Government of the said Colonies of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, and the Dependencies thereof, the Occasions of which cannot be foreseen, nor without much Delay and Inconvenience be provided for, without intrusting that Authority for a certain Time, and under proper Restrictions, to Persons resident there: And Whereas it is not at present expedient to call a Legislative Assembly in either of the said Colonies: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Warrants under His or their Sign Manual, to constitute and appoint, in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively, a Council, to consist of such Persons resident in the said Colonies respectively, not exceeding Fifteen nor less than Ten, as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall be pleased to nominate.

Council.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That neither of the said Councils shall be competent to act unless Two Thirds at the least of the whole Number of Members on the List of such Council, exclusive of the said Governor or presiding Member, shall be actually present and meeting at the Deliberations thereof; and the Votes, Acts, and Resolutions of the major Part of the Members so present shall be deemed and taken to be the Votes, Acts, and Resolutions of the whole of such Council; and upon the Death, Resignation, Removal, or Absence of any of the Members of the said Councils, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in like Manner to constitute and appoint such and so many other Persons or Persons as shall be necessary to supply the Vacancy or Vacancies; and the Governors for the Time being of the said Colonies respectively, with the Advice of the Legislative Councils, to be appointed as aforesaid, shall have Power and Authority to make Laws and Ordinances for the Peace, Welfare, and good Government of the said Colonies respectively, such Laws and Ordinances not being repugnant to this Act, or to any Charter or Letters Patent or Order in Council which may be issued in pursuance hereof, or to the Laws of England: Provided always, that no Law or Ordinance shall be passed or made, unless the same shall first, by the said Governors respectively, be laid before the said respective Councils, nor unless Notice of the general Objects thereof shall have been sent by the Governor of the Colony for which such Law or Ordinance shall be proposed, to One or more of the Newspapers of such Colony for Insertion, Eight clear Days at least before such Law or Ordinance shall be passed, or unless, in case there be no Newspaper, such Notice shall be given by some other Mode of Public Advertisement, except when the Governor of such Colony shall consider the Circumstances of that Colony to be such as to make it probable that actual Danger would arise from the said Delay of Eight Days, in which Case the Governor and Council shall have Power to pass such Law or Ordinance in such Emergency as they shall deem requisite without any such Notice as aforesaid: Provided also, that in case all or the major Part of the Members of either of the said Councils present at any such Meeting shall dissent from any Law or Ordinance proposed by such Governor, the Members of the said Council so dissenting shall enter upon the Minutes of such Council the Grounds and Reasons of such their Dissent, and in every such Case such proposed Law or Ordinance shall not pass into a Law; and that in any Case where either of the said Governors respectively shall refuse to lay any Proposal of any Law or Ordinance before his respective Council, he shall, on the Request of any Member of such Council, lay before the said Council a Copy of his Refusal thereof, in which Copy the Proposal so refused shall be recited verbatim, and every Member or Members who may disapprove such Refusal shall be at liberty to enter upon the said Minutes the Grounds of such Disapproval.

Laws and Ordinances to be transmitted to the Supreme Court, as to

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Law or Ordinance as to be made as aforesaid, shall, within Seven Days from the Date thereof, be transmitted by the Governor of the said Colonies respectively to the said Supreme Courts, to be there enrolled and recorded, and on the Expiration of Fourteen Days from the Day of the Date thereof every such Law or Ordinance as to be made as aforesaid shall take effect and be binding upon all His Majesty's Subjects and others within the said Colonies respectively, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be known; but if before the Expiration of the said Term of Fourteen Days the Judges of the said Supreme Courts respectively, or either of such Judges, shall transmit to such Governor a Representation that any such Law or Ordinance is repugnant to this Act, or to any Charter or Letters Patent, or Order in Council issued in pursuance hereof, or to the Laws of England, then and upon the Receipt of any such Representation such Governor shall suspend the Operation of such Law or Ordinance, until the same hath been brought by him, together with such Representation as aforesaid, under the Review of the said Legislative Council; and if upon a Review by the said Governor in Council of the said Ordinance the said Governor in Council shall adhere to such Ordinance, a written Notice of such Resolution shall forthwith be transmitted by the said Governor to the Judges of the said Supreme Courts, and such Ordinance shall thenceforward take effect and be binding upon all His Majesty's Subjects within the said Colonies, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be known, any Repugnancy or supposed Repugnancy of such Law or Ordinance to this Act, or to any such Charter, Letters Patent, or Order in Council as aforesaid, or to the Laws of England, notwithstanding, and such Judges shall and they are hereby required, in any such Representation as aforesaid, to state fully and at length the Grounds of such their Opinions; which Representation shall be forthwith transmitted by such Governor to His Majesty through One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

XXIII. And

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Governor for the Time being of the said Colonies respectively shall in Person preside at all the Meetings of the said respective Legislative Councils, except when prevented by Illness or some other adequate Cause; and that in his Absence such other Member of the said Council as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint shall preside at such Meetings; and that such Governor or presiding Member shall be entitled to vote upon all Questions proposed at any such Meeting, and when the Votes are equally divided shall also have an additional or casting Vote.

Governor to preside at Meetings of Council.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all Laws and Statutes in force within the Realm of England at the Time of the passing of this Act, (not being inconsistent herewith, or with any Charter or Letters Patent or Order in Council which may be issued in pursuance hereof) shall be applied in the Administration of Justice in the Courts of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively, as far as the same can be applied within the said Colonies; and as often as any Doubt shall arise as to the Application of any such Laws or Statutes in the said Colonies respectively, it shall be lawful for the Governor of the said Colonies respectively, by and with the Advice of the Legislative Councils of the said Colonies respectively, by Ordinances to be by them for that Purpose made, to declare whether such Laws or Statutes shall be deemed to extend to such Colonies, and to be in force within the same, or to make and establish such Limitations and Modifications of any such Laws and Statutes within the said Colonies respectively as may be deemed expedient in that Behalf: Provided always, that in the meantime, and before any such Ordinances shall be actually made, it shall be the Duty of the said Supreme Courts, as often as any such Doubts shall arise upon the Trial of any Information or Action, or upon any other Proceeding before them, to adjudge and decide as to the Application of any such Laws or Statutes in the said Colonies respectively.

Laws of England to be applied in the Administration of Justice

XXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the said Governors and Councils shall not impose any Tax or Duty, except only such as may be necessary to levy for local Purposes; and the Purposes for which every such Tax or Duty may be so imposed, and to or towards which the Amount thereof is to be appropriated and applied, shall be distinctly and particularly stated in the Body of every Law or Ordinance imposing every such Tax or Duty.

Governors and Councils not to impose Taxes, except for local Purposes.

XXVI. And Whereas an Act was made in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled *An Act to stay Proceedings against any Governor or other Person concerned in imposing and levying Duties in New South Wales; in relation, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, certain Duties; and to empower the said Governor to levy a Duty on Spirits made in the said Colony: And Whereas the said Act hath been continued from time to time by divers Acts of Parliament, and was varied and altered by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of His late Majesty, relating to imposing and levying Duties in New South Wales, in relation to the imposing and levying other Duties on Goods imported into the said Colony; and to amend, for Ten Years, the Payment of Duty on the Importation of certain Goods the Produce of New South Wales; and it is expedient that the said Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third should be made perpetual: Be it therefore enacted, That the said Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of His said late Majesty King George the Third shall be and the same is hereby made perpetual; and that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal, alter, or affect the said last-mentioned Act, or the said Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; any thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

89 G. 3. c. 114. and 3 G. 4. c. 56. allowing certain Powers of Taxation to the Governor, until proposed.

XXVII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers and Authorities vested by the said Acts, or either of them, in the Governor of New South Wales, or the Person administering the Government thereof, shall hereafter be vested in and exercised by the Governor of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively, acting with the Advice and Consent of the respective Legislative Councils of the said Colonies; and that the Produce of the several Duties imposed and made payable under or by virtue of the said Acts of Parliament, or either of them, or under and by virtue of this Act, shall be applied in such Manner and to such Purposes as the said Governors and Councils may from time to time by any such Law or Ordinance appoint, and the Application thereof shall be accounted for to His Majesty in such Manner as the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall appoint.

Powers vested in Governor by English Acts to continue.

Produce of Duties to be applied as Governor may appoint by any Law or Ordinance.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Law or Ordinance so to be made as aforesaid shall, within Six Months from the Date thereof, be transmitted by the Governor for the Time being of the said Colonies respectively to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being; and that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from time to time, as He or They shall think necessary, to signify through One of His or Their Principal Secretaries of State, His or Their Approbation or Disallowance of all such Laws and Ordinances; and that from and immediately after the Time when such Disallowance shall be published in the said Colonies respectively, by Proclamation to be for that Purpose issued by the said Governor, all such Laws and Ordinances shall be null and void, but in case His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall not, within the Space of Four Years from the making of such Laws and Ordinances, signify His or their Disapprobation or Disallowance thereof as aforesaid, then and in that Case all such Laws and Ordinances shall be valid and effectual and have full Force.

Laws and Ordinances to be transmitted to His Majesty's Secretary of State.

XXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all Laws and Ordinances to be made in the said Colonies respectively, and all Orders to be made by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with the Laws and Ordinances to be made with the Advice

Parliament.

Members of the Council to be Justices of the Peace.

Members to take the following Oath.

Advices of His and Their Privy Council, in pursuance of this Act, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks at latest next after the Commencement of each Session.

XXX. And he it further enacted, That the Members for the Time being of the said Council respectively shall, by virtue of such their Office, be Justices of the Peace in and for the whole of the said Colonies of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively, and their Dependences; and the said Members of the Council shall, before they enter upon and discharge the Duties of such their Office, severally take and subscribe, before and in the Presence of the Governor or Acting Governor thereof for the Time being, an Oath in the following Words; that is to say,

‘ I Do swear, That I will, to the best of my Judgment and Ability, faithfully advise and assist the Governor of the Colony of New South Wales and its Dependences [or Van Diemen's Land and its Dependences] in all such Matters as shall be brought under my Consideration as a Member of the Council of the said Colony.
‘ So help me GOD.’

XXXI. And he it further enacted, That in case of the Death, Resignation, Absence, or Incapacity of any Member or Members of the said Legislative Councils, the Governors of the said Colonies respectively shall and may appoint some fit and proper Person to act in the Place and Stead of such Person or Persons, until the Vacancy or Vacancies so created shall be filled up by an Appointment to be made by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in manner aforesaid.

XXXII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for enabling His Majesty to authorize the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of such Places beyond the Seas, to which Felons or other Offenders may be transported, to remit the Sentence of such Offenders, after reciving several Orders made by His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, when, by His Majesty had declared and appointed that the Eastern Coast of New South Wales, and the Islands thereunto adjacent, should be the Place or Places beyond Sea to which certain Felons and other Offenders should be conveyed and transported, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by His Commission under the Great Seal, to authorize the Governor or Lieutenant Governor for the Time being of such Place or Places as aforesaid, by any Instrument in Writing under the Seal of the Government in which such Place or Places should be named, to remit, either absolutely or conditionally, the Whole or any Part of the Time or Term for which any such Felons or Offenders should have been or should thereafter be respectively conveyed or transported to such Place or Places; and it was further enacted, that such Governor or Lieutenant Governor should, by the first Opportunity, transmit to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State Duplicates of every Instrument as aforesaid, and that the Names of such Felons or other Offenders respectively, which should be contained in such Duplicates, should be inserted in the next General Pardon which should pass under the Great Seal of Great Britain after the Receipt of such Duplicates: And Whereas in virtue of the said Act, and of His Majesty's Commission under the Great Seal, the Governors of New South Wales for the Time being have from time to time remitted the Time or Term for which divers Felons and other Offenders have been transported to the said Places, but the Duplicates of the several Instruments by which such Times or Terms of Transportation were remitted have not been regularly transmitted to England, and the Names of the Felons or other Offenders respectively therein contained have not been inserted in any General Pardon under the Great Seal of Great Britain: Be it further enacted, That all Instruments in Writing made in conformity with the said Act before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, whereby any Governor or Lieutenant Governor of New South Wales for the Time being remitted or shortened the Time or Term of Transportation of any Felons or Offenders as aforesaid, shall have and shall be deemed and taken to have had within New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, and their Dependences, from the Days of the respective Dates of such several Instruments, such and the like Force and Effect in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes, as any General Pardon, if passed under the Great Seal aforesaid, and including the Names of such Felons or other Offenders respectively, could or would have had; and the same Instruments, whenever they shall be ratified by His Majesty, of His Majesty shall be pleased to ratify the same, and such Ratification shall be notified in Writing by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall have the same Force and Effect within this Realm, and all other His Majesty's Dominions, from the Days of the respective Dates of such several Instruments, or from such other Days as shall be expressed in such Ratifications respectively.

XXXIII. And he it further enacted, That all Instruments in Writing, whereby any Governor of New South Wales or Van Diemen's Land respectively shall hereafter remit or shorten the Time or Term of Transportation of any Felons or other Offenders in pursuance of the said Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, shall by such Governor be transmitted to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for His and Their Approbation or Allowance; and in case His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall, through One of His or Their Principal Secretaries of State, signify His or Their Approbation or Allowance of any such Remission or shortening of any such Time or Term of Transportation as aforesaid, then and in such Case only every such Instrument so transmitted as aforesaid shall be valid and effectual, and shall have and shall be deemed and taken from the Date thereof to have had within New South Wales and the Dependences thereof, but not elsewhere, such and the same Effect in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes, as if a General Pardon had passed under the Great Seal aforesaid, on the Days of the Dates of such Instruments respectively, in which the Names of such Felons or Offenders as aforesaid had been included.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted and declared, That any Person or Persons who shall in any Manner contrive, aid, abet, or assist in the Escape or intended Escape from any Part of New South Wales or Van Diemen's Land, or the Dependencies thereof, of any Person or Persons then being under or by virtue of any Judgment or Sentence of Transportation, for any Term not then expired, or of any Judgment or Sentence pronounced in any Court of competent Jurisdiction in the said Colony or its Dependencies, in, and in and to be deemed and taken to be, guilty of a Misdemeanour, and shall incur and be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five hundred Pounds, or to Imprisonment for any Time not exceeding Two Years, or to both, at the Discretion of the Court before which any such Person or Persons may be convicted; and such Misdemeanour shall and may be tried and enquired of by the Supreme Courts of New South Wales or of Van Diemen's Land respectively, or by His Majesty's Court of King's Bench at Westminster, or by any Court of Record in any of His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, or Foreign Dominions.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Artificer, Clerk, Domestic Servant, Handicraftsman, Mechanic, Gardener, Servant in Husbandry or other Labourer, not being under the Age of Eighteen Years, by Indenture duly executed, and without a Stamp, to contract with any Person or Persons about to proceed to or actually resident in New South Wales or Van Diemen's Land, or the respective Dependencies thereof, or with the Agent or Agents of such Person or Persons, faithfully to serve, or to proceed to and faithfully serve such Person or Persons in the said Colonies, or the respective Dependencies thereof, for any Period not exceeding the full Term of seven Years, to be computed from the Day of the Date of such Indenture.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons with whom such Artificer, Clerk, Domestic Servant, Handicraftsman, Mechanic, Gardener, Servant in Husbandry, or other Labourer, shall have so contracted to serve as aforesaid, to maintain an Action on the Case against any Person or Persons who shall employ, retain, harbour, or conceal any such Artificer, Clerk, Domestic Servant, Handicraftsman, Mechanic, Gardener, Servant in Husbandry, or other Labourer, with Intent to deprive the Employer of any such Person or Persons of his, her, or their Services, or otherwise with Intent to defraud or injure such Employer, and in case the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any such Action shall recover a Verdict, he, she, or they shall, in addition to the Damages found by such Verdict, recover and have Treble Costs.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Courts of Sessions, or any Two or more Justices of the Peace in New South Wales or Van Diemen's Land, or the respective Dependencies thereof, upon Complaint made upon Oath, to punish by Fine or Imprisonment, or both, any wilful Violation of the Provisions of such Indentures as aforesaid by, or any Misdemeanour, Misconduct, or Unbehaviour of, such Artificer, Clerk, Domestic Servant, Handicraftsman, Mechanic, Gardener, Servant in Husbandry, or other Labourer, in such his Service or Employment as aforesaid; and also to hear and determine all Complaints, Differences, and Disputes which shall happen and arise between any such Artificer, Clerk, Domestic Servant, Handicraftsman, Mechanic, Gardener, Servant in Husbandry, or other Labourer, and the Person or Persons whom he or she shall have so contracted to serve as aforesaid, and to make such Order or Award in every such Case as to such Courts of Sessions or Justices respectively shall seem just, and every such Order or Award to enforce by Execution against the Goods, Effects, or other Property of the Party or Parties against whom such Order or Award shall be made, or by Arrest of the Person, and Imprisonment for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall invalidate or be construed to invalidate any Contract which shall have been heretofore entered into by any Artificer, Handicraftsman, Clerk, Mechanic, Gardener, Servant in Husbandry, or other Labourer, with any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, in pursuance or by virtue of the said Act passed in the Fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, or as pursuance or by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled *An Act for granting certain Powers and authorities to a Company to be incorporated by Charter, to be called "The Australasian Agricultural Company," for the Colonization and Improvement of Waste Lands in the Colony of New South Wales, and for other Purposes relating thereto; or in pursuance or by virtue of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled *An Act for granting certain Powers and authorities to a Company to be incorporated by Charter, to be called "The Van Diemen's Land Company," for the Colonization and Improvement of Waste Lands in His Majesty's Island of Van Diemen's Land, and for other Purposes relating thereto; and all such Artificers, and other Persons or Persons as aforesaid, having entered into any such Contract as aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to be proceeded against in such and the same Manner as is provided in like Cases in and by this Act, and in case of any such Artificers or other Persons as aforesaid being employed, retained, harboured, or concealed by any Person or Persons in the said Colony, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, with whom such Contract shall have been entered into, to bring and maintain such and the like Actions against the Persons or Persons so employing, retaining, harbouring, or concealing them or Him, as may be brought and maintained in such and the like Cases under and by virtue of this Act.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect in the said Colonies of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land respectively upon and from the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and from and after that Day the said Act so passed as aforesaid in the Fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XL. And be it further enacted and declared, That for the Purposes and within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Officers for the Time being administering the Government of the said Colonies respectively shall, in the Absence of the Governors thereof respectively, be deemed and taken to be the Governors of such Colonies respectively.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the Thirty-first Day of December in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and thenceforward until the End of the next ensuing Session of Parliament.

C & P. LXXXIV.

An Act to continue an Act for amending and consolidating the Laws relating to the Abolition of the Slave Trade.

[24th July 1828.]

34-G. 4-113.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Abolition of the Slave Trade, it is amongst other Things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by any Order or Orders to be by Him or Them from time to time issued, with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, to authorize and permit, until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and to the End of the next ensuing Session of Parliament, and so longer, the Removal of any Slaves from any Island in the West Indies belonging to or in the Possession of His Majesty, to any other Island in the West Indies belonging to or in the Possession of His Majesty, in case it shall be made appear to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and Him or Their Council, that such Removal is essential to the Welfare of the Slaves proposed to be so removed; and it is thereby provided, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by any such Order or Orders as aforesaid, to make and establish such Regulations, Conditions, and Regulations, for the Benefit of such Slaves in the Island to which they may be so removed, as to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with the Advice of His or Their Council, may seem meet, and to take Security in Double the Value of the Slaves so to be removed (such Value to be estimated according to the Price of Slaves in the Island to which such Slaves are to be taken), by Bond or Recognizance to be made and entered into by the Person or Persons to or on the Application of whom such Licence may be granted, with at least Two sufficient Sureties, for the due and faithful Observance and Performance of all such Regulations, Conditions, and Regulations as aforesaid; and all Orders in Council to be so issued as aforesaid shall be had before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks next after the Commencement of such Session: And Whereas it is expedient that the Powers so vested as aforesaid in His Majesty in Council, by the said recited Act, should be still further continued: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Powers so vested as aforesaid in His Majesty in Council, in and by the said recited Act, shall continue and be vested in His Majesty in Council, in such and the same Manner, and subject to all such and the same Conditions and Regulations, as in the said Act are provided and contained, until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and further until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, and so longer.

The Powers vested in His Majesty by the recited Act continued to 20 July 1828.

II. And Whereas it is by the said Act amongst other Things provided, that where Two or more Islands are comprised in the same Colonial Government, nothing therein contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent any Proprietor of Slaves, lawfully being in any One of such Islands, from carrying away or removing such Slaves to any other Island within the same Government, for the Purpose of cultivating any Estate or Plantation belonging to such Proprietor himself; provided that such special Purpose of the Removal shall previously be made to appear to the Satisfaction of the Governor or Lieutenant Governor, or other Person having the chief Civil Command for the Time being within such Government, who thereupon shall and may grant a Licence for such Removal, specifying therein the special Cause thereof: but it is enacted, that before any Slave or Slaves shall, by virtue of any such Licence, be so removed or embarked on board of any Ship or Vessel for that Purpose, such Licences or Permits, and such Certificates, shall be obtained in and thereafter mentioned and decreed in regard to Domestic Slaves attending on their Owner or Master or his Family by Sea; and it is by the said Act further provided, that nothing therein contained shall prevent any Slave, who shall be really and truly the Domestic Servant of any Person residing or being in any Island, Colony, Plantation, or Territory, belonging to or under the Dominion or in the Possession of His Majesty, from attending such his Owner or Master or any Part of his Family, by Sea, to any Place whatever; nevertheless, under certain Regulations therein mentioned, and especially under the Regulations that the Name and Occupation of every such Domestic Slave or Slaves shall be inserted in or endorsed upon the Clearance or Permit to depart of such Ship or Vessel, by or in the Presence of the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Customs of the Port or Place from which such Ship or Vessel shall clear Outwards on any Voyage, who shall, without Fee or Reward, certify under his Hand that the Slave or Slaves so embarked or carried were reported or decreed to him as Domestic Servants: And Whereas it may be necessary to effect a Removal of Slaves, under the Provisions aforesaid, from Islands in which no Custom House is established, and in such Cases it would be impossible to comply with the Regulations aforesaid respecting Clearances: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor or other Person administering the Government of any of His Majesty's Colonies, by Commission under his Hand and Seal,

In Colonies where no Custom House to appoint some fit and proper Person or Persons in any One or more Island or Islands, in any such Colony wherein no Custom House shall be established, for the special Purpose of granting such Charters and Certificates as aforesaid; and all Charters and Certificates to be granted by any Person or Persons appointed in manner aforesaid shall be to all Intents and Purposes as valid and effectual as if the same had been granted by any Collector, Comptroller, or other Officer of Customs, as in the said recited Act in that behalf mentioned: Provided always, that every such Commission shall and may from time to time be revoked and renewed by any such Governor, as Occasion may require.

is established, the Governor may appoint some Person to grant Charters and Certificates for the Removal of Slaves.

C A P. LXXXV.

[25th July 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and intituled An Act to restrain the Disposition of Lands whereby the same become unalienable, it was amongst other Things enacted, that after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and thirty-six no Manors, Lands, Tenements, Herots, Advowsons, or other Hereditaments, corporeal or incorporeal, whatsoever, should be given, granted, aliened, leased, released, transferred, assigned, or appoyed, or anyways conveyed or settled to or upon any Person or Persons, Bodies Polite or Corporate, or otherwise, for any Estate or Interest whatsoever, or anyways charged or incumbered by any Person or Persons whatsoever, in Trust or for the Benefit of any Charitable Uses whatsoever, unless such Gifts, Conveyances, Appointments, or Settlements of any such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments were made by Deed indented, sealed and delivered in the Presence of Two at least credible Witnesses, Twelve Calendar Months at the least before the Death of such Donor or Grantor, (including the Days of the Execution and Death), and were enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery within Six Calendar Months next after the Execution thereof, and unless the same were made to take Effect in Possession, for the Charitable Use intended, immediately from the making thereof, and were without any Power of Revocation, Reservation, Trust, Condition, Limitation, Clause, or Agreement whatsoever, for the Benefit of the Donor or Grantor, or of any Person or Persons claiming under him; but it was thereby provided, that nothing theretofore regulated, relating to the Sealing and Delivery of any Deed or Deeds Twelve Calendar Months at least before the Death of the Grantor, should extend or be construed to extend to any Purchase of any Estate or Interest in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to be made really and bona fide for a full and valuable Consideration actually paid at or before the making such Conveyance, without Fraud or Collusion; and it was thereby enacted, that all Gifts, Grants, Appointments, Assignments, Transfers, and Settlements whatsoever, of any Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, or of any Estate or Interest therein, or of any Charge or Incumbrance affecting or to affect any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to or in Trust for any Charitable Use whatsoever, which should at any Time after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and thirty-six be made in any other Manner or Form than by the said Act was directed and appoyed, should be absolutely and in all Intents and Purposes null and void: And Whereas the said Provision contained in the said recited Act, in relation to the Purchase of any Estate or Interest in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for a full and valuable Consideration, was only intended to prevent such Purchases from being avoided by reason of the Death of the Grantor within Twelve Calendar Months after the Sealing and Delivery of the Deed or Deeds relating thereto: And Whereas it has notwithstanding been generally apprehended that the said last-mentioned Provision was intended wholly to exempt such Purchases from the Operation of the said Act, and in consequence thereof the Formalities by the said Act prescribed, in relation to the Conveyance of Hereditaments to Charitable Uses, have in divers Instances been omitted on Purchases for a full and valuable Consideration, and by reason of such Omission the Title to such Hereditaments may be considered defective: And Whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for remedying such Defect in manner hereafter mentioned: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted: and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Estate or Interest therein, have or has been purchased for a full and valuable Consideration, in Trust or for the Benefit of any Charitable Uses whatsoever, and such full and valuable Consideration has been actually paid for the same, every Deed or other Assurance already made for the Purpose of conveying or assuring such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, Estate or Interest as aforesaid, in Trust or for the Benefit of such Charitable Uses, if made to take Effect in Possession, for the Charitable Use intended, immediately from the making thereof, and without any Power of Revocation, Reservation, Trust, Condition, Limitation, Clause, or Agreement whatsoever, for the Benefit of the Grantor, or of any Person or Persons claiming under him, shall be as good and valid, and of the same Effect, both for establishing derivative Titles, and in all other respects, as if the several Formalities by the said Act prescribed had been duly observed and performed.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to give Effect to any Deed or other Assurance heretofore made, so far as the same has been already avoided by Statute of Law or in Equity, or by any other legal or equitable Means whatsoever, or to effect or prejudice any Suit at Law or in Equity actually commenced for avoiding any such Deed or other Assurance, or

b. 0. a. 2. 30

Deeds relating to Purchase of Lands for Charitable Purposes to be valid, although the Formalities prescribed by the recited Act have not been duly performed.

And as to the said Act and to the same avoided by Statute at Law.

for defrauding the Charitable Uses in Trust or for the Benefit of which such Deed or other Assurance may have been made.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to dispense with any of the said several Formalities prescribed by the said recited Act, in relation to any Deed or other Assurance which shall be made after the passing of this present Act.

An Act to continue until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, respecting deserted Children in Ireland. [25th July 1828.]

4 G. 4. c. 184.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Laws respecting deserted Children in Ireland, which Act was to continue in force for Two Years from the passing thereof; and by an Act of the last Session of Parliament the said Act was continued and is in force until the End of the present Session of Parliament; and it is expedient to continue the same for a further Time; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be and the same is hereby further continued in force until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Sum of Five Pounds and Fifty Shillings, mentioned and referred to in the said Act of the Sixth Year of His present Majesty as payable for the Purpose in the said Act mentioned, shall from and after the passing of the Act be taken and intended as Five Pounds and Fifty Shillings of the Currency of the United Kingdom.

C A P. LXXXVIII.

An Act to repeal certain Provisions in several Acts relating to the Butter Trade in Ireland.

[25th July 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of the Butter Trade in Ireland, it is amongst other Things enacted, that the Public Weigh quarter or Joint Public Weigh-masters in the said Act mentioned, be or their Deputy or Deputies, be and are thereby empowered and required to make Allowance on account of Seakage as therein mentioned: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for the further Regulation of the Butter Trade in Ireland, it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act no Person shall sell or expose to Sale any Cask or Casks within any City or Liberties thereof, Town Corporate, Place of Export, or Market Town in Ireland, for packing of Butter for Sale or Export, or shall make up or pack any Butter in any Cask or Casks to be exposed to Sale or for Export in such City, Town Corporate, or Market Town, or Place of Export, unless each Cask or Casks be made of good seasoned Oak or Ash, Spencers, or Beech (whereof no Part to be of Bog Timber), and shall be full bound and made tight, so that each Cask shall hold Pickle, with Head and Bottom equally doled, and set to the Cross with good and sufficient Hoops on each Cask, all well twigged with good fresh Oiler Twigs: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of the Butter Trade of the City of Cork and the Liberties thereof, and for the better Regulation of that said City in the other Matters therein mentioned, and in respect to Lighters and Pannels playing for Hire, and also respecting Sides Chaires, Coaches, and Chaises playing for Hire within the City and Liberties of the City of Cork, it is enacted that no Person or Persons shall sell or expose to Sale any Cask or Casks within said City or Liberties, for packing of Butter, nor any rendered Hog's Lard for Sale, or shall make up or pack any Butter or rendered Hog's Lard for Sale, or shall make up or pack any Butter or rendered Hog's Lard, in any Cask or Casks to be exposed to Sale in said City or Liberties, unless each Cask or Casks be made of good seasoned Oak, Ash, Sycamore, or Beech, whereof no Part to be Bog Timber, and shall be made tight so that they shall hold Pickle, with Head and Bottom equally doled, and set to the Cross with Twelve good sufficient Hoops on each Cask, all well twigged with good fresh Oiler Twigs: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Third Year of the present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for amending the several Acts in force for making wide and convenient Streets, Ways, and Passages in the City of Cork and the Liberties thereof, and for paving, cleansing, lighting, and otherwise improving the said City, and for regulating the Court of Conscience established therein, certain other Provisions are made concerning the Firms or Casks in which Butter is to be packed: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said Acts as has been heretofore recited, of the said Fifty-second, Fifty-third, and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, and of the Third Year of the Reign of the present Majesty, ' He is therefore and it is hereby enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Acts as passed as aforesaid in the Fifty-second, Fifty-third, and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, and in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as is hereinbefore recited, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

‘the said Commissioners, will amount to the Sum of Three Millions: Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much and such Parts of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as directs the issuing of the said Sum of Five Millions to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purposes required by the said Act, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, and until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, unless other Provision shall in the meantime be made by Parliament, there shall be set apart and issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, to be by them applied towards the Reduction of the National Debt, such Sum of Money as, together with the Interest on all Capital Stock whatever which on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight was standing in the Names of the said Commissioners, either on account of the Sinking Fund, or on account of Stock transferred to them for the Purchase of Life Annuities, shall not exceed the Sum of Three Millions; and such Sum is hereby made chargeable on the said Consolidated Fund, and shall be issued by Four equal quarterly Payments in each Year; and such quarterly Payments are hereby made chargeable on the said Consolidated Fund from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and shall in future be paid from time to time either upon the Bank of England or into the Bank of Ireland, in such Proportions and at such Times in each Quarter of a Year as the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall require, according to the Provisions and Directions of any Act or Acts in force respecting Sums issued from the said Exchequer towards the Reduction of the National Debt; and for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of the Interest payable on the Stock standing in the Names of the said Commissioners on the said Accounts on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, such Amount shall be certified to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury and to the Auditor of the Exchequer, in Writing under the Hand of the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, for the Reduction of the National Debt.

III. ‘And Whereas the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, Part of the Quarterly Sum of One million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, issuable under the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, was issued out of the Consolidated Fund to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt on the Seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, in pursuance of the said recited Act; and it is expedient that the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds should be deemed and taken to be Part of the quarterly Sum of Seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds due on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund to the said Commissioners under the Provisions of this Act: Be it enacted, That between the Day of the passing of this Act and the Fifth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, the further Sum of two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, in addition to the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds heretofore mentioned, shall be issued out of the said Consolidated Fund to the said Commissioners, to complete the Sum of Seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds due on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary thereof in any law notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to apply from time to time, if they shall deem it expedient so to do, and under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall direct, any Part or Parts of the Sums of Money which shall be placed to their Account in pursuance of this Act, or any Part of the Appropriation thereof, in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills held by any Person or Persons or any Body, Public or Corporate whatever; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in any law notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall cause all Exchequer Bills purchased by them or on their Account, under the Provisions of this Act, to be delivered to the Paymasters of Exchequer Bills to be cancelled within Five Days next after the Expiration of the Quarter of the Year in which such Bills shall have been so purchased by the said Commissioners; and the said Payments are hereby required, upon the Delivery thereof, to cancel such Exchequer Bills accordingly.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the several Regulations contained in the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be applied in the Execution of this Act, except only so far as the same are repealed or altered by this Act.

An Act to authorize the Advance of a certain Sum out of the Consolidated Fund for the Completion of the Welland Canal Navigation in Upper Canada. [23rd July 1828.]

‘WHEREAS the Welland Canal Navigation, for connecting the Waters of Lakes Erie and Ontario in Upper Canada, a Work which, when completed, will be of great Public Utility: Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, to order and direct that any Sum of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds in the whole, shall be lent and advanced and paid, out of the Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom, to the President and Directors of the Company for making the said Canal, to be applied by the said President and Directors towards defraying the Expenses of completing the said Canal; and such Sum of Money shall be so lent and advanced at such Times and in such Proportions as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall think fit and proper; and the Repayment of all Sums of Money so advanced under this Act, with Interest, within the Term of Ten Years from the passing of this Act, shall be secured by an Assignment of the Tolls and Profits of the said Canal to such Persons, in such Manner, and under such Conditions and Regulations, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall order and direct.

C A P. XCII.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Savings Banks.

[25th July 1828.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Laws relative to Savings Banks in England and Ireland, and to consolidate the same in One Act, and to make other Provisions respecting Savings Banks; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act to encourage the Establishment of Banks for Savings in Ireland, and also an Act passed in the same Year, intitled An Act to encourage the Establishment of Banks for Savings in England; and also an Act passed in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act to amend an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament to encourage the Establishment of Banks for Savings in England; and also an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend Two Acts of the Fifty-seventh and Fifty-eighth Years of His late Majesty, for the Encouragement of Banks for Savings in England; and also an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for the Encouragement of Banks for Savings in England and Ireland; shall be and the same are hereby, from and after the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, repealed: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall invalidate or annul any Payments, Receipts, or Appointments made, or Proceedings had, or Bonds or Securities taken or entered into, or Drafts, Powers of Attorney, Certificates, Orders, or other Instruments whatsoever, executed under the Authority of any of the hereby repealed Acts.

II. And Whereas certain Banks for Savings have been established in England and Ireland, for the safe Custody and Increase of small Savings belonging to the industrious Classes of His Majesty's Subjects, and it is expedient to give Protection to such Institutions and the Funds thereby established, and to afford Encouragement to others to form the like Institutions: Be it enacted, That if any Number of Persons have formed or shall form any Society in any Part of England or Ireland, for the Purpose of establishing and maintaining any Institution in the Nature of a Bank to receive Deposits of Money for the Benefit of the Persons depositing the same, to accumulate the Produce of so much thereof as shall not be required by the Depositors, their Executors or Administrators, at Compound Interest, and to return the Whole or any Part of such Deposit and the Produce thereof to the Depositors, their Executors or Administrators (deducting out of such Produce so much as shall be required for the necessary Expenses attending the Management of such Institutions), but deriving no Benefit whatsoever from any such Deposit or the Produce thereof, and shall be desirous of having the Benefit of the Provisions of this Act, such Persons shall cause the Rules and Regulations established or to be established for the Management of such Institution to be entered, deposited, and filed in manner hereinafter directed, and thereupon shall be deemed to be entitled to and shall have the Benefit of the Provisions contained in this Act: Provided always, that the Privilege of paying Money into the Banks of England or Ireland, and of receiving Receipts for the same, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be extended to such Institutions as may have formed or may hereafter form their Rules and Regulations according to the Provisions of this Act; and it shall and may be lawful for the Treasurers of such Institutions respectively to accept any Funds already accumulated by such Institutions, and which shall not have been accepted at the Time of the passing of this Act, and to receive Receipts for the same in manner authorized by this Act: Provided nevertheless, that no such Institution to be hereafter formed shall have or be entitled to the Benefit of the Provisions in this Act contained, unless the Formation of the same shall have been sanctioned and approved of by the Justices of the County, Riding, Division, or Place where such Institution is intended to be held, or, in the General Quarter Sessions, and by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or, on their Behalf, by the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners.

III. And be it further enacted, That no such Institution as aforesaid shall have the Benefit of this Act, unless the Rules and Regulations for the Management thereof shall be entered in a Book or Books to be kept by an Officer of such Institution to be appointed for that Purpose, and which Book or Books shall be open at all reasonable Times for the Inspection of the Persons making Deposits in the Funds of such Institution, and unless such Rules and Regulations shall be duly transcribed, on Parchment, and such Transcript deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, or Place wherein such Institution shall be established; which Transcript shall be filed by such Clerk of the Peace with the Rolls of the Sessions of the Peace in his Custody, and a Certificate of the Instrument thereof shall be signed by such

IV. And be it further enacted, That before a Transcript of the Rules and Regulations, or Alterations in or Amendments of former Rules or Regulations, for the Management of any Institution requiring the Benefit of this Act, shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, or Place wherein such Institution shall be established, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, such Transcript shall be submitted by the Trustees or Managers for the Time being of such respective Institution, and at the Expense of the said Institution, to a Barriester at Law to be appointed by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether the same are in conformity to Law, and with the Provisions of this Act; and that the said Barriester shall give a Certificate thereof, or point out in what Part or Parts they are repugnant thereto; and the Fee to be paid to such Barriester for perusing the Rules, Regulations, Alterations, or Amendments of each respective Institution, and giving such Certificate as aforesaid, shall not at any one Time exceed the Sum of One Guinea; and such Transcript shall be signed by Two Trustees, and shall, together with the Certificate of such Barriester as hereinafter mentioned, be laid before the Justices for such County, Riding, Division, or Place, at the General or Quarter Sessions next after the Time when such Transcript shall have been so deposited; and it shall be lawful for such Justices then and there present, after due Examination thereof, to reject and disapprove of any Part or Parts thereof, or to allow and confirm the said Transcript, or such Part or Parts thereof as shall be conformable to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, without requiring the Certificate or Approval of any other Barriester: Provided always, that the said Justices shall signify such Rejection or Disapproval of any One or more of the Rules, Orders, and Regulations contained in such Transcript, by the Words "Rejected" or "Disapproved" written opposite such Rule or Rules, Order or Orders, Regulation or Regulations, and signed by the Chairman of such Sessions; and such Rule or Rules, Order or Orders, Regulation or Regulations as shall be so rejected or disapproved, shall not be in force from the Time of such Rejection or Disapproval, any thing in this Act, or in any such Rules, Orders, and Regulations, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that the said Clerk of the Peace do, within the Space of Ten Days next after such Rejection or Disapproval, give Notice thereof in Writing to the Two Trustees of such Institution, by whom the Transcript of such Rules, Orders, and Regulations shall be agreed as aforesaid; and provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any Rule making any Alteration in the Hours of Attendance at any such Institution as aforesaid, to be laid before such Barriester as aforesaid, previous to the Intimation thereof.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Rules and Regulations from time to time made and in force for the Management of such Institution as aforesaid, and duly entered in such Book or Books as aforesaid, and deposited with such Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several Members and Officers of such Institution, and the several Depositors therein and their Representatives, all of whom shall be deemed and taken to have full Notice thereof by such Entry and Deposit as aforesaid; and the Entry of such Rules and Regulations in such Book or Books as aforesaid, or the Transcript thereof deposited with such Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, or a true Copy of such Transcript examined with the Original, and proved to be a true Copy, shall be received as Evidence of such Rules and Regulations respectively in all Cases; and no Court shall be brought or allowed to remove any such Rules or Regulations into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record; and every Copy of any such Transcript deposited with any Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid shall be made without Fee or Reward, except the actual Expense of making such Copy; and such Copy shall not be subject to any Stamp Duty.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no such Institution as aforesaid shall have the Benefit of this Act, unless it shall be expressly provided by the Rules and Regulations for the Management thereof, that no Person or Persons, being Treasurer, Trustee, or Manager of such Institution, or having any Control in the Management thereof, shall derive any Benefit from any Deposit made in such Institution, save only and except such Salaries and Allowances or other necessary Expenses as shall according to such Rules and Regulations be provided for the Charges of managing such Institution, and for Remuneration to Officers employed in the Management thereof, exclusive of the Treasurer or Treasurers, Trustee or Trustees, Manager or Managers, or other Persons being Directors in the Management of such Institution, who shall not directly or indirectly have any Salary, Allowance, Profit, or Benefit whatsoever therefrom, beyond their actual Expenses for the Purpose of such Institution.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Treasurer, Actuary, or Cashier, who shall be intrusted with the Receipt or Custody of any Sum of Money subscribed or deposited for the Purpose of such Institution, or any Interest or Dividend from time to time accruing therefrom, and every Officer or other Person receiving any Salary or Allowance for their Services from the Funds of any Savings Banks, unless he shall already have given good and sufficient Security, shall give good and sufficient Security, to be approved of by not less than Two Trustees and Three Managers of each Savings Bank, for the just and faithful Execution of such Office or Trust; and such Security shall be given by Bond or Bonds to the Clerk of the Peace for the County, County of a City, or County of a Town, Riding, Division, or Place, or to the Town Clerk of the Place where such Institution shall be established, for the Time being, without Fee or Reward; and in case of Forfeiture it shall be lawful for the Trustees or Managers for the Time being of such Institution to sue upon such Bond or Bonds in the Name of such Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk for the Time being, and to carry on such Suit at the Costs and Charges and for the Use of the said Institution, fully indemnifying and saving themselves such Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk from all Costs and Charges in respect of such Suit; and no Bond so to be so given shall be subject to or charged or chargeable with any Stamp Duty whatever.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Monies, Goods, Chattels, and Effects whatever, and all Securities for Money or other obligatory Instruments, and Endowments or Manuements, and all other Effects whatever, and all Rights or Claims belonging to or had by such Institution, shall be vested in the Trustees or Trustees of such Institution for the Time being, for the Use and Benefit of such Institution, and the respective Depositors therein, their respective Executors or Administrators, according to their respective Claims and Interests, and after the Death or Removal of any Trustee or Trustees, such vest in the succeeding Trustee or Trustees, for the same Estate and Interest as the former Trustee or Trustees had therein, and subject to the same Trusts, without any Assignment or Conveyance whatever, and also shall, for all Purposes of Action or Suit, as well Criminal as Civil, in Law or in Equity, in any wise touching or concerning the same, be deemed and taken to be, and shall in every such Proceeding (where necessary) be deemed to be, the Property of the Person or Persons appointed to the Office of Trustee or Trustees of such Institution for the Time being, in his, her, or their proper Name or Names, without further Description; and such Person or Persons shall and they are hereby respectively authorized to bring or defend, or cause to be brought or defended, any Action, Suit, or Prosecution, Criminal as well as Civil, in Law or Equity, touching or concerning the Property, Right, or Claim aforesaid or belonging to or had by such Institution; and such Person or Persons to be appointed shall and may, in all Cases concerning the Property, Right, or Claim aforesaid of such Institution, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in his, her, or their proper Name or Names, as Trustee or Trustees of such Institution, without other Description; and no such Suit, Action, or Prosecution shall be discontinued or abate by the Death of such Person or Persons, or his or their Removal from the Office of Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid, but the same shall and may be proceeded in by the succeeding Trustee or Trustees in the proper Name or Names of the Person or Persons commencing the same, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; and such succeeding Trustee or Trustees shall pay or receive like Costs, as if the Action or Suit had been commenced in his or their Name or Names, for the Benefit of, or to be reimbursed from the Funds of such Institution.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Trustee or Manager shall be personally liable, except for his own Acts and Deeds, nor for any thing done by him in virtue of his Office in the Execution of this Act, except in Cases where he shall be guilty of wilful Neglect or Default.

X. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons who shall have or receive any Part of the Monies, Effects, or Funds of or belonging to such Institution, or shall in any Manner have been or shall be intrusted with the Disposition, Management, or Custody thereof, or of any Securities, Bonds, or Papers, or Property relating to the same, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, and Auditors respectively, shall, upon Demand made in pursuance of any Order of not less than Two Trustees and Three Managers of such Institution, or at any General Meeting of the Trustees or Managers thereof, give in his, her, or their Account or Accounts to the said Trustees or Managers, or to each General Meeting of such Institution, or to such other Person or Persons who shall be nominated to receive the same, to be examined and allowed or disallowed by the said Trustees or Managers respectively, and shall, on the like Demand, pay over all the Monies remaining in his or their Hands, and assign and transfer or deliver all Securities and Effects, Bonds, Papers, and Property, in his or their Hands or Custody, to such Person or Persons as the said Trustees or Managers shall appoint; and in case of any Neglect or Refusal to deliver such Account, or to pay over such Monies, or to assign, transfer, or deliver such Securities, Effects, Funds, Bonds, Papers, or Property, in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful to and for the Trustee or Trustees of such Institution for the Time being to exhibit a Petition to the Justices of the Peace, at their General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, or Place wherein such Institution shall be established, who shall and may proceed thereupon in a summary Way, and make such Order decrees, upon hearing all Parties concerned, as to such Court in their Discretion shall seem just, which Order shall be final and conclusive; and all Assignments, Sales, and Transfers made in pursuance of such Order, shall be good and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the several Sums of Money belonging to any Savings Bank, which the Trustees of such Savings Bank respectively are authorized to invest under this Act, or under any Rules or Regulations of any such Savings Bank, shall be paid into and invested in the Bank of England or the Bank of Ireland, as the Case may require, in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, according to the Provisions of this Act enabling such Trustees to make Investments in the Names of the said Commissioners, and no such Sum or Sums shall be paid or held out by the Trustees of such Savings Bank in any other Manner or upon any other Security whatever, except such Sums of Money as from time to time shall necessarily remain in the Hands of the Treasurer or Treasurers to answer the Exigencies thereof, shall necessarily remain in the Hands of the Treasurer or Treasurers to answer the Exigencies thereof, that nothing herein contained shall restrain or prevent any Depositor, or any Trustee or Trustees acting on behalf of any Depositor or Depositors of any Friendly Society, or any charitable or pious Institution or Society, from withdrawing from any such Savings Bank any Sum or Sums of Money which shall have been deposited by such Depositor, Friendly Society, charitable or pious Institution or Society, and investing the same in any other Securities: Provided always, that the Trustees of any Institution already established, or which shall take the Benefit of this Act in manner hereinafter provided, shall be and they are hereby empowered to pay into the Banks of England or Ireland, as the Case may be, any Sum or Sums of Money, not being less than Fifty Pounds, to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, upon the Declaration of the Trustees of such Institution, or any Two or more of them, that such Monies belong exclusively to the Institution for which such Payment is intended to be made, whether such Monies having been deposited therein before the passing of this Act, or hereafter shall be deposited therein; and the Cashier or Cashiers of the Banks of England and Ireland respectively are hereby required to receive all such Monies, and to place and Commisars in the Books of the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, designated "The Fund for the Banks for Savings." Provided always, that previous to any Payment being made into the Banks of England or Ireland as aforesaid, the Person or Persons applying for that Purpose shall in all Cases produce to the Officer of the said Commissioners, at their Office in London or Dublin, as the Case may be, an Order under the Hands of Two of the Trustees of such Institution or the Account of which such Payment is to be made.

XII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prevent the Trustees of any Savings Bank, already established or to be established, receiving any Sum or Sums of Money from any Depositor for any Purpose except to be paid into the Bank to the Account of the Commissioners for Redemption of the National Debt; and that it shall be lawful for such Trustees to apply any such Sum or Sums of Money in any other Manner for the Benefit of the several Depositors, according to the Rules and Regulations of such Savings Banks respectively; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in Cases where any Banks for Savings have been or shall be established in any Town or Place, and other smaller Banks have been or shall be established in the Neighbourhood of such Town or Place as Branch Banks thereof, and such Branch Banks, by their Treasurers, have paid or shall pay any Sums into the Bank in any such Town or Place as a Central Bank, it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees, or any Two of them, of any such Central Bank, to pay into the Bank of England or Ireland, in Manner prescribed by this Act, along with the Monies belonging to such Central Bank, any Sum or Sums of Money belonging to and an account of any such Branch Bank: Provided always, that the Treasurer of such Branch Banks shall certify to the Treasurer of such Central Bank, that the Amount contributed by any One Subscriber to any such Branch Bank in any One Year does not exceed the Provisions aforesaid by this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Order or Declaration produced to the said Officer for the Purpose of paying Monies into the Banks of England or Ireland, to the Account of the said Commissioners as aforesaid, shall contain any Matter or Thing which be false or untrue, then and in every such Case the Sums so paid shall be forfeited to the said Commissioners.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall cause all the Monies paid into the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, and placed to their Account in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, to be invested from time to time, upon such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall direct, in the Purchase of Bank Annuities or Exchequer Bills, or in either of them, in their Names, and to be carried to the Account hereinafter provided; and the Interest which shall arise from time to time and become due thereon shall in like Manner be invested in the Purchase of Government Annuities or of Exchequer Bills as aforesaid.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That on the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, the Interest payable on the Bearer annuities to the Trustees of Savings Banks by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall cease; and that from and after the said Twentieth Day of November, all Receipts issued prior to that Day shall carry Interest at the Rate of Two pence Halfpenny per Centum per Ann; and that from and after the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, when the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money into the Banks of England or Ireland to the Account of the said Commissioners by the Trustees of any Savings Bank, it shall be lawful for the Officer or Officers of the said Commissioners in that behalf, and he and they in and are hereby authorized and empowered, to issue, upon every such Payment being made, a Receipt, signed by One of the Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or Ireland respectively, for the Amount of such Payment, carrying Interest at the Rate of Two pence Halfpenny per Centum per Ann from the Day of such Payment inclusive, payable, with the Principal, at the Banks of England and Ireland, whenever the same shall be required or drawn for in manner directed by this Act, and such Receipt shall be dated on the Day on which the Payment of any such Sum or Sums of Money shall be made respectively; and every such Receipt shall be in such Form as shall be from time to time directed by the said Commissioners; and the Principal and Interest of all Sums mentioned in any Receipt shall be charged and chargeable upon, and the same are hereby charged and made payable out of, all or any Monies standing in any Account in the Names of the said Commissioners, or out of any Monies Monies produced by the Sale of any Stock or Annuities, Funds, or Exchangeable Bills, standing in their Names in the Books of the Bank of England and Ireland respectively, as the said Commissioners shall from time to time direct.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all Interest which shall become due and payable upon any Sum of Money advanced in any such Receipt, upon the Twentieth Day of November and the Twentieth Day of May in every Year next after the Date of any such Receipt, shall be from time to time calculated and computed by the Officer of the said Commissioners, and shall on each and every Year be placed in the Credit of the Savings Bank on whose Account any such Sum of Money was paid, within Six Weeks from each Twentieth Day of November and Twentieth Day of May respectively, and shall be carried to and written on the Account of such Savings Bank, and shall become Principal, and shall from thenceforth carry Interest on Principal Money paid into the said Banks of England or Ireland respectively on the Account of such Savings Bank : and a Receipt, according to such Form as the said Commissioners shall approve, shall be signed by the Officer of the said Commissioners, and shall be payable by the said Officer half-yearly within Six Weeks after each Twentieth Day of November and Twentieth Day of May respectively, (and such Receipts shall bear Date the Twenty-first Day of November and Twenty-first Day of May respectively) for the Amount of such Interest so credited and made Principal as aforesaid, as if the Amount thereof had been a Payment made by the Trustees of such Savings Bank to the Account of the said Commissioners: Provided always, that no Interest shall be computed or calculated on the fractional Part of a Pound, or any Sum less than a Pound, of the half-yearly Balance standing in the Books of the said Commissioners on account of any Savings Bank on any Twentieth Day of November or Twentieth Day of May respectively: Provided also, That it shall be lawful for the Managers and Trustees of any such Savings Bank, if they shall so think fit, to direct that all Interest which shall become due and payable to such Depositor on any Sum of Money deposited in such Savings Bank shall yearly, or Twice in each and every Year, be calculated and computed by the Trustees of such Savings Bank, or such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, and shall be carried to the Credit of the Person or Persons depositing the said Sum or Sums of Money, and shall become Principal, and shall from thenceforth carry Interest in all respects as other Principal Money deposited in the said Banks, or as if the said Sum of Interest so calculated had actually been paid to the said Depositors, and by them repaid to the said Trustee or Trustees: nay, Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That before any Trustee of any Savings Bank shall make any Order or Draft for Payment, by the said Commissioners, of any Sum or Sums of Money under this Act, the Trustees of such Savings Bank shall make, give, sign, and execute an Appointment under the Hands and Seals of not less than Two of such Trustees, and the Execution of which shall be attested by Two Managers of the same Savings Bank, empowering and authorizing some Person or Persons named in such Appointment to be Agent or Agents for receiving all and every such Sum and Sums of Money as such Trustees shall from time to time require to be paid by such Commissioners; and every such Appointment shall be produced by or on behalf of the Person or Persons named therein to the Officer of the said Commissioners, Fourteen Days at least before the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money on account of such Savings Bank, and such Appointment shall remain deposited in the Office of such Officer; and every such Appointment shall be made in such Form, and under such Regulations, as shall from time to time be directed or required or approved of by the said Commissioners or their Officer: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of any Savings Bank by whom any such Appointment shall be made, given, signed, and executed, or for the Survivors or Survivor of such Trustees, to revoke such Appointment by any Certificate or other Instrument under the Hands and Seals or Hand and Seal of such Trustee or Trustees, attested by Two Managers of such Savings Bank, and in such Form and under such Regulations as shall be directed or required or approved of by the said Commissioners or their Officer; and in case of the Decesse of any such Trustee except One, it shall and may be lawful for the surviving Trustee, together with any other Trustee or Trustees, being not less than Two, of the said Savings Bank, and in case of the Decesse of all such Trustees, or in case all such Trustees shall decline or refuse to act, it shall and may be lawful for not less than Two other Trustees of the said Savings Bank, from time to time to make, give, and execute an Appointment in manner aforesaid, re appointing the Person or Persons named in such Appointment, or any other Person or Persons in his or their Room or Room, to be the Agent or Agents of such Trustee; and every such Certificate or Instrument of Revocation, and every such new Appointment, shall be produced to the Officer of the said Commissioners by the Person or Persons named in such new Appointment, Fourteen Days at least before the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money to the Person or Persons named in such new Appointment, and shall remain deposited in the Office of such Officer.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of any such Savings Bank from time to time (by any Draft or Order in Writing under the Hands of any Two Trustees of such Savings Bank, attested by Two other Trustees or Managers, or by any Two credible Witnesses, according to such Form as the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall from time to time direct), to require that the Whole or any Part of the Principal Sum or Sums of Money standing in the Books of the said Commissioners to the Credit of the Trustees of such Savings Bank respectively shall be paid in such Person or Persons as such Trustees shall from time to time require, being the Agent or Agents named in some Appointment executed under this Act or the said recited Acts, and lodged with the Officers of the said Commissioners, as heretofore mentioned, and then remaining in force; and every such Draft or Order shall be addressed to the said Commissioners, and Interest due on Money so advanced in Receipt is to be calculated half-yearly up to 20th Nov, and 20th May, and carried to Account of Savings Bank as additional Principal.

No Interest on fractional Parts of a Pound.

Interest owing to Depositors may be calculated half-yearly or Twice a Year, and carried to their Credit as Principal.

Before drawing for Money, Trustees shall sign Appointment of Agent to receive the same, which Appointment shall be deposited with Commissioners.

A Appointment may be revoked, and others granted from Time to Time.

Trustees may draw for the Whole or any Part of any Sum placed to their Account, by Drafts on Commissioners, which shall be indorsed by their Officer, with the Decree.

Commissioners
for Reduction

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Joint Stock or Property of any Savings Bank, arising from Deposits made under this or any former Act, shall, from and after the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, be increased by the Interest received beyond the Rate of Interest payable to the Depositors by the Rules and Regulations of such Savings Banks, or by any other Means, the said Trustees or Managers, after deducting all such Expenses as they may deem paper, shall, within Six Months after the Twentieth Day of November in each Year, ascertain, certify, and pay over to the said Commissioners the Amount of such increased Stock and Property, reserving such Partion as may appear necessary to meet current Expenses; and the Amount of such Surplus, which shall be ascertained, certified, and paid over (after such Deduction as aforesaid), shall be discharged from the Account of such Savings Bank standing in the Books of the said Commissioners, and the said Commissioners shall keep separate and distinct Accounts of such Surplus to be discharged from the Account of the said Savings Banks respectively as aforesaid, and apply the same in such Manner, and under such Regulations, from time to time, as any other Monies under the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees or Managers of the said respective Savings Banks to draw and receive of and from the said Commissioners (who are hereby required to pay the same upon such Certificate as they may appoint), for the Purpose of the Institution, any Sum of Money equal to the Whole or any Part of the Principal Monies which may have been so discharged from the Account of such Savings Banks as aforesaid.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, the Interest payable on Deposits by the Trustees or Managers of any Savings Bank shall not exceed the Rate of Two pence Farthing per Centum per Annum.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That in case the Trustees or Managers of any such Institution shall receive or shall have received any Deposit of Money from or for the Benefit of any Person under the Age of Twenty-one Years, it shall be lawful for the Trustees or Managers of such Institution to pay such Person his or her Share and Interest in the Funds of such Institution; and the Receipt of such Person shall be a sufficient Discharge, notwithstanding his or her Infancy or Disability is Law to act for him or herself.

XXVI. And Whereas Deposits in Savings Banks may have been made and may be made by Married Women, without Notice that they are Married Women, and Deposits may have been made and may be made by Women who may here afterwards married: Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees in any Savings Bank to pay any Sum of Money in respect of any such Deposit to any such Woman, unless the Husband of such Woman, or his Representatives, shall give to such Treasurer Notice of such Marriage, and shall require Payment to be made to him or them.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees or Treasurers of any charitable or provident Institution or Society in England or Ireland, or charitable Donation or Bequest, for the Maintenance, Education, or Benefit of the Poor, from time to time to subscribe any Part of the Funds of such Institution or Society into the Funds of any Savings Banks, if the Trustees or Managers thereof shall be willing to receive the same, in the Amount of One hundred Pounds per Annum, provided the Amount of the Sum to be received by such Institution or Society shall not at any Time exceed the Sum of Three hundred Pounds in the whole, exclusive of Interest.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful, if the Trustees or Managers of any Savings Bank shall think proper, for any Friendly Society established under and by virtue of any Act or Acts relating to Friendly Societies from time to time to subscribe the Whole or any Part of the Funds of such Friendly Society, as they shall from time to time direct, through their Treasurer, Steward, or other Officer or Officers, into the Funds of any Institution which shall take the Benefit of this Act, and which shall be willing to receive the same, under such Terms and Conditions as shall be specially provided for that Purpose by the Rules, Orders, and Regulations of such Institution: Provided always that it shall not be lawful for the said Trustees to receive any Sum or Sums from any Friendly Society forward and enrolled after the passing of this Act which may exceed the Sum of Three hundred Pounds, Principal and Interest included, nor to pay any Interest on the same whenever such Sum or Sums shall amount to or continue at the said Sum of Three hundred Pounds or upwards.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Receipt or Discharge of the Treasurer, Trustee, or other Officer of such Friendly Society, charitable or provident Institution or Society, for the Time being, for any Money paid according to the Regulation of such Treasurer, Trustee, or other Officer apparently authorized to require such Payment, shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same; and the Institution in which such Deposit shall be made shall not be responsible for any Misapplication of any such Money, Donation, or Bequest, by the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be so paid, or for any Want of Authority of the Person or Persons requiring or receiving such Payment.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no Person who is or shall be a Member of any Friendly Society established or to be established under and by virtue of any Act or Acts relating to Friendly Societies, or a Member of any of the charitable Institutions aforesaid, shall, by reason of such Person being or becoming a Depositor in any Institution taking the Benefit of this Act, be considered as subject or liable to any Penalty, Forfeiture, or Disability declared or expressed, or intended so to be, by or in the Rules, Orders, or Regulations of such Friendly Society; any Rules, Orders, or Regulations of such Friendly Society aside, or hereafter to be made, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that no Depositor shall be subject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture on account of his belonging to or being intromitted in the Funds of any Friendly Society or charitable Society deposited in any other Savings Bank.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That all Regulations and Provisions in this Act contained, relative to Money paid into the Bank of England, and Receipts issued on account thereof, and also to the Application of all such Money by the said Commissioners, shall be applicable to Payments made and Receipts issued under the Authority of an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King

King George the Third, intituled An Act for the further Protection and Encouragement of Friendly Societies, and for promoting Fraternity and Amity therein, except with respect to all such Friendly Societies as may have been formed and created previous to the passing of this Act.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That no Sum shall be paid or subscribed into any Savings Bank by any Person or Persons, by Ticket or Number or otherwise, without disclosing his or her Name, together with his or her Profession, Business, Occupation, Calling, and Residence, to the Trustees or Managers of such Savings Bank; and the Trustees or Managers of every Savings Bank are hereby required to cause the Name of each Depositor, together with his or her Profession, Business, Occupation, Calling, and Residence, to be entered in the Books of the Institution.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees or Managers of any Savings Bank to receive from any Person or Persons acting as Trustee or Trustees on behalf of any Depositor or Depositors, whether such Person or Persons is or are himself or themselves a Depositor or Depositors or not, any Sum or Sums not exceeding the annual amount hereinafter mentioned; provided that such Trustee or Trustees shall make such Declaration on behalf of such Depositor or Depositors, and subject to the like Conditions, as by this Act is required in the Case of any Person or Persons making any Deposit as his or her own Account; and all Deposits made by any such Trustee or Trustees shall be entered in the Books of such Savings Bank in the joint Name of such Trustee or Trustees and of the Person or Persons on whose Account such Sum shall be so deposited; and the Receipt and Receipts of such Trustee or Trustees, or the Survivor of them, or the Executor or Administrators of any such Trustee or surviving Trustee, with or without the Receipt of the Person or Persons on whose Account such Sum may have been deposited, shall be a good and valid Discharge to the Trustees or Managers of the Institution.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall hereinafter any Deposit in, or any Subscription to, or who shall be entitled to any Benefit from, the Funds of any Savings Bank, to make any Deposit in or to subscribe any Sum into the Funds of any other Savings Bank, or to sign any new Account in the said Savings Bank; and that every Person desirous of making any Deposit in or any Subscription to any Savings Bank, shall at the Time of making the First Deposit to any Savings Bank, and at such other Time or Times as such Depositor shall be required to do by the Trustees or Managers of any such Savings Bank, sign, either by themselves, or, in case of Infants under the Age of Seven Years, by some Person to be approved of by the Trustees or Managers, or by such other Person as they shall appoint, a Declaration in such Form as shall be directed or approved of by the Commissioners or other proper Officer, that the Person or Persons on whose Behalf any such First Deposit or Subscription shall be required to be made is not or are not entitled to any Deposit, or any such subsequent Deposit or Subscription in or any Benefit from the Funds of any Savings Bank, other than that into which such Deposit or Subscription shall be made, or any other Funds in the said Savings Bank; and in case any such Declaration shall not be true, or if any Person shall at any Time have or hold or be possessed of any Deposit or Funds in more than one Savings Bank within the United Kingdom, every such Person shall forfeit and lose all Right and Title to any Deposit in or to any Funds of any and every such Savings Bank; and the Trustees and Managers of such Savings Bank shall and they are hereby required in such Case to close the Account of such Depositor, and to cause the Sum or Sums so forfeited to be forthwith paid into the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, as the Case may be, to the Account of the Commissioners standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the said Banks respectively, under the Title of "The Account of the Commissioners for applying certain Sums of Money annually to the Reduction of the National Debt;" and the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Governor and Company is and are hereby required to receive all such Sums, and to place the same to the said Account, to be applied in like Manner as all other Money placed to the said Account; and every such Declaration so made shall be filed and kept and preserved by the Trustees of every such Savings Bank; and a printed Notice of such Regulations and Provisions shall be affixed in the Office or Place appointed for the receiving of Deposits in any Savings Bank, in such Form as the said Commissioners or their proper Officer shall from time to time direct, or require or appoint.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, it shall not be lawful for the Trustees of any Savings Bank to receive from any One person or future Depositor any Sum or Sums exceeding Thirty Pounds in the whole, exclusive of Compound Interest, in any One Year, ending on the Twentieth Day of November, nor to receive from any Depositor any Sum or Sums of Money whatever, which shall make the Sum to which such Depositor shall be entitled exceed the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds in the whole: Provided always, that whenever the Sum or Sums standing in the Name of any Depositor shall amount in the whole to Two hundred Pounds, Principal and Interest included, that thereafter no Interest shall be payable on any such Deposit so long as it shall continue to amount to the said Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent the Trustees of any Savings Bank from paying Interest to any Depositor whose Deposit shall, on the Day of the passing of this Act, amount to or exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Trustees shall not receive from any such Depositor any fresh or additional Deposit, so long as the Sum or Sums to which such Depositor shall be entitled shall amount to or exceed the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds.

XXXVIII. And

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Depositor, after having withdrawn any Sum or Sums of Money from and out of any Savings Bank, to re-deposit in any such Savings Bank, at any Time or Times within any One Year, reckoning from the Twentieth Day of November, any Sum or Sums of Money, provided such Sum or Sums of Money re-deposited, and any previous Deposit or Deposits which shall have been made by such Depositor in the Course of the Year, taken together, shall not exceed at any Time in such Year the Sum of Thirty Pounds additional Principal Money bearing Interest; and the Trustees and Managers of Savings Banks are hereby prohibited from receiving from any Depositor any Sum or Sums which shall make the said Depositor entitled at the End of such Year to more than the said additional Sum of Thirty Pounds within Twelve Calendar Months, reckoning from the Twentieth Day of November as aforesaid.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That at any Time after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Depositor in any Savings Bank, to withdraw from such Savings Bank the Whole of his or her Deposits and Interest thereon at any One Time (but not in Parts or Shares), for the Purpose of receiving the same in any other Savings Bank; and in such case it shall be lawful for the Trustees or Managers of any such Savings Bank from which such Deposit shall be intended to be withdrawn, or any One or more of them, and they are hereby required, to grant to any such Depositor a Certificate, under the Hands of such One or more Trustees or Trustees, Manager or Managers respectively, attested by the Secretary or Attorneys of such Savings Bank, and such Certificate shall state the whole Amount of the Deposit and Interest due to such Depositor in such Savings Bank, and shall be in such Form to be devised or approved of by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or their Officer; and upon the Production of such Certificate, signed as aforesaid, directed to the Trustees or Managers of the Savings Bank into which such Deposit and Interest is intended to be removed, the Person applying shall, and he or she is hereby required to endorse his or her Name on the Back of such Certificate, in the Presence of One or more of the Trustees or Managers of such Savings Bank, and such Endorsement shall be attested by One of such Trustees or Managers; and if such Trustee or Trustees, or Manager or Managers, shall be satisfied that such Certificate is authentic, and that no Abuse is intended thereby, it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees or Managers of such Savings Bank to receive the Sum specified in such Certificate, and to place the same to the Account of the Person therein described in the Books of such Savings Bank, any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that previous to such Endorsement a like Declaration shall be made by the Person applying to make such Deposit as is required in other Cases of making Deposits in Savings Banks according to the Provision contained in this Act, and such Person shall be considered in all respects as an original Subscriber to such Savings Bank, and shall be liable to all such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions as an original Subscriber to such Bank.

XL. And be it further enacted, That in case any Depositor in the Funds of any Institution taking the Benefit of this Act shall die, leaving any Sum or Sums of Money in the said Funds, or any Dividends or Interest due thereon, belonging to him or her at the Time of his or her Death, exceeding in the whole the Sum of Fifty Pounds, the same shall not be paid to any Person or Persons as Representative or Representatives of such Depositor, but upon the Probate of the Will of the deceased Depositor, or Letters of Administration of his or her Estate and Effects: Provided always, that where the whole Estate or Effects of any such deceased Depositor, for or in respect of which any Probate or Letters of Administration respectively shall be granted, shall not exceed the Value of Fifty Pounds, no Stamp Duty shall be chargeable thereon, nor upon any Legacy or Residue or Part thereof bequeathed, nor upon any Share or Part of the Estate or Effects to be paid or distributed by or under such Probate or Letters of Administration: Provided also, that in every such Case the Person or Persons claiming such Probate or Letters of Administration free from Stamp Duty under this Act, shall exhibit to the Court or Person having Authority to grant the Probate or Letters of Administration in such Case, a Certificate of the Amount and Value of the Share and Interest which the deceased Depositor had in the Funds of the said Institution, which Certificate shall be granted in such Form and Manner as shall have been settled by the Rules or Regulations of the Institutions respectively, and shall be signed or attested by such Person or Persons as shall be directed therein: and every such Certificate shall be taken and received, by the Court or Person having Authority to grant such Probate or Letters of Administration, as Evidence of the Amount and Value of the Share and Interests of the deceased Depositor in the Funds of the said Institution.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the whole Estate and Effects of any deceased Depositor, for or in respect of which Letters of Administration shall be granted, shall not exceed the Value of Fifty Pounds bearing no Stamp Duty shall be chargeable upon the Bond required to be given by the Administrator for the due Administration of the Effects of such deceased Depositor, nor upon any Affidavit or Document leading to or connected with such Administration, but that every such Bond and Affidavit shall be exempted from Stamp Duty in like Manner and under the like Regulations as are provided in and by this Act with respect to such Letters of Administration: Provided always, that in case any Depositor in the Funds of any such Institution shall die, leaving a Sum of Money, in the said Fund, which, with the Interest thereon, shall not exceed in the whole Fifty Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Trustees or Managers of such Institution, and they are hereby authorized and permitted, in case such Trustees or Managers shall be satisfied that no Will was made and left by such deceased Depositor, and that no Letters of Administration will be taken out of the Goods and Chattels of such Depositor, to pay the same at any Time after the Deaths of such Depositor, according to the Rules and Regulations Depositors may withdraw their Deposits, and upon subscription, provided the same does not exceed any One Year's interest 352.

Deposits may be withdrawn from such Savings Bank as to be placed in another.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Trustees or Managers of any Savings Bank, at any Time after the Death of any Depositor, have paid and divided any Sum of Money not exceeding Fifty Pounds to or amongst any Person or Persons who shall, at the Time of such Payment, appear to such Trustees or Managers to be entitled to the Effects of any deceased intestate Depositor, according to the Statute of Distributions, or according to the Rules and Regulations of any such Savings Bank, the Payment of any such Sum or Sums of Money, shall be valid and effectual with respect to any Demand of any other Person or Persons at next of Kin of such deceased intestate Depositor, or to the lawful Representatives or Representatives of such Depositor, against the Funds of such Savings Bank, or against the Treasurer or Treasurers or Managers thereof, but nevertheless such next of Kin or Representatives shall have Remedy for such Money as paid as aforesaid against the Person or Persons who shall have received the same.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That Payment of any Money by any such Institution as aforesaid, to any Person or Persons having any Letters of Administration or Probate of any such Will or testamentary Disposition granted by any Ecclesiastical Court, and appearing to be in force, shall be valid and effectual with respect to any Demand of any other Person or Persons, as the lawful Representatives or Representatives of such Depositor, against the Funds of such Institution, or against the Treasurer, Treasurers, or Managers thereof; but nevertheless such lawful Representatives or Representatives shall have Remedy for such Money, or Securities for Money so paid or transferred as aforesaid, against the Person or Persons who shall have received the same.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That no Power, Warrant, or Letter of Attorney, granted or to be granted by any Person or Persons, or Trustees or Treasurers of any Institution established under this Act, nor any Power, Warrant, or Letter of Attorney given by any Depositor or Deponents in the Funds of such Institution to any other Person or Persons, authorizing him, her, or them to make any Deposit or Deposits of any Sum or Sums of Money in the said Funds on behalf of the said Depositor or Deponents, or to sign any Document or Instrument required by the Rules or Regulations of such Institution to be signed on making such Deposits, or to receive back any Sum or Sums of Money deposited in the said Funds, or the Dividends or Interest arising therefrom, nor any Receipt nor any Entry in any Book of Receipt for Money deposited in the Funds of any such Institution, nor for any Money received by any Depositor, his or her Executors or Administrators, Assigns or Attorneys, from the Funds of such Institution, nor any Gift or Order, nor any Appointment of any Agent or Agents, nor any Certificate or other Instrument for the Revocation of any such Appointment, nor any other Instrument or Document whatever required or authorized to be given, issued, signed, made, or produced in pursuance of this Act, shall be subject or liable to or charged with any Stamp Duty or Duties whatsoever.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Dispute shall arise between any such Institution, or any Person or Persons acting under them, and any individual Depositor therein, or any Executor, Administrator, next of Kin, or Creditor of any deceased Depositor, or any Person claiming to be such Executor, Administrator, next of Kin, or Creditor, then and in every such Case the Matter so in dispute shall be referred to the Arbitration of Two independent Persons, one to be chosen and appointed by the Trustees or Managers of such Institution, and the other by the Party with whom the Dispute arises; and in case the Arbitrators so appointed shall not agree, then such Matter in dispute shall be referred in Writing to the Barometer of Law so to be appointed by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, who shall receive a Fee of not more than One Guinea; and whenever Award, Order, or Determination shall be made by the said Arbitrators, or by the said Barometer, shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties, and shall be final in all Intents and Purposes, without any Appeal; and the said Award, Order, or Determination shall declare by whom the said Fee payable to the said Barometer shall be paid; and no Subpoena to, or Award, Order, or Determination of the said Arbitrators, or of the said Barometer, shall be subject or liable to or charged with any Stamp Duty or Duties whatever.

XLVI. And for the more effectually ascertaining from time to time the actual and progressive State of the several Savings Banks respectively, be it enacted, That the Treasurers or Managers of any Savings Bank shall annually cause a General Statement of the Funds of such Savings Bank, invested in the Bank of England or the Bank of Ireland in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, to be prepared, up to the Twentieth Day of November in each Year, showing the Balance or Principal Sum due to all the Depositors collectively in such Savings Bank, and a Statement of the Expenses incurred, and stating in those Heads such Balance shall they be remaining; and every such annual Statement shall be attested by Two Managers or Two Trustees, or by One Manager and One Trustee of such Savings Bank; and every such annual Statement shall be countersigned by the Secretary or Actuary of such Savings Bank; and all such annual Statements shall be transmitted to the Office of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in London or Dublin (as the Case may be), within Six Weeks next after the Twentieth Day of November in each Year; and in case the Treasurers of any such Savings Bank shall neglect or refuse to make out and transmit such Accounts as aforesaid, or in case any such Trustees shall at any Time neglect or refuse to obey any Orders or Directions given by the said Commissioners, or through their Officer, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to close the Account of the Trustees of such Savings Bank, and to discontinue the keeping any further Account with the Trustees of such Savings Bank, and to direct that no further Sum shall be received at the Bank of England or at the Bank of Ireland from the Trustees of such Savings Bank, to the Account of the said Commissioners, until such Time as such Commissioners shall think fit: Provided always, that it may be lawful for the said Commissioners to re-open such Account, and to allow the growing Interest of such Account during the Time of such Discontinuance, and to authorize the Receipt of Money at the Banks of England or Ireland, whenever such Commissioners shall think fit to do so, upon such Trustees complying with the Directions of such Commissioners or their Officer.

Accounts may show their Accounts, &c.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees or Managers of every such Savings Bank shall cause a Duplicate of every such annual Statement, accompanied by a List of the Trustees and Managers of such Institution for the Time being, attested and countersigned as aforesaid, to be publicly affixed and exhibited to some conspicuous Part of the Office or Place where the Deposits of such Savings Bank are usually received, for the Information of all Persons making Deposits therein, and every such Duplicate shall from time to time remain so affixed and exhibited until the coming annual Statement shall in like Manner be affixed and exhibited as aforesaid; and every Depositor shall be entitled to receive from the said Institution a printed Copy of such annual Statement on Payment of One Penny.

A Duplicate of each Account shall be affixed in the Office of the Savings Bank.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the following Accounts shall be prepared by the said Commissioners, and shall be annually laid before both Houses of Parliament on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, if Parliament shall be sitting, and if Parliament shall not be sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament; that it is by Accounts made up to the Twentieth Day of November then next preceding, of the Gross Amount of all Sums received and applied, including Interest, and of all Sums paid, including Interest, from the Sixth Day of August in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seventeen up to such Twentieth Day of November, by the said Commissioners, on account of the Trustees of the several Savings Banks in England and Ireland, and also on account of any Friendly Societies in England respectively, and of the Gross Amount of all Sums, Stocks, Funds, Annuities, and Exchequer Bills standing in the Names of such Commissioners on the Twentieth Day of November on account of any such Savings Banks or Friendly Societies respectively, and the Sums paid for the Purchase of such Stocks, Funds, or Exchequer Bills, and the Gross Amount of the Interest or Dividends received thereon by the said Commissioners, and the Gross Amount of the Interest paid by such Commissioners up to such Twentieth Day of November on all Receipts issued to the Trustees of any such Savings Bank or Friendly Societies in England and Ireland respectively; and also an Account of all Expenses incurred by the said Commissioners for Salaries of Clerks, or other incidental Charges, during the preceding Year.

Accounts to be
laid before Parliament by Commissioners for the Reduc-
National Debt.

XLIX. And for the Purpose of rendering the Accounts of the several Savings Banks in England and Ireland uniform and correspondent with the Accounts of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, be it enacted, That from and after the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, the Interest or Dividends due to each Depositor in such Savings Bank in England shall be computed half-yearly to the Twentieth Day of May and the Twentieth Day of November, or yearly to the Twentieth Day of November in each Year, or up to such Period nearest to such Twentieth Day of May or Twentieth Day of November as such Interest shall be payable, according to the Rules or Regulations of such Savings Banks respectively, and to no other Period.

Savings Banks
shall compute Interest to 20th Nov.

Half-yearly or yearly.

L. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to lay out, from time to time, (if they shall deem it expedient, and under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall direct,) the Whole or any Part of the Moneys which shall be standing in their Names in the Books of the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, in pursuance of this Act, in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills held by the said Banks respectively or by the Public, as the Case may be; and the said Commissioners shall be entitled to receive, for the Sums or Sums laid out by them in Exchequer Bills, such an Amount of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Reduced Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England, as the said Sums or Sums of Money would have bought if the same had been applied to the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities, estimating the Amount of such Annuities at the quarterly Average Price of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities which shall have been purchased with the Moneys commonly called the Sinking Fund in the same Quarter of the Year in which such Exchequer Bills shall have been purchased; and the said Three Pounds per Centum Annuities, and the Dividends arising thereon from time to time, shall constitute and form Part of the Funds belonging to the said Commissioners on account of the said Savings Banks, and shall be subject to the same Provisions and to the same and the like Purposes as all other Capital Stocks and Dividends standing in their Names on the said Account shall and may be subject and liable to; and the Accountant General of the said Governor and Company shall, within Five Days after such Entry shall have been made as aforesaid, certify to the said Commissioners the Amount of the Three Pounds per Centum Annuities so placed upon their said Account under the Provisions of this Act.

Commissioners
may purchase
Bills.

LI. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners shall, at the End of every Quarter of the Year in which such Exchequer Bills shall have been purchased by or on account of the said Commissioners as aforesaid, certify to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury the Amount of the Principal and Interest paid for the same (and also the Amount and Description of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities which might have been purchased with such Principal and Interest, estimated at the quarterly Average Price of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities as aforesaid); and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the said Lords Commisances of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, by Warrant under their Hands, from time to time to order and direct the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England to direct their Accountant General to enter and place to the Credit of the said Commissioners, upon the Account standing in their Names in the Books of the said Bank, under the Title of "The Fund for the Banks for Savings," the Amount of the Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Reduced Annuities (as the Case may be) contained from time to time in every such Certificate (or the first half-yearly Payment of the Dividends whereof shall commence from the Day on which the last half-yearly Dividends were due and payable on the said Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Reduced Annuities, as the Case may be).

LIII. And be it further enacted, That the Three Pounds per Centum Annuities which shall be created from time to time by the Purchase of Exchequer Bills under and by virtue of this Act, shall be deemed and taken to be, and shall from time to time be added to, and shall form Part of the Capital of the Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Reduced Annuities (as the Case may be) transferable at the Bank of England, and the Dividends arising thereon shall, at the same shall become due, be charged upon and be payable out of, and the same are hereby made chargeable upon, the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

LIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause all or any Part of the Exchequer Bills purchased by them, or on their Account, under the Provisions of this Act, to be delivered to the Paymasters of Exchequer Bills, to be cancelled, within Five Days after the Expiration of the Quarter of the Year in which such Bills shall have been so purchased; and the said Paymasters are in such Case hereby required, upon the Delivery thereof, to cancel the same accordingly; and it shall and may be lawful to the said Commissioners to exchange from time to time any Part of such Exchequer Bills, not so delivered to be cancelled, for new Bills of the like Amount (if they shall deem it expedient to do so), according to the usual Course of the Exchequer, any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

LIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commis- sioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to call from time to time, if they shall deem it expedient, any Part of the said Bank Annuities which shall be standing in their Names in the Books of the Bank of England and Ireland respectively, in pursuance of the said recited Acts or this Act, and to apply the Whole or any Part of the Moneys produced by such Sale or Sales to the Purchase of Exche- quer Bills, in the same Manner and under the same Regulations and Provisions as any other Moneys are authorized by this Act to be so received by the said Commissioners.

LV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or for the proper Officer or Officers of the said Commissioners, from time to time, to make Application to the Lord High Treasurer or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, stating and certifying what Sum of Money may be required for satisfying any Demands which shall from time to time be made upon the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt by the Trustees of any Savings Bank or Friendly Society in England or Ireland, and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the said Treasury, or any Three of them, in case they shall think fit and proper so to do, by Warrant under their Hands, to cause or direct any Number of Exchequer Bills to be made out at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exche- quer in Great Britain, for such Sum or Sum of Money as shall be from time to time stated and certified in any such Application of the said Commissioners, or their Officer or Officers under the Direction of the said Commissioners, or for any Part of any such Sum or Sum; and such Exchequer Bills shall be made out in the same or like Manner, Form, and Order, and according to the same or like Rules and Direc- tions, as are prescribed and directed in and by an Act made in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for regulating the issuing and paying of Exchequer Bills.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England and Bank of Ireland respectively from time to time to advance to the said Commis- sioners for the Reduction of the National Debt such Sum or Sum of Money, on the Credit of such Exchequer Bill or Bills issued to or purchased by the Commissioners under the Provision of this Act as aforesaid, at such Time or Times, and under such Regulations for the Purpose of this Act, as shall be agreed upon by the said Commissioners and the said Governor and Company of the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, and at such Times as the said Commissioners shall from time to time require, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That the Principal Sum of every such Exchequer Bill which shall have been issued to the said Commissioners upon their Application, for the Purpose herebefore directed, and upon which any Sum of Money shall have been so advanced by the Governor and Company of the Banks of England or of Ireland respectively, under the Provision of this Act, shall, together with all Interest due thereon, be discharged from time to time by the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in such Portion as the said Commissioners shall deem fit and expedient, with and out of any Moneys invested from time to time by the Trustees of any Savings Banks or Friendly Societies in England or Ireland respectively, and carried to the Credit of the said Commissioners on account of any such Savings Banks or Friendly Societies, or by the Sale of any Bank Annuities, or with and out of the Moneys or Funds commonly called the Sinking Fund, standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Banks of England or Ireland respectively, or by all or or either of such Means of Redemption as the said Commissioners shall deem most proper and convenient; and that immediately upon any such Payment being made by the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, Exchange Bills to the Amount of the Principal Sum so paid off and discharged shall be delivered up to the said Commissioners by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland respectively; and the said Commissioners shall forthwith cause the said Exchange Bills to be delivered to the Paymasters of Exchange Bills, to be cancelled: Provided always, that whenever the Principal Sum of any such Exchange Bill or Bills shall have been discharged and paid off by any Sum or Sums of Money advanced from the Sinking Fund, and under the Provisions of this Act, the said Commissioners shall cause their Agent or proper Officer to transfer from any Account standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or from any Accounts standing in their Names in the Books of the Bank of Ireland, under or by virtue of this Act, or of any Act or Acts relating to Savings Banks or Friendly Societies, as the Case may be, into the Account standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland respectively, under the Title of "The Account of the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for applying certain Sums of Money annually to the Reduction of the National Debt," such an Amount of Stock as shall produce, by Computation, the Principal Sum and Interest of all such Exchange Bills so paid off and discharged; and the said Commissioners shall be made by the proper Officer or Officers of the said Commissioners, according to the Price at which such Stock shall have been purchased by the said Commissioners on the Day of transferring the said Amount of Stock as aforesaid; and upon every such Transfer of Stock being made as hereinbefore directed, the Accountant General of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland respectively shall thereupon transmit to the Office of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt a Certificate of every such Transfer, containing the Amount and Description of Stock so transferred.

Regulations to be observed when such Bills are paid off by Advances from the Sinking Fund.

LXVIII. And Whereas it is expedient to provide more effectually in certain Cases for the Payment of any Draft or Drafts which may be drawn upon the said Commissioners by the Trustees of any Savings Bank in Ireland in pursuance of this Act: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall so think fit, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to pay out the Bank of England, from time to time, any Sum or Sums of Money to be placed to their Credit in Account with the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, on account of the Fund for the Banks for Savings, under such Regulations as shall or may be agreed upon from time to time between the said Commissioners and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland; And all Sums of Money so placed in the said Commissioners' Credit, as aforesaid shall be carried to the Account of the said Commissioners, by the Cashiers of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, standing in the Books of the said Bank under the Title of "The Fund for the Banks for Savings," and shall be subject and shall be applied in the several Purposes hereinbefore mentioned, as if every such Sum and Sums of Money had been originally paid into the Bank of Ireland to the said Account under the Provisions of this Act.

Commissioners for Reduction of the National Debt may keep a Balance in the Bank of England for Drafts which may be drawn.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Receipts, Orders, Certificates, Indorsements, Accounts, Returns, or Instruments, or other Matters or Things whatsoever, which shall be required for carrying into execution this Act, shall be made in such Form and Manner, and containing such Particulars, and under such Regulations, as shall from time to time be directed or required or approved of by the said Commissioners, or their Officer or Officers.

Receipts, &c. shall be in the Form approved by Commissioners.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and the same is declared to be a full and sufficient Indemnity and Discharge to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England and Bank of Ireland respectively, and their Officers, for all Things to be done or required, or permitted to be done, pursuant to this Act.

Indemnity to Commissioners, and Banks of England and Ireland.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to appoint a Barrister at Law, and employ such and so many of the Clerks and other Officers as shall be necessary for carrying into Execution the Purposes of this Act; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to settle and appoint such Allowances as shall be proper for the Services, Pains, and Labour of such Clerks, or other Persons to be appointed and employed by the said Commissioners, in manner and for the Purposes aforesaid; and out of the Fund upon which the Establishment of the said Commissioners is chargeable by any Act now in force, to pay and discharge all such Allowances and all other incidental Charges which shall occasionally attend the Execution of this Act, in such Manner as to them shall seem just and reasonable.

Commissioners may employ Clerks, &c.

Treasury may pay them, and discharge incidental Expenses.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall extend to all Savings Banks established, or hereafter to be established in England and Ireland, and not elsewhere; and be deemed a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without the same being specially shown or pleaded.

Act is extended to all Savings Banks in England and Ireland.

C A P. XCIII.

An Act to allow Sugar to be delivered out of Warehouse to be refined. [18th July 1828.]

Foreign Sugar may be delivered to be refined until July 1829, on Payment of the Duties herein mentioned.

WHEREAS it is expedient to permit, for a Time to be limited, and in limited Quantities, Foreign Sugar to be used in Refineries employed in refining Sugar for Exportation: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon the Application of any Person actually carrying on the Business of a Sugar Refiner in the Ports of London, Liverpool, Bristol, or Glasgow, and having Two Pans at least at work upon the same Process, it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs at those Ports respectively, at any Time before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, to deliver to such Person any Quantity of Foreign Sugar, or of Sugar the Produce of the East India East, not exceeding the Quantity hereinafter expressed, to be by him refined under the Regulations and upon the Conditions hereinafter mentioned, and upon Payment of the following Duties; (that is to say.)

Duties on Sugar delivered to be refined under the Provisions of this Act.

Brown or Muscovado or Clayed Sugar, not being of greater Value than the Average Price of all	s. d.
Sugar of the British Plantations in America,	the Cwt. 1 7 0 and further, in respect of every Shilling by which such Sugar shall be of greater Value than such Average Price,	the Cwt. 0 0 9

Mode of ascertaining Average Price of Sugar.

II. And in order that the proper Duties imposed by this Act may be ascertained, be it further enacted, That the Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar, the Produce of the British Possessions in America, shall from Time to Time be ascertained and taken in manner hereinafter mentioned. (that is to say,) every Importer or Importers of such Sugar within the City of London or the Bills of Mortality, who shall, after the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, by himself or themselves, his or their Sworn Broker or any other Agent acting in his or their Behalf, buy or sell any such Brown or Muscovado Sugar, shall and is hereby required, by himself or themselves, his or their Sworn Broker or any other Agent acting in his or their Behalf, to deliver in, upon Oath before the Lord Mayor or any of the Aldermen of the said City of London (which Oath the said Lord Mayor or Aldermen are hereby respectively authorized to administer), to the Clerk of the Grocers Company now and for the Time being, on or before Tuesday in every Week, a true Account of the Quantities of such Brown or Muscovado Sugar bought or sold by him or them, his, her, or their Sworn Broker or any other Agent acting in his or their Behalf, in the preceding Week, specifying the Name of the Ship in which such Sugar was imported, and the Name of the Master of such Ship, and also the Marks and Packings, and the Sum Total of the net Landing Weights of such Sugar, as far as the same can be made out, and the Price paid for each Quantity respectively, exclusive of the Duty of Customs; and the said Clerk of the Grocers Company shall and he is hereby required to compute and make up in every Week, from the Accounts so delivered to him of the said Quantities and Prices of such Sugar bought or sold by the said Importer or Importers, his or their Sworn Broker or any other Agent acting in his or their Behalf in the Week immediately preceding, the Average Price of such Sugar, and shall cause such Average Price to be published every Friday in the London Gazette; and such Average Price shall be deemed and taken to be the Price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar for the Purposes of this Act.

A Register or Book of the Average Prices to be kept by the Clerk of the Grocers Company.

Penalty on Clerk neglecting to do what is herein required.

Penalty on Importers or Brokers failing to make true Returns.

III. And be it further enacted, That a Register or Book shall be kept by the said Clerk of the Grocers Company, containing all the Accounts so received by him from Time to Time from the Importer or Importers, his or their Sworn Broker or any other Agent acting in his or their Behalf, and of the Average Prices by him computed and made up from the same; which Register or Book shall and may at convenient Times be inspected by any Person or Persons whatever, upon paying the Fee of One Shilling and no more for the same.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the said Clerk of the Grocers Company shall neglect to do and perform what he is required by this Act to do and perform, he shall forfeit and pay for every such Neglect the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plein, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein as Escoign, Prochein, Wager of Law, or any more than One Impugnance, shall be granted or allowed.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Importer or Importers, or any Sworn Broker or other Agent acting in his or their Behalf, shall refuse or neglect to deliver in upon Oath a true Account of the Quantities of Brown or Muscovado Sugar by him bought or sold, specifying the Name of the Ship in which such Sugar was imported, and the Name of the Master of such Ship, and also the Marks and Packings, and the Sum Total of the net Landing Weights of such Sugar, as far as the same can be made out, and the Price paid for each Quantity respectively, as heretofore required, he, they, or any of them, being the said Buyer or Seller of such Sugar, shall forfeit and pay for every Cask of Sugar for which he or they shall so refuse or neglect to deliver in an Account, the Sum of Five Pounds to any one who will prosecute and sue for the same, to be recovered before the Lord Mayor or any Aldermen of the said City, on the Oath of any One or more credible Witnesses.

Sugar entered for the Payment of Duty.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs to detain any Sugar entered for the Payment of such Duties, and within Five Days from the Time of such Detention to take the same for the Use of the Crown; and for every Hundred Weight of Sugar which shall be so taken there shall be paid to the Proprietor thereof, in full Satisfaction for the same, a Sum of Money to be computed in manner following: (that is to say,) if such Sugar shall have been entered as not being of greater Value than the Average Price of British Plantation Sugar, then the Sum to be paid shall be Two Shillings the Hundred Weight less than such Average Price; and if such Sugar shall have been entered as being of greater Value than such Average Price, then there shall be added to such Sum the Number of Shillings by which such Sugar shall have been entered as being of greater Value than such Average Price; and there shall also be returned to such Proprietor the Duty which had been paid upon the Entry of such Sugar.

VII. And he is further enacted, That upon the Entry of any Sugar for Duty, under the Authority of this Act, the Person entering the same shall give Bond to the Satisfaction of the Officers of the Customs, in the Penalty of Twenty Shillings for every One Hundred Weight of such Sugar, that the whole of such Sugar shall be actually subjected to the Process of Refinement, and that within Four Months from the Date of such Bond, for every Hundred Weight of Sugar so entered and taken to be refined, there shall be by him exported, or delivered into Warehouse to be exported, One Hundred and Seven Pounds of Refined Sugar and Treacle in the following relative Proportions: (that is to say,) if such Sugar shall be entered as not being of greater Value than the Average Price of Sugar as aforesaid, then there shall be so exported or delivered Sixty-one Pounds of Refined Sugar in Loaves or Lump, Eighteen Pounds of Bastard Sugar, and Twenty-eight Pounds of Treacle; and for every Shilling by which such Sugar shall be entered as being of greater Value than such Average Price there shall be so exported or delivered Three Pounds the more of Refined Sugar in Loaves or Lump, and One Pound the less of Bastard Sugar, and Two Pounds the less of Treacle: Provided always, that no Entry for any such Sugar shall be made except in the Name of the Refiner or whose Premises the same is to be refined, or unless the Situation of such Premises be stated in such Entry.

VIII. And he is further enacted, That before any Package of Sugar be delivered for the Purpose of this Act, the Officers of the Customs shall mark the same in some conspicuous Manner, and shall also upon Request deliver to the Carrier of the same a Cartage Note, setting forth the Particulars of every Package so delivered, the Time of Delivery, and the Description or Situation of the Premises to which the same is to be conveyed, and if any Sugar delivered for the Purpose of this Act be found without such Mark on the Package, or removed without a proper Cartage Note for the same, or unloading at any Place other than the Place to which it ought to have been taken, or out of the Lane of Road leading to such Place, such Sugar shall be forfeited, and the Person to whom such Sugar was delivered to be refined shall also forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds in respect of every Package of Sugar so forfeited or liable to Forfeiture as aforesaid.

IX. And he is further enacted, That no greater Quantity of Sugar shall be delivered, under the Authority of this Act, to any Person, so as to be at any One Time in his Possession, than One thousand Hundred Weight for every Pan actually at work upon his Premises: Provided always, that every Quantity of Refined Sugar by him exported, or warehoused to be exported, shall be deemed to be Sugar so long as in his Possession, and shall be deducted from the Quantities which had been delivered to him as aforesaid.

C A P. XCIV.

An Act for rendering valid Bonds, Covenants, and other Assurances for the Resignation of Ecclesiastical Preferments, in certain specified Cases. [1828, July 1838.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that certain Bonds, Covenants, and other Assurances for the Resignation of Ecclesiastical Preferments, should be rendered valid in the Cases and subject to the Limitations hereinafter specified: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Engagement by Promise, Grant, Agreement, or Covenant, which shall be really and lawfully made, given, or entered into at any Time after the passing of this Act, for the Resignation of any Spiritual Office, being a Benefice with Cure of Souls, Dignity, Prebend, or Living Ecclesiastical, to the Intent or Purpose, to be manifested by the Terms of such Engagement, that any One Person whatsoever, to be specially named and described therein, or One or Two Persons to be specially named and described therein, being such Persons as are hereinafter mentioned, shall be presented, collated, nominated, or appointed to such Spiritual Office, or that the same shall be given or bestowed to or upon him, shall be good, valid, and effectual in the Law in all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and the Performance of the same may also be enforced in Equity: Provided always, that such Engagement shall be so crossed into before the Presentation, Nomination, Collation, or Appointment of the Party so entering into the same as aforesaid.

It. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That where Two Persons shall be so specially named and described in such Engagement, each of them shall be, either by Blood or Marriage, an Uncle, Son, Grandson, Brother, Nephew, or Grand Nephew of the Patron or of One of the Patrons of such Spiritual Office, not being merely a Trustee or Trustees of the Patronage of the same, or of the Person or One of the Persons for whom the Patron or Patrons shall be a Trustee or Trustees, or of the Person or One of the Persons by whose Direction such Presentation, Collation, Gift, or Bestowal shall be intended to be made, or of any Married Woman whose Husband in her Right shall be the Patron or One of the Patrons of such

Anno Regni GEORGH II. Britanniarum Regis, Decimo.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the Fourteenth Day of November, Anno Domini 1726, in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Fourth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and from thence continued, by several Proclamations, to the Fifth Day of February 1727, being the Third Session of the Eighth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

C A P. I.

An Act for the Suppression of dangerous Associations or Assemblies in Ireland.

[8th March 1726.]

WHEREAS an Association hath for some Time past existed in Ireland, calling itself, or which hath been usually called "The Catholic Association;" the Acts and Proceedings of which are dangerous to the Public Tranquillity and inconsistent with the Exercise of regular Government: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the said Association shall be and the same is hereby utterly suppressed and prohibited, and every Assembly or Meeting thereof, or of any of the Members thereof, as such Members, is hereby declared to be an unlawful Assembly, and the Persons present at the same shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanour.

Catholic Association suppressed.

II. And Whereas divers Statutes have from Time to Time been passed for the Suppression of dangerous Associations and Assemblies in Ireland, but the same have been by various Shifts and Devices evaded: And Whereas in the present State of Ireland it is expedient that, for the Time to be hereby limited, a Power should be vested in the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by his or their Proclamation or Order, to prohibit or suppress any Association, Assembly, or Meeting of Persons in Ireland, which he or they shall deem to be dangerous to the Public Peace or Safety, or inconsistent with the due Administration of the Law, or any adjourned, renewed, or otherwise continued Meeting of the same, or of any Part thereof, under any Name, Pretence, or Denom. whatsoever.

Lord Lieutenant empowered to suppress Associations or Assemblies by Proclamations.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace to whom such Proclamations or Order shall be given or transmitted by the Direction of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Purpose of being enforced, or any Number of such Justices, not being less than Two, shall and may proceed, with such Assistance as shall be necessary, to the Place where such Association, Assembly, or Meeting of Persons is held, and require and demand Admission into any House, Room, or Place whatsoever, where any such Justice shall have good Reason to believe, upon Information on Oath, that such unlawful Association, Assembly, or Meeting of Persons is held, and shall and may, in case they shall be refused Admission, enter therein by Force; and One of the said Justices, or some other Person by his Order, shall then and there read or repeat aloud to the Persons so assembled a Command or Notice to disperse, in the Words or to the Effect following; (that is to say.)

How Justices of the Peace shall proceed to suppress such Associations.

OUR Sovereign Lord the King chargeth and commandeth all Persons being assembled immediately to disperse themselves, and peaceably to depart, upon the Pain contained in the Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, for the Suppression of dangerous Associations or Assemblies in Ireland.

Notice to disperse.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Persons so met or assembled together, shall forthwith disperse and depart; and in case any one or more of the Persons so met or assembled together as aforesaid shall not disperse and depart within the Space of One Quarter of an Hour from the Time of such Notice or Command being given, it shall be lawful for the same or any Two of the same Justices of the Peace Persons not dispersing when required, may be apprehended and committed.

Peace then present to cause the Person or Persons so refusing or neglecting to disperse or depart to be apprehended and brought before them; or in case such Person or Persons cannot then be apprehended, such Person or Persons may be afterwards apprehended by a Warrant for that Purpose to be granted by any Two Justices of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction such unlawful Association, Assembly, or Meeting shall have been held, or such Offender or Offenders shall be found; and such Offender or Offenders shall thereupon be proceeded against in a summary Way for such Offence before any Two Justices of the Peace before whom he or they may be brought, who are hereby authorised to hear and determine the said Complaint, and every Person being convicted thereof, either on the View of One of the Justices to whom such Proclamation or Order shall have been so given or transmitted as aforesaid, or on his own Confession, or on the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, shall be committed to any One of His Majesty's Common Gaols or Prisons in Ireland for the Term of Three Calendar Months, and for a Second or any subsequent Offence against the Provisions of this Act, for the Term of One whole Year.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Justice of the Peace to whom any Proclamation or Order made in pursuance of this Act shall be given or transmitted for the Purpose of being enforced, shall, for all the Purposes of this Act, as well of Execution as otherwise, be empowered to act as a Justice of the Peace within every County, City, Town, or Place whatsoever throughout Ireland.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly permit or suffer any Meeting of any Association, Assembly, or Body of Persons, the Meeting whereof has been or shall have been prohibited or suppressed under or by virtue of this Act, to be held in any House, Building, Close, or other Place to such Person belonging, or under his Care or Control, such Person for every such Offence shall forfeit to His Majesty the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by Information to be filed in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person shall, after the Commencement of this Act, pay or contribute, or compel, procure, or solicit any other Person to pay or contribute, any Sum or Sums of Money, or other valuable Thing, to the Association hereinafter declared to be suppressed, or to any Association or Assembly of Persons which shall be heretofore prohibited or suppressed under and by virtue of this Act, after such Prohibition or Suppression thereof, or to any Person or Persons whatsoever, by the Order or Appointment, or to the Use of any such Association respectively, or acting for or on Behalf of such Association respectively, or of any Committee or any Members thereof, as such Members, or for or towards any Purpose, Object, or Design of any such Association or Assemblies respectively, or of any Committee or any Members thereof, as such Members, or for or towards any Purpose, Object, or Design of any such Association or Assembly, every Person so paying or contributing, or so compelling, procuring, or soliciting as aforesaid, under any Pretence or Device whatsoever, shall forfeit and pay, as a Penalty for such Offence, Treble the Amount of the Sum or Sums or of the Value of the Things so by him contributed and paid, or so by him compelled, procured, or solicited to be paid or contributed as aforesaid, against the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or the Sum of Ten Pounds, at the Election of His Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, which said Sum so forfeited as aforesaid shall be payable to and recoverable by any Person for that Purpose to be named by His Majesty's said Attorney General, upon Information to be laid before any Two Justices of the Peace sitting for the County, City, Town, or Place wherein such last-mentioned Offence shall be committed.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the whole of the Sums of Money, or of the Value of such other Things, so paid and contributed as aforesaid, against the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall belong to and be the Monies and Property of His Majesty, and the same, or the Value thereof, shall become and be deemed to be a Debt due to His Majesty from the Person or Persons receiving or otherwise having the same, to be recovered by Information, to be filed in the Name of His Majesty's said Attorney General, in the same Manner as other Monies had and received to the Use of His Majesty are recoverable by Law.

IX. And, for the better Discovery of the Amount of the Monies or other valuable Things so paid and contributed against the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, be it further enacted, That every Person receiving, or otherwise having the same, shall be obliged and compellable to answer, upon Oath, any Information filed in the Name of His Majesty's said Attorney General for Discovery of the same, and shall not, by Fine, Damages, or otherwise, protect himself from giving Answer thereto.

X. And be it further enacted, That any Conviction by any Justice of the Peace for any Offence committed, or any Penalty or Sum recoverable under this Act, shall and may be in the Form following, or in any Words to the like Effect, as the Case may require; (that is to say.)

“ I, BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____, 18____, is the Year of our Lord _____, One thousand eight hundred and _____, at _____, in the County of _____, A. D. of _____, is the County of _____, is convicted before _____, Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of _____, for that he the said _____, A. D. did not depart within One Quarter of an Hour after Command had been given by us [(if the convicting Justices be not the same, state by whom the Command was given)] for that Purpose to an Assembly or Meeting of Persons prohibited by a Proclamation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, made on the _____ Day of _____, and which Proclamation we [(to be altered as before, according to the Fact,) were ordered to enforce; for which Offence the said _____, A. D. is hereby adjudged by us, by force of the Statute made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, to be committed to His Majesty's Gaol at _____ in and for _____”

Pay to be forfeited during Imprisonment. Order to receive the, per Day for Sub-sistence of Prisoners.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, who shall be sentenced by any General, Divisional, or Detachment Court-martial to be imprisoned, shall forfeit all Right to any Pay from the Day of his Commitment during the Time of such Imprisonment; and also that during the Continuance of any such Imprisonment, the Guard or Keeper of such Prison or House of Correction shall receive the Sum of Sixpence per Diem out of the Sub-sistence of such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, during the Time that such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine shall continue in Custody; which said Sum the said Lord High Admiral, or Two or more of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being, are hereby authorised and required to cause to be paid by the Paymaster of Royal Marines to the said Guard or Keeper, upon receiving an Application in Writing to their Secretary, signed by any Justice of the Peace for the County or Riding in which such Guard, Prison, or House of Correction shall be locally situate, together with a Copy of the Order under which the said Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine was confined: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners for the Time being, if they should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of any Arrears of Pay, or of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Portion thereof, or of any Arrears thereof, as or on account of such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, during or after the Expiration of the Period of his Imprisonment in any Goal, House of Correction, or Place of Military Confinement.

Persons committed for Criminal Offences not to receive Pay till they return to the Regiment, &c.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or Private Marine, who shall be arrested and committed to Prison upon a Charge of any Criminal Offence, shall receive any Part of his Pay from the Day of such Commitment till the Day of his Return to the Company to which he shall belong, or which he shall be ordered to join; and if he shall be acquitted of the Offence for which he was committed, he shall, upon his Return to his Company, with the Approbation of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, on a Reference to them of his Case, but not otherwise, be entitled to receive all Arrears of Pay which were growing due during the Time of his Confinement; but if he shall be convicted, he shall forfeit all Right to any Pay from the Day of his Commitment during the Time of his Confinement, as well under the original Commitment as under any Commitment consequent upon such Conviction, and until the Day of his Return to the Company to which he shall belong, or which he shall be ordered to join: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or Two or more of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, to order the Issue and Payment to any such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, during any such Commitment or Imprisonment, or either of them, or any Part thereof, of the Pay of any such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or Private Marine, or of any Proportion of such Pay, or of any Arrears thereof, either during such Commitment or Imprisonment, or after the Discharge of such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or Private Marine, after Conviction or otherwise, as shall appear to the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners to be proper; and the Order of the said Lord High Admiral or any Two of the said Commissioners for the Payment of such Pay or Arrears shall be a sufficient Discharge for such Payment.

Persons receiving Bribing Money dis-suading, or refusing to go before a Magistrate, shall be deemed to be absent.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall receive the Bribing Money from any Officer, Non-commissioned or Private Marine, or other Person employed on the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond or refuse to go before such Justice or Chief Magistrate, or if any Person having received any such Bribing Money as aforesaid, shall thereafter absent himself from the Recruiting Party with which he enlisted, or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to such Recruiting Party or Person enlisting him, to go before some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate under the Provisions of this Act, within such Period of Four Days as aforesaid, such Person shall be deemed to be enlisted, and a Marine in His Majesty's Service, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if he had been duly enlisted, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; nor shall any such Person who shall not have returned with, or who shall not have returned to such Recruiting Party or Person enlisting him as aforesaid, be entitled to be discharged or be discharged by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate after the Expiration of such Four Days as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice of the Peace that the true Name and Residence of the Person enlisted was disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Person enlisted, or left at his last usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted.

Persons making false Statements and obtaining Bounty, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall knowingly, wilfully, and designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Form of Oath marked (A.) in the Schedule annexed to this Act, before the Justice of the Peace in the Time of his Attestation, for the Purpose of obtaining, and shall thereupon obtain any Bribing Money, or any Bounty or Part of the Bounty, for enlisting into His Majesty's Royal Marines, or any other Army, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if so Enforced, of an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of the present Majesty, entitled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England, relative to Larceny, and other Offences connected therewith; and if an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Persons who attempt to obtain Possession of Money or Goods by false Pretences or Frauds; and the Production of such Oath, and Proof of the Justice of the Peace's Handwriting thereon, shall, in any Prosecutions to be instituted against the enlisting Person or Persons therein named, be sufficient Evidence of such Person having represented the several Particulars contained in such Oath at the Time of his being attested; and Proof by the Oath of One or more cre-able Witness or Witnesses, that the Person so presented hath freely and voluntarily declared or acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Corps or Regiment in His Majesty's Service, or to His Majesty's Royal Navy or Royal Marines, or that he was an Apprentice, shall be deemed and taken as sufficient Evidence of the Fact so by him declared or acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and so every such Person shall be an Apprentice, or shall belong to the Militia, he shall, immediately after the Expiration of his Apprenticeship, or other sooner Determination of it, or at the Expiration of the Period of his Service in the Militia, whether he shall have been convicted and punished or not, be deemed duly enlisted, and be liable from thenceforth to serve as a Marine; and if, on the Expiration of other sooner Determination of his Apprenticeship, or at the Expiration of the Period of his Service in the Militia, he shall not deliver himself up to some Officer at the Head Quarters of one of the Divisions of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or to some Royal Marine Officer authorized to receive Recruits, he shall be liable to be apprehended and dealt with as a Deserter from His Majesty's said Royal Marine Forces; and in case such Person so enlisting into the Royal Marines shall be claimed and taken therefrom as already belonging to any other Regiment or Corps in His Majesty's Service, or to the Militia, at the Time of such Enlistment, he shall forfeit all Pay which may be due to him or Credits to which he would otherwise be entitled in the Royal Marine Service at the Time of his being so claimed and taken therefrom. Provided always, that every such Person belonging to the Militia shall be liable to serve, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Division of the Royal Marine Forces in which he shall have enlisted, during all the Time the Militia to which he shall belong shall remain disembodied; or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, and be liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Division into which he shall have so enlisted, if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve in such Division.

Apprentices and Militia liable to obtaining Money shall be deemed to be enlisted as Marines.

C A P. VI.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

[1834 March 1829.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Time of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law: And Whereas it is adjudged necessary by His Majesty, and the present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be continued, for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of His Majesty's Crown, and the Preservation of the Balance of Power in Europe, and that the whole Number of such Force should consist of Eighty-nine thousand seven hundred and twenty-three Men, exclusive of the Officers and Men belonging to the Regiments employed in the Territorial Possessions of the East India Company, but including the Officers and Men of the Troops and Companies recruiting for those Regiments: And Whereas no Man can be forsworn of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within this Realm, by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless, it being requisite for the maintaining all the before-mentioned Forces in their Duty, that no exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty's Service, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer, or who is or shall be listed or in Pay as a Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, begin, excite, cause, or join in any Mutiny or Sedition in His Majesty's Land or Marine Forces, or shall not use his utmost Endeavour to suppress the same, or coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny, shall not, without Delay, give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer; or shall misbehave himself before the Enemy; or shall shamefully shun or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall be commanded to defend; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress, or Post, to deliver up to the Enemy or to abandon the same; or shall speak Words or use any other Means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer, or others, to misbehave before the Enemy, or shamefully to shun or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his Post before relieved, or shall be found sleeping on his Post; or shall hold Correspondence with or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Enemy of His Majesty, either by Letters, Messages, Signs, or Tokens, in any Manner or Way whatsoever; or shall treat or confer with any Persons with such Rebel or Enemy, without His Majesty's License, or Licence of the General or Chief Commander; or shall strike or use any Violence against his Superior Officer, being in the Exercise of his Office, or shall disobey any lawful Command of his Superior Officer; or shall desert His Majesty's Service; and every Person and Persons so offending in any of the Matters before mentioned, whether such Offence shall be committed within this Realm, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or in Foreign Parts, upon Land or upon the Sea, shall suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court-martial shall be awarded.

II. And he is enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Officer or Soldier from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law; and any Commanding Officer who shall neglect or refuse, when Application is made up him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Statute.

Colon punished by Death.

The ordinary Course of Law may be in the ordinary Court.

Encl.

Civil Magistrate any Officer or Soldier accused of any Capital Crime, or of any Violence or Offence against the Person, Estate, or Property of any of His Majesty's Subjects, which is punishable by the known Laws of the Land, or shall wilfully neglect or refuse to assist the Officers of Justice in apprehending such Offender, shall, upon Conviction thereof in any Prosecution in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be ipso facto outlawed, and shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in His Majesty's Service, and a Certificate thereof shall be transmitted to the Judge Advocate in London; provided that no Person, having acquired or convicted of any Capital Crime, Violence, or Offence, by the Civil Magistrate, or by the Verdict of a Jury, shall be liable to be punished by a Court-martial for the same otherwise than by cashiering.

III. And be it enacted, That no Person whatsoever, (except an Apprentice) enlisted into His Majesty's Service as a Soldier shall be liable to be arrested or taken therefrom by reason of the Wanton of any Justice, on account of any Breach of Contract or Engagement to serve or work for any Employer; and no Person enlisted as a Soldier shall be liable to be taken out of His Majesty's Service by any Process or Executions whatsoever, other than for some Criminal Matter, unless an Affidavit shall be made by the Plaintiff, or some one on his Behalf, for which no Fee shall be taken, before some Judge of the Court out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, of which Affidavit a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be entered upon the Book of such Process, that the original Debt for which the Action has been brought or Executions sent out amounts to the Value of Twenty Pounds at least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions on which the same shall be grounded; and any Judge of such Court may cause into any Complaint made by a Soldier, or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Soldier without Fee, he being shewn to be duly enlisted, and to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid; provided that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Soldier, or left at his last Place of Residence before such Listing, may file a Common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, and protect therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and have Execution other than and against the Body.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to make Articles of War for the better Government of His Majesty's Forces, which Articles shall be judicially taken notice of by all Judges, and in all Courts whatsoever, and Copies of the same, printed by the King's Printer, shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall have been made and established by His Majesty, be transmitted by His Majesty's Secretary at War, signed with his own Hand and Name, to the Judges of His Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, Dublin, and Edinburgh respectively, and also to the Governors of His Majesty's Dominions Abroad; provided that no Person within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the British Isles, shall be subject by such Articles of War to any Punishment extending to Life or Limb for any Crime which is not expressed to be so punishable by this Act, nor in any Manner or under any Regulations which shall not accord with the Provisions of this Act.

V. And be it enacted, That His Majesty may from Time to Time grant a Commission, under the Royal Sign Manual, for the holding of General Courts-martial within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in like Manner as has been heretofore used; and that for bringing Offenders against the Articles of War to Justice, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to erect and constitute Courts-martial within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as well as to grant His Royal Commissions or Warrants to the Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, the Commander of the Forces, or the Person or Persons commanding in chief, or commanding for the Time being, any Body of His Majesty's Forces, as well within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and British Isles, as in any of His Majesty's Garrisons and Dominions or elsewhere beyond the Seas, for convening as well as for authorizing any Officer under their respective Commands, not below the Degree of a Field Officer, to constitute Courts-martial, in Occasions may require, for the Trial of Offences committed by any of their Forces under their several Commands, whether the same shall have been committed before or after such Officer shall have taken upon himself such Command; and any Person subject to this Act, who shall in any of His Majesty's Dominions beyond the Sea or elsewhere commit any of the Offences for which he may be liable to be tried by Courts-martial by virtue of this Act, may be tried and punished for the same in any other Part of His Majesty's Dominions where he may have come after the Commission of the Offence, so if the Offence had been committed where such Trial shall take place.

VI. And be it enacted, That a General Court-martial convened in any Part of the King's Dominions, (Ireland, Africa, and New South Wales excepted,) or in the Settlements of the East India Company, shall, in order to have Power to try a Commissioned Officer, or to pass Sentences of Death or Transportation on any Offender, consist of not less than Three Commissioned Officers, in which Sentences of Death Nine at the least of the Officers of any Court consisting of Thirteen shall concur; and if to try any Person not of the Rank of a Commissioned Officer, shall consist of not less than Nine; and such General Courts-martial convened in Bermuda, or out of the King's Dominions, excepting Africa and New South Wales, shall have not less than Seven, and in Africa and New South Wales not less than Five Commissioned Officers, and in all Cases where such General Courts-martial as aforesaid shall consist of more or fewer Officers than Thirteen, no Judgment of Death shall pass without the Concurrence of Two Thirds Soldiers not to be taken away from the Service for Breach of Contract with Employer, or Death under &c.

The King may make Articles of War in conformity with this Act.

at the least of the Officers present; and the President shall in no Case be the Officer commanding in chief or Governor of the Garrison where the Offender shall be tried, nor under the Degree of a Field Officer, unless where a Field Officer cannot be had, nor in any Case whatsoever under the Degree of a Captain.

VII. And be it enacted, That a General Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, solitary or otherwise, and with or without hard Labour, in any public Prison or other Place which such Court may appoint, to Corporal Punishment, not extending to Life and Limb, and to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay or Pension on Discharge, for Immorality, Misdemeanour, or Neglect of Duty; and whenever any General Court-martial by which a Deserter shall have been tried and convicted shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may, instead of awarding a Corporal Punishment, adjudge the Offender, according to the Nature of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which His Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have refused for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Soldier in any Corps which His Majesty shall please to direct, and the Court may, in addition to any other Punishment, sentence such Offender to forfeit all Advantage as to Increase of Pay, or as to Pension on Discharge, which might otherwise have accrued to such Offender: provided that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, instead of carrying such Sentence to be carried into Execution, in order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, as to His Majesty shall seem meet; and if any Person transported as a Felon, whether in pursuance of the original Sentence of the Court-martial, or in pursuance of such Order from His Majesty, shall afterwards return or be stayed at large, without Leave from His Majesty or other lawful Authority, within any Part of His Majesty's Dominions Abroad or at Home, other than the Place to which he shall have been transported, before the Expiration of the Term limited by such Sentence or Order, and shall be duly convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

VIII. And be it enacted, That every Paymaster or other Commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Forces, or any Person employed in the Ordnance or Commissariat Department, or in any Manner in the Care or Distribution of any Money, Provision, Forage, or Stores, who shall embezzle or fraudulently misapply, or be concerned in or connive at the Embezzlement, fraudulent Misapplication, or Damage of any Money, Provision, Forage, Arms, Clothing, Ammunition, or other Military Stores belonging to His Majesty's Forces or for His Use, may be tried for the same by a General Court-martial, which may adjudge any such Offender to be transported as a Felon for Life or for any certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Punishment of Fine, Imprisonment, Dismissal from His Majesty's Service, and Incapacity of serving His Majesty in any Office, Civil or Military, as such Court shall think fit, according to the Nature and Degree of the Offence; and every such Offender shall, in addition to any other Punishment, make good at his own Expence the Loss and Damage sustained, which shall have been ascertained by such Court-martial; and the Loss and Damage so ascertained as aforesaid shall be a Debt to His Majesty, and may be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster or in Dublin, or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or in any Court in His Majesty's Colonies, where the Person sentenced by such Court-martial shall be resident, after the said Judgment shall be confirmed and made known.

IX. And be it enacted, That a District or Garrison Court-martial shall consist of not less than Nine Commissioned Officers, and may in like Manner try Offences, and sentence any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier to Imprisonment, solitary or otherwise, and with or without hard Labour, in any Public Prison or other Place which such Court may appoint, and also to Corporal Punishment (not extending to Life or Limb), and to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, or as to Pension on Discharge, in addition to any other Punishment, for Desertion, for performing or selling Government Stores, for stealing from a Comrade or from a Military Officer, for producing false or fraudulent Accounts or Returns whereby increased Expence has been or would be brought upon the Public, for Embezzlement or Misapplication of Money entrusted to him, for which Offences such Soldier may further be put under Stoppage till the same be made good, or for such disgraceful Conduct as shall induce the said Court-martial to recommend such Offender to be discharged as unfit for the Service, from Vice or Misdemeanour, he having been once previously convicted of disgraceful Conduct by a Court-martial: and any District or Garrison Court-martial may deprive a Soldier of the Allowance in lieu of Bait, or of additional Pay, for any Period not exceeding Two Years, for habitual Drunkenness: provided that in all the foregoing Cases the Sentences shall be confirmed by the General Officer, Governor, or Senior Officer in command of the District, Garrison, Island, or Colony, except in Cases of Mutiny, when the Sentence may be confirmed and carried into Execution on the Spot by the Officer in the immediate Command of the Troops; and the President of every Court-martial, other than a General Court-martial, not being under the Rank of Captain, shall be appointed by the Officer commanding such Court-martial: provided that such Court-martial shall not have Power to pass any Sentence of Death or Transportation.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Court-martial empowered to try the Crime of Desertion, in addition to any other Punishment, to direct that the Offender be marked on the Left Side, Two Inches below the Arm-pit, with the Letter (D), with Letter not to be less than Half an Inch long, and to be marked upon the Skin with some Ink or Gunpowder, or other Preparation, as as to be visible and conspicuous, and not liable to be obliterated.

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer commanding any distinct Detachment or Portion of His Majesty's Troops which may at any Time be serving out of His Majesty's Dominions, upon Complaint made to him of any Offence committed against the Property or Person of any Inhabitant of or Resident in any such Country, by any Person serving with or belonging to His Majesty's Armies, being under the immediate Command of any such Officer, to summon and cause to assemble a Court-martial, which shall consist of not less than Three Officers, for the Purpose of trying any such Person, notwithstanding any such Officer shall not have received any Warrant empowering him to assemble Court-martial; and every such Court-martial shall have the same Powers in regard to summoning and examining Witnesses, Trial of and Sentence upon Offenders, as are granted by this Act to General Court-martial: provided that no Sentence of any such Court-martial shall be executed until the General commanding in chief the Army of which the Division, Brigade, Detachment, or Party to which any Person so tried, convicted, and adjudged to suffer Punishment shall belong, shall have appeared and confirmed the same.

Hearers of Officers upon Court-martial.

XII. And be it enacted, That in certain Cases, where it may be necessary or expedient, Officers of His Majesty's Marine Forces may sit upon Court-martial in conjunction with Officers of His Majesty's Land Forces; and such Court-martial shall be regulated, to all Intents and Purposes, in like Manner as if they were composed of Officers of the Land Forces only, whether the Commanding Officer by whose Orders such Court-martial is assembled belongs to the Land or to the Marine Forces; and Officers of His Majesty's Land Forces, and Officers in the Service of the East India Company, when serving together, may be associated in Court-martial, which shall, to all Intents and Purposes, be regulated in like Manner as if consisting wholly of Officers of His Majesty's Land Forces, or wholly of Officers in the Service of the East India Company; save and except that on the Trial of any Person in His Majesty's Service, the Provisions of this Act, and the Oaths thereby prescribed, shall be applicable; and on the Trial of any Officer or Soldier in the Service of the East India Company, the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His Majesty, to amend the Laws for punishing Mutiny and Desertion of Officers and Soldiers in the Service of the East India Company, and the Oaths thereby prescribed, shall be applicable, notwithstanding any Officer in the actual Service of the said Company may have a Commission from His Majesty.

Power to administer Oaths.

XIII. And be it enacted, That all General and other Court-martial shall have Power and Authority and are hereby required to administer an Oath to every Witness or other Person who shall be examined before such Court, in any Matter relating to any Proceedings before the same.

Proceedings of Court-martial.

XIV. And be it enacted, That to all Trials by Court-martial to be held by virtue of this Act, every Member assisting at such Trial, before any Proceedings be had thereupon, shall take the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed, before the Judge Advocate or his Deputy, or Person officiating as such, or, if a Regimental Court-martial, before the President of such Court, who are hereby respectively authorised to administer the same; and in Regimental Court-martial any sworn Member shall administer the Oath to the President; and as soon as the said Oaths shall have been administered in the respective Members, the President of the Court is hereby authorised and required to administer to the Judge Advocate, or the Person officiating as such, the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and no Proceeding or Trial shall be had upon any Offence but between the Hours of Eight of the Clock in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon, except in Cases which require an immediate Example, and except in the East Indies, where such Proceedings or Trial may be had between the Hours of Six in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon: provided that, that all Witnesses duly summoned by the Judge Advocate, or the Person officiating as such, shall, during their necessary Attendance in such Courts, and in going to and returning from the same, be privileged from Arrest; and shall, if unlawfully arrested, be discharged by the Court out of which the Writ or Process issued by which such Witness was arrested; or if such Court be not sitting, then by any Judge of the Court of King's Bench in London or in Dublin, or Court of Session in Scotland, or Courts of Law in the East or West Indies or elsewhere, according as the Case shall require, upon its being made to appear to such Court or Judge, by Affidavit in a summary Way, that such Witness was arrested in going to or returning from or attending upon such Court-martial; and that all Witnesses so duly summoned as aforesaid who shall not attend on such Courts shall be liable to be attached in the Court of King's Bench in London or Dublin, or Court of Session, or Sheriff Depute or Stewards Depute, or their respective Substitutes, within their several Shires and Sovereigns in Scotland, or Courts of Law in the East or West Indies, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies, Countries, or Dominions in Europe or elsewhere respectively, upon Complaint made, in like Manner as if such Witness had neglected to attend in a Trial in any Proceeding in that Court.

Appeal.

XV. And be it enacted, That no Officer or Soldier, being acquitted or convicted of any Offence, shall be liable to be tried a Second Time by the same or any other Court-martial for the same Offence, unless in the Case of an Appeal from a Regimental or a General Court-martial; and that no Finding, Opinion, or Sentence given by any Court-martial, and signed by the President thereof, shall be liable to be revised more than once.

Report of Proceedings of General Court-martial.

XVI. And be it enacted, That every Judge Advocate, or Person officiating as such at a general Court-martial, is required to transmit, with as much Expedition as the Opportunity of Time and Distance of Place can admit, the original Proceedings and Sentence thereof to the Judge Advocate General in London, in whose Office they shall be carefully preserved; and the Person tried by such Court, or any Person in his Behalf, shall be entitled, on Demand, to a Copy of such Sentence and Proceedings (paying reasonably for the same), whether such Sentence shall be approved or not, at any Time not exceed than Six Months if the Trial took place at Gibraltar or in the Mediterranean, Three Months if at any other Station within Europe, and Twelve Months if elsewhere in His Majesty's Dominions: Provided that such Demand as aforesaid shall be made, and any Proceedings thence had, within within the Space of Three Years from the Date of the Approval or other final Decision upon the Proceedings before such General Court-martial.

XVII. And be it enacted, That whenever it is intended that a Person convicted of Desertion shall be transported, either in pursuance of the original Sentence of a Court-martial or of His Majesty's gracious Order of Commutation as aforesaid, the Sentence of the Court-martial, together with His Majesty's Pardon upon the same, shall be notified in Writing by the Officer commanding in chief His Majesty's Forces in Great Britain and Ireland, or, in the temporary Absence of such Officer, by the Adjutant General, to any Judge of the King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in England or Ireland; and thereupon such Judge shall make an Order for the Transportation of such Offender in conformity with such Notification, and shall also do all such other Acts consequent upon the same as such Judge is authorized to do by any Act in force touching the Transportations of other Offenders; and the Persons in whose Custody such Offender shall at that Time be, and all other Persons whatsoever whom the said Order may concern, shall be bound to obey and shall be assailable in the Execution thereof, and shall be liable to the same Punishment for Disobedience, or for interrupting the Execution of the same, as if the Order had been made under the Authority of any such Act as aforesaid; and every Person so ordered to be transported shall be subject to every Provision made by Law and in force concerning Persons convicted of any Crime and under Sentence of Transportation; and from the Time when such Order of Transportation shall be made, every Act now in force touching the Escape of Persons shall apply to such Offender, and to all Persons aiding, abetting, harbouring, or assisting in any Escape or intended escape of any such Offender; and the Justice or Magistrate who shall make any Order of Transportation as aforesaid shall direct the Notification of His Majesty's Pardon, and his own Order made thereupon, to be filed and kept of Record in the Office of the Clerk of the Crown of the Court of King's Bench; and the said Clerk shall have a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence only for filing the same, and shall, on Application, deliver a Certificate in Writing (not taking more than Two Shillings and Sixpence for the same) to such Offender, or to any Person applying in his or in His Majesty's Behalf, shewing the Christian Name and Surname of such Offender, his Office, the Place where the Court was held before whom he was convicted, and the Conditions on which the Order of Transportation was given; which Certificate shall be sufficient Proof of the Conviction and Sentence of such Offender, and also of the Terms on which such Order for his Transportation was given, in any Court and in any Proceeding wherein it may be necessary to inquire into the same.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That whenever any Person convicted of Desertion is to be transported from the East Indies, or from any Part of His Majesty's Foreign Dominions, either in pursuance of the original Sentence of a Court-martial or in Commutation of Capital Punishment, a similar Notification shall be made by the Officer commanding in chief His Majesty's Forces at the Station, or in his Absence by the Adjutant General for the Time being, to some Judge of One of the Supreme Courts of Judicature in the East Indies, or Chief Justice, or some other Judge, on the Case, any be, in any Part of His Majesty's Foreign Dominions, who shall make Order for the Transportation or intermediate Custody of such Offender, in such Manner and to or in such Place as shall be specified in any Directions given to such Chief Justice or Judge, in relation to any such Offender, by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the necessary Proceedings shall be taken according to such Order for the Transportation or intermediate Custody of such Offender; and all Acts in force in such Place touching other Offenders so transported shall in all respects apply as well to the Offender himself as to be transported as to all other Persons whatsoever therein concerned.

XIX. And be it enacted, That all Crimes and Offences which have been committed against any Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, or against any of the Articles of War made and established by virtue of the same, may, during the Continuance of this Act, be inquired of and punished in like Manner as if they had been committed against this Act; and every Warrant for holding any Court-martial under any former Act shall remain in full Force notwithstanding the Expire of such Act; and all Proceedings of any Court-martial upon any Trial begun under the Authority of such former Act shall not be discontinued by the Expire of the same; provided that no Person shall be liable to be tried and punished for any Offence against any of the said Acts or Articles of War which shall appear to have been committed more than Three Years before the issuing of the Commission or Warrant for such Trial, unless the Person accused, by reason of his having absented himself, or of some other manifest Impediment, shall not have been amenable to Justice within that Period, in which Case such Person shall be liable to be tried at any Time not exceeding Two Years after the Impediment shall have ceased.

XX. And be it enacted, That every Soldier who shall desert from His Majesty's Service shall be liable to all the Fines and Penalties imposed by this Act for every such Offence committed by him, notwithstanding his having again enlisted into His Majesty's Service; and every Soldier of right belonging to any Corps from which he may have originally deserted may be tried for deserting from any other Corps in which he may afterwards have enlisted, or from His Majesty's Service, if he shall not after such subsequent Enlisting have been placed in any Corps, or may be tried for any Crime committed by him while serving therein, notwithstanding it shall be known that he had previously belonged to some other Corps or Party, and had not been discharged therefrom; and if such Person shall be claimed by such other Corps or Party, and be proceeded against as a Deserter therefrom, his subsequent Desertion from any One or more Corps in which he may have unreasonably enlisted may be given in

Transportation from the Colonies.

Offences against former Mutiny Acts may be tried under this Act.

Subsequent Enlistment or Proceeding from Punishment does not discharge the Offender.

Evidence as an Aggravation of his Crime, previous Notice being always given to such Deserter of the Intention to produce such Evidence upon his Trial.

Apprehension of Deserters.

XXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Constable of any Place where any Person reasonably suspected to be a Deserter shall be found, or of any adjoining Place, and if no such Constable can be immediately met with, then for any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Service, to apprehend, or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to cause him to be brought before any Justice living in or near such Place, and acting for the same or any adjoining County, who hath heretofore Power to examine such suspected Person; and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witnesses upon Oath, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, it shall appear that such suspected Person is a Soldier, and ought to be with the Corps to which he belongs, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public Prison in such Place, or if there be no public Prison in such Place, then, at the Discretion of such Justice of the Peace, to the nearest or most convenient public Prison in the same or any next adjoining County, or to the Provost Marshal, in case such Deserter shall be apprehended within the City or Liberties of Dublin or Places adjacent; and such Justice shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary at War, or, if the Deserter be apprehended in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary, in this End that such Person may be proceeded against according to Law; and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary at War a Report, stating the Names of the Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured; and the Secretary at War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to such Persons of such Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, as the Secretary at War shall be entitled they are entitled to, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act: Provided also, that no Fee or Reward shall be taken by any Justice, or his Clerk, in respect of any Information, Commitment, or Report as aforesaid.

Prohibition
Deserters.

XXII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall voluntarily deliver himself up as a Deserter from His Majesty's Forces, or the enrolled Militia, or the Forces of the East India Company, or who, upon being apprehended for any Offence, shall, in the Presence of the Justices, confess himself to be a Deserter as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted and to be a Soldier, and shall be liable to serve in any of His Majesty's Forces, as His Majesty shall think fit to appoint, whether such Person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a Soldier or not; and if the Person so confessing himself to be a deserter shall be serving at the Time in any of His Majesty's Forces, he shall be deemed to be and shall be dealt with as a Deserter.

Penalty for inducing or inducing to desert.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, directly or indirectly, persuade any Soldier to desert His Majesty's Service, shall suffer such Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or both, as the Court before which the Conviction may take place shall adjudge; and every Person who shall assist any Deserter from His Majesty's Service, knowing him to be such, in deserting or in concealing himself from such Service, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty for harbouring Entry.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That every Commissioned Officer who shall, without Warrant from One or more of His Majesty's Justices, forcibly enter into or break upon the Dwelling House or Out-houses of any Person whatsoever, under Pretence of searching for Deserters, shall, upon due Proof thereof, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Custody of Offenders under a Military Sentence.

XXV. And be it enacted, That every Gaoler and Keeper of any Prison or House of Correction in England or Ireland shall, upon the Order in Writing of any Commanding Officer of a District, Garrison, Regiment, or Corps (as the Case may be), receive and provide a proper Place of Confinement for any Soldier under Sentence of Imprisonment by a Court-martial, and shall detain such Soldier during the Period stated in such Order, or until he be discharged, or shall deliver up such Soldier to any Person producing an Order in Writing to that Effect from any such Commanding Officer as aforesaid, although the Period for which the Soldier was originally committed shall not have expired; and every such Gaoler who shall refuse to receive and to confine any such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier in Manner as aforesaid shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Deserters.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Gaoler or Person having the immediate Inspection of any Prison, Gaol, or House of Correction in England and Ireland shall receive and apply to the Maintenance of every Soldier, during the Period of his Imprisonment, Shillings per Diem, which the Secretary at War shall cause to be issued out of the Subsidience of such Soldier, upon Application in Writing, signed by any Justice, within whose Jurisdiction such Place of Confinement shall be locally situated, together with a Copy of the Order of Commitment; and each Gaoler is hereby required to receive and confine every Deserter who shall be delivered into his Custody by any Soldier conveying such Deserter under lawful Authority, on Production of the Warrant of the Justice of the Peace on which such Deserter shall have been taken, or some Order from the Office of the Secretary at War, or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; and such Gaoler shall be entitled to One Shilling for the safe Custody of the said Deserter, while detained on the March, and to such Subsidience for his Maintenance as shall be directed by His Majesty's Regulations.

Notice of Expiration of Imprisonment.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That every Gaoler to whom any Notice shall have been given that any Person in his Custody for any Offence is a Soldier liable to serve His Majesty on the Expiration of his Imprisonment, shall give One Month's Notice of the Period of such Expiration of Imprisonment, or if there shall not be sufficient Time for a Month's Notice, then the longest practicable Notice thereof, to the Secretary at War, or if in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary.

XXVIII. And

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That all the Provisions of this Act shall apply to all Persons employed on the Recruiting Service, receiving Pay in respect of such Service, and to the Officers and Persons near or otherwise serving and hired to be employed in the Royal Artillery and Field Train, and Master Gunners and Gunners, and Conductors of Stores, and in the Regiment of Royal Engineers, and in the Corps of Royal Sappers and Miners, and in the Corps of Royal Military Surveyors and Draftsmen, in the Ordnance and in the Commissariat Departments, and who are or shall be serving with any Part of His Majesty's Forces, at Home or Abroad, under the Command of any Officer having Commission from His Majesty; and all Storekeepers and other Civil Officers who are or shall be employed by or act under the Ordnance at any of His Majesty's Ordnance Establishments at Foreign Stations; provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to affect any Security which has been given by such Storekeepers, Barrack Master, or other Officers, or their Sureties, for the due Performance of their respective Offices, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, to regulate the taking of Securities in all Offices, but that such Bonds and other Securities shall be and remain in full Force and Effect.

Various Persons subject to the Act.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That all Officers and Soldiers of any Troops, being mustered and in Pay, which shall be raised and serving in any of His Majesty's Dominions Abroad, or in Places in Possession of or occupied by His Majesty's Subjects, under the Command of any Officer having any Commission immediately from His Majesty, shall be liable to Martial Law in like Manner as His Majesty's other Forces are; and if such Officers and Soldiers, having been made Prisoners, be sent into England or Ireland, although not allowed to serve therein, all the Provisions of this Act, so regard to billeting Soldiers, shall apply to such Officers and Soldiers.

Foreign Troops in this Concept.

XXX. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall in anywise be construed to extend to any of the Militia Forces or Yeomanry or Volunteer Corps in Great Britain or Ireland, excepting only in such Cases wherein, by any Act or Acts for regulating any of the said Forces or Corps, the Provisions contained in any Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion shall be specifically made applicable to the said Corps.

Militia and Yeomanry.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be construed to extend to the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, as to the Provisions therein for mustering and paying, and as to the Provisions for the Trial and Punishment of Officers and Soldiers who shall be charged with Mutiny and Desertion, or any other of the Offences which are by this Act declared to be punishable by the Sentence of a General, or Garrison, or Detachment, or Regimental Court-martial, and also to the Provisions which relate to the Punishment of Persons who shall conceal Deserters, or shall knowingly buy, exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Clothes, Military Furniture, or Regimental Necessaries, from any Soldier or Deserter, or who shall cause the Colour of any such Clothes to be changed.

Limitations as to certain Islands.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall receive Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service, he being an Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or an attested Soldier, shall be deemed to be enlisted as a Soldier in His Majesty's Service, and while he shall remain with the Recruiting Party shall be entitled to be billeted; and every Person who shall enlist any Recruit shall first ask the Person offering to enlist, whether he does or does not belong to the Militia, and shall cause to be taken down, in Writing, the Name and Place of Abode of such Recruit; and when any Person shall be enlisted as a Soldier in His Majesty's Land Service, he shall, within Four Days, but not sooner than Twenty-four Hours after such enlisting, appear, together with some Person employed in the Recruiting Service of the Party with which he shall have enlisted, before a Justice residing in the Vicinity of the Place, and acting for the Division or District where such Recruit shall have been enlisted, and not being an Officer in the Army; and if such Recruit shall declare his having voluntarily enlisted, the said Justice shall cause to be read to him the Notice contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and shall examine him as to whether he does or does not belong to the Militia, and shall require the Recruit to sign a Declaration in the Form in the said Schedule, and he is hereby required forthwith to cause to be read over in his own Presence to such Recruit the First and Second Article of the Second Section of the Articles of War against Mutiny and Desertion, and to administer to such Recruit the Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity, and Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed, for limited or unlimited Service, or for Service in the Forces of the East India Company, as may be applicable to the Case of the Recruit, and to other Oaths, any Thing in any Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and the said Justice is hereby required forthwith to certify, under his Hand, the enlisting and swearing, in the Form attached to such Oaths respectively, together with the Place of Birth, Age, and Calling, if known, of such Recruit; and if any such Recruit so to be certified shall refuse to take the Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity before the said Justice, it shall be lawful for the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer with whom he related to detain and confine such Person until he shall take the said Oath of Fidelity.

Enlisting and swearing of Recruits.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That any Recruit appearing as aforesaid before such Justice shall be at Liberty to declare his Consent to such Enlisting, and upon such Declaration, and returning the Enlisting Money, and also paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings for the Charges expended upon him, together with the full Amount of Subsidences and Bount Money which shall have been paid to such Recruit consequent to the Period of his having been enlisted, shall be forthwith discharged and set at Liberty, in the Presence of such Justice; but if such Person shall refuse or neglect, within the Space of Twenty-four Hours after so declaring his Consent, to return such Money as aforesaid, he shall be deemed and taken to be enlisted as if he had given his Assent thereto before the said Justice: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice to discharge any Person who shall have hastily enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Disent within such Four Days as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Disent under this Act, notwithstanding as Persons belonging to the Recruiting Party shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Justice, upon Proof to his Satisfaction, that the Recruiting Party has left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that the Recruit could not procure any Person belonging to such Party to go with him before the Justice; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice, and paid to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same; provided that no Recruit who has been actually, though erroneously, discharged by the Justice, before the Expiration of Twenty-four Hours after the Time of his Enlistment, shall be liable so that Account to be presented against as having deserted from His Majesty's Service; and the Justice who shall discharge any Recruit shall in every Case give a Certificate thereof, signed with his Hand, to the Recruit, specifying the Cause thereof.

XXXIV. And he it enacted, That if any Recruit shall receive the Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond, or refuse to go before such Justice, or shall thereafter absent himself from the Recruiting Party or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to go before some Justice within such Period of Four Days as aforesaid, such Recruit shall be deemed to be enlisted as a Soldier in His Majesty's Service, so fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if he had been duly enlisted, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and such Recruit shall not be discharged by any Justice of the Peace after the Expiration of such Four Days as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit was declared and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Recruit, or left at his usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted: provided that in every Case wherein any Recruit shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded from the Party, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a Justice, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Justice before whom the Recruit ought regularly to have been brought for Attestation, a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Recruit and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to His Majesty's Secretary at War, or if in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary, in order that, in the Event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Fact of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and any Recruit who shall enlist into His Majesty's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmary concealed or not declared by such Recruit before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and mentioned at the Foot thereof, may be transferred into any Garrison or Voyage or Invalid Detachment, or into His Majesty's Marine Forces, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Sum of Money only as His Majesty may allow in that behalf, instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted, any Thing in any Act or Acts, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers, or to the contrary notwithstanding, and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices before whom such Recruit shall be brought, and who shall be proved, upon Oath before them, to have wilfully concealed any such Infirmary upon being offered, or to have designedly made any false Representation as aforesaid, to adjudge such Person to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law now in force may be inflicted upon Rogues and Vagabonds and Vagrants and incorrigible Rogues; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificate in the Schedule to this Act answered, before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and shall obtain any Enlisting Money, or any Bounty for entering into His Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act, intitled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences committed therewith; and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences committed therewith; and the Production of such Certificate, and Proof of the Breach of the Justice giving such Certificate, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Party having represented the several Particulars contained in the Oath sworn by him, and specified in the Certificate of the Justice at the Time of his being attested; and that Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses, that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in His Majesty's Service, or to His Majesty's Navy or Marines, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Bill or other Document to prove the same; and any Man who at the Time of offering to enlist shall deny that he is a Militia Man then actually enrolled and engaged to serve, or shall deny to the Justice before whom he shall be attested that he belongs to the Militia, shall, on Conviction thereof before any One Justice in the United Kingdom, either upon Oath of One Witness or upon his own Confession, or upon the Production of the Attestation, and the before-mentioned Declaration of such Person, certified by the Secretary at War, or Deputy Secretary at War, be committed to the Common Goal or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for and during any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, nor and above any Penalty or Punishment to which such Person so offending may be otherwise liable; and shall, then the Day on which his Engagement to serve in the Militia shall end, and not sooner, belong as a Soldier to the Corps of His Majesty's Regular Forces or of the East India Company's Forces, into which he shall have an entree; provided that every such Person shall be liable to serve, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of His Majesty's Regular Forces, or of the East India Company's Forces, in which he has an entree, during all the Time the Militia in which he shall belong shall remain disbanded, or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, and liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Corps in which he shall have an entree, if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve in such Corps as aforesaid.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That every Military Officer who shall act contrary to the Provisions of this Act in any Respect regarding the enlisting and enlisting of Recruits for His Majesty's Service, shall, upon Proof thereof, upon Oath by Two Witnesses before a General Court-martial, which is hereby authorized to administer such Oath, be cashiered, and disabled to hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in His Majesty's Service.

XXXVI. And Whereas it is expedient that Provisions should be made for the enlisting and enlisting of Soldiers desirous of re-enlisting, and others desirous of enlisting abroad; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person duly appointed by His Majesty, by any Warrant signed by the Secretary at War in that Behalf, and not being a General Officer commanding any Regimental Commission, to enlist and enlist, out of Great Britain or Ireland, any Soldiers or Persons desirous of enlisting or re-enlisting into His Majesty's Service; and any Person so appointed shall have the same Powers in that Behalf as are given to Justices in the United Kingdom for all such Purposes of Enlistment and Attainment; and any Person so enlisted or re-enlisted shall be deemed to be an attested Soldier; and as often as any Corps shall be relieved or be disbanded at any Station beyond the Seas, it shall be lawful for any Officers thereto authorized by the Officer commanding in chief at such Station to enlist as many of the Soldiers belonging to the Corps leaving the Station as shall be willing and fit for Service for any Corps appointed to remain; and every Soldier so enlisted is hereby deemed to be discharged from his former Corps; and an attested Certificate of Transfer shall be delivered to the Soldier.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That all Negroes purchased by or on account of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and serving in any of His Majesty's Forces, shall be deemed and taken to be free in every respect as if born free in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, and shall be considered as Soldiers having voluntarily enlisted in His Majesty's Service; provided that nothing contained in this Act as to enlisting for limited Periods of Service, or in any other Act as to any Rules or Regulations for granting Pensions or Allowances to Soldiers discharged after certain Periods of Service, shall extend to any Negroes so purchased.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That any Person duly bound as an Apprentice who shall enlist as a Soldier in His Majesty's Land Service, and shall come to the Magistrate before whom he shall be sworn and attested that he is not an Apprentice, shall, on Comprehension thereof, be liable to be indicted and punished for obtaining Money under false Pretences, and shall, after the Expiration of his Apprenticeship, whether he shall have been so convicted and punished, or not, be liable to serve as a Soldier in any of His Majesty's Regular Forces; and if on the Expiration of his Apprenticeship he shall not deliver himself up to some Officer authorized to receive Recruits, may be taken as a Deserter from His Majesty's Forces.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That no Master shall be entitled to claim an Apprentice who shall enlist as a Soldier in His Majesty's Service, unless he shall, within One Calendar Month after such Apprenticeship shall have left his Service, go before some Justice and take the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and produce the Certificate of such Justice of his having taken such Oath, which Certificate such Justice is required to give in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and unless such Apprenticeship shall have been bound, if in England, for the full Term of Seven Years, not having been above the Age of Fourteen when so bound, and, if in Scotland or in the Welsh Isles, for the full Term of Five Years at the least, not having been above the Age of Sixteen when so bound, and, if in Scotland, for the full Term at least of Four years, by a regular Contract or Indenture of Apprenticeship, duly extended, signed, and tested, and binding on both Parties by the Law of Scotland, prior to the Period of Enlistment, and unless such Contract or Indenture so duly executed shall, within Three Months after the Commencement of the Apprenticeship, and before the Period of Enlistment, have been produced to a Justice of the Peace of the County wherein the Parties reside, and there shall have been indorsed thereon by such Justice a Certificate or Declaration signed by him, specifying the Date when and the Person by whom such Contract or Indenture shall have been so produced, which Certificate or Declaration such Justice of the Peace is hereby required to indorse and sign; and unless such Apprenticeship shall, when claimed by such Master, be under Twenty-one Years of Age; provided that any Master of an Apprentice indentured for the Sea Service shall be entitled to claim and recover them in the Form and Manner above directed, notwithstanding such Apprenticeship may have been bound for a less Term than Seven, Five, or Four Years as aforesaid; and any such Master, who shall give up the Indenture of Apprenticeship within One Month after the relating of such Apprenticeship, shall be entitled to receive, to his own Use, or to such of the Bounty payable to such Recruit, after deducting therefrom Two Guineas to provide him with Necessaries, as shall not have been paid to such Recruit before Notice given of his being an Apprentice.

XL. And be it enacted, That no Apprentice claimed by his Master shall be taken into any Corps or Recruiting Party but under a Warrant of a Justice residing near and within whose Jurisdiction such Apprentice shall then happen to be, before whom he shall be sworn, and such Justice shall inquire into the Master upon Oath, which Oath he is hereby empowered to administer; and shall require the Production and Proof of the Indenture, and that Notice of the said Warrant has been given to the Commanding Officer, and a Copy thereof left with some Officer or Non-commissioned Officer of the Party, and that such Person so indicted declared that he was no Apprentice; and such Justice, if required by such Officer or Non-commissioned Officer, shall demand the Offender to the Common Gaol of the said Place, and shall keep the Indenture, to be produced when required, and shall bind over such Person as he may think proper to give Evidence against the Offender, who shall be tried at the next or next succeeding General or Quarter Sessions of the County, Division, or Place, unless the Court shall on just Cause put off the Trial; and the Production of the Indenture, with the Certificate of the Justice, that the same was proved, shall be sufficient Evidence of the said Indenture; and every such Offender, in Scotland, may be tried by the Judge Ordinary in the County or Stewartry, in such and the like Manner as any Person may be tried in Scotland for any Offence not inferring a Capital Punishment; provided that any Justice not required as aforesaid to commit such Apprentice may deliver him to his Master.

Masters, and Penalty on false Masters.

XLI. And be it enacted, That Masters shall be taken of every Regiment, Troop, or Company in His Majesty's Service Twice at the least in every Year, at such Times as shall be appointed; and no Soldier shall be absent from such Masters, unless properly certified to be employed on some other Duty of the Regiment, or to be sick, or in Prison, or on Furlough; and every Person who shall give or procure to be given any untrue Certificate, whereby to excuse any Soldier for his Absence from any Master or any other Service which he ought to attend or perform, or shall make any false or untrue Master of Man or Horse, or shall wilfully or wilfully allow or sign the Master Roll wherein such false Master is contained, or any Duplicate thereof, or who shall directly or indirectly take or cause to be taken any Money or Gratuity for mastering any Soldiers, or for signing any Master Rolls or Duplicate thereof, or shall knowingly master any Person by a wrong Name, upon Proof thereof upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before a General Court-martial, shall for such Offence be forthwith cashiered, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in His Majesty's Service; and any Person who shall falsely be mastered or offer himself to be mastered, or lend or furnish any Horse to be falsely mastered, shall, upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before some Justice of the Peace residing near the Place where such Master shall be made, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and the Informer, if he belong to His Majesty's Service, shall, if he demand it, be forthwith discharged.

Masters to be in every Year.

XLI. And be it enacted, That Fortynight Hears Notice shall be given to Six Justices, not being Officers of the Army, residing within the City and Liberties of Westminster and Borough of Southwark, of the Master to be taken of His Majesty's Forces quartered within the said City and Liberties and Borough; and no Officer shall proceed to take such Masters, under Penalty of Fifty Pounds, except in the Presence of Two or more Justices, who shall take Cognizance of such Master, and sign the same, unless such Justices shall neglect to attend, of which Neglect, as well as of the proper Notice being given to such Justices, Oath shall be made, within Forty-eight Hours after such Master, before any Justice; and the Officer appointed to take the Half-pay Masters of any of His Majesty's Forces, at any Place Ten Miles distant from London, shall close the Master Rolls within Twenty-four Hours after the said Master has been made, and send a Copy thereof, within Seven Days, to the Secretary at War.

Pay.

XLI. And be it enacted, That no Soldier shall be entitled to Pay during his Absence from Duty in His Majesty's Service in consequence of any Offence, Civil or Military, or any Imprisonment under any Sentence of any Court, or by reason of any Arrest for Debt, or as a Prisoner of War; provided that any Non-commissioned Officer, or any Soldier, acquitted of the Offence for which he was committed, shall, upon Return to his Duty in his Corps, be entitled to receive all Arrears of Pay growing due during his Confinement; and upon rejoining His Majesty's Service from being a Prisoner of War, due Inquiry shall be made by a Court-martial, and if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Court that the said Soldier was taken Prisoner without wilful Neglect of Duty on his Part, and that he hath not served with or under or in any Manner aided the Enemy, and that he hath returned as soon as possible to His Majesty's Service, he may thereupon be recommended by such Court to receive either the Whole of such Arrears of Pay, or a Proportion thereof; and no Soldier who shall have been confined under any legal Sentence, shall be allowed to reckon towards Pay or Pension any Part of the Period from the Day of his first Commitment to the Day of rejoining his Corps; provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Secretary at War to order or withhold the Payment of the Whole or any Part of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier during the Period of his Confinement, whether before or after Conviction, or to issue any Part of the Pay of a Prisoner of War which he may think proper.

Furlough Pay.

XLI. And be it enacted, That when there shall not be any Military Officer of Rank, not inferior to Captain, or any Adjutant of Regular Militia, within convenient Distance of the Place where any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier on Furlough shall be detained by Sickness or other Casualty rendering necessary any Extension of such Furlough, it shall be lawful for any Justice, who shall be satisfied of such Necessity, to grant an Extension of Furlough for a Period not exceeding one Month; and the said Justice shall immediately certify such Extension, and the Cause thereof, to the Commanding Officer of the Corps or Detachment to which the Man belongs, if known, and if not, then to the Agent of the Regiment, in order that the proper Sum may be remitted to the Soldier, who shall not during the Period of such Extension of Furlough be liable to be treated as a Deserter; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt any Soldier from Trial and Punishment, according to the Provision of this Act, for any false Representation made by him in that behalf to the said Justice, or for any Breach of Discipline committed by him in applying for and obtaining the said Extension of Forfeiture.

XLV. And be it enacted, That every Soldier entitled to his Discharge shall, if then serving Abroad, be sent, if he shall so require it, to Great Britain or Ireland free of Expence, and shall be entitled to receive Marching Money from the Place of his being landed, (or, if discharged at Home, shall receive Marching Money from the Place of his Discharge,) to the Parish or Place to which he shall have been originally enlisted.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That all Commissaries, upon making up their Accounts, and also upon returning from any Foreign Service, shall take the Oath described in the Schedule to this Act annexed; which Oath, if taken in any Part of the United Kingdom, shall be taken before some Justice, and, if taken as Foreign Service, before the Officer commanding in chief, or the Second in command, or the Quarter Master or Deputy Quarter Master General, or any Assistant Quarter Master General of the Army to which he shall be attached, who shall respectively have Power to administer the same.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That no Secretary at War, Paymaster General of the Army, Paymaster, or any other Officer whatsoever, or their under Officers, shall receive any Fees or make any Deductions whatsoever out of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Army, or from their Agents, which shall grow due from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, other than the usual Deductions, or such other necessary Deductions as shall from Time to Time be required by His Majesty's Regulations, or by His Majesty's Order signed by the Secretary at War; and every Paymaster or other Officer having received any Officer or Soldier's Pay, who shall unlawfully detain the same for the Space of One Month, or refuse to pay the same when it shall become due, according to the several Rates and apportion to the several Regulations established by His Majesty's Orders, shall, upon proof thereof before a Court-martial, be discharged from his Employment, and shall forfeit One hundred Pounds, and the Informer, if a Soldier, if he demands it, shall be discharged from any further Service; provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Secretary at War to give Orders for withholding the Pay of any Officer or Soldier for any Period during which such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier shall be absent without Leave, or improperly absent from his Corps and from his Duty; or, in case of any Doubt as to the proper Issue of such Pay, to withhold it from the Parties aforesaid until His Majesty's Orders shall have been signified by the Secretary at War.

Issue of Pay
of the Army.

XLVIII. And for enforcing a prompt Observance of the Rules and Orders for the due Appropriation of the Public Funds applicable to Army Services, and in order that a true and regular Account may be kept and rendered by the Agents of the several Corps, be it enacted, That the said Agents are hereby required to observe such Orders as shall from Time to Time be given by His Majesty under His Sign Manual, or by the Secretary at War, or by His Majesty's Chief Governor or Governor of Ireland, or by the Lord Treasurer or Comptrollers of the Treasury; and if any Person, being or having been an Agent, shall refuse or neglect to comply with such Orders in relation to his Duty as Agent, or shall unlawfully withhold or detain the Pay of any Officer or Soldier after the Space of One Month after the Receipt thereof, he shall for the First Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and, if still an Agent, for the the Second Offence be discharged from his Employment as an Army Agent, and be utterly disabled to have or hold such Employment thereafter; or, if he shall have ceased to be an Army Agent, shall for the Second and every succeeding Offence forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XLIX. And Whereas by the Petition of Right, in the Third Year of King Charles the First, it is enacted and declared, that the People of the Land are not by the Laws to be inhibited with the molesting of Soldiers against their Wills; and by a Clause in an Act of the Parliament of England, made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and one thousand four hundred sixty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Three-pence, for paying and disbursing the Forces, it is declared and enacted, that no Officers, Civil or Military, nor any other Person whatsoever, should from thenceforth presume to place, quarter, or billet any Soldier upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of any Degree, Quality, or Profession whatsoever, without his Consent, and that it shall be lawful for any Subject or Inhabitant to refuse to quarter any Soldier, notwithstanding any Warrant or Billeting whatsoever: And Whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intitled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the molesting of Soldiers, and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on their March, it was enacted, that no Officer, Soldier, or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, should, at any Time thereafter, be allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time as he or they should be and remain in some Sea-port Town in order to be transported, or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army should be commanded to march from any Part of Ireland to another; But Notwithstanding as at this Time and during the Continuance of this Act there is and may be Occasion for the marching and quartering of Regiments, Troops, and Companies in several Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Constables of Parishes and Places, and other Persons specified in this Act, in England and Ireland, and they are hereby required to billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service, and Persons receiving Pay in His Majesty's Army, and the Horses belonging to His Majesty's Cavalry, and also all Staff and Field Officers Horses, and all Dragoon and Baggage Horses belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces, when on actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, in Victualling Houses and other Houses specified in this Act (taking care in Ireland not to litter less than Two Men in any One House, except only in case of billeting Cavalry as specially provided; and they shall be received by the Occupiers of such Houses in which they are so allowed to be billeted, and furnished with Stables, Hay, and Straw for such Horses as aforesaid, and in England with Diet and Small Beer, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act in force in that respect, and for Forage in Ireland the Rates established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from Time to Time, the same to be regulated by the average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland, and for the Use of Stables in Ireland, Four-pence per Week for each Horse, to be paid only during the Time when such Horses shall be provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by the Occupiers of such Houses as aforesaid; and at no Time when Troops are on a March shall any of them, whether Infantry or Cavalry, be billeted above One Mile from the Place mentioned in the Route, and in all Places where Cavalry shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act the Men and their Horses shall be billeted in one and the same House, except in case of Necessity, and in no other Case whatsoever shall there be less than One Man billeted where there shall be One or Two Horses, nor less than Two Men where there shall be Four Horses, and so in proportion for a greater Number; and in each Case each Man shall be billeted as near his Horse as possible, and the Constables are hereby required to billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within one Mile of the Place mentioned in the Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in the Manner in every Respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Constable to billet Soldiers out of the County to which such Constable belongs, unless the Constable of the adjoining County shall be present, and undertake to billet the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County; and no more Billets shall at any Time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers and Horses present to be billeted; all which Billets, when made out by such Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Person shall find himself aggrieved by having an undue Proportion of Soldiers billeted in his House, and shall prefer his Complaint, if against a Constable or other Person not being a Justice, to One or more Justices, and if against a Justice, then to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Soldiers are billeted, such Justices respectively shall have Power to order such of the Soldiers to be removed and to be billeted upon other Persons, as they shall see Cause; and when any of His Majesty's Cavalry or any Horses as aforesaid shall be billeted upon the Occupiers of Houses in which Officers or Soldiers may be quartered by virtue of this Act, they shall have no Stables, dunged in such Case, and upon Complaint made by the Persons having no Stables to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Horses shall be so billeted, it shall be lawful for such Justices to order the Men and their Horses, or Horses only, to be billeted upon some other Person or Persons who have Stables by this Act liable to have Officers and Soldiers billeted upon them, and in order a proper Allowance to be paid by the Persons relieved to the Persons receiving such Men and Horses, or to be applied in the furnishing the requisite Accommodation; and Commanding Officers may exchange any Man or Horse billeted in any Place with another Man or Horse billeted in the same Place, for the Benefit of the Service, provided the Number of Men and Horses do not exceed the Number at that Time billeted on such Houses; and the Constables are hereby required to billet such Men and Horses as aforesaid accordingly; and it shall be lawful for any Justice, at the Request of any Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding any Soldiers requiring Billets, to extend any Houses or enlarge the District within which Billets shall be required, in such Number as shall appear to be most convenient to the Troop, provided that, to prevent or punish all Abuses in billeting Soldiers, it shall be lawful for any Justice within his Jurisdiction, by Warrant or Order under his Hand, to require any Constable to give him an Account in Writing of the Number of Officers and Soldiers who shall be quartered by such Constable, together with the Names of the Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, stating the Name or Place where such Persons dwell, and the Sign, if any, belonging to those Houses; and it shall be lawful to blot Officers and Soldiers in Scotland according to the Provisions of the Laws in force in Scotland at the Time of its Union with England; and no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Schire of Edinburgh.

L. And be it enacted, That the Officers and Soldiers of His Majesty's Foot Guards shall be billeted within the City and Liberties of Westminster, and Places adjacent, lying in the County of Middlesex (except the City of London), and in the County of Surrey, and in the Borough of Southwark, in the same Manner, and under the same Regulations, as in other Parts of England, in all Cases for which particular Provision is not made by this Act; and the High Constable shall, on Receipt of the Order for billeting Soldiers, deliver Precepts to the several Constables within their respective Divisions, in pursuance of which the said Constables shall billet such Officers and Soldiers equally and proportionally on the Houses subjected thereto by this Act, and the said Constables shall, at every General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said City and Liberties, Counties and Borough respectively, make and deliver to the Justices then in open Session assembled, upon Oath, which Oath the said Justices are hereby required to administer, Lists, signed by them respectively, of the Houses subject by this Act to receive Officers and Soldiers, together with the Names and Rank of all Officers and Soldiers billeted on such respectively, which Lists shall remain with the respective Clerks of the Peace, for the Inspection of all Persons who shall require the same true Copies of any such Lists, upon being paid Two-pence a Sheet for the same, each Sheet to contain at least One hundred and fifty Words.

- LL. And be it enacted, That no Justice having or executing any Military Officer or Commission in any Part of the United Kingdom shall directly or indirectly, be concerned in the billeting or appointing Quarters for any Soldier in the Regiment, Troop, or Company under the immediate Command of such Justice, but that all Warrants, Acts, or Things so appointed by such Justice for or concerning the same shall be void.

Military Officers not to act as Justices.

LLI. And be it enacted, That in case any Victualler or other Person on whom Soldiers may be billeted, except on the March, shall be desirous to furnish such Soldiers with Candles, Tinsgar, and Salt, grease, and to allow to such Soldiers the Use of Fire and the necessary Utensils for dressing and eating their Meat, and shall give Notice of such his Desire to the Commanding Officer, and shall actually furnish the same, then the Soldiers so billeted shall provide their own Victuals and Small Beer, and every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or who does actually receive the Pay for any Officers or Soldiers, shall every Four Days, or before they shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Victuallers or other Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, out of their Pay and Subsistence, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to them respectively; and if any Officer as aforesaid shall not pay the same, upon Complaint and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses at the next Quarter Session for the County or City where such Quarters were situated, the Secretary at War is hereby required (upon Certificate of the Justices before whom such Oath was made of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing), to give Orders to the Regimental Agent to pay the said Sum, and to charge the same against such Officers; and in case of any Soldier being actually ordered to march, and that the respective Commanding Officers are not enabled to make Payment of the Sums due for the Lodgings of the Men and Stabling for the Horses, every such Officer shall, before his Departure, make up the Account with every Person upon whom such Soldier may have been billeted, and sign a Certificate thereof, which Account and Certificate shall be transmitted to the Agent of the Regiment, who is hereby required to make immediate Payment thereof, and to charge the same on the Account of such Officer.

barring Carriages, to furnish the requisite Supply, who are hereby required to furnish the same accordingly; and when sufficient Carriages cannot be procured within the proper Jurisdiction, any Justice of the most adjoining Jurisdiction shall, by a like Course of Proceeding, supply the Deficiency; and in order that the Barriers of providing Carriages may fall equally, and to prevent Inconvenience arising from there being no Justice residing near the Place where Troops may be quartered on the March, any Justice residing nearest to such Place may cause a List to be made out, at least once in every Year, of all Persons (able to furnish such Carriages, and of the Number and Description of their said Carriages (which List shall at all reasonable Hours be open to the Inspection of the said Persons), and may by Warrant under his Hand authorize the Constables within his Jurisdiction to give Orders to provide Carriages, without any Special Warrant for that Purpose, which Orders shall be valid in all respects; and all Orders for such Carriages shall be made from such Lists in regular Rotation, so far as the same can be done.

Rates to be paid, and Mode of procuring.

LVI. And be it enacted, That the Rates to be paid for Carriages impressed shall be, in England, for every Mile which a Waggon with Four or more Horses, or a Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel, One Shilling; and for every Mile any Waggon with narrow Wheels, or any Cart with Four Horses, carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel, Nine-pence; and for every Mile every other Cart or Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel, Sixpence; and in Ireland, for every Hundred Weight loaded on any Wheel Carriage, One Halfpenny per Mile; and eight further Pence may be added, not exceeding, in England, a total Addition per Mile of Four-pence, Three-pence, or Two-pence, to the respective Rates of One Shilling, Nine-pence, or Sixpence, and not exceeding, in Ireland, an additional Halfpenny per Mile for every Three Hundred Weight, as may seem reasonable to the Justices assembled at General Sessions in England and Ireland, for their respective Districts; and the Order of such Justices at Sessions shall specify the average Price of Hay and Oats at the nearest Market Town at the Time of fixing such additional Rates, the Period for which the Order shall be enforced not exceeding Ten Days beyond the next General Sessions: and no such Order shall be valid unless a Copy thereof, signed by the presiding Magistrate and One other Justice, shall be transmitted to the Secretary at War within Three Days after the making thereof; and in England, when the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, the Justice granting his Warrant may fix a further reasonable Compensation, not exceeding the usual Rate of Hire fixed by this Act; and when any additional Rates or Compensation shall be granted, the Justice shall insert in his own Hand, in the Warrant, the Amount thereof, and the Date of the Order of Sessions, if fixed by Sessions, and the Warrant shall be given to the Officer commanding, as his Voucher; provided that the Officer or Non-commenced Officer demanding Carriages by virtue of the Warrant of a Justice shall, in England, pay down to hand the proper Sum into the Hands of the Constables providing Carriages, who shall give Receipts for the same on unstamped Paper; and, in Ireland, the Officers or Non-commenced Officers so aforesaid shall pay the Owners or Drivers of the Carriages; and One Third Part of such Payment shall be made before the Carriage be loaded; and all the said Payments in Ireland shall be made, if required, in Presence of a Justice or Constable; provided that no Carriage shall be liable to carry more than Thirty Hundred Weight in England, and in Ireland no Cart shall be liable to carry more than Six Hundred Weight, and no Dray more than Twelve Hundred Weight; but the Owner of such Carriages in Ireland, consenting to carry a greater Weight, shall be paid at the same Rate for every Hundred Weight of the said Excess; and the Owners of such Carriages in Ireland shall not be compelled to proceed, though with any less Weight, under the Sum of Three-pence a Mile for each Cart, and Sixpence a Mile for each Dray: and the Loading of such Carriages in Ireland shall be first weighed, if required, at the Expense of the Owner of the Carriage, if the same can be done in a reasonable Time, without Hindrance of His Majesty's Service; and the providing and paying for Carriages in Scotland shall be regulated by the Law in force at the Time of the Union with England; provided that a Cart with One or more Horses, for which the Farmer shall receive Nine-pence a Mile, shall be required to carry Fifteen Hundred Weight at the least; provided that no Peacocks or Porcupines in any Act relating to Highways or Turnpike Roads in the United Kingdom shall apply to the Number of Horses or Oxen, or Weight of Loading of the aforesaid Carriages, which shall not so that Accounts be stopped or detained.

Supply of Carriages in Cases of Emergency.

LVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governors of Ireland, by His or their Order, doth or doth not, stating that a Case of Emergency doth exist, signified by the Secretary at War, or, if in Ireland, by the Chief Secretary or Under Secretary, or the First Clerk in the Military Department, to authorize any General or Field Officer commanding His Majesty's Forces in any District or Place, or to the Chief Acting Agent for the Supply of Stores and Provisions, by Writing under his Hand, recting such Officer of His Majesty or Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor aforesaid, to require all Justices within their several Jurisdictions in England and Ireland to issue their Warrants for the Provision, not only of Waggon, Wain, Cart, and Cart kept by or belonging to any Person, and for any Two whatsoever, but also of Saddle Horses, Coaches, Post Chaises, Closes, and other Four-wheeled Carriages kept for Hire, and also of Boats, Barges, and other Vessels used for the Transport of any Commodities whatsoever upon any Canal or Navigable River, as shall be mentioned in the said Warrants, therein specifying the Place and Distance to which such Carriages or Vessels shall go; and on the Production of such Requisition to such Justice by any Officer of the Corps ordered to be conveyed, or by any Officer of the Commissariat or Ordnance Department, such Justice shall take all the same Proceedings in regard to such additional Supply as required on the said Emergency as he is by this Act required to take for the ordinary Provision of Carriages; and all Provisions

whosoever of this Act, as regards the procuring of the ordinary Supply of Carriages, and the Duties of Officers and Non-commissioned Officers, Juniors, Constables, and Drivers of Carriages, in that behalf, shall be to all Intents and Purposes applicable for the procuring and Payment, according to the Rate of Haulage or of Hire usually paid for such other Description of Carriages or Vehicles as required on Emergency, according to the Length of the Journey or Voyage in each Case, but making no Allowance for Post Home Duty, or Turnpike, Canal River, or Lock Tolls, which Duty or Tolls are hereby declared not to be demandable for such Carriages and Vehicles while employed in such Service or repairing thereof; and it shall be lawful to convey thence, not only the Baggage, Provisions, and Military Stores of such Regiment or Detachment, but also the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children, and other Persons of and belonging to the same; and it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace assembled at their Quarter Sessions to direct the Treasurer to pay, without Fee, out of the Public Stock of the County or Riding, or if such Public Stock be insufficient, then out of Monies which the said Justices shall have Power to raise for that Purpose, in like Manner as for County Gaols and Bridges, such reasonable Sum as shall have been expended by the Constables within their respective Jurisdictions for the Carriages and Vehicles aforesaid, over and above what was or ought to have been paid by the Officers requiring the same, regard being had to the Season of the Year and Condition of the Ways by which such Carriages and Vehicles are to pass.

LXII. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall be necessary to impress Carriages for the March of Soldiers from Dublin, at least Twenty-four Hours Notice of such March, and in case of Emergency as long Notice as the Case will admit, shall be given to the Lord Mayor of Dublin, who shall nominate a proportionable Number of Curs and Drays, at his Discretion, out of the licensed Curs and Drays, and other Curs and Drays, within the County of the said City, and they shall by Turns be employed on the Duty at the Process and under the Regulations herein-before mentioned; and no Carriage Curs, Drays, or other Carriages coming to Markets in Ireland shall be detained or employed against the Will of the Owners carrying the Baggage of the Army, on any Pretence whatsoever.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor for the Time being of Ireland, to depute, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, some proper Person to sign Routes for the marching of any of His Majesty's Forces in Ireland, in the Name of such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That all His Majesty's Officers and Soldiers, being in proper Staff or Regimental or Military Uniforms, Dress or Uniform, and their Horses on Duty or on their March, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty or employed in his Service, when conveying Persons or Baggage, under the Provisions of this Act, or returning therefrom, shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay, or Landing Place, or passing Turnpike Roads or Bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already made or hereafter to be made; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any Horses, Horses, or other Vehicles employed in conveying the said Persons, Horses, Baggage, or Stores along any Canal, from Payment of Tolls, in like Manner as other Horses, Horses, and Vehicles are liable thereto.

LXV. And be it enacted, That when any Soldiers on Service have Occasion in their March to pass regular Ferries in Scotland, the Officer commanding may at his Option pass over with his Soldiers as Passengers, and shall pay for himself and each Soldier One Half only of the ordinary Rate payable by single Persons, or may hire the Ferry Boat for himself and his Party, debarring others for that Time, and shall in such Case pay only Half the ordinary Rate for such Boat.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Constable or other Person, who by virtue of this Act shall be employed in billeting any Officers or Soldiers in any Part of the United Kingdom, shall presume to billet any such Officer or Soldier in any House not within the Meaning of this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof, or shall neglect or refuse to billet any Officer or Soldier on Duty, when thereto required, in such Manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient Notice be given before the Arrival of such Troops; or shall neglect, demand, or exact for any Money or Reward whatsoever, in order to expose any Person thus receiving such Officer or Soldier, or shall quarter any of the Wives, Children, Men or Maid Servants of any Officer or Soldier in any such House, against the Consent of the Occupier; or shall neglect or refuse to execute such Warrants of the Justices as shall be directed to him for providing Carriages, Horses, or Vehicles, or shall demand more than the legal Rates for the same; or if any Person appointed by such Constable to provide Carriages, Horses, or Vehicles, shall do any Act or Thing by which the Execution of such Warrants shall be hindered; or if any Constable shall neglect to deliver in to the Justices at Quarter Sessions Lists of Officers and Soldiers of the Foot Guards quartered according to the Provision of this Act, or shall cause to be delivered defective Lists of the same; or if any Person, liable by this Act to have any Officer or Soldier quartered on him, shall refuse to receive or to afford proper Accommodation or Diet, or to furnish the several Things directed to be furnished to Officers and Soldiers, or shall neglect or refuse to furnish good and sufficient Stables, together with good and sufficient Hay and Straw for each Horse, at the Rate established by any Act in force in that respect; such Constables, Victualers, and other Persons respectively shall forfeit for every Offence any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Military Officer shall take upon him to quarter Soldiers otherwise than is limited and allowed by this Act, or shall use or offer any Menace or Compulsion to or upon any Mayors, Constables, or other Civil Officers, tending to deter and discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty under this Act, or tending to induce any of them to do any Thing contrary contrary to their said Duty, such Officer shall for every such Offence (being thereof convicted before any Two or more Justices of the County by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses) be deemed and taken to be ipso facto cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to hold any Military Employment in His Majesty's Service; provided that a Certificate thereof shall be transmitted by the said Justice to the Judge Advocate in London, who is hereby required to certify the same to the Commander in Chief and Secretary at War, and that the said Certificate be affirmed at some Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said County held next after the Expiration of Three Months after such Certificate of the Justice shall have been transmitted as aforesaid, and if any Military Officer shall take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Money or Reward of any Person for extending the quartering of Officers or Soldiers, or shall billet any of the Wives, Children, Men or Maid Servants of any Officer or Soldier in any House, against the Consent of the Owner, he shall, upon being convicted thereof before a General Court-martial, be cashiered; and if any Officer shall constrain any Carriage to travel beyond the Distance specified in the Justice's Warrant, or shall not discharge the same in due Time for their Return Home on the same Day, if it be practicable, except in the Case of Emergency, for which the Justice shall have given License, or shall compel the Driver of any Carriage to take up any Soldier or Servant (except such as are sick), or any Woman to ride therein, except in case of Emergency as aforesaid, or shall force any Constable, by threatening Words, to provide Saddle Horses for himself or Servants, or shall force Horses from their Owners, or in Ireland shall force the Owner to take any Loading, until the same shall be first duly weighed, if the same can be done within a reasonable Time, or shall, contrary to the Will of the Owner or his Servant, permit any Person whatsoever to put any greater Load upon any Carriage than is directed by this Act, shall forfeit for every Offence any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall knowingly detain, buy, exchange, or receive from any Soldier or Deserter, or any other Person, in any Preference whatsoever, or shall admit or retain any Soldier, knowing him to be such, to sell any Arms, Ammunition, Clothes, or Military Furniture, or any Provision, or any Shoon or other Articles used in Barracks, provided under Barrack Regulations, or any Regimental Necessaries, or any Articles of Furniture provided for any Horses belonging to His Majesty's Service, or shall change the Colour of any Clothes as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, together with Treble the Value of all or any of the several Articles of which such Offender shall be become possessed.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That all the Persons (except such Recruiting Parties as may be stationed under Military Command) who shall cause to be advertised, posted, or dispersed Bills for the Purpose of procuring Recruits, or Substitutes for the Line, Embodied Militia, or East India Company's Service, or shall open or keep any House, Place of Rendezvous, or Office, or receive any Person therein under such Bill or Advertisement, as concerned with the Recruiting Service, or shall directly or indirectly interfere therewith, without Permission in Writing from the Adjutant General, or from the Director of the East India Company (as the Case may be), shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

LXV. And be it enacted, That every Person, not being an authorized Army Agent, who shall negotiate or act as Agent or agent in relation to the Purchase, Sale, or Exchange of any Commission in His Majesty's Forces, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and every Person, whether authorized or not as an Army Agent, who shall receive any Money or Reward in respect of any such Purchase, Sale, or Exchange, or shall negotiate or receive for any Purpose whatsoever any Money or Consideration where no Price is allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, or any Money or Consideration exceeding the Amount so allowed, shall forfeit One hundred Pounds, and Treble the Value of the Consideration where the Commission is not allowed to be sold, or Treble the Excess of such Consideration beyond the regulated Price.

LXVI. And for the better Preservation of Game and Fish in or near such Places where any Officers shall on any Time be quartered, be it enacted, That every Officer who shall, without Leave in Writing from the Persons entitled to grant such Leave, take, kill, or destroy any Game or Fish within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and upon Complaint thereof shall be, upon Oath of One or more credible Witnesses, convicted before any Justice, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That no Officer of His Majesty's Forces, residing in Barracks or elsewhere under Military Law, shall be deemed liable to have any Parish Poor Clerk bound Apprentice to him.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That any Justice in the United Kingdom, within whose Jurisdiction any Soldier having a Wife or Child shall be billeted, may examine such Soldier before him in the Place where he is billeted (which Barracks he is hereby directed to obey), and take his Examination in Writing, upon Oath, touching the Place of his last legal Settlement in England, and such Justice shall give an attested Copy of such Examination to the Person examined, to be by him delivered to his Commanding Officer, to be produced when required; which said Examination and such attested Copy shall be at any Time admitted in Evidence as to such last legal Settlement before any Justice or at any General or Quarter Sessions, although such Soldier be dead or absent from the Kingdom; provided that in case any Soldier shall be again summoned to make Oath as aforesaid, then, on such Examination or such attested Copy thereof being produced by him or by any other Person on his Behalf, such Soldier shall not be obliged to take any other Oath with regard to his legal Settlement, but shall have a Copy of such Examination, or a Copy of such attested Copy of Examination, if required.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That any Action which shall be brought against any Person for any Thing to be done in pursuance of this Act shall be brought within five Months, and it shall be lawful for every such Person to plead thereto the General Issue of Not Guilty, and to give all special Matter in Evidence to the Jury which shall try the Issue; and if the Verdict shall be for the Defendant in any such Action, or the Plaintiff therein become nonsuit, or suffer any Discontinuance thereof, or if, in Scotland, such Court shall see fit to acquit the Defendant or dismiss the Complaint, the Court in which the said Matter shall be tried shall allow unto the Defendant Treble Costs, for which the said Defendant shall have the like Remedy as in other Cases where Costs by the Laws of this Realm are given to Defendants; and every Action against any Person for any Thing to be done in pursuance of this Act, or against any Member or Minister of a Court-martial, in respect of any Sentence of such Court, or of any Thing done by virtue or in pursuance of such Sentence, shall be brought in some of the Courts of Record at Westminster or in Dublin, or the Court of Session in Scotland, and in no other Court whatsoever.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, over and above any Forfeiture of Value or Treble Value, shall and may be recovered in every Part of the United Kingdom under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to facilitate summary Proceedings before Justices of the Peace and others, and of another Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the more effectual Recovery of Penalties before Justices and Magistrates on Conviction of Offenders, for facilitating the Execution of Warrants by Constables; which said recited Acts shall be used and applied, in Scotland, for the Recovery of all such Penalties and Forfeitures, as fully, to all Intents, as if the said recited Acts had extended to Scotland; any Thing in the said recited Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, exceeding Twenty Pounds, shall be recovered by Action in some of the Courts of Record at Westminster or in Dublin, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, and in no other Court.

Penalties.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That one Moiety of every Penalty adjudged or recovered under the Provisions of this Act shall go to the Person who shall inform or sue for the same, and the other Moiety shall be paid to the General Agent for the Recruiting Service, to be at the Disposal of the Secretary at War; and every Justice who shall adjudge any Penalty under this Act shall, within Four Days at the furthest, report the same to the Secretary at War.

C. A. P. VII.

An Act for the Relief of His Majesty's Roman Catholic Subjects. [15th April 1829.]

WHHEREAS by various Acts of Parliament certain Restrictions and Disabilities are imposed on the Roman Catholic Subjects of His Majesty, to which other Subjects of His Majesty are not liable: And Whereas it is expedient that such Restrictions and Disabilities shall be from henceforth discontinued: And Whereas by various Acts certain Oaths and certain Declarations, commonly called the Declarations against Transubstantiation, and the Declaration against Transubstantiation and the Invocation of Saints against the Mass, as practised in the Church of Rome, are or may be required to be taken, made, and subscribed by the Subjects of His Majesty, as Qualifications for sitting and voting in Parliament, and for the Enjoyment of certain Offices, Franchises, and Civil Rights: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act all such Parts of the said Acts as require the said Declarations, or either of them, to be made or subscribed by any of His Majesty's Subjects, as a Qualification for sitting and voting in Parliament, or for the Exercise or Enjoyment of any Office, Franchise, or Civil Right, be and the same are (save as hereinafter provided and excepted) hereby repealed.

It. And be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall be lawful for any Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion, being a Peer, or who shall after the Commencement of this Act be returned as a Member of the House of Commons, to sit and vote in either House of Parliament respectively, being in all other respects duly qualified to sit and vote therein, after taking and subscribing the following Oath, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance, Supremacy, and Assent:

I A. B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King George the Fourth, and will defend him to the utmost of my Power against all Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against his Person, Crown, or Dignity: and I will do my utmost Endeavour to disclose and make known to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, all Treasons and traitorous Conspiracies which may be formed against him or them: And I do faithfully promise to maintain, support, and defend, to the utmost of my Power, the Succession of the Crown, which Succession, by an Act, intitled An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and stands limited to the Princess Sophia, Electress of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants: hereby utterly renouncing and abjuring any Obedience or Allegiance unto any other Person claiming or pretending a Right to the Crown of the Realm: And I do further declare, That it is not an Article of my Faith, and that I do espouse, reject, and shun the Opinion, that Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any other Authority of the See of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their Subjects, or by any Person whatsoever: And I do declare, That I do not believe that the Pope of Rome, or any other Foreign Prince, Prelate, Person, State, or Potentate, hath or ought to have any Temporal or Civil Jurisdiction, Power, Superiority, or Pre-eminence.

10 Geo. IV.

* Directly

• directly or indirectly, within this Realm. I do swear, That I will defend to the utmost of my Power the Settlement of Property within this Realm, as established by the Law: And I do hereby disclaim, disavow, and solemnly abjure any Intention to subvert the present Church Establishment, as settled by Law within this Realm: And I do solemnly swear, That I never will exercise any Privilege to which I am or may become entitled, to disturb or weaken the Protestant Religion or Protestant Government in the United Kingdom: And I do solemnly, in the presence of God, profess, testify, and declare, That I do make this Declaration, and every Part thereof, in the plain and ordinary Sense of the Words of this Oath, without any Exoneration, Equivocation, or mental Reservation whatsoever. So help me GOD.

The Oath of the Sovereign for the Oath being in the usual in the Oath.

No Roman Catholic is capable of sitting or voting until he has taken the Oath.

Roman Catholic may vote at Elections, and be elected, upon taking the Oath.

Oath shall be administered in the same Manner as former Oaths.

Persons administering Oaths at Elections shall take an Oath duly administered.

Inasmuch as any Act or Statute which commands in a 2^d W. 2. c. 2. (M.) shall be construed or taken, as provided.

Roman Catholic may elect and be elected Members here the same.

No Roman Catholic Person is to sit in the House of Commons.

III. And be it further enacted, That whereas, in the Oath hereby appointed and set forth, the Name of His present Majesty is expressed or referred to, the Name of the Sovereign of this Kingdom for the Time being, by virtue of the Act for the further Limitation of the Crown and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, shall be substituted from Time to Time, with proper Words of Reference therein.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Peer professing the Roman Catholic Religion, and no Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion, who shall be returned a Member of the House of Commons after the Commencement of this Act, shall be capable of sitting or voting in either House of Parliament respectively, unless he shall first take and subscribe the Oath heretofore appointed and set forth, before the same Peers, at the same Times and Places, and in the same Manner as the Oaths and the Declaration now required by Law are respectively directed to be taken, made, and subscribed; and that any such Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion, who shall sit or vote in either House of Parliament, without having first taken and subscribed, in the Manner aforesaid, the Oath in this Act appointed and set forth, shall be subject to the same Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and the Officer of so sitting or voting shall be followed and attended by and with the same Consequences, as are by Law enacted and provided in the Case of Persons sitting or voting in either House of Parliament respectively, without the taking, making, and subscribing the Oaths and the Declaration now required by Law.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for Persons professing the Roman Catholic Religion to vote at Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for England and for Ireland, and also to vote at the Elections of Representative Peers of Scotland and of Ireland, and to be elected such Representative Peers, being in all other respects duly qualified, upon taking and subscribing the Oath heretofore appointed and set forth, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance, Supremacy, and Abjuration, and instead of the Declaration now by Law required, and instead also of such other Oath or Oaths as are now by Law required to be taken by any of His Majesty's Subjects professing the Roman Catholic Religion, and upon taking also such other Oath or Oaths as may now be lawfully tendered to any Persons offering to vote at such Elections.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Oath heretofore appointed and set forth shall be administered to His Majesty's Subjects professing the Roman Catholic Religion, for the Purpose of enabling them to vote in any of the Cases aforesaid, in the same Manner, at the same Time, and by the same Officers or other Persons as the Oaths for which it is hereby substituted are or may be now by Law administered; and that in all Cases in which a Certificate of the taking, making, or subscribing of any of the Oaths or of the Declaration now required by Law is directed to be given, a like Certificate of the taking or subscribing of the Oath hereby appointed and set forth shall be given by the same Officer or other Person, and in the same Manner as the Certificate now required by Law is directed to be given, and shall be of the like Force and Effect.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Persons now authorized by Law to administer the Oaths of Allegiance, Supremacy, and Abjuration to Persons voting at Elections, are themselves required to take an Oath previous to their administering such Oaths, they shall, in addition to the Oath now by them taken, take an Oath for the duly administering the Oath hereby appointed and set forth, and for the duly granting Certificates of the same.

VIII. And Whereas in an Act of the Parliament of Scotland made in the Eighth and Ninth Session of the first Parliament of King William the Third, intimated An Act for the preventing the Growth of Popery, a certain Declaration or Formula is therein contained, which it is expedient should no longer be required to be taken and subscribed: Be it therefore enacted, That such Parts of any Acts as authorize the said Declaration or Formula to be tendered, or require the same to be taken, sworn, and subscribed, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, except as to such Officers, Places, and Rights as are hereinafter excepted, and that from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall be lawful for Persons professing the Roman Catholic Religion to elect and be elected Members to serve in Parliament for Scotland, and to be enrolled as Freeholders in any Shire or Burgh of Scotland, and to be chosen Commissioners or Deputies for choosing Burgesses to serve in Parliament for any Districts or Burghs in Scotland, being in all other respects duly qualified, such Persons always taking and subscribing the Oath heretofore appointed and set forth, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration as now required by Law, at such Time as the said last-mentioned Oaths, or either of them, are now required by Law to be taken.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Person in Holy Orders in the Church of Rome shall be capable of being elected to serve in Parliament as a Member of the House of Commons, and if any such Person shall be elected to serve in Parliament as aforesaid, such Election shall be void, and if any Person, Person, being elected to serve in Parliament as a Member of the House of Commons, shall, after his Election, take or receive Holy Orders in the Church of Rome, the Seat of such Person shall immediately become void; and if any such Person shall, in any of the Cases aforesaid, presume to sit or vote as a Member of the House of Commons, he shall be subject to the same Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities as are enacted by an Act passed in the Forty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act to remove Doubts respecting the Eligibility of Persons to Holy Orders in all in the House of Commons; and Proof of the Celebration of any Religious Service by such Person, according to the Rites of the Church of Rome, shall be deemed and taken to be proved four Evidences of the Fact of such Person being in Holy Orders, within the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects professing the Roman Catholic Religion to hold, exercise, and enjoy all Civil and Military Offices and Places of Trust or Profit under His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and to exercise any other Privileges or Civil Rights, except as hereinafter excepted, upon taking and subscribing, at the Time and in the Manner hereinafter mentioned, the Oath hereunto appointed and set forth, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance, Supremacy, and Abjuration, and instead of such other Oath or Oaths as are or may be now by Law required to be taken for the Purpose aforesaid by any of His Majesty's Subjects professing the Roman Catholic Religion.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt any Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion from the Necessity of taking any Oath or Oaths, or making any Declaration, not herein-before mentioned, which are or may be by Law required to be taken or subscribed by any Person on his Admission into any such Office or Place of Trust or Profit as aforesaid.

XII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to enable any Person or Persons professing the Roman Catholic Religion to hold or exercise the Office of Guardian and Jurist of the United Kingdom, or of Regent of the United Kingdom, under whatever Name, Style, or Title such Office may be constituted; nor to enable any Person, otherwise than as he is now by Law enabled, to hold or enjoy the Office of Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lord Commissioner of the Great Seal of Great Britain or Ireland; or the Office of Lord Lieutenant, or Lord Deputy, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; or His Majesty's High Commissioners to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect or alter any of the Provisions of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws which regulate the Law and Application of Church Rates and Parish Rates, and the Election of Churchwardens, and the Maintenance of Parish Clergy, in Ireland.

XIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects professing the Roman Catholic Religion to be a Member of any Lay Body Corporate, and to hold any Civil Office or Place of Trust or Profit therein, and to do any Corporate Act, or vote in any Corporate Election or other Proceeding, upon taking and subscribing the Oath hereunto appointed and set forth, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance, Supremacy, and Abjuration; and upon taking also such other Oath or Oaths as may now by Law be required to be taken by any Persons becoming Members of such Lay Body Corporate, or being admitted to hold any Office or Place of Trust or Profit within the same.

XV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize or empower any of His Majesty's Subjects professing the Roman Catholic Religion, and being a Member of any Lay Body Corporate, to give any Vote in, or in any Manner to join in the Election, Presentation, or Appointment of any Person to any Ecclesiastical Benefice whatsoever, or any Office or Place belonging to or connected with the United Church of England and Ireland, or the Church of Scotland, being in the Gift, Patronage, or Disposal of such Lay Corporate Body.

XVI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to enable any Persons, otherwise than as they are now by Law enabled, to hold, enjoy, or exercise any Office, Place, or Dignity of, in, or belonging to the United Church of England and Ireland, or the Church of Scotland, or any Place or Office whatever of, in, or belonging to any of the Ecclesiastical Courts of Judicature of England and Ireland respectively, or any Court of Appeal from or Review of the Sentences of such Courts, or of, in, or belonging to the Commissary Court of Edinburgh, or of, in, or belonging to any Cathedral or Collegiate or Ecclesiastical Establishment or Foundation, or any Office or Place whatever of, in, or belonging to any of the Universities of this Realm; or any Office or Place whatever, and by whatever Name the same may be called, of, in, or belonging to any of the Colleges or Halls of the said Universities, or the Colleges of Rome, Westminster, or Winchester, or any College or School within the Realm; or to repeal, abrogate, or in any Manner to interfere with any local Statute, Ordinance, or Rule, which is or shall be established by competent Authority within any University, College, Hall, or School, by which Roman Catholics shall be prevented from being admitted therein, or from reading or taking Degrees therein: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to enable any Person, otherwise than as he is now by Law enabled, to exercise any Right of Presentation to any Ecclesiastical Benefice whatsoever; or to repeal, vary, or alter in any Manner the Laws now in force in respect to the Right of Presentation to any Ecclesiastical Benefice.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any Right of Presentation to any Ecclesiastical Benefice shall belong to any Office in the Gift or Appointment of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and such Office shall be held by a Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion, the Right of Presentation shall devolve upon and be exercised by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the Time being.

XVIII. And

No other Oaths necessary to be taken by Roman Catholics.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion, directly or indirectly, to advise His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or any Person or Persons holding or exercising the Office of Guardians of the United Kingdom, or of Regents of the United Kingdom, under whatever Name, Style, or Title such Office may be constituted, or the Lord Lieutenant, or Lord Deputy, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, touching or concerning the Appointment in or Disposal of any Office or Preferment in the United Church of England and Ireland, or in the Church of Scotland; and if any such Person shall offend in the Premises, he shall, being thereof convicted by due Course of Law, be deemed guilty of a High Misdemeanor, and disabled for ever from holding any Office, Civil or Military, under the Crown.

XIX. And be it enacted, That every Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion, who shall after the Commencement of this Act be placed, elected, or chosen in or to the Office of Mayor, Provost, Alderman, Recorder, Bailiff, Town Clerk, Magistrate, Councillor, or Common Councillor, or in or to any Office of Magistracy or Place of Trust or Employment relating to the Government of any City, Corporation, Borough, Parish, or District within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall, within One Calendar Month next before or upon his Admission into any of the same respectively, take and subscribe the Oath herein-before appointed and set forth, in the Presence of such Person or Persons respectively as by the Charter or Warrant of the said respective Cities, Corporations, Boroughs, Parishes, or Districts ought to administer the Oath for due Execution of the said Office or Place respectively; and in Default of such, in the Presence of Two Justices of the Peace, Councillors or Magistrates of the said Cities, Corporations, Boroughs, or Districts, if such there be; or otherwise, in the Presence of Two Justices of the Peace of the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, or Franchises wherein the said Cities, Corporations, Boroughs, or Districts are; which said Oath shall either be entered in a Book, Roll, or other Record to be kept for that Purpose, or shall be filed amongst the Records of the City, Corporation, Borough, or District.

XX. And be it enacted, That every Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion, who shall after the Commencement of this Act be appointed to any Office or Place of Trust or Profit under His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall within Three Calendar Months next before such Appointment, or otherwise shall, before he pretences to exercise or enjoy or in any Manner to act in such Office or Place, take and subscribe the Oath herein-before appointed and set forth, either in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery, or in any of His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, at Westminster or Dublin; or before any Judge of Assize, or in any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace in Great Britain or Ireland, for the County or Place where the Person so taking and subscribing the Oath shall reside; or in any of His Majesty's Courts of Session, Janintary, Exchequer, or Jury Court, or in any Sheriff or Steward Court, or in any Burgh Court, or before the Magistrates and Councillors of any Royal Burgh in Scotland, between the Hours of Nine in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon; and the proper Officer of the Court in which such Oath shall be so taken and subscribed shall cause the same to be preserved amongst the Records of the Court; and each Officer shall make, sign, and deliver a Certificate of such Oath having been duly taken and subscribed, as often as the same shall be demanded of him, upon Payment of Two Shillings and Expence for the same; and such Certificate shall be sufficient Evidence of the Person therein named having duly taken and subscribed such Oath.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion shall enter upon the Exercise or Enjoyment of any Office or Place of Trust or Profit under His Majesty, or of any other Office or Franchise, not having in the Manner and at the Times aforesaid taken and subscribed the Oath herein-before appointed and set forth, then and in every such Case such Person shall forfeit to His Majesty the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and the Appointment of such Person to the Office, Place, or Franchise or by him held shall become altogether void, and the Office, Place, or Franchise shall be deemed and taken to be vacant to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XXII. Provided always, That for and notwithstanding any thing in this Act contained, the Oath herein-before appointed and set forth shall be taken by the Officers in His Majesty's Land and Sea Service, professing the Roman Catholic Religion, at the same Times and in the same Manner as the Oaths and Declarations now required by Law are directed to be taken, and not otherwise.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Oath or Oaths shall be tendered to or required to be taken by His Majesty's Subjects professing the Roman Catholic Religion, for enabling them to hold or enjoy any Real or Personal Property, other than such as may by Law be tendered to and required to be taken by His Majesty's other Subjects; and that the Oath herein appointed and set forth, being taken and subscribed in any of the Courts, or before any of the Persons aforesaid mentioned, shall be of the same Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as, and shall stand in the Place of, all Oaths and Declarations required or prescribed by any Law now in force for the Relief of His Majesty's Roman Catholic Subjects from any Disabilities, Inequalities, or Penalties; and the proper Officer of any of the Courts aforesaid mentioned, in which any Person professing the Roman Catholic Religion shall demand to take and subscribe the Oath herein appointed and set forth, is hereby authorized and required to administer the said Oath to such Person; and such Officer shall make, sign, and deliver a Certificate of such Oath having been duly taken and subscribed, as often as the same shall be demanded of him, upon Payment of One Shilling; and such Certificate shall be sufficient Evidence of the Person therein named having duly taken and subscribed such Oath.

XXIV. And

XXIV. And Whereas the Protestant Episcopal Church of England and Ireland, and the Doctrine, Discipline, and Government thereof, and likewise the Protestant Presbyterian Church of Scotland, and the Doctrine, Discipline, and Government thereof, are by the respective Acts of Union of England and Scotland, and of Great Britain and Ireland, established permanently and inseparably: And Whereas the Right and Title of Archbishops to their respective Possessions, of Bishops to their Sees, and of Deans to their Deaneries, as well in England as in Ireland, have been settled and established by Law: Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person, after the Commencement of this Act, other than the Persons thereto authorized by Law, shall assume or use the Name, Style, or Title of Archbishop of any Province, Bishop of any Subscript, or Dean of any Deanery, in England or Ireland, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person holding any Judicial or Civil Office, or any Mayor, Provost, Jurat, Bailiff, or other Corporate Officer, shall, after the Commencement of this Act, resort to or be present at any Place or Public Meeting for Religious Worship in England or in Ireland, other than that of the United Church of England and Ireland, or in Scotland, other than that of the Church of Scotland, as by Law established, in the Robe, Gown, or other peculiar Habit of his Office, or attired with the Rings or Insignia, or any Part thereof, or belonging to such his Office, such Person shall, being thereof convicted by due Course of Law, forfeit such Office, and pay for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Roman Catholic Ecclesiastic, or any Member of any of the Orders, Communities, or Societies hereinafter mentioned, shall, after the Commencement of this Act, exercise any of the Rites or Ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Religion, or wear the Habits of his Order, save within the usual Places of Worship of the Roman Catholic Religion, or in private Houses, such Ecclesiastic or other Person shall, being thereof convicted by due Course of Law, forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any Manner repeal, alter, or effect any Provision of an Act made in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Range, intitled An Act to repeal so much of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reige of King William the Third, as relates to Burials in suppressed Monasteries, Abbeys, or Convents in Ireland, and to make further Provision with respect to the Burial in Ireland of Persons dissenting from the Established Church.

XXVIII. And Whereas Jesuits, and Members of other Religious Orders, Communities, or Societies of the Church of Rome, bound by Monastic or Religious Vows, are resident within the United Kingdom; and it is expedient to make Provision for the gradual Suppression and final Prohibition of the same therein: Be it therefore enacted, That every Jesuit, and every Member of any other Religious Order, Community, or Society of the Church of Rome, bound by Monastic or Religious Vows, who at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall be within the United Kingdom, shall, within Six Calendar Months after the Commencement of this Act, deliver to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or Place where such Person shall reside, or to his Deputy, a Notice or Statement, in the Form and containing the Particulars required to be set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed; which Notice or Statement such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall preserve and register amongst the Records of such County or Place, without any Fee, and shall forthwith transmit a Copy of such Notice or Statement to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; if such Person shall reside in Ireland, or if in Great Britain, to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and in case any Person shall offend in the Premises, he shall forfeit and pay to His Majesty, for every Calendar Month during which he shall remain in the United Kingdom without having delivered such Notice or Statement as is herein-before required, the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Jesuit, or Member of any such Religious Order, Community, or Society as aforesaid, shall, after the Commencement of this Act, come into the Realm, he shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Misdemeanour, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be sentenced and ordered to be banished from the United Kingdom for the Term of his natural Life.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any natural-born Subject of this Realm, being at the Time of the Commencement of this Act a Jesuit, or other Member of any such Religious Order, Community, or Society as aforesaid, shall, at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, be out of the Realm, it shall be lawful for such Person to return or to come into the Realm; and upon such his Return or coming into the Realm he is hereby required, within the Space of Six Calendar Months after his first returning or coming into the United Kingdom, to deliver such Notice or Statement to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or Place where he shall reside, or his Deputy, for the Purpose of being as registered and transmitted, as herein-before directed; and in case any such Person shall neglect or refuse so to do, he shall for each Offence forfeit and pay to His Majesty, for every Calendar Month during which he shall remain in the United Kingdom without having delivered such Notice or Statement, the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That notwithstanding any Thing herein-before contained, it shall be lawful for any One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, through a Proclamation, by a License in Writing, signed by him, to grant Permission to any Jesuit, or Member of any such Religious Order, Community, or Society as aforesaid, to come into the United Kingdom, and to remain therein for each Period as the said Secretary of State shall think proper, not exceeding in any Case the Space of Six Calendar Months; and it shall also be lawful for any of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to revoke any License so granted before the Expiration of the Time mentioned therein, if he shall so think think fit; and if any such Person to whom such License shall have been granted shall not depart from the United Kingdom within Twenty Days after the Expiration of the Time mentioned in such License, or if such License shall have been revoked, then within Twenty Days after Notice of such Revocation shall have been given to him, every Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being thereof lawfully convicted shall be sentenced and ordered to be banished from the United Kingdom for the Term of his natural Life.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That there shall annually be laid before both Houses of Parliament an Account of all such Licenses as shall have been granted for the Purpose herein-before mentioned within the Twelve Months then next preceding.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Jesuit, or Member of any such Religious Order, Community, or Society as aforesaid, shall, after the Commencement of this Act, within any Part of the United Kingdom, admit any Person to become a Regular Ecclesiastic, or Brother or Member of any such Religious Order, Community, or Society, or be aiding or consenting thereto, or shall administer or cause to be administered, or be aiding or assisting in the administering or taking, any Oath, Vow, or Engagement purporting or intended to bind the Person taking the same to the Rules, Ordinances, or Ceremonies of such Religious Order, Community, or Society, every Person offending in the Premises in England or Ireland shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and in Scotland shall be punished by Fine and Imprisonment.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person shall, after the Commencement of this Act, within any Part of the United Kingdom, be admitted or become a Jesuit, or Brother or Member of any other such Religious Order, Community, or Society as aforesaid, such Person shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being thereof lawfully convicted shall be sentenced and ordered to be banished from the United Kingdom for the Term of his natural Life.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person sentenced and ordered to be banished under the Provisions of this Act shall not depart from the United Kingdom within Thirty Days after the pronouncing of such Sentence and Order, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to cause such Person to be conveyed to such Place out of the United Kingdom as His Majesty, by the Advice of His Privy Council, shall direct.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender, who shall be so sentenced and ordered to be banished as aforesaid, shall, after the End of Three Calendar Months from the Time such Sentence and Order hath been pronounced, be at large within any Part of the United Kingdom, without some lawful Cause, every such Offender being so at large as aforesaid, on being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be transported to such Place as shall be appointed by His Majesty, for the Term of his natural Life.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend in any Manner to affect any Religious Order, Community, or Establishment consisting of Persons bound by Religious or Monastic Vows.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties imposed by this Act shall and may be recovered as a Debt due to His Majesty, by Information to be filed in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General for England or for Ireland, as the Case may be, in the Courts of Exchequer in England or Ireland respectively, or in the Name of His Majesty's Advocate General in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Part thereof, may be repealed, altered, or varied at any Time within this present Session of Parliament.

XL. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect at the Expiration of Ten Days from and after the passing thereof.

C A P. VIII.

An Act to amend certain Acts of the Parliament of Ireland relative to the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, and to regulate the Qualification of Persons entitled to vote at the Election of Knights of the Shire in Ireland. [15th April 1829.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Ireland, passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled An Act for the Adjustment of the Parliament, and the Place to hold the same, and what Persons shall be chosen Knights and Burgesses, it is amongst other Things enacted, that every Knight, Citizen, and Burgess for every Parliament thereafter within the Realm of Ireland to be summoned, appointed, or holden, shall be chosen and elected by the greater Number of the Inhabitants of the said Counties, Cities, and Towns, being present at the said Election by virtue of the King's Writ for that Intent addressed, and also that every Elector at the said Election shall dispersed and have Lands and Tenements of Estate of Freehold within the said Counties at the least to the yearly Value of Forty Shillings, over and above all Charges: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for regulating the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, and for extending the several Acts therein contained, and also by subsequent Acts, Persons having Freehold Estates are required to register their Freeholds in the Mannors therein prescribed, in order to qualify them to vote at Elections for Members to serve in Parliament for Counties in Ireland: And Whereas it is expedient to increase the Amount of the Qualification necessary to enable Persons to vote at such Elections, and to amend the Laws now in force in Ireland relating to the Registry of Freeholds: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act that Part of the said Act of the Thirty-third Year of King Henry the Eighth, herein-before recited, which relates to the Amount or Value of the Freehold necessary to qualify Persons to be Electors of Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament for Counties in Ireland, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act no Persons shall be admitted to vote at any Election of any Knight of the Shire to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom for any County in Ireland (save as hereinafter is provided), unless such Person shall have an Estate of Freehold, in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in such County, of the clear Yearly Value of Ten Pounds at the least, over and above all Charges, except only Public or Parliamentary Taxes, County, Church, or Parish Rates or Rates, and Custom on any Townland or Division of any Parish or Barony.

III. And be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act no Person shall be admitted to vote at any Election of a Knight of the Shire to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom for any County in Ireland by virtue or in respect of any Estate of Freehold of less annual Value than Twenty Pounds of the late Currency of Ireland, unless such Freehold shall be registered pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, save only as hereinafter is provided.

IV. And be it enacted, That after the Commencement of this Act a Session for the Purpose of registering Freeholds within this Act shall be holden in and for each County in Ireland, by and before the Assistant Barrister of such County, on each Day and at each Place in each such County respectively as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall appoint: and the Clerk of the Peace for each such County shall, Forty Days at the least before the Day so appointed, cause to be posted in each Market Town thereof Notice, in the Form specified in the First Schedule to this Act annexed, that such Session for the Purpose of registering Freeholds within this Act, will be holden on the Days and at the Places so appointed, and that Applications for that Purpose will be then and there taken into Consideration.

V. And be it enacted, That every Person intending to register a Freehold at any such Session shall give to the Clerk of the Peace for the County Notice in Writing of such Intention Thirty clear Days at the least before the Day appointed for the holding of such Session in the Notice of the County wherein such Freehold is situate, and shall in such Notice state, according to the Form prescribed in the Second Schedule to this Act annexed, his Name and Residence, the Description of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Rent-charge in respect of which such Application is to be made, and whether he intends to register such Freehold at the annual Sum of Twenty Pounds or of Ten Pounds: and the Clerk of the Peace of each County shall enter all such Notices, according to the Order in which he shall receive them, in a List in the Form specified in the Third Schedule to this Act annexed, and shall, Fifteen Days at the least before the Day appointed for holding such Session, cause a Copy of such List to be published in some Newspaper printed in such County, or in case no Newspaper shall be therein printed, then in some Newspaper printed in any adjoining County: Provided always, that no such List for the Session to be first holden shall be liable to any Stamp Duty as an Advertisement.

VI. And be it enacted, That at each such Session the Names of the Persons contained in such List shall be severally called by the Clerk of the Peace; and each Person so called, who shall claim to register any Freehold at the annual Sum of Twenty Pounds or of Ten Pounds, shall produce in open Court before such Assistant Barrister the Deed, Lease, or Instrument, duly stamped, by virtue of which such Person shall claim such Freehold; or in case he shall not claim by virtue of any Deed, Lease, or Instrument, then such Person shall otherwise establish his Title to such Freehold; and each Person shall also make it appear that a solvent and responsible Tenant could afford to pay fairly and without Collusion for the same the annual Sum of Twenty Pounds or Ten Pounds, as the Case may be, as an additional Rent, over and above all Charges, save such as are herein-before excepted, and over and above any Rent to which the Person so claiming to register such Freehold may be liable in respect of the same.

VII. And be it enacted, That such Assistant Barrister shall inspect and examine every Deed, Lease, or Instrument so produced, and investigate the Title so made, as also the Title which any Claimant shall, in any other Manner seek to establish, and shall determine whether the same is or is not sufficient to entitle the Person claiming thereunder to an Estate of Freehold; and shall also examine and inquire, as well by the Oath of the Person so claiming as by any Evidence offered either in Support of or in Opposition to such Claim, whether a solvent and responsible Tenant could afford to pay fairly and without Collusion, as an additional Rent for such Freehold, the annual Sum of Twenty Pounds or Ten Pounds, as the Case may be, over and above all Charges, save such as are herein-before excepted, and over and above any Rent to which the Person so claiming may be liable in respect of the same; and shall also inquire by any of the Means aforesaid into the Truth of the several Particulars required to be stated in the Oath hereinafter prescribed to be taken for the Registry of such Freehold.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear to such Assistant Barrister that the Person so claiming is entitled to register such Freehold at the annual Sum, within the Meaning of this Act, at which he shall claim to register the same, such Assistant Barrister shall and may so adjudge; and in such Case the Person so adjudged entitled shall, instead of the Oath or Oaths, Affirmation or Affirmations, now by Law required in that Behalf, take and subscribe before such Assistant Barrister the Oath mentioned in the Fourth Schedule to this Act annexed, where the Freehold of such Person shall be of the annual Value of Twenty Pounds, not arising from a Rent-charge, and where the same shall arise from a Rent-charge, then the Oath prescribed in the Fifth Schedule to this Act annexed, and where the same shall be of the Value of Ten Pounds, then the Oath prescribed in the Sixth Schedule to this Act annexed.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace shall thereupon, instead of the Certificate of Registry now by Law required, deliver to the Person so adjudged to be entitled a Certificate, signed by such Assistant Barrister and by such Clerk of the Peace, attesting that such Person has duly registered a Freehold in the County within which the same shall be situate at the annual Sum so proved as aforesaid, and reciting the Oath of such Person on which such Freehold has been registered; which Certificate shall stand in place of and be of equal Effect and Authority, to all Intents and Purposes, as the Certificate of Registry now by Law required.

X. And be it enacted, That every such Oath shall be signed by the Assistant Barrister before whom the same shall be taken, and shall be by him delivered to the Clerk of the Peace, to be filed and kept amongst the Records of the County; and such Assistant Barrister is hereby required to take care that such Oath shall be agreeable to the Form hereby prescribed; and no Objection in point of Form shall at any Time thereafter be allowed to any such Oath when so signed.

XI. And be it enacted, That in case it shall appear to such Assistant Barrister that the Person claiming to register a Freehold is not entitled to register the same, either in consequence of any Objection to the Deed, Lease, or Instrument so produced by him, or in consequence of any Defect in the Title to such Freehold, or in consequence of Insufficiency in the annual Value of the Freehold claimed, or in consequence of any Objections relative to any of the Matters to be stated in the Oath hereby required to be taken for registering such Freehold, such Assistant Barrister shall refuse to permit such Person to register, and shall in that Case make an Order adjudging such Person not to be entitled to register such Freehold; and where any such Order shall be founded upon Insufficiency of Value, it shall state such Insufficiency as the Ground of such Order, or otherwise shall set forth the Objection by reason whereof such Person is adjudged to be not entitled so to register such Freehold: Provided always, that such Order shall be without Prejudice to any future Application to register such Freehold which the Person claiming the same shall think fit to make at any subsequent General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace.

XII. And be it enacted, That if any Person against whose Claim any such Order shall be made on the Ground of Insufficiency of Value shall deem himself aggrieved thereby, it shall be lawful for such Person to appeal therefrom to the Judges of Assize at the next Assizes for the County within which the Freehold which he claims to register shall be situate; and such Judges of Assize, or One of them, are and is hereby empowered and required to try and inquire, by the Verdict of a Jury, whether the Freehold is of the annual Value, within the Meaning of this Act, at which the Claimant seeks to register such Freehold; and such Jury shall be returned by the same Officer and in the same Manner as which Juries are now returned in Cases of Appeal from the Decrees of the Assistant Barristers on Civil Bills, and shall take the Oath prescribed by the Seventh Schedule to this Act annexed; and if such Jury shall give a Verdict in favour of the Claim to register, and the Judge before whom the same shall be tried shall consider such Claim to be in other Respects well founded, the Order so complained of shall be thereupon reversed.

XIII. And be it enacted, That where any Person against whose Claim to register a Freehold any Order shall be made by the Assistant Barrister on any other Ground than Insufficiency of Value shall consider himself aggrieved by such Order, it shall be lawful for such Person to appeal from such Order to the Judges of Assize at the next Assizes for the County; and such Judges of Assize, or One of them, shall have Power, on Motion, to review such Order, and either to affirm or reverse the same, as shall be fit.

XIV. And

Assistant Barrister is to certify the Claim to register.

If the Assistant Barrister adjudges the Claimant entitled, he shall take the Oath hereby prescribed.

Certificate of Registry.

Oath to be
Assistant Barrister, and Clerk of Records.

If Claimant not entitled to Insufficiency of Value, Claimant may require a Jury.

Where Registry is refused on any other Ground, Claimant may appeal to Judge of Assize.

XIV. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which any Order of any Assistant Barrister shall upon Appeal be reversed, the Judge of Assize before whom the same shall have been heard shall thereupon cause such Oath to be taken and subscribed, and such Certificate to be given, and shall sign the same respectively, in like Manner as the Assistant Barrister is herein-before required to do, and shall cause such Acts to be performed by the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, and such Proceedings to be had, as are herein-before directed and required when any Freehold is registered as any Sessions before the Assistant Barrister, and such Oath and Certificate, and such Acts and Proceedings, shall be of the like Effect as if they had been taken, subscribed, given, performed, and had before the Assistant Barrister.

XV. And be it enacted, That after the Termination of the Sessies hereby directed to be first holden in any County in Ireland for the registering Freeholds, it shall and may be lawful for any Person desiring to register a Freehold in such County to register the same at a Civil Bill Court to be held at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County, upon giving to the Clerk of the Peace a Notice of his Intention so to do, in the Form herein-before provided, Thirty clear Days at the least before the Day appointed for the holding of such General or Quarter Sessions in the Division wherein such Freehold shall situate; and the Clerk of the Peace shall in such such Case proceed in all Respects in the same Manner as herein-before prescribed with relation to Applications for registering Freeholds at the first Session for that Purpose hereby directed; and the Assistant Barrister of such County is hereby authorized and required to hear and determine such Application at such General or Quarter Sessions in the same Manner in all Respects as is herein-before provided with respect to Applications to register Freeholds at the Session for that Purpose to be first holden under this Act; and thereupon the same Proceedings shall and may be had, the like Orders made, the like Oaths taken, the like Certificates granted, the like Rights and Powers of Appeal enjoyed and exercised, and the like Rules, Regulations, Instructions, Matters, and Things observed, performed, and followed, as if such Application had been made at the first Session for registering Freeholds directed to be held under this Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Sheriff of each County in Ireland, or his Under Sheriff, and also the Clerk of the Peace for such such County, or his Deputy, and the Chief Constable of the Barony in which such and every such Court of Sessions shall be held, and such Number of other Constables as the Assistant Barrister shall deem sufficient, shall attend the Court from Day to Day during the Continuance of each such Session.

XVII. And be it enacted, That every Session to be held for registering Freeholds within this Act shall be deemed a Court of Record; and that it shall be lawful for every Assistant Barrister before whom such Court shall be held, from Time to Time, as there shall be Occasion, to direct the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, or the Sheriff or Sub-Sheriff of the County in which such Court shall be held, and any Chief or Petty Constable shall respectively be guilty of any Breach of Duty in the Execution of this Act, in any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and in his Discretion to fine in any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, or to commit to Prison for any Time not exceeding a Fortnight, any Person whatsoever who shall disturb the Court so to be held by him for registering Freeholds as aforesaid, or who shall be guilty of any other Contempt of the said Court.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That any Person who at the Commencement of this Act shall be duly registered as a Freeholder in Ireland, and who shall register a Freehold at the Session to be first holden in pursuance of this Act, shall be exempt from the Payment of any Fee whatever for or in respect of such new Registry.

XIX. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace shall be entitled to demand and have from every Person claiming to register a Freehold under the Act, save as herein-before excepted, the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more.

XX. And be it enacted, That in every Case where any Oath is by this Act required to be taken, every Person being a Quaker or Moravian may make Affirmation in the Form prescribed hereby for such such Oath respectively, and that all Provisions herein contained relative to any Oath shall respectively extend and apply to every such Affirmation.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall, in any Oath or Affirmation to be taken under this Act, wilfully and corruptly swear or affirm falsely, such Person shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and be liable to the same Punis, Penalties, and Punishments as any Person is now liable to for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall forge or counterfeit the Signature of any Judge, Assistant Barrister, or Clerk of the Peace, to any Order, Certificate, or any Instrument or Writing purporting to be an Order or a Certificate within this Act, or the Signature of any Person to any Oath or Affirmation within this Act, or shall knowingly use or publish as true and genuine any such forged or counterfeited Order, Certificate, Instrument, Writing, Oath, or Affirmance, every Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court before which he shall be tried, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall refuse to be sworn or to give Evidence before any Judge, Assistant Barrister, or Jury, upon the Investigation of any such Claim as aforesaid, without sufficient lawful Excuse, to be allowed by such Judge or Assistant Barrister, it shall be lawful for such Assistant Barrister to order such Person to pay a Fine, not exceeding Ten Pounds, to be applied to the Use of the County Infirmary or such charitable Institution as the Assistant Barrister shall think fit, or in Default thereof to commit such Person to the Goal of the County for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall duly register a Freehold within this Act at the first Session heretofore mentioned shall be thereupon forthwith entitled to vote at any Election to be held in and for the County for which such Freehold shall be registered; and that any Person who shall at any Time after such first Session duly register a Freehold according to the Provisions of this Act shall be entitled to vote at any Election to be held by virtue of any Writ issued Six Calendar Months at the least after such Registry.

XXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Freeholder who may be entitled by Law to register a Freehold in any County in Ireland of the annual Value of Fifty Pounds, and who shall not before the passing of this Act have registered such Freehold, to register such Freehold by taking and subscribing the Oath mentioned in the Fourth Schedule to this Act aforesaid, either before the Assistant Barrister at Quarter Sessions, or in any of the Superior Law Courts of Record in Dublin, or before a Judge at the Assizes, in Manner now by Law authorized; and that the said Oath shall be subscribed by the Assistant Barrister, or by One of the Judges of the Court before whom the same was taken, and being delivered to the Clerk of the Peace shall be signed by him and kept among the Records of the County; and each such Freeholder shall thereupon be entitled to receive, at any Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the Division of the County in which his Freehold shall be situate, a Certificate of his having duly registered the same, which Certificate shall recite the Oath taken and subscribed by such Freeholder, and, being signed by the Assistant Barrister and Clerk of the Peace, shall be of equal Validity and Effect with any Certificate to which such Freeholder would now by Law be entitled.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That where any Freehold shall have been duly registered as being of the Value of Fifty Pounds or of Twenty Pounds respectively, the Registry whereof shall at the Commencement of this Act be a valid and unexpired Registry according to the Provisions of any Act now in force, it shall not be necessary during the Subsistence of such Registry to register such Freehold under the Provisions of this Act.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That no Registry hereafter to be made of any Freehold shall be valid, unless made conformably to the Provisions of this Act.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be admitted to vote at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament by virtue of any Freehold of less annual Value than Fifty Pounds, registered under the Provisions of this Act, unless he shall have registered the same within Eight Years preceding the Test of the Writ for holding such Election.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That in case of any Registry of a Freehold within this Act, the Clerk of the Peace for each County in Ireland shall keep the like Books, make the like Returns, and discharge and execute all other the like Duties, Matters, and Things as he is now by Law authorized, enabled, or required to do with respect to the Registry of Freeholds in such County, save so far as is otherwise ordained by this Act, and that all Matters and Things now by Law authorized or required for the due Registration of such Freeholds shall be in all respects done, performed, observed, and fulfilled, and all Provisions, Penalties, Rules, Orders, Regulations, and Conditions relating to the Registration of such Freeholds, and contained in any Act or Acts now in force, shall be used, applied, and enforced with respect to and shall be construed in extend to all Freeholds to be registered under this Act, as if the same had been heretofore enacted, save so far as is hereby otherwise provided.

XXX. And be it enacted, That all Laws now in force touching the registering of Freeholders in Counties at large of the annual Value of Fifty Pounds, Twenty Pounds, and Forty Shillings respectively, and touching the polling of Persons qualified to vote at Elections for such Counties by virtue of such Freeholds, shall be and the same are hereby extended to Freeholders of the annual Value under this Act of Fifty Pounds, Twenty Pounds, and Ten Pounds respectively, and that it shall be lawful to substitute the Words Ten Pounds for Forty Shillings in all Matters relating to such Freeholds, as Circumstances may require.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That in the County of Dublin all Freeholds to be registered under this Act shall be registered before the Chairman of the Sessions for that County, in the same Manner in all Respects as before the Assistant Barrister in any other County; and such Chairman shall have, exercise, perform, and discharge every Power, Jurisdiction, Rights, Authority, Duty, and Function heretofore vested in or given to any such Assistant Barrister; and in any Case where an Appeal is hereby allowed from the Order of an Assistant Barrister to the Judges of Assize, the like Power of Appeal from any Order of such Chairman shall and may, in the Case of any Freehold in the County of Dublin, be exercised and enjoyed in any of His Majesty's Superior Law Courts of Record in Dublin, and the Court to which any such Appeal shall be made shall proceed with respect thereto in the same Manner as any Judge of Assize is hereby authorized or required to proceed.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That every Enactment heretofore contained relative to any Assistant Barrister or Judge of Assize shall, in the County of Dublin respectively, extend and apply to the Chairman of the Sessions of that County, and to His Majesty's Superior Law Courts of Record.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That each Riding in the County of Cork shall be deemed to be a County for the Purposes of this Act.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or in any Manner affect the Qualification now by Law required to entitle any Person to vote at any Election by virtue of any Freehold.

XXXV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Rector, Vicar, or Curate, shall be obliged to register his Freehold arising from his Rectory, Vicarage, Curacy, or other Ecclesiastical Preferment, or be precluded from voting at any Election on account of his not having registered the same.

XXXVI. And

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Assistant Barister to administer all such Oaths as are by this Act required to be taken or administered.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That the Expenses of printing the Notices and of the Advertisements hereby directed shall be defrayed by the Clerk of the Peace in each County respectively; and the Grand Jury of each such County, or the Term Grand Jury for the County of Dublin, as the Case may be, are hereby respectively required, at the next Assizes of Pleasable Term after such Notices and Advertisements, to present, to be levied off their respective Counties in the same Manner as other Sums are authorized to be presented by such Grand Jurors, all such Sums as shall have been necessarily disbursed by such Clerks of the Peace respectively, which Sums shall be paid to such Clerks of the Peace.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That when the Seizure herein directed to be first holden for the Purpose of registering Freeholds shall have terminated in any County, the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall cause Notice thereof to be inserted in the Dublin Gazette; and that in case of a Vacancy in the Representation of any such County in this present Parliament before the Publication of such Notice of the Termination of the Seizure for such County, no Writ shall issue for the holding of an Election of a Knight of the Shire for such County until after the Publication of such Notice.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if after the Commencement of this Act, and before the Publication of such Notice of the Termination of the said first Seizure in any County in Ireland, any Election shall take place in pursuance of any Writ issued for the Election of Members to serve in any new Parliament for such County, every Person who would have been entitled to vote at any such Election in case this Act had not been made shall be entitled to vote at the Election to be holden in pursuance of any such Writ; any Thing in this Act contained notwithstanding.

XL. And be it enacted, That in case any Exigency shall render it necessary for any Assistant Barister to adjourn any Seizure for the Registry of Freeholds as appointed to be first holden, it shall be lawful for him to adjourn and continue the same as Circumstances may require.

XLI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor of Ireland, by Order or Warrant under his Hand, to direct the Payment, out of the Consolidated Fund, of such Sums as he or they shall deem sufficient to remunerate such Assistant Baristers and Clerk of the Peace for his Attendance at the Seizure to be first holden in pursuance of this Act.

XLII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence from and after the Day next after the passing of this Act.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. IX.

An Act for fixing, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty, the Rates of Subsistence to be paid to Innkeepers and others on quartering Soldiers.

[18th April 1829.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for punishing Misdemeanors and Donations, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, it is amongst other Things enacted, that Officers and Soldiers shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer, upon paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts; and an Option is given to Innholders and others upon whom Officers and Soldiers are quartered and billeted, to furnish certain Articles gratis in lieu of Diet and Small Beer: and it is just and expedient that an adequate Allowance shall be made and established for Provision and other Articles furnished to Officers and Soldiers: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Non-commissioned Officer and Private Soldier who shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer, within those Parts of the United Kingdom specified in the said recited Act, by the Innholders or other Persons on whom such Non-commissioned Officers or Private Soldiers shall be quartered and billeted by virtue of this Act, shall pay and allow for the same the Sum of One Shilling per Diem; and that for each Allowance of One Shilling, the Innholder or other Person shall furnish One Meal, viz. a hot Dinner, if required, in each Day, to each Non-commissioned Officer, Trumpeter, Drummer, and Private Soldier quartered and billeted on him, to consist of such Quantity of Diet and Small Beer as have been or shall be specified and fixed in and by any Regulations made or to be made from Time to Time by His Majesty in that Behalf, but not to exceed One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previous to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables previous to being cooked, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt, and Pepper; and that the Accounts of the same shall be rendered, and Payment therefor made, in like Manner as is directed by the said Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Innholder or other Person, on whom any Non-commissioned Officers or Private Men shall be quartered within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, shall, by virtue of the said Option in the said Act, furnish such Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers with the Articles therein mentioned, in lieu of furnishing Diet and Small Beer at the Rates prescribed by this Act, such Innholders or other Persons on whom such Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers are quartered, and by whom the said Articles shall have been so supplied, shall receive in Consideration thereof One Halfpenny per Diem for each Non-commissioned Officer and Soldier, which Sum of One Halfpenny per Diem shall be accounted for and paid in like Manner as is directed touching the Rates aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, on whom any of the Horses belonging to His Majesty's Forces shall be quartered by virtue of the said Act, for Hay and Straw, shall be Ten-pence per Diem for each Horse.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers shall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from the Innholders or other Persons on whom they may be billeted, within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, at the Rates herein before prescribed, while on the March, as also on and for the Day of their Arrival at the Place of their first Destination, and on the Two subsequent Days, unless either of the Two subsequent Days shall be a Market Day on and for the Town or Place where where such Officers or Soldiers shall be billeted, or within the Distance of Two Miles thereof; in which Case it shall be lawful for the Inhabler or other Person so allowed to discontinue on and from such Market Day the Supply of Diet and Small Beer, and to furnish in lieu thereof the Articles in the said recited Act specified, and at the Rates herein-before prescribed.

V. Provided always, That if any Victualler or other Person, liable by the said recited Act to have Soldiers billeted or quartered on him or her, shall pay any Sum or Sums of Money to any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier on the March, in lieu of furnishing in Kind the Diet and Small Beer to which such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier is entitled under the said Act, every such Victualler or other Person may be proceeded against and fined in like Manner as if he or she had refused to furnish or allow, according to the Directions of the said recited Act, the several Things respectively directed to be furnished to Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers so quartered or billeted on him or her as aforesaid.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment, when on the March, shall be halted, either for a limited or indefinite Time, at any intermediate Place, the Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers belonging thereto shall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from the Persons on whom they shall be billeted at such intermediate Place, for such Time only for which they would be entitled to receive the same after arriving at the Place of their final Destination, according to this Act: Provided nevertheless, that whenever it shall happen that any Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment, when on their March, shall be halted, and it shall appear by the Marching Orders that it is not intended that such Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment shall halt for any longer Time than One entire Day after the Day of their Arrival at the Place of halting, and the Day after such Arrival shall be such Market Day as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for the Inhablers or other Persons on whom the Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers shall be billeted to discontinue on such Market Day the Supply of Diet and Small Beer to any such Officers or Soldiers; but that all such Officers and Soldiers shall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from such Inhablers and other Persons aforesaid, upon such Market Day as aforesaid, at the Rates herein-before prescribed, in like Manner as they would have been entitled thereto if such Day had not been a Market Day; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men employed in recruiting, and the Recruits by them raised, shall, while on the March, and for Two Days after the Day of their Arrival at any Recruiting Station, be entitled to the same Rations as are herein-before provided in regard to Troops upon the March; but no Recruit raised after the Two Days subsequent to the Arrival of the Party at their Recruiting Station shall be entitled to be supplied with Diet and Small Beer at the Rates herein-before prescribed, except at the Option of the Person on whom he shall be quartered: Provided also nevertheless, that in case any such Recruiting Party, with the Recruits by them raised, shall remove from their Station, and after a Time shall return to the same Place, they and the Recruits by them raised, on returning, shall not be again entitled to the Supply of Diet and Small Beer for such Two Days as aforesaid, unless the Period between the Time of their Removal from such Place and their Return thence shall have exceeded Twenty-eight Days.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall have Continuance and be in Force from the Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty; and that all Payments which have been made, and all Acts, Matters, and Things done in pursuance of or in conformity with the Provisions thereof, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had passed before the said Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed, by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. X.

An Act to suspend, until the End of the next Session of Parliament, the making of Lists and the Ballots and Enrolments for the Militia of the United Kingdom, and to reduce the permanent Staff, and regulate the Allowances of Sergeants hereafter appointed. [13th April 1829.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to suspend, for a limited Period, the making of Lists and the Ballots and Enrolments for the Militia of the United Kingdom, and to reduce the permanent Staff, and regulate the Allowances of Sergeants hereafter appointed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all General and Subdivision Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom, and all Proceedings relating to the procuring any Returns or preparing or making out Lists for such Militia, or any Part thereof, or relating to the balloting for or enrolling any Militia Men, or Subalterns, or supplying any Vacancies in such Militia, shall cease and remain suspended until the End of the next Session of Parliament; any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that any Proceedings shall be had at any Time before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid, either for the giving of Notices and making Returns and preparing Lists, and also for the Proceeding to ballot and enrol Men for the filling up Vacancies in the Militia of the United Kingdom, or any Part thereof, as His Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the making of any such Order, all such Proceedings shall be had for carrying into Execution all the Provisions of the Acts in Force in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, relating to the giving Notices for and Returns of Lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of Men to supply any Vacancies in the Militia, and holding General and Subdivision Meetings for such Purpose, at such Times respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any Directions given in pursuance thereof to the Lord Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants, of the several Counties, Shires, Ridings, Cities, and Places in Great Britain, or to the Governors and Deputy Governors of Counties and Places in Ireland, or to the Wardens and Special Deputy Wardens of the Stannaries; and all the Provisions of the several Acts in force in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, relating to the Militia and Corps of Miners of Cornwall and Devon, shall, upon any such Order, and Direction given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full Force and be carried into Execution at the Period specified in such Order or Direction as aforesaid, with all such Penalties and Forfeitures for any Neglect thereof, as fully as if such Period had been fixed in the Acts relating to each Militia and Mines.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June next, the Staff of the Disembodied Militia of the United Kingdom on Permanent Pay at Head Quarters shall be reduced to the following Proportions: (that is to say,) One Adjutant, One Sergeant Major, for each Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, and One Sergeant for every Forty Private Men, and One Drummer for every Two Companies, with an additional Drummer for each Flank Company, and One Drum Major for every Regiment or Battalion consisting of Eight Companies and upwards, and of no greater Number; any Thing in any Act or Acts relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall be appointed a Sergeant of the Militia of the United Kingdom, after the passing of this Act, shall be entitled to or have any higher Pension for any Service as a Sergeant, upon his Discharge, than Five-pence a Day: any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall apply to any Sergeant who shall be serving as such on the passing of this Act: Provided also, that all Sergeants, although appointed after the passing of this Act, may, in case of the Militia being afterwards embodied, and their serving therein while so embodied, be entitled to any such increased Rates of Pension, upon being discharged by reason of Age or being maimed or disabled, or for Length of Service, as shall be fixed in any Orders and Regulations made by His Majesty in that Behalf, provided Money for the Payment of such increased Pensions shall have been voted by Parliament.

VI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That all Rules and Regulations relating to any such increased Pensions shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament by the Secretary at War.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act, and all the Clauses, Provisions, Directions, and Authorities therein contained, shall be construed to extend to the Warden and Special Deputy Wardens of the Stannaries, and Corps of Miners of Cornwall and Devon, as fully as if they were respectively and severally repeated in every such Clause, Provision, Direction, and Authority.

Persons who have omitted to qualify themselves as required by Law, and altered their Title.

Declaration as may remove the Difficulties which many of them lie under; or according to another Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intimated An Act for indemnifying Persons who have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices within the Time limited by Law, and for allowing further Time for that Purpose; and for extending as much of an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as requires Persons to qualify themselves for Offices before the End of the next Term or Quarter Session; and also for extending the Time limited by Law for making and subscribing the Declaration against Transubstantiation; and for allowing a further Time for Enrolment of Oaths and Vows made by Popes; and for Relief of Protestant Persecutors, Deceased, and Living; or according to another Act made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intimated An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intimated "An Act for the further Qualification of Justices of the Peace;" or according to another Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intimated An Act for allowing the Oath of Abjuration, and the Assurance; and for extending as much of an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intimated "An Act for the Improvement of the Union of the Two Kingdoms," as after the Time therein limited requires the Delivery of certain Lists and Copies therein mentioned to Persons intimated of High Treason or Misdemeanors of Treason; have, through Ignorance of the Law, Absence, or some unavoidable Accident, omitted to take and subscribe the Oaths and Assurance and make and subscribe the Declaration required by the said recited Acts or either of them, or otherwise to qualify themselves as aforesaid, within such Time and in such Manner as in and by the said Acts respectively is required, whereby they have incurred, or may be in danger of incurring, divers Penalties and Disabilities: For quieting the Minds of His Majesty's Subjects, and for preventing any Inconvenience that might otherwise happen by means of such Omissions; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person or Persons who, on or before the passing of the Act, hath or shall have omitted to take and subscribe the Oaths and Declarations, or otherwise to qualify him, her, or themselves, within such Time and in such Manner as is and by the said Acts, or any of them, is required; and who, after accepting any such Office, Place, or Employment, or undertaking any Profession or Thing as a reward of which such Qualification ought to have been had and is required, before the passing of this Act hath or have taken and subscribed the said Oaths, or made the Declarations required by Law, or who, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty, shall take and subscribe the Oaths, Declarations, and Assurance respectively, in such Cases wherein by the said Acts or either of them the said Oaths, Declarations, and Assurance ought to have been taken and subscribed, in such Manner and Form, and as or in such Place or Places, as are appointed in and by the said Act made in the First Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the First, or by any other Act or Acts in that Behalf made and provided; and hath or have made and subscribed, or shall, on or before the said Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty, make and subscribe the said Declaration against Transubstantiation; and who hath or have made and subscribed, or shall, on or before the said Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty, make and subscribe the said Declaration in the said Statute made in the Thirtieth Year of King Charles the Second, in such Cases wherein the said Declaration ought to have been made and subscribed; or to take and subscribe the Oath directed by the said Act made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, in such Cases wherein the said Oath ought to have been taken and subscribed, in such Manner as by the said Act is directed, shall be and are hereby absolved, freed, and discharged from and against all Penalties, Forfeitures, Incapacities, and Disabilities incurred or to be incurred for or by reason of any Neglect or Omission, previous to the passing of this Act, of taking or subscribing the said Oaths or Assurances, or making or subscribing the said Declarations respectively, or taking or subscribing the said Oath, according to the above-mentioned Act or any of them, or any other Act or Acts; and such Person or Persons is and are and shall be fully and actually recognized and restored to the same State and Condition as he, she, or they were in before such Neglect or Omission, and shall be deemed and adjudged to have duly qualified him, her, or themselves according to the above-mentioned Acts and every of them; and that all Elections of and Acts done or to be done by any such Person or Persons, or by Authority derived from him, her, or them, are and shall be of the same Force and Validity as the same or any of them would have been if such Person or Persons respectively had taken the said Oaths or Assurances, and made and subscribed the said Declarations respectively, and taken and subscribed the said Oath, according to the Directions of the said Acts and every or any of them; and that the Qualification of such Person or Persons qualifying themselves in Manner and within the Time appointed by this Act shall be to all Intents and Purposes as effectual as if such Person or Persons had respectively taken the said Oaths and Assurances, and made and subscribed the said Declarations respectively, and taken and subscribed the said Oath, within the Time and in the Manner appointed by the several Acts before mentioned.

Persons who have omitted to make and subscribe the Oaths, &c. required by the Third Act of 5 Anne, &c.

II. And Whereas several Persons well affected to His Majesty's Government, and to the United Church of England and Ireland, have, through Ignorance of the Law, neglect, or been, by Sickness or other unavoidable Causes, prevented from taking and subscribing the Declaration according to the Directions of an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Second Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intimated An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery; Do it therefore further enacted, That all Persons who have incurred any Penalty or Incapacity in the said recited Act mentioned, by neglecting neglecting to qualify themselves according to the said Act, shall be and are hereby indemnified, freed, and discharged from all Incapacities, Disabilities, Penalties, and Forfeitures incurred by reason of such Omission or Neglect as aforesaid; and that no Act done by any of them, not yet avoided, shall be questioned or avoided by reason of such Omission or Neglect, but that all such Acts shall be and are hereby declared to be as good and effectual as if such Persons respectively had taken and subscribed the said Oath, and made and repeated and subscribed the said Declaration, at such Time and Place and Manner as in the said Act is mentioned; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Persons or Persons do and shall take and subscribe the said Oaths, and make, repeat, and subscribe the said Declaration, in such Manner and Form, and in such Place or Places respectively, as are directed and appointed by the said last-mentioned Act, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to indemnify any Person against whose final Judgment shall have been given in any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, for any Penalty incurred by having neglected to qualify himself within the Time limited by Law.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to exempt any Justice of the Peace within Great Britain from the Penalties to which he is subject for acting as such without being possessed of the Qualifications required by the Laws now in force.

V. * And Whereas the Appointment of Clerks of the Peace, Town Clerks, and other Public Officers, and the Admission of Juries Members and Officers of Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns in Great Britain and Ireland, or the Entries of such Admissions in the Court Books, Rolls, or Records of such Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns, which by several Acts are directed and required to be stamped, may not have been provided, or the same not stamped, or may have been lost or mislaid: Be it further enacted, That for the Relief of such Persons whose Appointments and Admissions, or the Entries of whose Admissions as aforesaid, may not have been provided, or not duly stamped, or where the same have been lost or mislaid, it shall and may be lawful in and for such Persons in Great Britain or Ireland, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty, to provide or cause to be provided Appointments and Admissions, or Entries of Admissions as aforesaid, duly stamped; or in case where such Appointments, Admissions, or Entries of Admissions as aforesaid, have been made or provided, but have not been duly stamped, to produce such Appointments, Admissions, or Entries of Admissions as aforesaid, to the Commissioners appointed to inspect and manage the Revenue of the Stamp Duties, to be duly stamped; which such Commissioners are hereby authorized, empowered, and required to duly stamp, on Payment of the Duties first payable or to have been paid on such Appointments, Admissions, or Entries of Admissions as aforesaid, without any Fine or Forfeiture therein; and in order to decore the said Duties, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to use such Stamps as shall have been heretofore provided to decore any former Duties on Stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or to cause new Stamps to be provided for that Purpose, and to do all other Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, in the like and in as full and ample Manner as they or the major Part of them are authorized to put in Execution any former Law concerning Stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; and such Persons so providing Appointments, Admissions, or Entries of Admissions as aforesaid, duly stamped, or procuring the same to be duly stamped, in Manner aforesaid, are and shall be hereby confirmed and qualified to act as Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Public Officer, or Member or Members, Officer or Officers of such Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns respectively, in all Intests and Purposes; and shall and may hold and enjoy and exercise such Offices, or any other Office or Offices into which he or they hath or have been elected, notwithstanding his or their Omission, or the Omission of any of their Predecessors, in such Cities, Corporations, or Borough Towns as aforesaid; and shall be indemnified and discharged of and from all Incapacities, Disabilities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Penalties, and Damages by reason of any such Omission; and none of his or her Acts shall be questioned or avoided by reason of the same.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act or any Thing herein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend to restore or enable any Person or Persons in any Office or Employment, Benefice, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, already actually avoided by Judgment of any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, or already legally filled up and enjoyed by any other Person; but that such Office or Employment, Benefice, Matter, or Thing as avoided, or legally filled up and enjoyed, shall be and remain as to the Person or Persons who is or are now, or shall at the passing of this Act, be legally entitled to the same, as if this Act had never been made.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Action, Suit, Bill of Indebtedness, or Information, shall then and after the passing of this Act be brought, carried on, or prosecuted against any Person or Persons hereby meant or intended to be indemnified, reinstated, or restored, for or on account of any Forfeiture, Penalty, Incapacity, or Disability whatsoever, incurred or to be incurred by any such Neglect or Omission, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and upon their Defence give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence upon any Trial to be had thereupon.

and allowed further Time for that Purpose.

Not to indemnify Persons against whom final Judgment is given. Not to exempt Justice acting without legal Qualification.

Admissions to Corporations may be stamped after Time allowed by Law.

C.A.P. XIII.

An Act to provide for Monies paid into Court under Acts afterwards repealed. [15th April 1829.]

WHEREAS under the Provisions of various Acts heretofore passed, relating to Turnpike Roads, Canals, Bridges, and other Works, Monies paid for the Purchase of Lands, Houses, Buildings, or other Property taken for the Purposes of such Acts, or as a Compensation for Damages sustained in effecting the Objects of such Acts, or in other Accounts, have been paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, or the Intant that such Monies might be applied and disposed of, under the Directions and with the Approbation of the said Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer, in the Manner in the said Acts respectively mentioned; and such Acts have been afterwards repealed by subsequent Acts, without any Provision being made by such subsequent Acts with regard to the Monies then already paid into the Bank under the Acts so repealed; and, from the Want of such Provision, Doubts have occurred with respect to the Application of such Monies, and the Powers of the said Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer with regard to the same, which Doubts it is deemed to be necessary to remove: His Majesty therefore prays Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be so enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases where any Money shall have been paid, or shall hereafter be paid, into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, or of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, under the Provisions of any Act heretofore repealed or hereafter to be repealed, such Money shall be paid, applied, and disposed of in the same Manner as it would have been, and the said Court of Chancery, or Court of Exchequer, in the Case may be, shall have the same Jurisdiction and Authority, with respect to the Payment, Application, and Disposal of the said Money, and for all Purposes relating thereto, as it would have had, in Case the Act under which the same was so paid into the Bank of England had not been in any Manner repealed; and where by any such Act Power shall have been given to the said Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer to order the Expenses of any Purchase to be made with such Money, or any Part thereof, or the necessary Costs and Charges of obtaining the Order for the same, to be paid by the Trustees or Commissioners acting in Execution of such Act, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer, in the Case may be, to order such Expenses, Costs, and Charges, or such of them, or such Part or Parts thereof respectively as to the said Court shall seem reasonable, to be paid by the Trustees or Commissioners acting in Execution of the Act by which such former Act shall have been repealed, if there shall be any such Trustees or Commissioners having Monies at their Disposal which to the said Court shall seem properly applicable to such Purpose.

C.A.P. XIV.

An Act for repealing several Acts relating to the Charity for the Relief of the Poor Widows of Commissioned and Warrant Officers in the Royal Navy, and for substituting other Provisions in lieu thereof. [16th May 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, being an Act for enabling His Majesty to apply Five hundred thousand Pounds out of the Sinking Fund for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, it is amongst other Things enacted, that from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, there should be allowed upon the Books of every Ship of War in Sea Pay a Man in every Hundred Men that the Complement of such Ship should consist of, and that the Proportion of the Wages of such each Seaman, and the Value of his Victuals, should be given and applied to the Relief of the Poor Widows of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, according to such Rules, Orders, and Regulations as His Majesty had established or should establish and appoint for that Purpose; which Allowance, by another Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds out of the Sinking Fund for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, and for Allowances to the Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, was increased and extended to One other Seaman in every One hundred Men of the Complement, for each Year only as the Number of Men employed in the Service of the Royal Navy should not exceed Twenty thousand; and by another Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for (amongst other Things) giving further Relief to the Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, the said Allowances were continued till the Number employed in the Royal Navy should exceed Thirty thousand: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Forty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, Augur for the more convenient Payment of Pensions to Widows of Officers of the Navy, various Regulations and Provisions are enacted and established for the more convenient Payment of the said Pensions, under the Order and Direction of the Court of Assistants of the before-mentioned Charity: And Whereas His Majesty has deemed it necessary that an Alteration should be made in the Constitution of the said Charity, and it is therefore expedient that the said Enactments, Regulations, and Provisions should be repealed, and other Provisions established in lieu thereof: His Majesty therefore prays the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Com-mean, as the present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Thirty-first Day of December next after the passing of this Act, so much of the said Act of the Sixth and Twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of King George the Second, and of the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, as are before-mentioned, and also the said Act of the Forty-ninth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, relating to the Persons of Widows of Officers of the Royal Navy, be and the same are hereby declared to be repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty-first Day of December next, all Persons to which the Widows of Officers of the Royal Navy shall or may be entitled, under any Commission, Warrant, or Order of His Majesty already existing or hereafter to be made, shall be paid by the same Persons and in the same Manner as any Wages, Pay, or other Allowances for Services in the Royal Navy are now payable, and may be remitted to the Party entitled thereto in the same Manner, and be payable by the same Persons and under the same Regulations, as by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to repeal several Acts relating to the Extension of Letters of Attorney and Wills of Petty Officers, Seamen, and Maroons of His Majesty's Navy, and to make new Provisions respecting the same, are provided in respect to the Payment of the Wages, Pay, and other Allowances for Services in the Royal Navy, to the Executors or Administrators of any deceased Petty Officer or Seaman; and that all the Enactments, Regulations, Clauses, Provisions, and Powers, specified and contained in the said last-mentioned Act with respect to Remittance Bills under the same Act, shall from thenceforth extend and be applicable to Remittance Bills to be made out for Payment of such Widows Pension pursuant to this Act, and to the Persons respectively by whom the same shall be made payable.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Assignments, Bargains, Sales, Orders, Contracts, and Agreements whatsoever to be made of or in relation to any Pension or Part of a Pension, or for the Assignment thereof by any Widow entitled thereto, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Orders, Certificates, Vouchers, Bills, and Receipts for or relating to any such Pensions shall be free and exempt from all Duties of Stamp-water.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty-first Day of December next, if any Person shall personate or falsely assume the Name or Character, or procure any other Person falsely to assume the Name or Character, of any Widow entitled or supposed to be entitled to any such Pension as aforesaid, in order to receive any such Pension or any Part thereof, or if any Person shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be falsely made, forged, or counterfeited, or wilfully act or assist in the false making, forging, or counterfeiting, any Remittance Bill, Certificate, Voucher, or Receipt for Money, in relation to any such Pension or the Payment thereof, or any Part thereof; or any Affidavit, Certificate, Voucher, or other Document, in order to obtain any such Pension, or shall utter or publish as true any such forged or counterfeited Remittance Bill, Certificate, Affidavit, Voucher, or other Document, with Intent to defraud any Person whatsoever, knowing the same to be false, forged, or counterfeited, every such Person in any of the said Cases offending shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and the Court before which any such Person shall be convicted shall be empowered to adjudge the Offender to be transported for any Period not exceeding Fourteen Years.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall utter or produce any false Affidavit, Certificate, Voucher, or other Document, in order fraudulently to procure any Person to be admitted to be a Pensioner as the Widow of any Officer of the Royal Navy, every such Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall be subject to be fined and imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, in the Discretion of the Court before which such Offender shall be convicted.

CAP. XV.

An Act to facilitate the Public Business in certain Cases in the Navy and Victualling Departments.

[14th May 1829.]

WHEREAS by divers Acts certain Powers and Authorities are given to, and certain Duties imposed upon, the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, and the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy: And Whereas His Majesty has been pleased to reduce the Number of such Commissioners, and it is therefore expedient that Two or more of them should be enabled to exercise and execute the respective Powers, Authorities, and Duties, and to do and perform all Things which by any of the said Acts might or ought to be exercised, executed, performed, or done by Three or more of such Commissioners respectively: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for Two or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, and for Two or more of the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, and for the Care of Sick and Wounded Seamen, and any such Two or more Commissioners respectively are hereby empowered to exercise and execute all Powers, Authorities, and Duties, and to perform and do all Acts, Matters, and Things, appertaining to their respective Offices, which by any Act or Acts now in force are, may, or ought to be exercised, executed, performed, or done by Three or more of such Commissioners respectively: and all such Acts, Matters, and Things, done, performed, and executed by Two or more of the said Commissioners respectively in their respective Offices, shall be as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if done, performed, and executed by Three or more of the said Commissioners respectively: Provided

From and after the 31st Dec next, so much of repealed Acts relating to Widows' Pensions shall be repealed.

Pensions, &c. to Widows to be paid, subject to the same Regulations as heretofore.

22 G. 3. c. 92.

Assignment of Pensions to be void.

Orders, &c. to be free from Duty

Producing false Affidavits or Certificates.

Two Commissioners of the Navy or Two Commissioners for Victualling the Navy, may exercise all the Powers herein granted by them.

In Assignments of Bills for Pay, for the Signature of One Commissioner shall be sufficient.

In Contracts, &c. relating to the several Departments of the Naval Service, it shall be sufficient for the Commissioners by their respective Titles.

always notwithstanding, That in all Cases of Assignments of Quarterly Bills for Officers Pay, Assignments of Tickets of Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and Orders for Payment of Allowances of the Wages of Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines of His Majesty's Fleet, the Signature of One Commissioner of the Navy only shall be legal and sufficient to all Intents and Purposes; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And Whereas it is expedient to make some Provision for preventing Inconvenience and Delay in the Execution of Contracts, Conveyances, Leases, and other Deeds and Instruments relating to the Public Service in the several Departments of the Naval Service of this Kingdom; Be it therefore enacted, That in all Contracts, Conveyances, Leases, and other Deeds and Instruments whatsoever relating to the Public Service, which from and after the passing of this Act shall or may be made or entered into by, to, or with the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, or any Two or more of them, the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the Time being, or any Two or more of them, or the Commissioners for Vetting His Majesty's Navy for the Time being, or any Two or more of them, or whereunto they or any Two or more of them shall or may respectively be Parties, it shall be sufficient to call or describe the said several Commissioners by the respective Styles or Titles of "The Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," "The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy," and "The Commissioners for Vetting His Majesty's Navy," without naming them or any of them; and that all such Contracts, Conveyances, Leases, and other Deeds and Instruments, whereof the said Commissioners, or any of them, shall be called or described by their respective Styles or Titles as aforesaid, and the Execution thereof respectively by the said respective Commissioners, or any of them, or any Two or more of them respectively (as the Case may be or require), shall be as valid and effectual, and shall have the like Force and Operation, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the Commissioners by, to, or with whom the same shall or may be made or entered into, or who shall or may be the Parties thereto, or any Two or more of them respectively, had been particularly named and described therein.

C. A. P. XVI.

An Act to continue the Operation of an Act of the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, for suspending the Provisions of an Act of His late Majesty respecting the Appointment of Writers in the Service of the East India Company; and to amend the Provisions of an Act of the Forty-seventh Year of His late Majesty, so far as they relate to the Period of Residences at Hertford College as a Qualification for certain Offices. [14th May 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to suspend the Provisions of an Act of His late Majesty respecting the Appointment of Writers in the Service of the East India Company, and to authorize the Payment of the Allowances of the Civil and Military Officers of the said Company during their absence from India: And Whereas it is expedient to continue, for a Time to be limited, the Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, so far as the same relate to the Appointment of Writers in the Service of the East India Company, and to the Establishment of Rules and Regulations respecting their Qualifications: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Provisions of the above-mentioned Act of the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, so far as the same relate to the Appointment of Writers in the Service of the East India Company, and to the Establishment of Rules and Regulations respecting the Qualifications of such Writers, shall continue and be in force until the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and Thirty-four.

II. And Whereas by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, all such Time as shall be dead time spent in the College established in England by the East India Company for the Education of their Civil Servants, by any Persons after they shall respectively have attained the Age of Seventeen Years, is accounted, as to certain Offices, Places, and Employments which such Persons are entitled to hold in India, as so much Time actually spent in India, provided that such Persons shall either before or after Seventeen Years of Age spend Two Years at the least in the said College: And Whereas it is expedient that the Privileges so granted should, under certain Circumstances, be extended to young Men who may have spent less Time than Two Years in the regular Course of Education at the said College: Be it therefore enacted, That all such Time, not exceeding Two Years, as shall have been or shall be dead time spent in the said College in the regular Course of such Education as aforesaid by any Persons after they shall respectively have attained the Age of Seventeen Years, who shall have proceeded or shall hereafter proceed to India in the Civil Service of the said Company, shall be accounted, as to all Offices, Places, and Employments in which such Persons are entitled to be appointed and to hold, the Salary, Perquisites, and Emoluments whereof shall not exceed the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds per Annum, as so much Time actual [†] spent in India; any Law or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

So much of the said Act as relates to the Appointment of Writers continued.

All the Time, not exceeding Two Years, spent in the College in the regular Course of Education after 17 Years of Age, shall be accounted as so much Time spent in India, in certain Cases.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to explain, amend, and alter the Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the Care and Treatment of Insane Persons in England. [14th May 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to regulate the Care and Treatment of Insane Persons in England: And Whereas Doubts have arisen as to some of the Provisions of the said Act, and the same requires to be amended and altered, for the more effectually carrying into Execution the beneficial Purposes thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for any Five or more of the Commissioners appointed under the Authority of the said recited Act, (Two of whom at least shall not be Physicians or Surgeons), to assemble themselves when and as often as they shall think fit, for the Purpose of executing and performing the several matters and Things by the said recited Act and by this Act entrusted to them, Notice being given under their Hands to require the Clerk of the said Commissioners to convene a Meeting of the Commissioners; and the said Clerk is hereby required and commanded duly to summon the rest of the said Commissioners Four Days before such intended Meeting.

2 G. 4. c. 61.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners as met as aforesaid shall and may, if they shall so think fit, grant, or renew, at any such Meeting, or at any adjourned Quarterly Meeting, Licences to keep Houses for the Reception of Two or more Insane Persons; provided that if at any such Meetings any Application for such Licence shall be made for the first Time, all such Notices, Plans, and Statements shall be given and made by the Applicant, as if such Application had been made at any of the Quarterly Meetings of the said Commissioners; and such Notices, Plans, and Statements shall be given and made Fourteen Days at the least before the said intended Meeting: Provided also, that any such Licence, so granted, may be continued, altered, or renewed at the next Quarterly Meeting of the said Commissioners; provided also, such Licence shall cease and determine and be of no Effect at the Expiration of Fifteen Days from and after the holding of such Quarterly Meeting, unless then confirmed by the said Commissioners.

III. And Whereas it is by the said recited Act required, that for the first and every annual Licence certain Payments shall be made: Be it enacted, That in Cases where, from the Change of the Person or the Place to be licensed, or other casual Circumstance happening before the Expiration of the original Licence, it shall be requisite to grant or renew a Licence for a less Period of Time than Twelvem Calendar Months, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners and Justices, as the Case may be, to reduce the Payments to be made on such Licences to not less than Five Pounds in the Whole.

Commissioners
may reduce their Licences on certain Cases.

IV. And Whereas it is by the said recited Act provided, that in those Cases only where the Person licensed shall die, his Licence shall continue in force: Be it enacted, That if any Person, duly licensed under this or the said recited Act, shall, by Sickness or other Infirmary, become incapable of keeping such House, or if any House so licensed shall be pulled down or occupied under the Provisions of any Act for public Purposes, or shall, by Fire, Tempest, or other unavoidable Calamity, be rendered unfit for the Accommodation of Insane Persons, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, Two of whom shall not be Physicians or Surgeons, at any Quarterly or other Meeting convened as aforesaid, upon the Payment of not less than One Pound for each Licence, to grant a new Licence to such other Person as they shall think fit: and also to grant to the Person whose House has so been rendered unfit, a Licence to keep such other House for the Accommodation of Two or more Insane Persons, as the said Commissioners, or any Five of them as aforesaid, shall think fit: Provided always, that Notice of such intended Change of Persons be given to the Clerk of the Commissioners Fourteen Days before the Meeting at which such Licence shall be granted; and provided also, that all such Plans and Statements shall be given and made of such new House as are required when Application is made for a Licence for the first Time at the Quarterly Meeting of the said Commissioners, and shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Commissioners Fourteen Days before the Meeting at which such Licence shall be granted: Provided also, that the Cause of such Change of House shall be duly specified in Writing to the said Clerk Three Days after the happening thereof.

Commissioners
may grant new Licences to other Persons, or for other Houses, in certain Cases.

V. And be it enacted, That if any Place or Building detached from any licensed House, but belonging to or in anywise appertaining to such House, shall be used for the Reception of One or more Insane Persons or Persons, such Place or Building shall be considered Part of such House for all the Purposes of this and the said recited Act.

Summary Conviction.

Conviction.

VI. And be it enacted, That when any House, licensed for the Reception of Two or more Inmate Visitors, shall be licensed to receive less than eleven Inmate Persons, then and in each Case it shall and may be lawful for any Two or more of the said Commissioners, Two of whom shall not be Physicians or Surgeons, or any Three of the said Visitors, if they shall so think fit, to direct and permit, under their Hands and Seals, that such House shall be visited by the Physicians, Surgeon, or Apothecary once only in Four Weeks, instead of Twice in every Week, as required by the said recited Act; provided that Fifteen Days shall intervene between each of such Visits.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Justice shall have full Power and Authority to do any Act or Acts at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, as they are by the said recited Act authorized and enabled to do at the Nicholas General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and such Act or Acts shall have the same Effect, Force, and Obligation as if they had been done at the Nicholas General Quarter Sessions.

VIII. ¹ And Whereas by the said recited Act the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, are empowered to cause to be paid, out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund, any Balance due on the Thirty-first Day of May in each Year to the Clerk of the Commissioners appointed under the said recited Act; And Whereas it is expedient that such Powers should be extended; Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, on an Application made to them in Writing, to cause to be issued and paid, out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund, to the Clerk of the said Commissioners, from Time to Time, such Sums of Money as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall deem fit, to defray the Expenses incurred under the Provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act; provided such Applications to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for such Money shall have been agreed upon at some Quarterly or other Meeting of the Commissioners appointed under the said recited Act, and shall be agreed by Seven at the least of the said Commissioners; provided also, it shall be shewn to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that there is a Balance due to the Clerk of the said Commissioners on account of Expenses so incurred as aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That an Account of all Money received for Licences by the Clerk of the Commissioners appointed under the said recited Act, and of all Money paid out of the Consolidated Fund under the Provisions of this and the said recited Act, shall be made up to the First of August in each Year, and such Account shall specify the several Heads of Expenditure, and shall be laid before Parliament on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March in each Year, if Parliament shall be then sitting, or if Parliament shall not be then sitting, within One Month after the then next Sitting of Parliament.

X. ¹ And Whereas it is desirable to define the precise Places to which the Powers and Authority of the said Commissioners shall extend, Be it therefore enacted, That the same shall extend to and include the Cities of London and Westminster, and all and every Part thereof, and the County of Middlesex, the Borough of Southwark, and also the whole of the several Parishes and Places hereinafter enumerated; namely, Brixton, Battersea, Barnes, Saint Mary Magdalene Bermondsey, Christ Church, Clapham, Saint Giles Cumberwell, Dulwich, Saint Paul Deyford, Greenwich, King Green, Kensington, Saint Mary Lambeth, Norville, Merton, Mitcham, Saint Mary Newington, Norwood, Putney, Peckham, Saint Mary Rotherhithe, Rotherhithe, Streatham, Stockwell, Tooting, Wandsworth, Wandsworth, and Walsworth, in the County of Surrey; Blackheath, Charlton, Deptford, Greenwich, Lewisham, Lee, Safford, and Woolwich, in the County of Kent; and East Ham, Leyton, Leytonstone, Low Leyton, Plaistow, West Ham, and Walthamston, in the County of Essex; and that the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners shall be deemed to include any Townships, Liberty, Tithing, Vill, Extra-parochial Place, or any other Place within the Cities of London and Westminster, and within Seven Miles thereof, and within the County of Middlesex; any Thing being contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it enacted, That any Three of the said Commissioners, one of whom shall not be a Physician, shall have full Power and Authority, as they see Occasion, to require any Person to appear before them, to testify the Truth touching any Matters relating to the Execution of the Powers given by the said recited Act or this Act.

XII. ¹ And for the more effectual Prosecution of Offences punishable by summary Conviction under the said recited Act or this Act, Be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged, upon the Oath of a credible Witness, before One or more Justices of the Peace, for any Offence against the Provisions of this or the said recited Act, the Justice or Justices may summon the Person charged to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and if he shall not appear accordingly, and upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons upon such Person, (by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his last or usual Place of Abode,) the said Justice or Justices may either proceed to hear and determine the Case, or issue his or their Warrant for apprehending such Person, and bringing him before him or them or some other Justice or Justices of the Peace; and the Justice or Justices before whom the Person so charged shall appear or be brought shall proceed to hear and determine the Case.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against the said recited Act or this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case may require; and that no Conviction under this Act or the said recited Act shall be void through Want of Form.

BE

BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ at _____ in the County of _____ A. B. is convicted before _____ of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County; for _____ did _____ and _____ adjudge the said _____ for his said Offence to pay the Sum of _____

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Prosecution for every Offence under the said recited Act or this Act (except such as are committed within the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners nominated under the said recited Act, or such as are punishable by summary Conviction,) shall be by Indictment preferred to a Grand Jury at the Assizes to be held in and for the County wherein the Offence shall have been committed.

XV. And for remedying any Doubts as to the true Meaning of the Words "Insane Persons," Be it enacted, That the Words "Insane Persons," used in the said recited Act and in this Act, shall be deemed and construed to extend to all Persons whatsoever who are Lame, Deaf, or of unsound Mind; any Thing in the said recited Act or in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act.

An Act to explain and amend an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, intitled An Act concerning the Registration of Seins and Recoveries of Tenements within Burgh. [14th May 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed by the Parliament of Scotland in the Year Sixteen hundred and eighty-one, intituled An Act concerning the Registration of Seins and Recoveries within Burgh; And Whereas in the Registration of Instruments of Seins of Tenements within Burghs Royal, or Liberty or Free-town thereof, holden in Burghs, as authorized and required by the said Act of Parliament, some Deviations of Practice have prevailed in the Mode of regarding the Notarial Decrees submitted to such Instruments, as to which no Rule was prescribed by the said Act: And Whereas Doubts have arisen regarding the Effects of such Practice, and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and that the Mode of such Registration should for the future be settled and prescribed: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That with regard to any Instruments of Seins of Tenements within Burgh, recorded prior to the passing of this Act, in which the Decrees therein submitted may have been inserted in such Registers in an abbreviated or incomplete Form, or altogether omitted, as heretofore in various Instances practiced, such Practice shall not be held to affect the Sufficiency of such Instruments, or be the Ground of any Challenge in Law or Exception to the Validity of the Rights of Parties depending on such Seins.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all Time coming after the passing of this Act the Keepers of the Registers of Seins within Burgh in Scotland shall express in their Registers at length the Notarial Decrees submitted to all Instruments of Seins of Tenements within Burgh respectively, otherwise such Seins shall make no Faith in Judgment, by Way of Action or Exception, in Prejudice of a Third Party who hath acquired a perfect and lawful Right to such Tenements; but without Prejudice to the using of such Instruments against the Parties, Heirs or Successors.

III. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect any Action or Process now depending in relation to such Practice as aforesaid, or the Effect thereof; but all such Actions or Processes, and the Rights and Interests of the Parties therein and under the same, are hereby expressly saved and reserved.

C.A.P. XX.

An Act to carry into Execution the Stipulations of a Convention between His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty, for the Settlement of certain British Claims upon Spain, and of certain Spanish Claims upon the United Kingdom. [14th May 1828.]

WHEREAS considerable Difficulties having presented themselves in carrying into Effect, by means of a Mixed Commission, the Stipulations of the Convention concluded and agreed at Madrid on the Twelfth of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, for the Adjustment of Claims preferred respectively by the Subjects of their Britannic and Catholic Majesties: It was agreed between their said Majesties that an amicable Settlement or Compromise should be effected of all Claims registered under the above-mentioned Convention, which shall appear to be just and legitimate; and, in furtherance of such Agreement, a Convention was entered into and signed in London on the Twenty-eighth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, by the Right Honourable George Earl of Aberdeen, &c. &c. &c. and His Excellency the Comte de Gáliz, &c. &c. &c. as Plenipotentiaries of their said Majesties respectively: And Whereas by this last-mentioned Convention it was stipulated and agreed that the Sum of Nine hundred thousand Pounds should be paid by His Catholic Majesty in Satisfaction of the Amount of the Whole of the British Claims presented to and registered by the Mixed Commission established by the Convention of the Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, such Sum of Nine hundred thousand Pounds to be made good to His British Majesty in the Mode and Form following: viz: First, Two hundred thousand Pounds Sterling to be delivered upon the Day on which the Exchange of the Ratification of the Convention signed on the Twenty-eighth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight took place, being the Eighth Day of December in that Year, at which Time such Payment was duly made; another like Sum at the Expiration of Three Months from the Day of the Exchange above mentioned; the further Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling to be paid at the Expiration of Six Months, and another like Sum at the Expiration of Nine Months, from the Day of the Exchange of the Ratifications last mentioned, which Two last Installments His Catholic Majesty reserved to himself the Power of paying either in Specie or Certificates of Inscription bearing Interest at Five per Cent. per Annum, and being issued at Fifty per Cent. Discount; and it having been stipulated and agreed between the said Parties that the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds Sterling should be made good by His Majesty in Satisfaction of the Amount of the Claims of the Claims of Spanish Subjects upon His Majesty's Government, presented to and registered by the Mixed Commission in pursuance of the Terms of the Convention of the Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, it was further agreed that such Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds Sterling should be retained in the Possession of His Majesty, in order that such Sum should be set against or deducted from the Nine hundred thousand Pounds which His Majesty, as previously stated, was to receive from the Spanish Government in Satisfaction of the Claims of British Subjects so presented and registered as aforesaid; and it was further agreed between the High Contracting Parties that they should cause the Claims of their own Subjects to be adjudged within their respective Territories, and within the Period of Twelve Months from the Date of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Convention, or that either of the said High Contracting Parties might agree with the Persons interested, or their Agents, upon any other Mode of Arrangement which might be deemed most expedient for satisfying them, within the same Term, without the Necessity of any formal or previous Adjustment: And Whereas His Majesty's Government having caused a Classification to be made of the Claims preferred by Spanish Subjects upon Spain, and registered as before stated, did, conformably to the last-recited Stipulation, enter into an Agreement with the Persons interested, and their Agents and Agents, for the Satisfaction of their respective Claims; by which Agreement full Consent to the Amount of Compromise to be received under the Convention was accorded by the Parties interested, in the following Terms: First, That the Sum of One hundred and fifty-five thousand Pounds shall be allowed for the Liquidation of the just and legitimate Claims comprised in Class (A.), being the Cases numbered in the Register of the Mixed Commission 8, 14, 54, 63, 62, 68, 69, 71, 74, 88, 89, 94, 95, 96, 105, 121, 142, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, * arrived the Benefit of such Convention, in Support of which Claims no Person hath appeared, or Convention

 * association been made to the said Mixed Commission by the Parties presumed to have been interested * in the same, notwithstanding Requisitions for such Appearance or Communication were published in * the London Gazette on the Eleventh Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, * and the Twenty-ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-four: Seventh, That in * the Event of the Sum of Nine hundred thousand Pounds not being paid or stipulated for by His Catholic * Majesty under the Provision of the Convention of the Twenty-eighth Day of October One thousand * eight hundred and twenty-eight, the Assent of the said Parties interested, and their Assigns, to the Ac* ceptance of a Compromise to such Amount as aforesaid shall be considered as withdrawn, nor shall such * Assent be held to be in prejudice of their Right to be paid the full Amount of the Sums to which they * may be respectively entitled, such Sums to be then ascertained and liquidated as prescribed by the * Convention of the Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three: And Whereas
 * His Majesty was pleased, by a Commission under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great * Britain and Ireland, bearing Date the Fourth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-
 * three, to nominate and appoint Edward James Dumbell and Robert Allison Cor Esquires to be His * Majesty's Commissioners for the Purpose of carrying into Effect, on the Part of His Majesty, the * Provisions contained in the first-mentioned Convention of the Twelfth Day of March One thousand * eight hundred and twenty-three: And Whereas by another Commission under the Great Seal of the * United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing Date the Twenty-fourth Day of July One * thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, His Majesty was pleased to nominate and appoint Robert * Francis Jameson and Joseph Esqrs Esquires to be His Majesty's Commissioners under the said Con* vention, in the Name and Place of the said Edward James Dumbell and Robert Allison Cor Esquires, * to act in the Execution of the said Convention with the same Powers and Authority as their Predeces* sors were invested with: And Whereas the said Commissioners caused to be inscribed in a Register the * Names of all the Claimants who presented themselves within the Period prescribed by the said Con* vention, with the Names of the Agents respectively employed to act for the said Claimants, and
 * caused the Cases preferred by the Parties interested, or their Agents, to be numbered in such Register;
 * a Copy of which, or a List of such Claims so numbered (amounting to 331), was delivered to the * Commissioners of His Catholic Majesty on the Twelfth Day of October One thousand eight hundred * and twenty-four: And Whereas by the First Article of the Convention signed in London on the * Twenty-eighth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, between His Majesty * and the King of Spain, His Catholic Majesty engaged to make good the Sum of Nine hundred thousand * Pounds as the Assent of the whole of the said Claims: And Whereas His Majesty, in furtherance of
 * the Objects of such Convention, and in accordance with the Stipulations of the Third Article of the * same, hath caused the necessary Measures to be taken for the Allocation of such Claims as aforesaid, * said, which, being just and legitimate, shall be entitled to a Share of such Sum of Nine hundred * thousand Pounds Sterling, and hath entered into an Arrangement with the Parties interested, and their
 * Assigns, for the Satisfaction of their respective Claims within the Period named in the same Con* vention (the Terms of which Arrangement have been before recited): And Whereas it is expedient and
 * necessary that effectual Provision should be made for carrying into Execution the Stipulations of the * said Convention: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the * Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament
 * assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Sum of Nine hundred thousand Pounds stipulated * to be paid, in the Mode and at the Time before mentioned by the said Treaty, to His Majesty, * as a Compromise of the Claims of British Subjects registered by the Mixed Commission acting under
 * the Convention of the Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, shall be * considered and taken to be a full Satisfaction for all such Claims as aforesaid; and that the said Stipula* tion, as in this Act recited and contained, may be pleaded in bar, or given in Evidence upon the General Issue, * and shall be and be deemed and adjudged in every Court wherever to be good and complete Bar in * any and every Action, Suit, or Proceeding brought or instituted for Restitution of any Loss, or Pay* ment of any Debt, or for any Damage or Injury for which Compensation hath been sought by any * Claim or Claims upon His Catholic Majesty preferred or registered by the Mixed Commission acting
 * as aforesaid.

And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, shall at any Time after the passing of this Act approve or approve of the Claim of any Person or Persons upon the Government of Spain, whose Claim has been registered as aforesaid to be good and valid in the Whole or in Part, and shall have ascertained the Sum of Money to which any such Person or Persons in or are then respectively entitled, and shall have signed and sealed an Award of the same, then the said Commissioners shall present such Award, so signed and sealed, to the Board of Commissioners of Deposit and Liquidation, by whom, or by a Majority of whom, an Order for Payment of such Sum or Sums so awarded shall be signed; and the said Commissioners shall cause the same, with the Award so signed and sealed, to be delivered to the Person or Persons respectively entitled therein.

IX. And be it further enacted, That His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall assign such Compensation to the said Commissioners, and such Salaries to the Clerks and others engaged in the Office of the said Commissioners, as in his Discretion he shall think fit; and such Compensation and Salaries, and all other Expenses attending the said Office, and also the Payment of all Sums advanced by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in and for the Payment of the Salaries and Expenses of the Commissioners appointed under the Convention signed at Madrid on the Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, shall be liquidated and paid by a Per-centage upon or Deduction from the Sums allotted to the Four Classes into which the said Claims are divided, in such Proportion and to such Amount as His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs may at all determine.

X. And be it further enacted, That should any Difference of Opinion arise between the said Commissioners in the Examination and Adjudication of the Claims, which Difference, by reason of Equality of Votes, cannot be decided, then the Case or Cases upon which such Difference of Opinion may arise shall be referred to the Judgment and Decision of some competent Person, to be named and appointed by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and the Judgment and Decision of such Person shall be final upon the Point or Points in Issue between the said Commissioners.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXIII.

An Act to impose Duties on the Importation of Silk and Silk Goods, and to allow Drawbacks on the Exportation thereof. [23d May 1829.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties now payable upon the Importation of Silk and Silk Goods shall cease and determine, and that other Duties shall be imposed in lieu thereof;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July next all Duties payable upon the Importation of Silk and Silk Goods under any Act or Acts now in force shall be repealed, and that from and after the said Fifth Day of July the several Duties of Customs set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, entitled (A.), shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, in like Manner as if such Duties had been imposed in and by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting Duties of Customs, and had been set forth in a Table therewith annexed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to import into the United Kingdom any Manufactures of Silk in any Ship or Vessel which is not of the Burthen of Seventy Tons or upwards, except as hereinafter provided; nor to import any such Manufactures, being the Manufactures of Europe, into any Port, except into the Port of London or into the Port of Dublin direct from Bourdeaux, or into the Port of Dover direct from Calais; and that this Restriction shall be complied with and enforced in like Manner as if the same were set forth in a Table, denominated “A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions on Imports,” contained in an Act passed in the Sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the general Regulation of the Customs.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs from Time to Time, and upon such Security as they shall see fit to require, to grant their Licences for any Vessel belonging to the Port of Dover to import such Manufactures into that Port direct from the Port of Calais, although such Vessel may not be of greater Burthen than of Sixty Tons.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in the Entry of all Silk Goods which are subject to Duty according to the Weight or to the Value thereof, at the Option of the Officers of the Customs, the Weight and the Value of such Goods shall be both stated, and such Value shall be affirmed in like Manner as the Value of any Goods charged to pay Duty according to the Value thereof is affirmed under the Provisions of the said (aforementioned) Act for the Regulation of the Customs; and that it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs to detain any such Goods, and to take the same for the Use of the Crown, in like Manner and upon the same Terms as such Officers may under the Provisions of the said Act detain and take any Goods entered for Payment of Duty according to the Value thereof as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, upon the Exportation of Silk Goods, the Drawbacks of the Duties payable on the Importation of Thrown Silks, set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, shall be allowed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Drawbacks granted by this Act shall be allowed only in respect of Exportations to be made by the Persons in whose Names the Amount of Duties to be drawn back had been paid, or to be made by any Holder of any written Order signed by any such Persons, transferring the Right of making such Exportations and of receiving such Drawbacks thereupon.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Drawback shall be allowed, although the manufactured Silks in respect of which the same shall be claimed shall not have been made of the Thrown Silk in respect of which the Amount of Duties to be drawn back had been paid, and whether such Amount of Duties shall have been received under the Authority of this Act or of any former Act: Provided always, that the said Drawback shall not be allowed unless such manufactured Silks be shipped for Exportation within Two Years after the Payment of such Duties.

VIII. And Whereas it is expedient that greater Rewards than heretofore should be granted to Officers upon the Seizure of Foreign Silk Goods; Be it enacted, That upon the Seizure and Condemnation of any such Goods, for the Breach of any Law now made or hereafter to be made, relating to the Revenue of Customs, or for the Prevention of Smuggling, there shall be paid to the Officer seizing the same, in lieu of the Rewards granted by any former Act, the whole Value of such Goods, exclusive of the Duty thereon: Provided always, that such Goods shall be sold for Exportation only.

IX. And be it further enacted, That where any Penalty shall have been recovered from any Person in respect of any such Goods, there shall be paid to the Officer by whose Means such Penalty is recovered One Moiety of the Penalty or Sum so recovered.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

After 4th July the Duties payable upon Importations of Silk shall be repealed, and these are set forth in Table (A.) intitled.

Drawbacks as to the Importation of Manufactures of Silk.

4 G 4 c. 103.

Commissioners of Customs may grant Licences for foreign Vessels belonging to Dover.

In Entries of Silk Goods entered in Duty both Weight and Value shall be stated.

Drawbacks upon Exportation.

To whom only Drawbacks shall be allowed.

Drawbacks to be allowed of Silks are shipped within Two Years.

and One Moiety of Penalty.

Act may be altered.

C A P. XXIV.

An Act to enable the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant Life Annuities and Annuities for Terms of Years.

[22d May 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to amend an Act of several Acts as empowers the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant Life Annuities; and it is expedient that the said Commissioners should be enabled to grant such Annuities in future according to the Duration of Human Life as ascertained by recent Tables of Observation; and also to grant Annuities to continue for a certain limited Term of Years; and that all such Annuities should be granted in Consideration of the Transfer of Bank Annuities, or Annuities commonly called Long Annuities, or in Consideration of Payment of Money to the said Commissioners (and that Provisions should be made for carrying the said Measures into Effect as hereinafter expressed): Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, at such Days and Times as they shall from Time to Time appoint by Notice in the London Gazette for that Purpose, to accept and receive from any Person or Persons whatsoever the Transfer of any Bank Annuities or Long Annuities transmissible at the Bank of England, or to receive any Sum or Sums of Money as the Consideration for the Purchase of Life Annuities, or of Annuities for a certain limited Term of Years, to be chargeable and charged upon and to be payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom; and to sell and grant Annuities, either on the Continuance of single Lives, or on the Continuance of Two Lives, and the Life of the longest Liver of them, or upon the joint Continuance of Two joint Lives, such Annuities to commence respectively either immediately or at a Period to be fixed at the Time of granting any Annuity; and also to sell and grant deferred Annuities upon the Continuance of a single Life or joint Lives; and also to sell and grant Annuities to continue for any certain limited Term of Years, to commence either immediately or on any Day to be named at the Time of granting any such Annuity; and also to sell and grant, generally, any immediate Annuities, or any temporary Annuities, or any deferred Annuities, of whatsoever Kind or Denomination (save and except that no deferred Annuity shall be granted for any certain limited Term of Years to commence from and after the Death of any Person), as are allowed by this Act, in the Manner and under the Limitations and Restrictions and Regulations hereinafter expressed.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Annuity or Annuities shall be sold or granted by the said Commissioners upon the Life of any Person under the Provisions of this Act, who, on the Day when the Contract for such Annuity or Annuities shall be made, shall be under the Age of Fifteen Years: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, to decline or refuse to sell and grant any Annuity under the Provisions of this Act, in such Cases where there shall be, in the Opinion of the said Commissioners, or of the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, sufficient Grounds for refusing or declining so to do.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to accept and receive any Amount, not less than One hundred Pounds, of any Bank Annuity, or to accept and receive any Sum of Money or any Amount of Long Annuities, equal in Value to not less than One hundred Pounds of Three per Cent. Bank Annuity, according to the average Price of such Annuities, to be ascertained in manner hereinafter directed, from any Person or Persons desirous of purchasing any Annuity or Annuities for Lives or Years of whatsoever Kind, under the Regulations of this Act, at and according to such Rates as shall be specified in any Table or Tables which shall be from Time to Time approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to accept and receive from any Person or Persons any Sum of Money by the Year, at such Time or Times in each and every Year as the said Commissioners shall appoint, amounting to Five Pounds or upwards in Money, for the Purpose of enabling the Person or Persons making such Payment or Transfer to purchase any of the before-mentioned desired Annuities for Lives, under the Provisions of this Act, according to such Regulations as the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall direct and approve; and all Bank Annuities and Long Annuities which shall be so transferred, and also all Bank Annuities which shall be purchased with any Sum of Money so paid, shall from Time to Time be carried to the Account of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and shall then be cancelled, and all Interest or Dividends on such Annuities respectively shall cease to be charged upon or to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund from and after the Day upon which any such Annuities respectively shall be transferred to and placed in the Names of the said Commissioners: Provided always, that the several Persons by whom any Annuities for Lives or Years of whatsoever Kind shall be purchased, or to whom any such Annuities shall be assigned and transferred under the Provisions of this Act, shall (if the Governor and Company of the said Bank shall require the same) respectively underwrite his, her, or their Acceptance thereof in the Books of the said Governor and Company, by himself or herself, or by some other Person or Persons duly authorized in his, her, or their Behalf.

IV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Person shall be desirous of purchasing, under the Provisions of this Act, any Life Annuity of whatsoever Kind, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons so desiring to purchase such Annuity to name and appoint any other Person or Persons, being of the Age of Fifteen Years or upwards at the Time of such Nomination, and being a Native or Natives of, and most usually resident within, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to the Continuance of whose Life such Annuity shall depend: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any Person, whether a Native or not of the United Kingdom, or not residing in the United Kingdom, from purchasing any Life Annuity of whatsoever Kind under this Act, to depend upon the Continuance of the Life of himself, herself, or themselves, as the Nominee or Nominees of such Annuity.

V. And be it further enacted, That before any Bank Annuities or Long Annuities shall be transferred, or any Money shall be paid to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purchase of any Life Annuity under the Provisions of this Act, a Declaration in such Form as shall from Time to Time be directed or authorized by the said Commissioners, or by the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, shall be signed by the Person or One of the Persons desirous of purchasing such Annuity, or by some Person on his, her, or their Behalf, stating the Name of the Person by whom or on whose Behalf such Annuity shall be purchased, and the Name or Names of the Person or Persons on whose Life or Lives such Annuity is required to be granted, with such other Particulars as the said Commissioners, or the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, shall from Time to Time direct, and such Declaration shall be delivered to the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, or other Officer acting under the said Commissioners; and there shall also be produced to the said Office a Copy of the Register of the Birth or Baptism of the Person desiring to purchase such Annuity on his own Life, or of any and every Nominant on whose Life or Lives any such Annuity shall be purchased, certified as true, under the Hand of the Minister of the Parish or Place where such Register shall be kept, or in the Absence of the Minister, then a Copy of such Register, together with a Certificate of the Truth thereof (wherein such Absence shall be specified), under the Hands of the Churchwardens or Chapelwardens or Overseers of such Parish or Place, or any Two of them; and every such Certificate, whether of the Minister or Churchwardens, or Chapelwardens or Overseers, shall be attested by Two or more credible Witnesses; and to each Certificate there shall also be annexed an Affidavit of the said Witnesses, or One of them, or their, his, or her solemn Affirmation (in case they or either of them shall be of the Profession called Quakers), to be made before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or before the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, or other Officer or Officers appointed by the said Commissioners for that Purpose, (and which Oath or Affirmation such Justice or Magistrate, or Comptroller General, Assistant Comptroller, or other Officer, is hereby authorized and empowered to administer;) that such Witness or Witnesses did examine and compare the said Copy of the Register of Birth or Baptism with the Register thereof, and did so as such Minister, or Churchwardens or Chapelwardens, or Overseers (as the Case may be), sign the said Certificate, and that the Names of such Witnesses are of their own proper Handwriting; and to every such Certificate shall also be annexed an Affidavit or solemn Affirmation made by the Purchaser of the said Annuity (or by One of the Purchasers in case there shall be Two or more), or by some Person on his, her, or their Behalf, before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or before such Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, or other Officer or Officers of the said Commissioners, that the Person named and described in the Copy or Certificate of the Register of Birth or Baptism produced to the said Officer is the same Person who is appointed to be such Nominant.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Copy or Certificate of any Register, which shall be produced pursuant to this Act, shall purport to be a Copy or Certificate of the Register of the Baptism only, and not of the Birth of any Person, the Age of such Person shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be calculated from the Date of such Baptism, and the Amount of the Annuity to be purchased on the Life of the Person named in any such Copy or Certificate shall be estimated and ascertained in like Manner in all Respects as if such Person had been born on the Day expressed in such Copy or Certificate to be the Date of his or her Baptism.

VII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in case any Person by whom or on whose Behalf any Annuity shall be purchased on his or her own Life shall not be a Native of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in case the Birth or Baptism of any Nominant whatever, whether such Person shall be his own Nominant or not (being a Native of the United Kingdom), shall not appear in the Register of the Parish where such Nominant shall have been born or baptized, then and in every such Case there shall be produced to the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, or other Officer of the said Commissioners (in lieu of such Certificate and Affidavit as aforesaid, an Affidavit or solemn Affirmation, in Writing, of the Age of such Nominant, together with his or her Name, Surname, Addition, and Employment or Occupation (if any), and usual Place of Abode, and also the Place of his or her Birth, and the Names of his or her Parents or reputed Parents, also stating that the Person named and described in such Affidavit or Affirmation is the Person on whose Life such Annuity is intended to be purchased; and such Affidavit or Affirmation shall be made either by the Person or One of the Persons by whom or on whose Behalf such Annuity shall be purchased, or by such Nominant, or by some other Person having Knowledge of the several Circumstances before mentioned; in which latter Case the said Affidavit or Affirmation shall also be accompanied by an Affidavit or Affirmation to be made by the Person or One Purchaser of Annuities may appoint Nominants, being Natives of the United Kingdom.

Not to prevent any Person from purchasing Annuities on their own Lives.

Pounds.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person desirous of purchasing any Annuity for Lives or Years, of whatsoever Kind, under this Act, to transfer to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt any Bank Annuity carrying a higher Rate of Interest than Three Pounds per Centum per Annum; and whenever any such Bank Annuity or any Long Annuities shall be so transferred, and whenever any Sum of Money shall be paid for the Purchase of any Annuity for Lives or Years under this Act, such Bank Annuities carrying a higher Rate of Interest than Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and such Long Annuities, and such Sum of Money respectively, shall be first assigned by the Commissioners of the proper Officer acting under the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, into Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Reduced Bank Annuities (at the Option of the Purchaser), according to the average Price of Three Pounds per Centum Annuity, to be ascertained as directed by this Act, and the Annuity or Annuities to be granted in respect of the Consideration of such Purchase shall be calculated and ascertained upon the Amount of Three Pounds per Centum Annuity (including the fractional Parts of a Pound of such last-mentioned Three Pounds per Centum Annuity, if any,) produced by such Conversion; and whenever any Sum of Money shall be so paid, a Change of Two Shillings and Sixpence shall be made upon the Purchaser of such Annuity for Life or Years, for every entire One hundred Pounds of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities produced by the Conversion of such Money into such Three Pounds per Centum Annuities as aforesaid.

Future Bank
Annuities, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted, That any Bank Annuities, and any Annuities for a certain Term of Years, which may at any Time after the passing of this Act be created by this Act, or by any future Act Act or Acts, shall be transferable and may be transferred to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purchase of any Annuities of whatsoever Kind, under the Provisions of this Act, in like Manner in all Respects as any Bank Annuities, or Annuities for a certain Term of Years, existing at the Time of the passing of this Act, and shall be subject to all the Rules, Regulations, and Provisions in this Act contained.

may be transferred for the Purpose of this Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Sum of Money shall be the Consideration for any Annuity for Lives or Years, of whatsoever Kind, to be granted under the Provisions of this Act, such Sum of Money shall be paid by or on Behalf of the Purchaser or Purchasers of such Annuity into the Bank of England, under a Certificate of the proper Officer of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and upon the Production of such Certificate, the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Bank shall, and he and they it and are hereby required to receive all such Money, and to place the same to the Account of the said Commissioners; and all such Money shall be laid out on Behalf of the said Commissioners in the Purchase of Bank Annuities, as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct; and all such Bank Annuities shall from Time to Time be cancelled as herein-before directed; Provided always, that all Money paid to the said Commissioners for the Purchase of Life Annuities shall be carried to their Account, standing in the Books of the said Bank, under any Acts heretofore in force enabling the said Commissioners to grant Life Annuities; and all Money paid to the said Commissioners for the Purchase of Annuities for Terms of Years shall be carried to a distinct and separate Account in the Books of the said Bank.

Money for the Purchase of Annuities shall be paid into the Bank in Account of Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That for the better carrying this Act into Execution, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, from Time to Time, as they shall think fit, to direct the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to use and adopt such Tables as shall, from Time to Time, be authorized and approved of by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for ascertaining the Values of Annuities depending on the Continuance of single Lives, and on the Continuance of Two Lives and the Life of the longest Liver of them, and on the joint Continuance of Two joint Lives; and also such Tables of the Values of deferred Annuities on single or joint Lives; and also such Tables of the Values of Annuities, for a certain limited Term of Years, immediate or deferred, as may be granted according to the Provisions of this Act; and such respective Tables shall be valid and effectual for the Purpose of this Act; and all Annuities for Lives or Years, of whatsoever Kind, to be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall be purchased according to the Values stated in such Tables respectively, so long as the same shall remain in force; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to alter, revoke, and rescind all or any such Tables from Time to Time, and to direct the Use and Adoption of such other Tables in lieu thereof as shall be approved of by the said Commissioners of the Treasury: Provided always, that the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall, previous to the Adoption and using of any such Tables respectively, give Notice, from Time to Time, in the London Gazette, in such Form and Manner as to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall seem fit and proper, that such Tables have been authorized and approved by the said Commissioners of the Treasury.

Treasury shall direct the Use of Tables of the Value of Annuities as approved by them.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where any Bank Annuity or Long Annuity shall be transferred, or any Sum of Money shall be paid as the Consideration for the Purchase of any Annuity for Lives or Years, of whatsoever Kind, under the Provisions of this Act, the Person or Persons purchasing any such Annuity for Lives or Years, upon the Transfer of such Bank Annuity or Long Annuity, or upon the Payment of such Sum of Money to the said Commissioners, shall, for every One hundred Pounds of such Three per Centum Bank Annuities, or for every Sum of Long Annuities, or for every Sum of Money paid equal to the Value of such One hundred Pounds of such Three per Centum Annuities, and so in Proportion for any greater Sum, be entitled to receive (during the Continuance of the single Life of the Nominee, or during the Lives of the Two Nominees and the Life of the longest Liver of them, or during the joint Continuance of the Lives of the Two joint Nominees, or during the Continuance of the single or joint Lives in Cases of deferred Life Annuities, or during the Term of Years, immediate or deferred, for which any Annuity shall be granted under this Act,) an Annuity for a Life or Lives, or for Terms of Years, as the Case may be, of such annual Amount as shall be specified in any such Table or Tables respectively, as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall from Time to Time authorize and approve in manner herein-before directed, to be calculated and ascertained according to the Age of the Nominee or Nominees, or the Continuance of the Term of Years respectively, as the Case may be, and according to the average Price (to be ascertained as herein-before directed) of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Reduced Bank Annuities on the Day preceding the Day of granting the said Certificate to the Party purchasing any such Annuity for a Life or Lives, or for a Term of Years as aforesaid: Provided always, that whenever it shall happen that on Sale of any Bank Annuities shall have been made, so as to enable such average Price to be ascertained on each and every Day, in manner herein-before required, then such Calculation shall be made according to the average Price on the nearest Day preceding the Date of the Certificate to be granted by such Office.

Purchasers of Life Annuities, or Annuities for Years, shall be entitled to such Amount of Annuity as shall be specified in such Tables.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to transfer, for the Purchase of any Annuity under the Provisions of this Act, any less Sum than One hundred Pounds of any Bank Annuities, nor any fractional Part less than One Pound of such Bank Annuities, except in Cases expressly provided for by this Act; and that in every Case where the Calculation of the Amount of any Annuity, according to the Provisions of this Act, shall produce a Fraction less than Sixpence, the fractional Part of the said Annuity less than Sixpence shall be taken from the Amount thereof, and shall not be inserted in the Certificate to be granted by the Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, nor shall be payable at the Bank of England.

Life Annuities granted under this Act shall be added to the same Annuities for Lives, and Annuities for Years shall be carried to a separate Account.

Life Annuities may make further Purchase on Lives of single Persons without such Conditions.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all Life Annuities of whatsoever Kind, which shall be purchased and granted under the Provisions of this Act (whether such Life Annuities shall commence immediately or not), shall in their due Course, on the same shall fall due and become payable, be added to and shall form Part of the Life Annuities payable at the Bank of England under any Act or Acts heretofore in force enabling the said Commissioners to grant Life Annuities; and all Annuities for Terms of Years, which shall be purchased and granted under this Act, shall be carried to a separate Account in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and the Books of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, under the Title of "Annuities for Terms of Years granted by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, pursuant to Act of the Tenth of George the Fourth;" and the said Annuities for Terms of Years shall be comprehended in One General Account, notwithstanding the said Annuities shall continue for various Terms of Years.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Person shall have purchased any Annuity for the Life or Lives of any Nominor or Nominees under the Provisions of any Act heretofore in force, by which the said Commissioners were empowered to grant Life Annuities, or under the Provisions of this Act, and such Person shall be afterwards desirous of purchasing any further Annuity or Annuities on the Life or Lives of the same Nominor or Nominees (whether such Life Annuities shall have been originally contracted for to commence immediately or not), the original Proofs of the Age of such Nominor or Nominees, produced at the Time of the Purchase of the First Annuity, shall be deemed sufficient to authorize the proper Officer of the said Commissioners, and such Officer is hereby required from Time to Time to grant to the Person applying to him for that Purpose all or any such Certificates or Certificates as by this Act are directed or required, for the Purpose of enabling such Person to transfer any Bank Annuity or Long Annuity, or for the Payment of any Sum of Money for the Purchase of such further Life Annuity or Annuities, without the Production of any such Certificates or Affidavits in regard to the Birth or Baptism or other Particulars respecting such Nominor or Nominees; and the Certificates so to be granted by such Officer shall be valid and effectual to enable every such Person to transfer any Bank Annuity or Long Annuity, or to make Payments of any Sum of Money for the Purchase of such further Life Annuity or Annuities, and to entitle every such Person to such Certificates and Receipts from the Cashier of the Bank of England, in the Name as if the Certificates of such Officer had been granted upon the Production of the original Certificates and Affidavits.

Any Person may purchase Life Annuities on Lives of Members of other Annuities without such Conditions.

XIX. And Whereas it may tend to facilitate the granting Life Annuities under this Act, if Persons other than those by whom any Nominor or Nominees were originally named and appointed were allowed to purchase Annuities upon the Life or Lives of such Nominor or Nominees without any Conditions: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to purchase in all Cases any of the aforesaid Annuity or Annuities, of whatsoever Kind, under the Provisions of this Act, upon the Life or Lives of any One or more Nominor or Nominees, either singly or jointly, whose Age shall have been certified and verified under the Provisions of this Act, or of any Act heretofore in force as aforesaid, without the Production of any new or additional Certificates or Certificates of the Age or Ages of such Nominor or Nominees: Provided always, that in every such Case an Affidavit or solemn Affirmation as to the Identity of such Nominor or Nominees shall be made by the Purchaser of any such Annuity, or by some Person on Behalf of such Purchaser, before such and the like Persons as are specified and required in and by this Act, in Cases wherein Copies of the Register of the Birth or Baptism of any Nominor or Nominees in or are required to be produced under the Provisions of this Act.

Persons appointed by Commissioners are shall accept Bank Transfers by Purchasers of Annuities.

Annuities purchased under this Act and further Annuities chargeable on Consolidated Fund.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall from Time to Time be nominated and appointed by the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt under this Act, or who shall have been appointed by them under any Act heretofore in force, to accept any Transfer of Stock made to the said Commissioners under the Provisions of this Act, and such Person or Persons are hereby authorized and empowered to accept the Transfer of any Bank Annuity or Long Annuity which shall be transferred to the said Commissioners for the Purchase of any Annuities for Life or Years of whatsoever Kind under the Provisions of this Act, and all Annuities for Lives or Terms of Years of whatsoever Kind which shall be purchased under the Authority of this Act, or which shall have been purchased under any Act or Acts heretofore in force enabling the said Commissioners to grant Life Annuities, or under an Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's King, empowering the said Commissioners to grant Annuities for Lives or Years for preserving the beneficial Purpose of the Fund commonly called the Waterloo Subscription, shall be charged and chargeable, and the same are hereby made chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and shall be paid and payable at the Bank of England, in manner directed by this Act.

Amount of Annuities from Time to Time payable shall be certified to the Treasury, who shall issue thereon Warrants to the Bank for Payment thereof out of the Cons.

XI. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of ascertaining from Time to Time the Amount of Annuities for Lives or for Terms of Years, payable under the Authority of this Act or any Acts heretofore in force enabling the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant Life Annuities, the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners shall, within Fourteen Days next preceding the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, and the Fifth Day of April in each and every Year (commencing on and from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine), after deducting all expired and unclaimed Annuities for Lives or Years which shall have previously ceased and determined, certify to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury the Amount of Annuities for Lives and of Annuities for Terms of Years, the

Half-

Half-yearly Payments of which shall from Time to Time be chargeable upon the said Consolidated Fund on each of such Days respectively; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall thereupon order and direct, by Warrant under their Hands, the Sums specified from Time to Time in every such Certificate to be issued and paid out of the said Consolidated Fund from Time to Time to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purpose of paying all such Annuities respectively.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That all Annuities for Lives or Years of whatsoever Kind, which shall be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall be payable at the Bank of England by Two equal Half-yearly Payments, to be respectively made on the Fifth Day of January and on the Fifth Day of July, or on the Fifth Day of April and the Tenth Day of October, in each and every Year, according to the respective Periods, as hereinafter mentioned, within which any Bank Annuities or Long Annuities shall be transferred, or any Money shall be paid for the Purchase of any such Annuities for Life or Years of whatsoever Kind respectively; and the first Half-yearly Payment of every such Annuity so purchased shall be made at the Times following: (that is to say,) on the Fifth Day of January in respect of all Purchases completed by the Transfer of Bank Annuities or Long Annuities, or Payment of Money at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Tenth Day of October preceding such Fifth Day of January; on the Fifth Day of April in respect of all such Purchases completed at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Fifth Day of January preceding such Fifth Day of April; on the Fifth Day of July in respect of all such Purchases completed at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Fifth Day of April preceding such Fifth Day of July; and on the Tenth Day of October in respect of all such Purchases completed at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Fifth Day of July preceding such Tenth Day of October; and all future Half-yearly Payments of every such Annuity shall be made with reference to the Time of each first Half-yearly Payment: Provided always, that upon the Death of any single Nominee, or of the Survivor of any Two joint Nominees in respect of any Life Annuity, or upon the Death of either of the Two joint Nominees, in case the Annuity shall have depended upon the joint Continuance of the Lives of Two joint Nominees, a Sum equal to One Fourth Part of the Annuity depending upon the Life of such single or surviving Nominee, or such Two joint Nominees (near and above all Half-yearly Arrears (thereof respectively), shall be payable to the Person or Persons entitled to such Annuity, or his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns (as the Case may be), on the Half-yearly Day of Payment next succeeding the Death of such Nominee; provided that such last-mentioned Payment shall be claimed within Two Years after the Death of such single or surviving Nominee, or after the Death of either of such Two joint Nominees, but not otherwise: Provided also, that the Fourth Part of any expired Life Annuity payable under the Provisions of this Act shall not be payable nor be paid upon or in respect of any deferred or reversionary Life Annuity, unless One Half-yearly Payment of such deferred Life Annuity shall have been actually paid or become due at the Time of the Death of such Nominee.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That for the Space of Fourteen Days next after any of the said Quarterly Days the Payment of the said Annuities respectively, no Bargain or Contract shall be made by or on Behalf of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the Grant or Purchase of any Annuity under this Act; any Thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any laws not-withstanding.

XXIV. And for preventing Frauds in the Receipt of Life Annuities, be it further enacted, That before any Half-yearly Payment of any Life Annuity shall be receivable at the Bank of England (except in Cases hereafter specially provided for), there shall be produced to the proper Officer of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, a Certificate that the Nominee upon whose Life such Annuity shall depend was living upon a Day to be specified in such Certificate, which Day shall be One of the Days on which a Half-yearly Payment of such Annuity shall have become due, or some Day subsequent thereto; and such Certificate shall be under the Hand of the Minister, or in his Absence (which shall be expressed in such Certificate), under the Hands of the Churchwardens or Chapelwardens or Overseers of the Parish or Place (or any Two of them) within the United Kingdom, wherein such Nominee shall be then resident, or under the Hand of some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of the County, Riding, City, or Town wherein such Parish or Place shall be situated; and in case any Nominee shall at any Time after his or her Nomination become resident in a Place beyond the Seas, in any of the Dominions of His Majesty, then such Certificate as aforesaid shall be under the Hands of the Governor or Person acting as Governor of the Settlement where such Nominee shall be resident; and in case such Nominee shall, after his or her Nomination, become resident in any Kingdom or State in Europe in Amity with His Majesty, or in any other Kingdom or State or Place beyond the Seas, then and in every such Case such Certificate as aforesaid shall be under the Hand of the British Minister or Consul, or Governor, or Person acting as such, who shall be resident in the City, Town, or Place where such Nominee shall be residing; and if no British Minister or Consul, or Governor, or Person acting as such, shall be resident in such City, Town, or Place, then such Certificate as aforesaid shall be under the Hand and Seal of the Chief Magistrate of such City, Town, or Place, or any other Magistrate acting at the Time as such, or so or in the Place of any such Chief Magistrate: Provided always, that in all Cases where an Annuity shall depend on the Lives of Two joint Nominees, old the Life of the longest Liver of them, who shall both be living, it shall be sufficient to produce the Certificate of the Life of either of the Nominees; and that in all Cases where any Annuity shall depend upon the joint Continuance of the Lives of Two joint Nominees, such Certificate shall state that both such Nominees are then living.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where upon the Death of any single Nominée, or of the Survivor of any Two joint Nominées, or of either of the Two joint Nominées in Cases where any expired Annuity shall have depended upon the joint Continuance of the Lives of Two joint Nominées, any Claim shall be preferred under the Provisions of this Act for the Payment of a Sum equal to One Fourth Part of the Annuity depending upon the Life or Lives, and expired by the Death of such Nominée, then and in either of such Cases the Person or Persons preferring such Claim shall produce to the proper Officer a Certificate, specifying the Day of the Death or Burial of such Nominée, together with an Affidavit in Proof of the Identity, and stating the Day of the Death of such Nominée, to be respectively granted and taken by and before such and the like Person or Persons as are by this Act authorized and empowered to grant Certificates and to administer Affidavits in Proof of the Life of any Nominée; and upon the Production of such Certificate and Affidavit at any Time within Thirty Days next preceding the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, or Tenth Day of October respectively in any Year, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer, and he is hereby authorized and required, at the next succeeding Period of making the Half-yearly Payment of any Life Annuity granted under the Provisions of this Act or of any Act or Acts heretofore in force enabling the said Commissioners to grant Life Annuities (whether such expired Annuities shall or shall not have been payable at such Half-yearly Period), to grant to the Person producing such Certificate of Death or Burial, and such Affidavit of Identity as aforesaid, a Certificate of such Production; and upon such last-mentioned Certificate being lodged with the proper Officer of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, all Half-yearly Arrears which shall be and remain due upon any and every such expired Annuity, and also the Fourth Part of every such expired Annuity, (in case such Fourth Part shall be claimed within Two Years after the Death of the Nominée, according to the Provisions of this Act,) shall be made and paid to the Person or Persons entitled thereto.

Nominée, &c.*

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the proper Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and he is hereby authorized, empowered, and required, to receive any Extracts or Copies from the Registers of the Society of Friends commonly called Quakers, or from the Registers of any Dissenting or Roman Catholic Chapel, or other Chapel not being Parochial, as Evidence of the Death or Burial of any Nominée or Nominées; provided that such Extracts or Copies shall be duly certified under the Hand of the Registrar or Person keeping such Registers; and that such Copy, so certified, shall be accompanied by an Affidavit as to the Identity of such Nominée or Nominées, to be made and taken by and before such and the like Person and Persons as is required by this Act on the Death of any Nominée.

to Life of Nominée shall be applicable to all Annuities held for his Life.*

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall happen that Two or more Annuities shall have been purchased upon the Life of the same Nominée or Nominées, and a Certificate in conformity with the Directions of this Act, in Proof of such Nominée or Nominées being living, shall have been produced to the proper Officer by or on the Behalf of the Person or Persons entitled to any One of such Annuities, it shall and may be lawful for the proper Officer, upon the Production of such Affidavit or Affidavits or Affirmation or Affirmations as to the Identity of such Nominée as are required by this Act, to grant a Certificate or Certificates for the Purpose of enabling any Person or Persons entitled to any other other Annuity or Annuities payable in respect of the Life of such Nominee or Nominees to receive such Annuity or Annuities, without requiring the Production of any further Certificate; and in case of the personal Appearance of any Nominee or Nominees as herein-before mentioned, the Certificate authorizing the Receipt of any Annuity shall and may be granted by the said Officer, without requiring any further Proof of such Nominee being living.

XXX. And for the Purpose of enabling further Purchases of any Annuities to be made by any Person to whom any Annuity shall have been or shall be granted under the Provisions of any Act heretofore in force enabling the said Commissioners to grant Life Annuities, or under the Provisions of any Act; Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to accept the Transfer of any Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities to their Account in the Books of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, the Amount of which shall not be less than Twenty Pounds, or to accept and receive any Bank Annuities carrying a higher Rate of Interest than Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, or any Long Annuities, or any Sum of Money equivalent thereto, in lieu of such Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, to be computed and ascertained according to the average Price of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Reduced Bank Annuities as herein-before directed, as the Consideration for any further Life Annuity or for any further Annuity for Term of Years authorized by this Act, to be valued and ascertained according to the average Price of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities and the Age of the Party mentioned at the Time of purchasing such further Life Annuity, in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Person or Persons shall purchase any Life Annuity under the Provisions of this Act, who shall stand possessed in the Books of the said Bank of any Annuity depending on the Life of the said Nominee, under any Act or Acts heretofore in force, enabling the said Commissioners to grant Life Annuities, the Life Annuity or Annuities so purchased under this Act shall be added to such former Life Annuity, and such several Life Annuities shall be deemed and taken to be, to all Intents and Purposes, as One entire Annuity depending upon the Life of such Nominee, as though such several Annuities had been purchased under the Provisions of this Act; and all Letters of Attorney from Time to Time in force, which shall have been granted for the Purpose of receiving such Life Annuities so purchased under any of the said Acts, shall be valid and effectual for the Purpose of this Act; any Thing in any Act or Acts, or in this Act, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Right, Title, Interest, and Benefit in and to any Life Annuity of whatsoever Kind, whether such Life Annuity shall be immediate, deferred, or reversionary, or whether actually in the Course of Payment at the Time of such Transfer or not, which may be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall from Time to Time be transferrable to the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, provided that such Annuity be transferred entire, and not in Parts or Shares, and that the original Nominee or Nominees of any Annuity shall never be varied or changed, notwithstanding any Transfer of the Right or Interest therein.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Right, Title, Interest, and Benefit in and to any Annuities for any Term of Years, which may be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall from Time to Time be transferrable, in Whole or in Part or Parts, in the Books of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, during the Continuance of the Term for which such Annuities shall be granted.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Form and Words in Use in the Books of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, under any Act or Acts heretofore in force for enabling the Transfer and Assignment of any Life Annuities granted by the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, under the Provisions of any such Act or Acts, shall continue and be in force, and shall be used for the Transfer and Assignment of any Life Annuities which shall be granted under this Act, any Thing in any Act or Acts, or in this Act, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That Life Annuities and Annuities for Terms of Years, purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall not be subject or liable to any Taxes, Charges, or Impositions whatever, other than and except such as Debts due of Bank Annuities or Long Annuities are or may be subject and liable to; and that all such Annuities shall be deemed Personal Estate; and in all Cases where the same shall not depend upon the Life of the Person created thereto shall go to the Executors or Administrators of such Person, as Personal Estate, and shall not be devisable to Heirs.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever it shall happen that any Person or Persons, having made any One or more yearly Payments or Payments for or in respect of the Purchase of any deferred or reversionary Annuity under this Act, or their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, shall make Default in paying or continuing to make the Residue of such annual Payments, and the whole Consideration for any such Annuity shall be fully paid according to the Agreement for the same, then and in every such Case the Amount of all annual Payments which shall have been made previous to such Default shall be forfeited for the Benefit of the Public, and all Right and Title to any Annuity in respect thereof shall be extinguished.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That every Transfer of any Right, Title, Interest, or Benefit of, in, or to any deferred or reversionary Annuity, the Consideration of which shall be agreed and contracted for by annual Payments in Money under this Act, shall be entered and registered in such Books as the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall order and direct; which Entry shall be conceived in proper Words for that Purpose, and shall be signed by the Parties making such Assignment or Transfer, or by their Attorney or Attorneys thereto lawfully authorized, in Writing under Hand and Seal, attested by Two or more credible Witnesses; and then the several Persons to whom such Transfer shall XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Stamp Duty whatever shall be paid or payable upon or in respect of any Copy of any Register of the Birth or Baptism or Burial of any Nominee or other Person; or upon or in respect of any Certificate, Affidavit, or Affirmation to be made or taken in pursuance of this Act; or any Transfer of Bank Annuities or Long Annuities, which shall be made to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt under this Act; or any Certificate or other Instrument respecting the Payment of Money for the Purchase of any Annuity under this Act; or any Transfer or Acceptance of any such Annuity in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England; or any Receipt for the Payment of any such Annuity, or any Part thereof, at the Bank of England; but that the same shall be respectively free from all Stamp Duties whatsoever; any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall and they are hereby required to cause to be made up to the Fifth Day of January in each and every Year an Account of all Life Annuities granted by the said Commissioners, in pursuance of any Act heretofore in force, and of all Annuities for Lives or Years, of whatsoever Kind, granted in pursuance of this Act, which shall have remained unclaimed for the Space of Three Years then next preceding; and all such Annuities so remaining unclaimed, together with the arrearages Half-yearly Arrears thereof, and also all Annuities for Lives or Years of whatsoever Kind, which shall have expired, and all Half-yearly Arrears thereof, shall come to be charged upon and shall not be issued or issuable out of the said Consolidated Fund, from and after the Day upon which any such Annuities for Lives or Years shall have remained so unclaimed or shall have expired: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to defeat or prejudice the Rights of any Person entitled to any such Annuity for Lives or Years to claim the Half-yearly Arrears and future Payments thereof: Provided also, that in respect of any Life Annuities such Claim shall be supported by the Production of the proper Certificate and Affidavit or Affirmation in Proof of the Life of the Nominee or Nominators upon whose Life or Lives such Life Annuity depended, or upon the personal Appearance of such Nominee or Nominators, as required by this Act; and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to relieve the said Annuities for Lives or Years so claimed, and to charge the same from Time to Time upon the said Consolidated Fund, and also all Arrears thereof; and the said Governor and Company are hereby required, out of any Sum whatever which shall have been paid to them, and carried to their Books to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, to pay the said Annuities, and all Arrears thereof accordingly.

XL. And be it further enacted, That if any Certificate or Affidavit or Affirmation shall be produced to the Office of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, which shall contain any untrue Statement of the Age of any Person proposed or appointed to be a Nominee, with intent to obtain an Annuity on the Continuance of the Life of any Person under the Age of Fifteen Years, or to obtain any higher Rate or Amount of Annuity during the Life of any Nominee or Nominators than would or might be allowed under the Provisions of this Act, according to the true Age of such Nominee or Nominators, then and in every such Case all Bank Annuities or Long Annuities which may have been transferred, and all Money which may have been paid for or on Account of the Purchase of such Annuity, shall be forfeited to the said Commissioners, and all Right and Title to any Annuity which would or might otherwise have been payable in respect thereof shall cease and determine; and the Person or Persons by whom or on whose Behalf such Bank Annuities or Long Annuities shall have been transferred, or such Money shall have been paid, shall forfeit to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, Treble the Amount of any and every Sum which may have been received by or on Behalf of such Person, on account or in respect of any such Annuity, and also the further Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or shall cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, or shall knowingly or wilfully act or assist in the forging, counterfeiting, or altering, any Register or Registers of the Birth or Baptism or Death or Burial of any Person or Persons to be appointed a Nominee or Nominators under the Provisions of this Act, or any Copy or Certificate of any such Register, or the Name or Names of any Witness or Witnesses to any such Certificate, or any Affidavit or Affirmation required to be taken for any of the Purposes of this Act, or any Certificate of any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or of any Officer acting under the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of any such Affidavit or Affirmation having been taken before him, or any Certificate of any Governor or Person acting as such, or Minister or Council, or Chief Magistrate of any Freeman, Town, or Place, or other Person authorized by this Act to grant any Certificate of the Life or Death of any Nominee; or shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or shall cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, or shall knowingly or wilfully act or assist in the forging, counterfeiting, or altering, any Certificate or Certificates of any Officer of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or of any Cashier or Clerk of the Bank of England, or the Name or Names of any Person or Persons in or to any Transfer or Acceptance of any Bank Annuities or Long Annuities, or in or to any Certificate or other Instrument for the Payment of Money for the Purchase of any Annuity under the Provisions of this Act, or in or to any Transfer or Acceptance of any such Annuity in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or in or to any Receipt or Discharge for any such Annuity, or in or to any Receipt or Discharge for any Payment or Payments due or to become due thereon, or in or to any Letter of Attorney or other Authority or Instrument in authority or purporting to authorize the Transfer or Acceptance of any Bank Annuities or Long Annuities, or any Life Annuity, or any Annuity for Years of whatsoever Kind, under the Provisions of this Act, or authorizing or purporting to authorize the Receipt of any Life Annuity, or any Annuity for Years of whatsoever Kind, granted under this Act, or any Payment or Payments due or to become due thereon; or if any Person or Persons shall wilfully, falsely, and deceitfully procure any true and real Names or Names, or shall wilfully utter or deliver or produce, to any Person or Persons acting under the Authority of this Act, any such forged Register or Copy of Register, or any such forged Certificate, Affidavit, or Affirmation, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, with intent to defraud His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or with intent to defraud any Person or Persons whomsoever; then and in every such Case all and every Person and Persons offending, and being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, for his, her, or their own Use, or the Use of any other Person or Persons, receive any One or more Payment or Payments (otherwise than as authorized by this Act) upon or in respect of any Annuity granted under the Provisions of this Act, after the Death of any single or surviving Names on the Continuance of whose Life such Annuity was payable, or after the Death of other Names, in case the Annuity shall have been granted upon the joint Continuance of the Lives of Two joint Names, and after and beyond the Time on which such Annuity ought wholly to cease in consequence of the Death of such Names, by virtue of this Act, knowing such Names to be dead, and contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; every Person so offending shall forfeit to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, Treble the Amount of all Money so received, and also the further Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall be recoverable (if incurred in England) in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General, or the Part of His Majesty, by Information in the Court of Exchequer at Westminster; or (if incurred in Ireland) in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General, in the Court of Exchequer at Dublin; or (if incurred in Scotland) in the Name of His Majesty's Advocate General, in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and such Penalties and Forfeitures shall go and belong to and shall become Part of the Consolidated Fund: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to cause such Award as they shall think fit, not exceeding One Moiety of any such Penalty or Forfeiture so recovered, after deducting all Charges and Expenses incurred in recovering the same, to be paid to any Person or Persons who shall appear to them to be entitled thereto, as Informer or Informers, in respect of such Penalty or Forfeiture so recovered.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, in any Affidavit to be taken before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or before any Officer acting under the said Commissioners, under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully or corruptly swear or affirm any Matter or Thing which shall be false or untrue, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Fine and Forfeiture as by any Laws now in force any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all Certificates or other Instruments whatever required for carrying this Act into Execution shall be in such Form and under such Regulations as the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, shall from Time to Time direct and approve: Provided always, that in all Cases whatever relating to the Purchase or Receipt of any Annuity for Lives or Years, of whatsoever Kind, under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or for the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, and they are hereby severally authorized and empowered, where any Evidence shall be produced by any Person for the Purchase or Receipt of any such Annuity, not strictly conformable to the Provisions of this Act, to admit such Evidence for the Purposes of this Act respecting the same as shall or may appear to the said Commissioners, or the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, to be satisfactory; and also to correct, rectify, and amend any Contract for any such Annuity, or Certificate or other Instrument, in Cases wherein any Mistake or accidental Error shall or may have been made in the Execution of this Act; any Thing to this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That no Fee whatever shall be received or taken by any Officer acting under the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for granting any Certificate, or for any Act, Matter, or Thing to be done in pursuance of this Act.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from Time to Time, to appoint such Officers, Clerks, and other Persons as may be necessary for carrying the Act into Execution, and as may be approved by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for the Time being, to order and direct to be issued and paid, out of the Fund upon which the Establishment of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt is chargeable, any Sum or Sums of Money for the Payment of Salaries to Officers and Clerks acting in the Execution of this Act, and for discharging such incidental Expenses as shall necessarily attend the Execution thereof, in such Manner as the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall from Time to Time think fit and reasonable; and also to create and appoint such Allowances as shall be proper for the Fines and Labour of the Cudrier or Cudriers, or other Officer or Officers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the Execution of this Act, which last-mentioned Allowances shall be for the Use and Benefit of the said Governor and Company, and at their Disposal only.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Three or more of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Time being, to execute and do all Matters and Things which the said Commissioners are required or empowered to do for the Execution of this Act.

I. And be it further enacted, That there shall be prepared, and annually laid before both Houses of Parliament, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, if Parliament shall be then sitting, and if Parliament shall not be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament, an Account made up by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, to the fifth Day of January preceding, of the Gross Amount of all Bank Annuities and Long Annuities, and any other Annuities for Terms of Years, transferred, and of all Sums of Money paid to the said Commissioners, and the Gross Amount of Annuities for Lives and for Terms of Years which shall have been granted for the same, under the Provisions of this Act, within the Year ending on the Fifth Day of January as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of or by virtue of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matters in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Twelve Cents, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in the present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXV.

An Act to provide for the better Management of the Affairs of Greenwich Hospital.

[22d May 1829.]

WHEREAS His late Majesty King George the Third did, by Letters Patent bearing Date the Sixth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, ordain, appoint, and establish, that certain Persons therein named, and their Successors, should for ever thereafter be One Body Politic and Corporate, in Deed and in Name, by the Name of "The Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich in the County of Kent," and did give a special Power, Rights, and Authorities to such Corporation: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of the said late Majesty, intituled An Act for vesting certain Estates, now held in Trust for the Benefit of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital incorporated by His Majesty's Letters Patent, and all every the Bureaus, Messenges, Landis, Treasurers, Tithes, and Hereditaments, and Lighthouse Duties therein mentioned, together with the Rights, Members, and Appurtenances, and other Property, Rights, Gifts, Duties, and other Benefits in the said Act mentioned or referred to, were settled upon and vested in the said Corporation, their Successors, and Assigns for ever: And Whereas the said Corporation hath since acquired and become possessed of other Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Decids, Effects, and Chattels, Rights and Interests: And Whereas it hath been deemed expedient that the said Corporation should be dissolved and extinguished, and that all the Estates, Rights, and Interests heretofore vested in the said Corporation shall be for ever hereafter vested in the Commissioners hereinafter named, and their Successors, with certain Rights, Powers, and Authorities in relation thereto, and it hath also been deemed expedient that the Receipt, Payment, and Management of Naval Prize Money and Pensions shall be altogether separated and removed from the said Hospital, and from the Commissioners for administering the Affairs of the said Institution, and shall be transferred to and placed under the Management of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Act of the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty shall be and the same is hereby declared to be repealed; and that the Corporation of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich in the County of Kent shall be and the same is hereby declared to be for ever dissolved and extinguished; and that immediately thereupon the Estates of the said said Corporation shall vest and are hereby vested in the Commissioners hereinafter named, and their Successors (to be appointed as hereinafter mentioned), as the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, with the Powers, Authorities, and Duties, and for the Purposes hereinafter declared.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all and every the Estates and Property whatsoever which shall be by this Act vested in the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and all Estates and Property whatsoever which may be hereafter vested in the said Commissioners as Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, shall be for ever held by the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital for the Time being, and their Successors, to and for the Use and Benefit of the said Royal Hospital, in as full and ample a Manner as the Corporation of the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich Hospital hold the same; and all Rights, Powers, and Authorities heretofore possessed or exercised, or which might have been legally exercised by the said Corporation of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich in the County of Kent, with respect to any of the Revenues or Rights of the said Hospital, and all Rights and Remedies for enforcing the same, shall (except as the same are hereby expressly limited or taken away) be possessed, exercised, and used by the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital for the Time being, and their Successors, in the Name of "The Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital" for the Benefit of the said Institution.

III. And be it enacted, That the whole of the Affairs of the said Royal Hospital, and the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital hereby appointed, and their Successors, to be appointed as hereinafter directed, and all other the Officers and Persons appointed to the said Hospital, and to any Situations connected therewith, and to the Schools of the said Hospital, shall be under the Authority, Control, and Direction of the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being; and the Appointment of all Officers of the said Hospital, Civil and Military, (except of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and Commissioners of the said Hospital, who shall be appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors,) and the Appointment of the Chaplains thereof, and of the Rectors, Vicars, and Perpetual Curates of the Livings and Chaplains belonging or which may belong to the said Hospital, and the publishing of Rules, Orders, and Regulations for the Guidance of the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and their Successors, in the Management of the Estates and Property of the said Hospital, and the Admission of Officers, Persons, and Nurses into the said Hospital, and the Salaries to be paid to all such Officers and Persons respectively, shall be exercised by and vested in the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being, who shall have full Power to remove from the said Hospital, and from any Situation connected therewith, any Officer or other Person as aforesaid (except the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and such Commissioners, Rectors, Vicars, and Curates as aforesaid,) who shall be guilty of any Misbehaviour in their said respective Situations or Offices.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy now and for the Time being, and the First Commissioner of His Majesty's Woods and Forests now and for the Time being, shall always be Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital by virtue of their respective Offices (but shall receive no Salaries as such Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital); and that the said Treasurer of the Navy and First Commissioner of Woods and Forests, together with Vice Admiral Sir William Johnston Hope, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, late One of the Commissioners and Governors and Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, the Right Honourable George Lord Arundell, late One of the Commissioners and Governors and Auditor of the said Royal Hospital, and Edward Home Lockie Esquire, late Secretary of the said Royal Hospital, shall be and they are hereby constituted and appointed the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital during His Majesty's Pleasure, and that they and their Successors, to be appointed as hereinafter is mentioned, shall be and be called "The Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital," and the said Commissioners and their Successors shall be subject to such Rules and Regulations, and shall receive such Salaries out of the Funds of Greenwich Hospital (except as to the Treasurer of the Navy and First Commissioner of Woods and Forests, who shall not as Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital receive any Salary,) as shall be from Time to Time established and granted by the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being.

V. And be it enacted, That when and so often as His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall at any Time hereafter be graciously pleased, by His or their Letters Patent, to appoint and nominate any Person to be Commissioner for Greenwich Hospital, as the Successors of the Commissioners by this Act appointed by Name, or as the Successors of any Commissioners as hereinafter appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the Persons named as such Letters Patent, together with the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, and First Commissioner of Woods and Forests for the Time being, shall to all Intents and Purposes be the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and shall be successively invested with all the Rights, Powers, and Authorities by this or any other Act given or to be given to the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital; and all the Estates, Revenues, Lordships, Manors, Advowsons, Messuages, Granges, Farms, Lands, Tithes, Mines, Moorlands, Pastures, Fendings, Woods, Underwoods, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and Lighthouse Dues and Duties whatsoever and whosoever, with their several Rights, Royalities, Members, and Appurtenances, together with all hereditary and other Leases, Fines, Fees, Moflets, and other Moflets accruing to the said Hospital, Legacies, Gifts, Annuities, Mortgages, Bonds, Rights, and Interests, shall immediately vest in the Persons so named and appointed as Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and their Successors, in as full and ample a Manner as the same are in this Act given or vested in the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital named in this Act: Provided always, that no Person named and appointed in this Act as a Commissioner of Greenwich Hospital, being acted, and the Estates, are vested in the Commissioners hereinafter named.

Estates, &c. to be held by the Commissioners for the Benefit of the Hospital.

General Control over the Hospital, and over all Appointments therein, vested in the Admiralty.

His Majesty may appoint new Commissioners.

a Member of the House of Commons at the Time of the passing of this Act, and holding Office in the said Hospital, shall vacate his Seat by reason of such his Appointment, or of his holding the Place or Office of Commissioner of Greenwich Hospital: Provided also, that the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital for the Time being shall not be deemed and taken to have or hold any new Office or Places of Profit within the Meaning of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intitled An Act for the Security of Her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of Great Britain in the Protestant Line.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Offices of Treasurer and Auditor of the said Royal Hospital shall, after the passing of this Act, cease and be altogether discontinued, save and except as to the Accounts of the said Treasurer up to the Time of passing this Act, which the said Treasurer is hereby required to deliver and verify, and the Auditor of the said Royal Hospital to examine, audit, and certify, in the same Manner as hath been heretofore accustomed.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Officers who shall be hereafter appointed to any Employment in the said Hospital, except the future Commissioners of the said Hospital, and the Clerk of the Works, shall be selected, so far as may be, from Persons who shall have served in His Majesty's Navy.

IX. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Administration of Naval Prize Money and Pension shall be altogether separated and removed from the said Royal Hospital, and from the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital and their Successors; and the Per-centage heretofore payable out of all Prize Money, Grants, or Bounty, Bills, Divids, and out of other Monies of a like Nature, and the forfeited and unclaimed Shares of Prize Money, and the Grants made by Parliament for the Payment of Naval Out-Pensioners, shall be received by and payable to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the Time being, and the Payment thereof to the Parties entitled to the same shall be made under the Authority and Directions of the said Treasurer of the Navy: and all Powers, Authorities, Rights, and Duties relating to Naval Prize and Out-Pension shall be and the same are hereby separated and removed from the said Royal Hospital and the Commissioners and Officers of the said Royal Hospital, and transferred to and for ever hereafter vested in the said Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the Time being; and the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy shall and may authorize the rendering of Accounts by Prize Agents and other Persons, and Payment of Per-centage and Balances and Shares of Prize Money, in as full and ample a Manner as the Corporation of Greenwich Hospital and all or any of the Officers thereof might, up to the Time of passing this Act, have exercised the same, and all Agents and other Persons concerned in the Receipt or Payment of Prize or Pension Money, or in the rendering any Accounts relating to the same, shall be accountable to the Treasurer of the Navy, and shall be subject to all the Powers and Penalties for Neglect or Refusal to perform any of the said Duties as they were respectively subject to for like Neglect or Refusal previously to the passing of this Act.

X. And Whereas there are now standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England the following Sums belonging to the said Corporation of Greenwich Hospital: that is to say, One million twenty-two thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight Pounds Ten Shillings Three pence Current Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the Name of "The Corporation being the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich;" One million two hundred and seven thousand Pounds Three pence Current Reduced Bank Annuities, standing in the Name of "The Corporation being the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, Act;" One thousand and ninety-three Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Fourpence New Four per Centum Bank Annuities, standing in the Name of "The Corporation being the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich;" and Ninety-eight thousand six hundred and eleven Pounds Twelve Shillings and Ninepence Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, standing in the Name of "The Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich." And Whereas it is necessary, for the better Execution of the said Acts, that the said several Sums shall be transferred into the Name of "The Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital," for the Purposes of the said Institution, and to be subject to the Management and Control of the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and their Successors, in Manner hereinafter mentioned; but by reason of the Dissolution of the said Corporation there will be no Means of making such Transfer, or of receiving the Arrears of Dividends due or to grow due upon the said several Sums, without the Authority of Parliament: It is enacted, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall and they are hereby required, immediately upon Notice given to them of the passing of this Act (by a Print of the said Act being left with the Secretary of the said Governor and Company), to transfer, or cause the Accountant General, Secretary, or Deputy Secretary of the said Governor and Company to transfer, the said several Sums now standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England as aforesaid into the Name of "The Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital."

XI. And be it enacted, That as soon as the said several Sums shall have been so transferred into the Name of "The Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital," the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital and their Successors, or any Two or more of the said Commissioners for the Time being, of whom the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, or First Commissioner of Woods and Forests for the Time being, shall always be one, shall and may from Time to Time, by Power of Attorney under their Hands and Seals, sell or cause to be sold so much of such Stock, or of any other Stock heretofore to be standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England in the Name of the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, as the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital and their Successors shall from Time to Time deem necessary for the Purposes of the said Institution, and also that the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and their Successors, or any Two or more of the said Commissioners for

XI. And be it enacted, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall be and they are hereby held harmless and indemnified from and against all Claims and Demands of or by any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, for or by reason of or in consequence of the Transfer of the said several Sums herein-before authorized and directed to be transferred, or in any Manner respecting the same, or in consequence of any Sale or Transfer by or on Behalf of the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, or for or by reason of or in consequence of the Payment by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England of the Dividends herein-before authorized to be received by the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital and their Successors; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall not be required to see to the Application of the said Stock or Produce of Stock or Dividends, nor be in any Manner responsible for the Misapplication or Misappropriation thereof.

XII. And be it enacted, That all or any Power or Powers of Attorney for transferring Stock or receiving Dividends, executed as aforesaid, shall continue to be good, valid, and effectual notwithstanding the issuing of any new Commission appointing Commissioners at Greenwich Hospital, until a new Power of Attorney shall be executed for the like Purpose by the Commissioners under such new Commission, or any Two or more of them, in Manner herein-before directed.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Sea and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, shall immediately after the passing of this Act transfer or cause to be transferred the Sum of Twenty-nine thousand five hundred Pounds South Sea Stock, standing in the Name of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich in Kent, and their Successors and Assigns; and also the Sum of Four thousand Pounds Old South Sea Annuities, standing in the Name of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich in Kent, and their Successors and Assigns; and the Sum of Two thousand Pounds New South Sea Annuities, standing in the Name of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich (the said several Sums being the Property of the said Corporation of Greenwich Hospital), into the Name of "The Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital."

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, or Two or more of them, (the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, or the First Commissioner of Woods and Forests, always being one,) shall and may execute any Power or Powers of Attorney for the Sale of South Sea Stock, or Annuities, or Receipt of Dividends, in like Manner as the said Commissioners are authorized to execute Powers of Attorney with respect to Stock which shall hereafter be standing in the Name of the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

XV. And be it enacted, That all and every Person and Persons in whose Name or Names any Stock, Annuities, or other Monies shall at the Time of the passing of this Act be standing or being, (in Trust for or for the Use or Benefit of the said Royal Hospital, or the Corporation of the Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital,) and the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Executors or Administrators of each Survivor, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, assign and transfer such Stock, Annuities, or other Monies as aforesaid, into the Name of the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, to be applied by the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, or their Successors, under the Provisions of this Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital shall, as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, open an Account with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the Name of the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and open and from thence Abstract all Sums for the Service and Purpose of the said Institution shall be drawn by Cheques, signed by any Two or more of the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, or their Successors; and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall only be answerable or accountable to the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and their Successors (or otherwise as hereafter), for each Sum and Sums of Money as shall be paid into their Hands to the said Account, or on Account of the said Institution, and shall not, after Payment made of any Sums of Money upon any Cheque or Cheques, signed by any Two or more of the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, or their Successors, be answerable or accountable for the Misapplication or Misappropriation of any of the Monies so paid as aforesaid.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and their Successors, are hereby authorized and empowered, at such Times and for such Periods and Purposes as they may think fit, to enter into Contracts for the Supply of such Articles and Things, and Performance of such Works, as shall in their Opinion be required for the Service of the said Hospital, or in anywise relating thereto or to the Estates and Property belonging to the said Institution; and it is hereby declared, that all Contracts, Agreements, Mortgages, Bonds, and other Securities, Notices to quit, and other Notices relating to the said Royal Hospital, or the Corporation thereof, made, given, or executed, and unimpeached, uncontradicted, or existing at the Time of passing the Act, shall continue to be good and valid until the same are fully satisfied and performed or determined, and the Covenants for Performance thereof shall be available by, the said Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, and their Successors, against the Parties entering into or bound by the same, as if this Act had not been made.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for transferring the Management of Greenwich Out-Pensions, and certain Duties in Matters of Prize, to the Treasurer of the Navy. [1st June 1829.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Administration of Greenwich Out-Pensions, and certain Duties and Authorities with respect to Naval Prize Money, should be transferred to and exercised by the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being; and that the Laws relating to Greenwich Out-Pensions should be consolidated, and certain Acts relating to Greenwich Hospital repealed; Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled *An Act to empower the Commissioners or Governors of His Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, after defraying the necessary Expenses thereof, to provide for such Seamen, worn out and longer disposed to the Service of their Country, who shall not be provided for within the said Hospital, and to enable them to receive such Pensions as shall be granted them by the said Commissioners or Governors, in the most easy and convenient Manner; and for procuring Funds and Alms towards the same; and an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act for improving the Funds of the Chest at Greenwich, and for transferring the Administration of the same to Greenwich Hospital, and for amending the Condition of the Pensions as the said Funds; and an Act passed in the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled *An Act to empower the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent, to make certain Allowances to old, infirm, or wounded or disabled Officers in the Royal Navy, and to provide a Fund for the Payment of such Allowances, and for the Increase of Pensions to disabled Seamen and Marines; and an Act passed in the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act for improving the Funds of the Chest at Greenwich, and amending an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty, relating to the said Chest; and an Act passed in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act for enabling His Majesty to grant the Palace called the King's House, with the Appurtenances, situate in Greenwich Park, in the County of Kent, to the Commissioners for the Government of the Royal Naval Asylum, and for enabling the said Commissioners to appoint a Chaplain to officiate therein; and an Act passed in the Fifty-first Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act to enable Persons to bequeath Lands and Tenements to the Commissioners for the Government of the Royal Naval Asylum, and to authorize the said Commissioners to hold the same for the Benefit of the said Asylum; and for amending an Act made in the Forty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, relating to the said Asylum; and an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act to prevent the Encroachment of certain Property belonging to the Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, and to amend so much of an Act of the Parliament of Ireland, of the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty, as relates to Payments to Out-Pensioners of the said Hospital, residing in Ireland, and an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act for the Employment and Removal of Petty Officers, Seamen, and Royal Marines for long and faithful Service, and for the Consolidation of the Chest at Greenwich with the Royal Hospital there; and an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act to authorize the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich to transfer a certain Sum in the Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuity, now standing in the Name of the Corporation of the Chest of Greenwich, into the Name of the said Commissioners, and also to receive such Dividends as may now due upon such Annuities; and an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act to grant further Powers to the Commissioners of Chelsea and Greenwich Hospitals with respect to the Pensions on Basse Establishments; and also so much of an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy and their Representatives to draw for and receive their Half Pay; and for transferring the Duty of making certain Payments, from the Clerks of the Chancery of His Majesty's Dock Yards, to the Clerks of the Treasurer of the Navy at the same Yards, in cases that the Payment of Greenwich Pensions, theretofore made by the said Clerks of the Chancery, should thenceforward be made by the Clerks of the Treasurer of the Navy; and an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled *An Act to empower the Commissioners of the Royal Naval Asylum to make use of any Part of the accumulation of the Interest of the Monies which were given by the Committee for managing the Patriotic Fund to the said Commissioners, for the Purpose of the said Asylum; also so much of an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act to make further Regulations respecting the Payment of Navy Prize Money, and to authorize the Governors of Greenwich Hospital to pay over certain Shares of Prize Money, due to Russian Seamen, to His Excellency the Russian Ambassador, as events that Bills drawn by or under the Authority of the Paymaster of Peninsular in Greenwich may be paid by any Deputy of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital shall be attested by a Deputy of the said Royal Hospital only; and an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to enable the Commissioners or Governors of Greenwich Hospital to continue to provide for the Payment of Out-Pensioners of the said Hospital; and an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for the Consolidation of the Royal************

Naval

Naval Asylum with the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent; and an Act passed in the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, entitled An Act to enable incorporated Persons to convey to the Commanders and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent, certain Premises situate in the Parish of Greenwich, in the said County, and for other Purposes relating thereto, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; provided that all Acts, Matters, and Things done previously to the passing of this Act, in pursuance of any of the said Acts hereby repealed, shall continue to be as good, valid, binding, and effectual as if the said Acts and every of them still continued in full Force; and provided, that all Offences committed before the passing of this Act against the Provisions of any of the said Acts shall continue punishable under the said Acts as if the same were in full Force and Effect; and provided also, that the Repeal of all or any of the said herein-before mentioned Acts shall not revive or be construed to revive any Acts or Provisions of any Acts by the said Acts or any of them repealed, or restore or revive any Rights, Interests, Powers, or Authorities taken away or limited by any of the Acts so repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty, the Shipments per Month, commonly called "Naval Expenses," payable by and out of the Wages of all Seamen and other Persons that shall serve or be employed by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or by any other Persons in any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, for the better Support of Greenwich Hospital, and to augment the Revenue thereof, shall cease to be payable to the said Royal Hospital.

III. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Administration of Greenwich Out-Pensions shall be exercised by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the Time being; and that all Grants made by Parliament for the Payment of Greenwich Out-Pensioners shall be payable to the Account of the Treasurer of the Navy at the Bank of England, under the Head of "General Services," in the Manner as other Monies are payable to the Account of the said Treasurer for General Services, and shall from Time to Time be drawn out of the Bank by the said Treasurer, under the like Rules and Regulations as other Monies for General Services are authorized to be drawn; and the Payment of all Greenwich Out-Pensions to the Persons entitled to the same shall be made by or under the Authority and Direction of the said Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being; and all Officers and Clerks, employed by or under the said Treasurer of the Navy in the Bureau of the said Out-Pensions or Pensions, shall be subject to the same Rules, Orders, and Regulations as other Officers and Clerks employed under the said Treasurer of the Navy.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being shall, by and out of any Funds to be provided by Parliament, or in any Way appropriated for that Purpose, pay or cause to be paid all Pensions, Remunerations, or Allowances heretofore granted, or which may hereafter be granted, to such Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy as are old, infirm, wounded, or disabled, and who shall not be provided for in Greenwich Hospital, and also to Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines, who, on account of their Length of Service and good and faithful Conduct, shall be deemed deserving thereof, and also to Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines who have been wounded or become disabled or worn out in His Majesty's Service; and such Allowances to Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants shall be in addition to and Half Pay receivable by such Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants, and shall and may be recovered by them respectively together with and in addition to such Half Pay; and which said Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants, Warrant and Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines, shall be entitled to their respective Pensions from the Date and according to the Terms of any Warrant appointing them therein by the Lord High Admiral, or the Commanders for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being: Provided always, that no such Allowance to be in future made to any Captain, Commander, or Lieutenant shall in any Case exceed a Sum which, when added to the Half Pay of such Officer, and to any Pension received by him from the Crown, shall amount to the Salary paid to Officers of similar Rank resident within the Establishment of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich in Cases where no Half Pay is received, or to the Salary and Half Pay together in Cases where Salary and Half Pay are both received; provided also, that the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being shall, in paying such Pensions, or discharging the same, be guided by such Rules and Regulations and by such Scale and Proportions as are already established by any Order in Council now in Force, or as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall think fit by any Statute Order in Council under the Royal Sign Manual to order, direct, and establish for that Purpose.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being to order and direct that the Bills for the Payment of Greenwich Out-Pensioners shall be made out in such Form as to the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being may from Time to Time appear most convenient; and all such Bills shall be signed by such Person or Persons as the said Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being shall think fit to authorize and direct to sign the same; and that until the said Treasurer shall otherwise order, the said Bills shall be in the Form or to the Effect following:—

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Remittance Bills for Price and Greenwich-Out-Pension, paid in pursuance of this Act by the Collectors of the Customs and Collectors of Excise, shall, as soon as the same have been transmitted to the Commissioners of Customs or Commissioners of Excise in London, be delivered under the Authority of such Commissioners of Customs and Excise respectively to the said Treasurer of the Navy for Examination, together with separate Lists of Price and Pension Bills so delivered; which Lists shall be certified by the said Commissioners of Customs and Excise respectively, and contain the Names of the Persons to whom such Bills have been respectively paid, the Amount paid to each Person, and the Date of Payment; and as soon as the same shall be examined and found correct, the said Treasurer of the Navy shall report the Amount thereof to the Commissioners of the Navy, and at the same Time deliver to the said Commissioners of the Navy the said Lists so certified, and thereupon the said Treasurer shall, upon a Warrant to be issued by the said Commissioners of the Navy for that Purpose, repay the Amount of such Bill to the said Commissioners of Excise or Customs respectively; and the said Bills, so repaid and delivered, shall be allowed as complete Discharges and Acquittances for the Amount specified in such Pension and Price Bills upon the settling the Accounts of the said Treasurer of the Navy: provided that the Treasurer of the Navy shall not in any Case be chargeable with or accountable for any Money arising from Shares of Price or Per-centage, or otherwise arising under this Act, which shall not have been actually received by him, or paid into his Account at the Bank of England.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every such Out-Pensioner, as herein-before mentioned, resident in Great Britain or Ireland, who shall be certified, under the Authority of this Act, to receive Payment of his Pension by Remittance or Order as herein-before mentioned, shall, as often as he shall change his Place of Abode, give Notice thereof to the Treasurer of the Navy at Somerset House, London; and in case, for Want of any such Notice, any Loss shall happen by reason of the Remittance of the Duplicate of such Pensioner's Bill to the Place from which such Pensioner shall have removed without giving any such Notice, such Loss shall fall upon and be borne and sustained by the Pensioner so making Default in this behalf.

X. And be it further enacted, That in case any Pensioner to whom such Duplicate of Bill shall be required shall be prevented or disabled from appearing personally before the Collector of the Customs, Collector of the Excise, or Clerk of the Treasurer of the Navy, by bodily Infirmary or Sickness, and such Disability shall be certified in Writing by the Minister and Churchwarden, or Minister and Two or more Elders (in the Case may be), of the Parish where such Pensioner may happen to reside, or by the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary attending him, then and in such Case the Same mentioned in such Duplicate of the Bill shall be paid to any other Person to whom such Pensioner shall, by Writing under his Hand, be so indorsed upon such Duplicate and witnessed by the Person signing such Certificate, under the same to be paid; such Person, at the Time of demanding Payment thereof, producing such Duplicate of Bill, together with such Certificate respectively, as to the Identity of such Pensioner, and his inability to appear personally as before mentioned, and giving a Receipt for the same at the Foot of each Order: whole Order, and also the Receipt last mentioned, shall be respectively free from the Duty of Stamp; and such Receipts shall be so effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes as if given by such Pensioner; and if any Person authorized to give such Certificate as is herein-before mentioned shall wilfully or negligently certify falsely for or on Behalf of any Pensioner, the Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds, not less than Twenty Pounds.

XI. And be it enacted, That all Assignments, Bargains, Sales, Contracts, Agreements, or Securities whatsoever, which shall be given or made by any Commissioned Officer, Warrant Officer, Petty Officer, Steward, or Marine, related to any Greenwich-Out-Pensioner, for the Transfer of any such Pension, or to give or assign any Interest therein, or for, upon, or in respect of any such his Pension, shall be absolutely null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, except such Assignments as now or shall be authorized to be made under the Provisions of any Act or Acts relating to the Relief of the Poor in England, Ireland, or Scotland, or relating to Insolvent Debtors.

EX. And

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, in his and their Discretion, upon Application to be hereafter made to him or them by any Person or Persons claiming Pensions on account of the Services of such Person or Persons in His Majesty's Navy, to give Pensions to such Person or Persons, under the then existing Orders in Council relating thereto, according to his or their Length of Service; and to allow, in the Apportionment of such Pension, so much of the Time as the said Person or Persons shall have served (previously to his or their joining into His Majesty's Navy) either as a Non-commissioned Officer or Private in His Majesty's Army.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, in his and their Discretion, to appoint any Surgeon or Marine, being a Pensioner, and being desirous of residing Abroad, such Commutation in Gross for his said Pension, to be in lieu of all future Claims to Pensions, as to the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, shall seem expedient; which said sum shall be paid out of the Money applicable to the Payment of Greenwich Out-Pensions; and such Arrangements as shall seem fit, under the Authority of the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, shall be made for the Purpose of enabling Out-Pensioners who may be permitted to reside and receive their Pension out of the United Kingdom, to receive the Amount of their Pensions Abroad, either by means of Bills to be drawn by the Treasurer of the Navy or otherwise.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which any Out-Pension, or Arrears of Out-Pension, shall not be demanded by or on Behalf of the Person to whom such Pension was granted, or, in case of his Decesse, by any Person legally entitled thereto, for the Space of Six Years from the Time of the last Payment thereof, such Out-Pension and the Arrears thereof shall be and the same are hereby declared to be forfeited, unless upon Application to be made by the Person to whom such Pension was granted, or the next of Kin or Executor, or the Person legally entitled thereto, for the Restoration and Payment thereof, the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, shall, under the special Circumstances of the Case, in his or their Discretion remit such Forfeiture, and shall thereupon direct the said Treasurer of the Navy to make Payment of such Out-Pension or Arrears, notwithstanding the same shall not have been so demanded or allowed.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all Letters and Packets addressed to the Cashier of Greenwich Out-Pensions for the Time being, upon any Business or Affairs relating to Out-Pensions, and all Letters addressed to the Examiner of Prize Accounts on Affairs relating to Prize, shall be free from the Duty of Postage; and also that all Letters or Packets sent by the said Cashier, relating to Greenwich Out-Pensions, and by the said Examiner of Prize Accounts, relating to Prize, shall be sent free from the said Duty of Postage; and all Letters and Packets relating to Out-Pensions shall be under Cover, with the Words "Greenwich Out-Pensions, pursuant to Act of Parliament Tenth of George the Fourth," printed upon the same, and the said Cashier, or other Officer in the Navy Pay Office authorized to frank Letters on the Business of that Office, shall write his Name under the same; and all Letters and Packets relating to Naval Prize shall be under Cover, with the Words "Naval Prize, pursuant to Act of Parliament Tenth of George the Fourth," printed thereon, and the said Examiner of Prize Accounts, or other Officer in the Navy Pay Office authorized to frank Letters on the Business of the said Office, shall write his Name under the same; and if any such Cashier or Examiner of Prize Accounts, or any other Person, shall send or convey, under any of the Covers aforesaid, any Writing, Paper, or Parcel other than relating to Greenwich Out-Pensions or Naval Prize respectively, the Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered as hereinafter mentioned.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being to direct to be paid to any Person or Persons who shall prove him, her, or themselves to be the next of Kin or legal Representative of any deceased Pensioner or Person entitled to Prize Money, any Balance of Pension or Prize Money due to such deceased Person, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, although such Person or Persons shall not have taken out Letters of Administration or procured the Probate of any Will of such deceased Pensioner or other Person entitled as aforesaid.

XVII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all forfeited and unclaimed Shares and Balances of Prize Money, and a Percentage of Five Pounds to every One hundred Pounds out of the Proceeds of all Prizes, and out of all Grants to the Royal Navy and Marines, and out of all Bounty Money, and out of all Summes made under the Revenues, Colonial, Navigation, and Slave Abolition Laws, and out of all Duties of Admiralty, and out of all Monies arising from Donations, shall continue to be paid, and shall be paid and payable to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the Time being, by such Persons, and at such Times, and subject to such Penalties for Default, Delay, or Refusal, as the same have heretofore been or are now paid or payable to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his Deputy, by virtue of any Act or Acts now in Force relating to the said forfeited and unclaimed Shares and Percentages; which several Payments and Deductions may be by the said Treasurer of the Navy applied, under the Authority and Direction of the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral in Aid of the Sum granted for Greenwich Out-Pensions; and in the Event of there remaining any Surplus thereof, after defraying the Greenwich Out-Pensions, then the said Treasurer of the Navy shall cause such Surplus to be from Time to Time invested (under the Authority and by the Direction of the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral) in some of the Public Government Stocks, Funds, or Securities, in the Name of the Army Service may be collected in or upon discharging Grants with Out-Pensions.

Commutation of a Pension for a Sum in Gross may be granted in certain Cases.

Payment of Out-Pensions Abroad.

In case of Surplus, the same to be invested, and from Time to Time applied in future Out-Pensions.

the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, and shall receive and apply the Dividends arising therefrom on Aid of the Greenwich Out-Pensions; and the said Stocks, Funds, and Securities may be from Time to Time, by the said Treasurer of the Navy, sold, under the like Authority and Direction, and the Produce thereof may be applied in further Aid of Greenwich Out-Pensions.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Treasurer of the Navy now and for the Time being shall have and exercise all the Powers and Authorities which by any Act or Acts in Force at the Time of passing this Act are given to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his Deputy, or to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, or which have been heretofore exercised by them respectively, with relation to Naval Prize-Money, and to all Grants made to the Royal Navy or Marines, and to all Bounty Monies and Securities under the Revenue, Colonial, Navigation, or Slave Abolition Laws, and to Duties of Admiralty, and to all other Monies arising from Naval Prize or Capture, and also with relation to the issuing of all Remittance Bills in Collections of Excise and Customs, or other Persons, for the Payment of Prize Money, and as to all Accounts required of Agents and other Persons, and to all Payments made or required to be made by Agents or others, and with relation to all Matters connected with such Prize and other Monies as aforesaid, in as full and ample Manner as the said Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his Deputy, or other Officer as aforesaid, had or could have legally exercised the same; and all Remittance Bills for Payment of Prize Money shall be in such Form, and be signed by such Person, as the Treasurer of the Navy shall appoint.

XIX. And be it enacted, That all and every Agent and Agents and Person and Persons who, by any Act in Force at the Time of passing this Act, are required to perform any Duty with relation to Capture or Prize, shall continue liable to perform such Duty, under the same Penalties for Refusal or Neglect, which Penalties shall and may be enforced by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy in as ample a Manner as the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his Deputy, or any other Person or Persons, could have enforced the same.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Rules, Orders, Provisions, and Regulations contained in any Act now in Force relating to the Payment of Prize Money, or other Monies herein-before mentioned, upon Orders made by the Parties respectively entitled thereto, shall, except as the same may be varied by this Act, continue good, valid, binding, and effectual, save and except that all Certificates heretofore signed or given, or required to be signed or given, upon or with respect to such Orders by the Clerk of the Cheque of Greenwich Hospital, shall hereafter be signed or given by the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, or by the Examiner of Prize Accounts at Sea-wart House, or by such other Person as the Treasurer of the Navy shall by Writing under his Hand appoint to sign or give such Certificates; and wherever by any Act now in Force the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his Deputy is required to make Payment of Prize Money and other Monies as aforesaid, upon such Orders as aforesaid, or to the Personal Representatives of Parties entitled, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, and he is hereby required, to make or cause to be made such Payments, in Conformity with the Rules, Orders, Provisions, and Regulations aforesaid; and all the Duties heretofore required to be performed by the Clerk of the Cheque of Greenwich Hospital with respect to Prize Money may be performed, under the Authority of the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, by the Examiner of Prize Accounts, or such other Officer as the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being shall appoint by Writing under his Hand for that Purpose; and all the Duties and Authorities heretofore exercised by the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his Deputy, with respect to the Payment of Prize Money or other Money as aforesaid, may be exercised by the Treasurer of the Navy, or such Officer as he shall by Writing under his Hand appoint for that Purpose; provided that all Orders already made by Persons entitled to Prize Money or other Monies in the Nature thereof, which according to the Laws in Force at the Time of passing this Act were good and valid, and payable by the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, shall continue good and valid and payable by or under the Authority of the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, instead of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital shall from Time to Time repay to the Treasury of the Navy all Sums which the said Treasurer shall pay or cause to be paid to Claimants and other Persons who shall prove themselves entitled to any Prize-Money or other Monies as aforesaid paid into Greenwich Hospital, and which remained due or proclaimed at the passing of this Act.

XXII. And be it enacted, That all and every Prize Agent and Prize Agents shall, from and out of the net Proceeds of all Naval Prize and Bounty Money, Dead Money, Grants, and other Allowance of Money in the Nature thereof, to which the Officers or Crews of any of His Majesty's Vessels, or any Commissioned Officer, Warrant Officer, Petty Officer, Private Steward or Marine, Supernumerary or Boy, or other Person shall be entitled, and from and out of all Bounty Monies, Portual Securities, and Salaries under the Revenue, Colonial, Navigation, or Slave Abolition Laws, and from and out of all Civil Salaries and Vessels' Duties, and Monies arising therefrom, and also from and out of all Naval Captures whatsoever, and from and out of all other Naval Proceeds or Produce in the Nature of Prize or Grant, to which the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, or the Corporation of Greenwich Hospital, or the Treasurer thereof, by any Act or Law or Custom whatsoever, has been heretofore entitled, retain for the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the Time being, for the Purposes of this Act, and shall within Ten Days next after the Account of the said Monies shall have been examined and certified by the Examiner of Naval Prize Accounts, or if there should be no such Officer, then within Ten Days from the Notification of any Distribution of the said Monies, pay into the Bank of England, to the

To insert all the Navy in copies of the Monies heretofore collected by the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, and Clerk of the Cheque there, as to Prize Money.

Prize Agents to continue subject to the Duties imposed upon them.

Regulations as to the Payment of Prize Money upon Orders.

14. Commis- sioners of Greenwich Hospital to re- fund Sums paid to certain Cases.

Prize Agents to pay into the Treasury of the Navy Five per Cent. on the net Proceeds of Prizes, &c.

the Price Account of the said Treasurer of the Navy, the Sum of Five Pounds per Centum on the net Proceeds of every such Prize, Grant, or other Monies; and every Payment to make of Per-centage, and also of forfeited and unclaimed Shares and Balances of Prize Money, and the Delivery of a Receipt in Writing (signed by such Agent) at the Office of the said Treasurer of the Navy in Greenwich House, reporting such Payment, shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Agent or Agents, or other Person, for the Sums so paid, against all other Person and Persons whomsoever.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the Receiver of the Drains of Admiralty for the Time being shall, and he is hereby authorized and required, as soon after the net Proceeds arising from any such Drains shall from Time to Time have been ascertained, after the passing of this Act, and after the Expiration of the Period within which any Appeal can be lodged against any Adjudication in relation to such Drains, as the same can be done, deliver in an Account thereof to the said Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the Time being, or such other Person or Persons as the said Treasurer of the Navy shall by any Writing under His Hand and Seal authorize and appoint to receive the same, and shall thereupon pay into the Bank of England, in the Price Account of the Treasurer of the Navy, Five Pounds per Centum upon the Amount of such net Proceeds, for the Purpose of this Act.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the said Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being shall keep a separate Account at the Bank of England of all Monies received and paid by him on account of Per-centage upon Prizes, Grants, Bounty Monies, Salaries, Drains, and Donations, and on account of forfeited and unclaimed Shares of Prize and other Monies in the Nature thereof; and all Drains on the Governor and Company of the Bank of England on the said Account shall be headed "Price Account," and shall be drawn by the Treasurer of the Navy, or the Person or Persons in His Office duly authorized by him, as any other Monies placed to the Account of the Treasurer of the Navy in the Bank of England are drawn; and such Drains shall be sufficient Authority to the Bank to pay such Money to the Persons mentioned therein, or to the Bearer of them.

XXV. And be it enacted, That every Prize Agent, and every Person who shall be authorized and empowered to receive or distribute any Prize Money, Bounty, or Head Money, Grant, or other Allowance of Money for the Use and Benefit of the Officers and Crews of any of His Majesty's Ships, by reason of any Capture or Surrender, shall transmit or deliver to the Examiner of Price Accounts already appointed, or to the Officer who shall be from Time to Time appointed by the Treasurer of the Navy for that Purpose, all Accounts, Copies, or Certificates, Documents, Vouchers, Receipts, and other Papers which have been heretofore transmitted or delivered to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his Deputy, and to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital; and every Prize Agent, or other Person as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect to transmit or deliver to the said Examiner of Price Accounts, or Person appointed as aforesaid, any of the Accounts, Copies, Certificates, Documents, Receipts, and other Papers at the Times at which previously to the passing of this Act he was compellable to transmit or deliver the same to the Treasurer or Clerk of the Cheque or any other Officer of Greenwich Hospital, shall be subject for any Default, Neglect, or Refusal, to a Penalty of One hundred Pounds.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the Navy shall cause to be kept open an Office during the usual Hours of Attendance on every Day in the Week (except Sunday, Christmas Day, and Good Friday,) for the Purpose of receiving Claims for Shares and Sums of Prize Money to be refunded according to the Provision of this Act or any Act now in Force relating to the refunding of Prize Monies, and shall pay and refund, or cause to be paid and refunded, such Shares, when demanded, according to the Regulations contained in this or any other Act as aforesaid relating thereto, and according to such further Regulations as the said Treasurer of the Navy may deem it expedient to make for the due Performance of the Duties transferred to him by the Provision of this Act.

XXVII. And, in order to prevent Delay and Losses in Matters of Prize out of England, be it enacted, That the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being shall, by Power of Attorney under his Hand and Seal, delegate, constitute, and appoint any Person and Persons whom he shall approve for that Purpose, to act as his lawful Attorney or Attorneys, in all Matters relating to Prize, Per-centage, Drains, or other Monies in the Nature thereof, at any Place or Places out of England; which said Deputy or Deputies shall and may do all such Acts with relation to Prize and other Monies as aforesaid, at the Place or Places set out and for which he or they shall be so appointed to act, as the said Treasurer of the Navy might do with respect to such Prize and other Monies if personally present at the Place or Places aforesaid in any such Power or Powers of Attorney; and the Deputy or Deputies, or Person or Persons so appointed, shall be answerable and accountable for all Sums paid into his and their Hands on account of Prize or other Monies as aforesaid, until the same shall be by him or them paid into the Hands of the said Treasurer of the Navy, or to the Price Account of the said Treasurer at the Bank of England, as any other Public Accountant is liable for other Public Monies received by him, and as the said Treasurer of the Navy is liable for Prize Money actually paid into his Account at the Bank of England; and the said Deputy or Deputies, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, transmit the same to the Treasurer of the Navy, or cause the same to be paid to the Price Account of the said Treasurer of the Navy at the Bank of England.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Assignment, Bargain, Sale, Order, or Contract which shall be made or given by any Warrant Officer, for or in respect of any Prize or other Money in the Hands of Prize Agents, or paid into Greenwich Hospital, or to the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, shall be valid unless such Assignment shall truly express the Consideration Money actually paid, by the Person or Persons in whose Favour such Assignment, Bargain, Sale, Order, or Contract is made, to the Person making and executing the same; and upon every such Assignment, Bargain, Sale, Order, or Contract, the Agent or Agents for Prize and Treasurer of the Navy respectively shall only pay to the Person or Persons claiming under or by virtue thereof so much Money as shall appear to have been advanced and paid as such Consideration Money as aforesaid.

Actions, &c. may be commenced in certain Cases.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, (with the Consent and Approval of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral,) as to all Matters relating to Greenwich Hospital except Prize, and for the Treasurer of the Navy of his own Authority in all Matters relating to Prize, and for the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital and the Treasurer of the Navy jointly in all Matters partly relating to Greenwich Hospital and partly relating to Prize, as well to continue and prosecute or defend all Actions and Suits already commenced or which may hereafter be commenced, as to compromise or compound, or refer to Arbitration and settle, all Actions, Suits, Questions, or Controversies relating to the Matters aforesaid, which shall have already been commenced or arise, or shall hereafter be commenced or arise, relating to or touching the same.

Treasurer of the Navy may act in Cases of Bankruptcy and Insolvency.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That all and every the Powers, Rights, and Authorities, which by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to prevent the illegal pawning of Clothes and Stores belonging to Chelsea Hospital, to give further Powers to the Treasurer and Deputy Treasurer of Chelsea and Greenwich Hospitals, to punish Persons fraudulently receiving Prize Money or Pensions, and to enable the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital to hold Lands purchased under the Will of Colonel Drowley, are given, or directed or allowed to be used, exercised, and employed, in Cases of Bankruptcy and Insolvency, by the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, with respect to all Naval Prize Money, Grants, Per-centage, or other Allowances of Money or Shares thereof due or payable or given to the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich Hospital, or due or payable or given to His Majesty's Navy or Marines, or to any Officers or Privates thereof, or other Persons entitled to share therein, or in which the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, or such Person or Persons as aforesaid, had or might thereafter have any Interest, shall and may, with respect to all such Matters and Things and Persons, and with respect to all Monies by this Act directed to be paid to the Treasurer of the Navy, be used, exercised, and employed by the said Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, now and for the Time being, or by any Person or Persons nominated and appointed by such Treasurer by Writing under his Hand and Seal for that Purpose, in as full and ample a Manner as the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital might or could have used, exercised, or employed the same; and all Actions and Suits hereafter to be brought, commenced, prosecuted, or defended for or on account of Prize Money or Pension Money, or other Monies payable by virtue of this Act to the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, or in any Way relating thereto, may be brought, commenced, prosecuted, or defended by and in the Name of the Treasurer of the Navy.

Actions to be brought in the Name of the Treasurer of the Navy.

Actual Treasurers' Accounts with relation to Prize.

Perpetration of Treason and Forgery.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That the Accounts of the said Treasurer of the Navy, of Monies received and paid under the Provisions of this Act, shall be audited and passed in the same Manner as the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Navy, for Monies received and paid by him in other Branches of the Royal Naval Service, are audited and passed.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall knowingly and willingly perjure or falsely assume the Name or Character, or procure any other Person to perjure or falsely assume the Name or Character, of any Commissioned Officer, Warrant Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman, or Marine, or other Person entitled or supposed to be entitled to any Pension, Arrears of Pension, Prize Money, Bounty Money, Head Money, Grant, or Share or Balance of Prize, or other Monies in this Act mentioned, or in any other Allowance of Money due or payable or supposed to be due or payable for or on account or in respect of any Service performed or supposed to have been performed, by any such Officer, Warrant Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman, or Marine, or other Person in any Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, or on Shore or otherwise, or shall knowingly and willingly perjure or falsely assume the Name or Character, or procure any other Person to perjure or falsely assume the Name or Character, or act, aid, or assist in the perjurings or falsely assuming the Name or Character of the Executive or Administrator, Wife, Widow, next of Kin, Relative, or Co-heir of any such Officer, Warrant Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman, or Marine, or other Person as aforesaid, in order to receive, or to enable any other Person to receive, any Pension, Arrears of Pension, Prize Money, Bounty Money, Head Money, Grant, or Share or Balance of Prize or other Money as aforesaid, or any other Allowance of Money due or payable, or supposed to be due or payable, for or on account or in respect of any Service performed or supposed to have been performed by any such Officer, Warrant Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman, or Marine, or other Person as aforesaid; or if any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeite or alter, or assist or procure to be forged or counterfeited or altered, or knowingly or willingly act or aid or assist in forging or counterfeiting or altering, the Name or Handwriting of any Officer, Warrant Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman, or Marine, or other Person entitled or supposed to be entitled to any Pension, Arrears of Pension, or Prize Money, Bounty Money, Head Money, Grant, or Share or Balance of any Prize Money, or any other Allowance of Money due or payable, or supposed to be due or payable, for or on account or in respect of any Service performed or supposed to have been performed in any Ship or Vessel, or Ships or Vessels, or on Shore, or otherwise, or the Name or Handwriting of any Officer, Warrant Officer, Clerk, or Person in any Way concerned in the paying, or the ordering, directing, or causing the Payment of any such Pension, Arrears of Pension, or Prize Money, Bounty Money, Head Money, Grant, or Share or Balance of Prize Money, or other Monies as aforesaid, or any other Allowance of Money due or payable or supposed to be due or payable as aforesaid; or shall falsely make, forge, counterfeit, or alter, or wilfully act, aid, or assist in the false making, forging, counterfeiting, or altering, any Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Order, Certificate, Voucher, Receipt, Will, or any other Power, Instrument, Warrant, Authority, Document, or Writing whatsoever, relating to or in anywise concerning the Payment of or the obtaining or claiming any such Pension, Arrears of Pension, Price Money, Bounty Money, Head Money, Grant, or Share or Balance of Price Money, or other Money as aforesaid, or any other Allowance of Money due or payable or supposed to be due or payable as aforesaid, in order to receive, obtain, or claim any such Pension or Arrears of Pension, Price Money, Bounty Money, Head Money, Grant, or Share or Balance of Price Money, or other Money as aforesaid, or any other Allowance of Money due or payable or supposed to be due or payable as aforesaid, or shall utter or publish as true, or knowingly and wilfully act, aid, or assist in uttering or publishing as true, any falsely made or forged or counterfeited or altered Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Order, Certificate, Voucher, Receipt, Will, or any other Power, Instrument, Warrant, Authority, Document, or Writing whatsoever, with Intention to receive, obtain, or claim, or to enable any other Person to receive, obtain, or claim, from any Person whatsoever authorized or supposed to be authorized to pay the same, the Payment of any such Pension, Arrears of Pension, or Price Money, Bounty Money, Head Money, Grant, or Share or Balance of Price Money, or other Money as aforesaid, or any other Allowance of Money due or payable or supposed to be due or payable as aforesaid; or shall knowingly take a false Oath in order to obtain Letters of Administration, or the Probate of any Will, in order to receive, obtain, or claim, or to enable any other Person to receive, obtain, or claim, any Pension, Arrears of Pension, Price Money, Bounty Money, Head Money, Grant, or Share or Balance of Price Money, or other Money as aforesaid, or any other Allowance of Money due or payable, or supposed to be due or payable, for or on account or in respect of the Service of any Office, Warrant Office, Petty Office, Seaman, Marine, or other Person, performed or supposed to have been performed in any Ship or Vessel, or Ships or Vessels, or on Shore or otherwise; or shall demand or receive any Pension, Arrears of Pension, Price Money, Bounty Money, Head Money, Grant, or Share or Balance of Price Money, or other Money as aforesaid, or any other Allowance of Money, due or payable or supposed to be due or payable as aforesaid, upon Letters of Administration or a Probate of a Will, knowing the Will on which such Probate shall have been obtained to be false, forged, or counterfeited, or knowing such Letters of Administration or the Probate of such Will as last aforesaid to have been obtained by means of any such false Oath as aforesaid, with Intention to defraud any Person or Persons whatsoever, or any Body or Bodies Public or Corporate whatsoever; all and every such Person and Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, as the Court before whom such Person or Persons shall be convicted shall adjudge; and it shall be sufficient in charge, in any Indictment for any of the Offences aforesaid, that the Offence was committed with Intent to defraud our Sovereign Lord the King.

XXXIII. “ on all Capital Stock whatever which on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight was standing in the Names of the said Commissioners, either on account of the Sinking Fund, or on account of Stock transferred to them for the Purchase of Life Annuities, shall not exceed the Sum of Three Millions; and such Sum is directed by the said Act to be paid, by Four equal Quarterly Payments in each Year: And Whereas it has been resolved by the Commons House of Parliament, that in lieu of the Sum of Three Millions so directed by the said recited Act to be issued towards the Reduction of the National Debt, there shall be issued, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, at the Receipt of the Exchequer, out of the said Consolidated Fund, to the said Commissioners, so far by them applied towards the Reduction of the National Debt, such annual Sum as shall appear to be the actual Surplus Revenue of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland beyond the actual annual Expenditure thereof: He it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for the ascertaining the actual annual Amount of such Surplus Revenue, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall, within Thirty Days next after the passing of this Act, with respect to the Quarter of the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April, and within Thirty Days next after the Fifth Day of July and the Tenth Day of October, in this present Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and within Thirty Days after the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October, in each and every subsequent Year after the passing of this Act, cause an annual Account to be prepared, showing the actual Receipts and Expenditure of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in the Four Quarters, for the Whole of the Year immediately preceding each several Quarterly Days respectively, according to the actual Receipts and Issue of Money as the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer; and the One Fourth Part of the Sum which by every such annual Account shall appear to be the Amount of the whole actual annual Surplus Revenue, beyond the Expenditure of the said United Kingdom for each Year, shall be the Sum which shall be issued out of the said Consolidated Fund to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, so far by them applied towards the Reduction of the National Debt during the Quarter of the Year then next immediately ensuing the Quarter within which such annual Account shall be made up as aforesaid; and the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall certify the Amount of the actual annual Surplus Revenue of every such Year respectively to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and such last-mentioned Commissioners shall thereupon publish from Time to Time, in the London Gazette, the Sum which under the Provisions of this Act will be so applicable in each ensuing Quarter of the Year towards the Reduction of the National Debt of the said United Kingdom.

Sum paid into the Exchequer under C. 4. 1828, and to be included in the first annual Account.

One Fourth Part of the Surplus Revenue of the preceding Year shall be issued for the Reduction of the National Debt in the Quarter then next ensuing.

All Stock and Annuities for Term, standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, on the 31st July 1829, shall be cancelled, and the Dividends thereon to be issued.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the several Sums of Money directed to be paid into the said Exchequer on the Fifteenth Day of April and on the Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to confirm an Agreement entered into by the Treasurer under an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for ascertaining the Barthen occurred by the Malt and Naval Provisions and Civil Supplications, with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall not be deemed or taken for the Purpose of this Act as Part of the Revenue of the United Kingdom, nor be included as such in the first annual Account directed to be prepared under the Provisions of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That One Fourth Part of the Sum which from Time to Time shall appear by every such annual Account respectively to be the actual Surplus Revenue of the Year immediately preceding, beyond the Expenditure of the United Kingdom, shall be charged and the same is hereby made chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and shall be issued and paid in and for the Quarter of the Year then next ensuing the Quarter of the Year within which such annual Account respectively is herein-before directed to be made up, either into the Bank of England or into the Bank of Ireland, to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, as the said Commissioners shall direct, to be by them applied towards the Redemption of the National Debt of the United Kingdom, in such Proportions, and at such Time and Times in each and every Quarter in every future Year, as the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall require, according to the Provisions and Directions of any Act or Acts in Force respecting Sums issued from the said Exchequer towards the Reduction of the said National Debt.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Capital Stock whatever, issued and accepted such Capital Stock standing in the Names of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, as by an Act of the Fourth Year of His present Majesty, for further regulating the Reduction of the National Debt, is directed to be carried is “ The Account of Donations and Bequests towards reducing the National Debt,” and all Annuities for any Term or Terms of Years, which on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine shall stand or be placed in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Sea and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, or of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, either as the Account of the Fund commonly called “ The Sinking Fund,” or which shall have been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Purchase of Life Annuities, shall be cancelled in the Books of the said Banks and South Sea Company respectively, and the Interest or Dividend on all such Capital Stock and Annuities, which would have been payable upon or after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, shall cease to be issued.

issued out of or to be charged upon the Consolidated Fund; and so such Interest or Dividend, or Annuitie for any Term or Terms of Years shall be chargeable or be charged upon or issued out of the said Consolidated Fund on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, or on any subsequent Day or Time whosoever.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Stock, and all Annuities for any Term or Terms of Years, which at any Time after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine shall be purchased by the said Commissioners with the Monies issued to them from Time to Time under the Provisions of this Act, shall in like Manner be cancelled; and all Interest or Dividends thereon respectively shall cease to be charged upon or to be issued out of the said Consolidated Fund from and after the Day upon which any such Capital Stock or Annuities respectively shall be transferred to and placed in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the said Banks and South Sea Company respectively.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and they are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time, if they shall deem it expedient so to do, and under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall direct, to apply and employ any Part or Parts of the Sums of Money which shall be placed to their Account in pursuance of the Act, either in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills held by any Person or Persons, or by any Body Politic or Corporate whatever, or in the paying off Exchequer Bills, or in the lending and advancing of Money upon the Credit of any Exchequer Bill or Bills which shall or may be made out in pursuance of an Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act to confer further Provision for the Adjustment of the Accounts of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and for making good any occasional Deficiency which may arise in the said Fund in Great Britain and Ireland respectively; and to direct the Application of the Monies by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; or in the lending and advancing of Money upon the Credit of any other Exchequer Bills which are or shall be made out under any Act or Acts now or from Time to Time in Force; any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary thereto in anywise notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall cause all Exchequer Bills whenever, which shall be so purchased, or upon which any Sum or Sums of Money shall be so advanced by them or on their Account under the Provisions of this Act, to be delivered to the Paymasters of Exchequer Bills, to be cancelled within Seven Days next after the Expiration of the Quarter in which such Purchase or Advance shall be made; and the Paymasters are hereby required, upon the delivering thereof, to cancel all such Exchequer Bills accordingly.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall from Time to Time apply all such respective annual Sums as shall by virtue of this Act be issued or granted, and placed to their Account in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England and Ireland respectively, either in the Whole or in Part, in the Purchase of such redeemable Public Annuities, or Annuities for any Term or Terms of Years, or in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills, or in the paying off Exchequer Bills, or in the advancing of such annual Sums upon the Credit of any Exchequer Bills heretofore mentioned, as the said Commissioners may from Time to Time judge most expedient; and that the several Directions, Provisions, and Regulations contained in any Act or Acts in Force at the Time of the passing of this Act, with respect to any Monies applicable by the said Commissioners to the Reduction of the National Debt, shall be valid and effectual with respect to any Monies issued to them or placed to their Account by virtue of this Act, and shall be applied as the Execution of this Act, except only so far as the same are repealed or altered by this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

' present Session, to be discontinued and struck off the Establishment of the Disembodied Staff; ' Be it further enacted, That such of the Corporals and Drummers, so discontinued, as were serving as Corporals or Drummers at the Time of the last disembodiment of their Corps, and have continued to serve in the Disembodied Staff from that Time to the present, who, receiving their previous Service in any or all of the Ranks of Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private, have in the Whole completed Twenty Years uninterrupted Service, shall be placed on the Out-Pension of Free-grace a Day, although they should not be unfit for further Service; any Thing in any Act or Acts always, that such Corporals and Drummers shall have served of Eighteen, excepting the Cases in which the Individuals were serving as Drummers previous to the Age of Eighteen, in which Cases it shall be lawful to reckon the Twenty Years Service after the Age of Sixteen: Provided always, that the Pensions herein made in respect of Drummers shall be deemed to apply in like Manner: Provided always, that no Corporal, Drummer, or Fifer, to whom the Pension of Free-grace per Day shall be granted in pursuance of this Act, shall be entitled to receive the said Pension for any Period during which he shall be serving in the Militia.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon of the Militia, who shall be entitled or claim to be entitled to the Benefits of this Act, shall regularly attend the annual Exercises and Training of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he belongs, during the Whole of the Time he shall during the said Time punctually do and perform his Duty as a Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, on pain of forfeiting the said Allowance, as well as the Rest of his Pay, and every Part thereof, which may be due for the current Year in which he shall neglect or refuse to attend; and a Certificate of his having so attended and performed his Duty, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he may belong, shall be transmitted to the Paymaster General by the Officer claiming the Allowance: Provided always, that in case any such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, claiming to be entitled to such Allowance, shall by his Commanding Officer be permitted or suffered, for any special Cause or unavoidable Necessity, to be absent during the Whole or any Part of such annual Exercise, for which Purpose it shall be lawful for such Commanding Officer to grant such Leave of Absence, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, who may be so permitted to be absent, and have such Leave in Writing, to demand and receive the said Allowance and every Part thereof in the Manner as if he had attended during the Whole of the said annual Exercise: Provided always, that the Reasons for such Absence, as well as the Duration thereof, shall be carefully and truly specified in a Certificate (in lieu of that before mentioned), to be signed by the Commanding Officer, and to be furnished as soon as conveniently may be to the Paymaster General.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, after the disembodiment thereof, and before the Time fixed for the Payment of the said Allowances, shall not be called out for the annual Exercise and Training thereof, every Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon belonging to any such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, and passing within the Description of this Act, who shall have taken and subscribed the Oath hereinafter mentioned before any such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the said Allowance as if he had regularly attended the annual Exercise and Training of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps during the Whole of the Time by Law appointed for that Purpose, and as if a Certificate of such Attendance, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, had been furnished.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That upon such Oaths and Certificates as aforesaid, or where any Regiment of Militia shall not have been called out to their annual Exercise as aforesaid, upon the said Oaths being produced to the Officers acting as Paymasters of the respective Regiments, or to the Paymaster General, it shall be lawful for such Officers and for the Paymaster General, and they are hereby authorized and required, to pay to the said Subaltern Officers, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons, according to their Commission of Lieutenant, Ensign, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, their respective Allowances above mentioned, for Three Months, or other proper Period, on the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and the like Proportions of the same, as also the Allowances to the Reduced Paymasters, Surgeons, and Quartermasters, for the Periods ending on the Twenty-fourth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and the Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty, without any Deduction whatsoever; the Oaths and Certificates before mentioned to be by them preserved and produced as Vouchers for the Payments.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, Subaltern Officers, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons of the Militia, entitled or claiming to be entitled to the Benefits of this Act, shall at all Times be liable to serve in the respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps to which they belong, whenever the same shall be embodied and called out upon active Service; and in case of Neglect or Refusal to attend when called upon at such Times or for such Occasions as may be required of them in pursuance of the Laws now in Force respecting the Militia when disembodied, such and every such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon, shall, on such Neglect or Refusal being certified to the Secretary at War, and, in respect of the Militia of Great Britain, to the Lord Lieutenant of the County, by the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, said late Majesty's Reign, and the said Act of the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, so far as the same amend the said Act of the said Forty-third Year, shall be and the same are hereby continued as amended by this Act; and the said Acts shall be and remain and continue in force during the Continuance of this Act; and that all such Provisions and Regulations as in the said recited Act of the said Forty-third Year contained, so far as relate to such Troops or Corps is proleptus, as by the said Act are applied during War, or during the Continuance of War, and until Six Months after the Ratification of such definitive Treaty of Peace as aforesaid, shall, during the Continuance of this Act be in Force, as amended by the said recited Acts of the Fifty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, and of the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and by this Act.

II. And be it enacted and declared, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, to nominate any Officer of any Corps of Yeomanry in Ireland at any Time when such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall stand, fit and proper as to do.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force for Five Years from the passing thereof, and from the Expiration of such Five Years until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Lord Lieutenant may nominate Officers.

Continuance of Act.

C A P. XXXI.

An Act for funding Three Millions of Exchequer Bills.

[1st June 1829.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, being desirous of making Provision to satisfy the Principal Sums contained in certain Exchequer Bills, to the Amount of Three Millions Sterling, have resolved that the Persons who have engaged to subscribe towards funding the Sum of Three Millions in Exchequer Bills should be entitled, in respect of the Principal Sums contained therein, to such Capital Stock in Annuities as is hereinafter mentioned, subject to the Provisions of this Act: We, Your Majesty's most faithful Commons, do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Persons, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, who on the Eighth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine caused their Names to be ascribed in a Book opened at the Bank of England for the Purpose of funding Exchequer Bills, and who deposited Twenty Pounds per Centum on the Amount of Three Millions of Exchequer Bills which they subscribed, shall, upon the Completion of the Amount subscribed by them respectively, in Manner and at the Times required by this Act, be entitled, for every One hundred Pounds Principal Money contained in the Exchequer Bills so subscribed, to One hundred and one Pounds Ten Shillings Capital Stock in Annuities, at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine; which said Annuities shall be paid and payable at the Bank of England at the Times and in the Manner hereinafter mentioned.

The Persons who subscribed for funding 2,000,000*l.* of Exchequer Bills, and deposited 20 per Centum, shall be entitled to 2,011,000 per Centum, for every 100*l.* subscribed, on completing their Subscriptions.

II. And be it further enacted, That all the Moneys converted into Annuities after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum by virtue of this Act, or intended as to be, shall be deemed, reputed, and taken to be one Capital or Joint Stock, and shall be added to and made Part of the Joint Stock of Annuities with and shall be redeemable at the same Time and in the Manner as the Annuities carrying an Interest after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, established by an Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for funding Eight Millions of Exchequer Bills; and all and every Person or Persons and Corporations whatsoever, in pursuance of the Money which he, she, or they shall become entitled as aforesaid by virtue of this Act, shall have or be deemed to have a proportioned Interest and Share in the said Stock of Annuities, at the Rate aforesaid.

Annuitants to be deemed Joint Stock Annuitants.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said several Subscribers shall deposit the future Installments of Exchequer Bills with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England on or before the Days or Times hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, Twenty Pounds per Centum on or before the Nineteenth Day of June next, Twenty Pounds per Centum on or before the Thirty-first Day of July next, Twenty Pounds per Centum on or before the Eleventh Day of September next, and Twenty Pounds per Centum on or before the Twenty-third Day of October next; and that no Exchequer Bills shall be deposited under this Act which have been subscribed to be paid off, and the Interest thereof shall have previously ceased.

Future Installments to be made in Manner herein mentioned.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Trustee, having the Disposition of any Exchequer Bills of any Infant, to subscribe for or towards advancing the said Sum of Three Millions as aforesaid; and such Infant, upon the Deposit of the Amount subscribed by such Guardian or Trustee, shall become a Subscriber within the Meaning of this Act, and be entitled to have and recover the Annuities, Advantages, and Payments in respect thereof in such and the like Manner as any other Subscriber; and the said Guardian and Trustee, as to the said Sum or Sums so subscribed, is hereby discharged, so as the Name of such Infant be expressed in the Receipt or Receipts for such Exchequer Bills.

Guardians may subscribe for Infants.

V. And be it further enacted, That every such Subscriber shall be entitled to receive, at the Office of the Paymasters of Exchequer Bills, Interest on the Amount of the Exchequer Bills deposited by them respectively at the Bank of England in pursuance of this Act, in Manner following; that is to say, upon the

Subscribers to be allowed Interest on the

issued out of

XI. And be it further enacted, That as much Money shall from Time to Time be set apart and issued as the Receipts of the Exchequer in England, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to the said Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, England, as shall be sufficient to satisfy and pay the respective Annuities to be created in respect of the said Sum of Three Millions, together with the Charges attending the same.

XII. And be it further enacted, That all the said Annuities, Interest, and Dividends, which shall become payable in respect of the said Sum of Three Millions, shall be charged and chargeable upon, and are hereby charged upon and made payable out of, the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

XIII. And for the more easy and sure Payment of the Annuities established by this Act, be it further enacted, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall from Time to Time, until all the said Annuities shall be redeemed or shall cease, appoint and employ One or more sufficient Person or Persons within their Office in the City of London to be their Chief or First Cashier or Cashiers, and One other sufficient Person within the same Office to be their Accountant General; and that so much of the Money by this Act appropriated for the Purpose as shall be sufficient from Time to Time to answer the said Annuities, and other Payments herein directed to be made out of the said Consolidated Fund in respect of the said Sum of Three Millions, shall, by Order of the Commissioners of the Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, without any further Warrant to be used for, laid, or obtained in that Behalf, from Time to Time, at the respective Days of Payment in this Act appointed for Payment thereof, be issued and paid at the Receipt of the Exchequer of Great Britain to the said First or Chief Cashier or Cashiers of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors for the Time being, by way of Interest and upon Account, for the Payment of the Annuities in respect of the said Sum of Three Millions payable by virtue of this Act; and each Cashier or Cashiers, to whom the said Money shall from Time to Time be issued, shall from Time to Time, without Delay, pay the same accordingly, and render his or their Accounts thereof according to the due Course of the Exchequer in Great Britain; and the said Accountant General for the Time being shall from Time to Time inspect and examine all Receipts and Payments of the said Cashier or Cashiers, and the Vouchers relating thereto, in order to prevent any Fraud, Negligence, or Delay.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, who shall have received or shall receive any Part of the said Subscriptions towards the said Sum of Three Millions, shall give a Receipt or Receipts in Writing to every such Subscriber for the Principal Money comprised in the Exchequer Bills deposited by them respectively, and the Receipts so to be given shall be assignable at any Time before the Eleventh Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and no longer: Provided always, that each Cashier or Cashiers shall give Security to the good liking of any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or the said Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, for duly answering and delivering over to the Paymaster of Exchequer Bills all the Exchequer Bills which they have already received, and shall hereafter receive from Time to Time, of and for the Whole of the said Sum of Three Millions, and for accounting duly for the same, and for Performance of the Trust hereby in him or them reposed, and shall from Time to Time deliver to the Paymaster of Exchequer Bills all the Exchequer Bills which shall be so deposited, as soon as he or they shall receive the same, or any Part thereof, or within Five Days afterwards at the furthest, and shall account for the same in the said Exchequer, according to the due Course thereof.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all the Exchequer Bills so deposited or to be deposited, according to the Direction of this Act, with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be from Time to Time transmitted by the said Governor and Company, and delivered over to the Paymaster of Exchequer Bills to be cancelled, and the Receipts for such Exchequer Bills, signed by any Two of the said Paymasters, shall be a sufficient Acquittance to the said Cashier or Cashiers in accounting for the Exchequer Bills to be received by them in pursuance of this Act; and the said Paymasters of Exchequer Bills are hereby authorized and required, upon Receipt of any such Bill, to mark and cancel the same, and to pay the Interest thereupon, according to the Provisions of this Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted, that in the Office of the Accountant General of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being a Book or Books shall be provided and kept, in which the Names of the Subscribers shall be fairly entered; which Book or Books the said respective Subscribers, their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, shall and may from Time to Time, and at all reasonable Times, resort to and inspect without any Fee or Charge, and the said Accountant General shall, on or before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty, transmit an accented Duplicate, fairly written on Paper, of the said Book or Books, into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts of His Majesty's Exchequer of Great Britain, there to remain for ever.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the Accountant General of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall certify to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt the Amount of all Exchequer Bills subscribed to be funded under the Provisions of this Act, and also the total Amount of the Capital Stock in the Four Funds per Centum Annuities which shall be created thereby.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That each Subscriber duly depositing or paying in the whole Sum so subscribed at or before the respective Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, and their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, shall have, receive, and enjoy, and be entitled by virtue of this Act to have, receive, and enjoy, the said Annuities by this Act granted in respect of the Sum so subscribed, and shall have good and sure Interests and Estates therein according to the several Provisions in this Act contained; and the said Annuities shall be free from all Taxes, Charges, and Impositions

XIX. And be it further enacted, That Books shall be constantly kept by the said Accountant General for the Time being, wherein all Assignments or Transfers of all Sums advanced or contributed towards the said Sums of Three Millions shall be entered and registered, which Entry shall be conceived in proper Words for that Purpose, and shall be signed by the Parties making such Assignments or Transfers, or, if such Parties be absent, by their respective Attorney or Attorneys thereto lawfully authorized in Writing under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, to be attested by Two or more credible Witnesses; and the several Persons to whom such Transfers shall be made may respectively underwrite their Acceptance thereof, and no other Method of assigning and transferring the said Annuities, or any Part thereof, or any Interest therein, shall be good or available in Law: Provided always, that all Persons possessed of any Share or Interest in the said Annuities, or any Estate or Interest therein, may derive the same by Will in Writing, attested by Two or more credible Witnesses; but no Payment shall be made upon any such Devise, until so much of the said Will as relates to such Share, Estate, or Interest in the said Annuities be entered in the said Office; and in Default of such Transfer or Devise, such Share, Estate, or Interest in the said Annuities shall go to the Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns; and no Stamp Duties whatsoever shall be charged on any of the said Transfers, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall at any Time hold any Stock in the Four Pounds per Centum per Annum Annuities created by the said recited Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for funding Eight Millions of Exchange Bills, or which shall be created by this Act, to transfer or cause to be transferred any such Four Pounds per Centum Annuities, for the Purpose of having corresponding Sums written into and consolidated with and made Part of the Capital of the New Four Pounds per Centum per Annum Annuities transferable at the Bank of Ireland; and that in like Manner it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons holding Stock in the New Four Pounds per Centum per Annum Annuities transferable at the Bank of Ireland, to transfer or cause to be transferred any such New Four Pounds per Centum Annuities, for the Purpose of having corresponding Sums written into and consolidated with and made Part of the Capital of the Four Pounds per Centum Annuities, transferable at the Bank of England, created by the said recited Act and this Act; and all such Transfers shall be made on the Terms and Conditions, and subject to all the Clauses, Directions, and Regulations, contained in an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to permit the mutual Transfer of Capital in certain Public Stocks or Funds transferable at the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, in regard to the Four Pounds per Centum per Annum Annuities created and referred to in and by the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty and this Act, except only so far as the said Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty is altered or affected by the Provisions of an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to provide for the Amendment of the Currency and Manner of Account throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Three or more of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or the said Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, shall have Power, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to discharge all such Incident Charges as shall necessarily ensue the Execution of this Act, in such Manner as to them shall seem just and reasonable; and also to make an Allowance for the Service, Pains, and Labour of the said Cashier or Cashiers, employed in receiving, paying, and accounting for the said Annuities; and also for the Service, Pains, and Labour of the said Accountant General, for performing the Trusts reposed in him by this Act; which Allowance, in respect of the Service, Pains, and Labour of the said Cashier or Cashiers and Accountant General of the said Governor and Company, shall be for the Use of the said Governor and Company, and at their Disposal only.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That all the said Annuities after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, created by virtue of this Act, shall be deemed, reputed, and taken to be One Capital or Joint Stock; and all and every Person and Persons, and Bodies Politic and Corporate whatsoever, shall here and be deemed to have a proportional Interest and Share in the said Stock, and in the Annuity attending the same, at the Rate aforesaid; and the whole Capital or Joint Stock, or any Share or Interest therein, and the proportionable Annuity attending the same, shall be assignable and transferable as this Act directs, and not otherwise; and there shall be constantly kept in the Office of the said Accountant General for the Time being, within the City of London, a Book or Books, wherein all Assignments or Transfers of the said Capital or Joint Stock, or any Part thereof, and the proportionable Annuity attending the same, at the Rate aforesaid, shall be entered and registered, which Entries shall be conceived in proper Words for that Purpose, and shall be signed by the Parties making such Assignments or Transfers; or, if any such Party or Parties be absent, by his, her, or their Attorney or Attorneys, thereunto lawfully authorized by Writing under his, her, or their Hands and Seals, to be attested by Two or more credible Witnesses; and the Person or Persons to whom such Transfer or Transfers shall be made shall respectively undertake his, her, or their Acceptance thereof; and no other Method of assigning or transferring the said Stock, and the Annuities attending the same, or any Part thereof, or any Interest therein, shall be good and available in Law; and no Stamp Duties whatsoever shall be charged on the said Transfers, or any of them.

XXXIII. And he it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or shall willingly act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, any Receipts or Receipts for the Whole or any Part or Parts of the said Subscription towards the said Sum of Three Millions, either with or without the Name or Names of any Person or Persons being inserted therein as the Subscriber or Subscribers thereto, or Payee or Payees thereof, or of any Part or Parts thereof, or shall also any Number, Figure, or Word therein, or utter or publish as true any such false, forged, counterfeited, or altered Receipts or Receipts, with intent to defraud the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Body Public or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, every such Person or Persons so forging or counterfeiting, or causing or procuring to be forged or counterfeited, or willingly acting or assisting in the forging or counterfeiting, or altering, uttering, or publishing as aforesaid, being thereof convicted to due Form of Law, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, notwithstanding the Redemption of all or any of their own Funds, in pursuance of the Acts for enabling the same or any of them, shall continue a Corporation for the Purposes of this Act until the Annulment by this Act granted shall be redeemed by Parliament as aforesaid; and that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Member thereof, shall not incur any Disability for or by reason of their doing any Matter or Thing in pursuance of this Act.

XXXV. And he it further enacted, That no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity whatsoever shall be demanded or taken of any of His Majesty's Subjects for receiving or paying the said Subscription in Ecclesiastical Bells or Money, or any of them, or for any Receipts concerning the same, or for paying the said Annuities or any of them, or for any Transfer of any Sum, great or small, to be made in pursuance of this Act, upon pain that any Officer or Person offending by taking or demanding any such Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds to the Party aggrieved, with full Costs of Suit; to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Escoigne, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, Inquest, or Order of Habituat, or any more than One Imparance, shall be granted or allowed.

XXXVI. And he it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested, or prosecuted for any Thing done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence in his, her, or their Defence or Defence; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendants or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall discontinue his, her, or their Action or Prosecution, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him, her, or them, upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him, her, or them against any such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

XXXVII. And he it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

• should be good, valid, and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the said Power of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury, in the Manner hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury, from Time to Time, from and after the passing of this Act, to order and direct any One or more of the Commissioners of Excise to act as such Commissioners or Commissioners for Scotland, and to order and direct any One or more of the Commissioners of Excise to act as such Commissioners or Commissioners for Ireland, for the Dispatch of Business in these Parts respectively of the United Kingdom, under the Control and Direction nevertheless of the Board of Commissioners of Excise; and that such Commissioners or Commissioners respectively (under such Control and Direction as aforesaid) shall have and be invested with the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise, and all Matters and Things relating thereto, arising in Scotland and Ireland respectively: and that such Commissioner or Commissioners respectively shall (under such Control and Direction as aforesaid) have full Power and Authority to order and direct, and to do and permit to be done, all Acts, Matters, and Things relating to the Revenue of Excise in Scotland and Ireland respectively; and that all Rules, Orders, Acts, Matters, and Things, which shall have been or shall be so made and done by such Commissioner or Commissioners for Scotland and Ireland respectively, shall be good, valid, and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that all and every such Commissioner or Commissioners for Scotland and Ireland respectively shall in all Things observe, perform, and fulfil, and cause to be observed, performed, and fulfilled, in and throughout Scotland and Ireland respectively, the several Orders, Rules, Directions, and Regulations touching or relating to the said Revenue, which shall have been or shall be made or given by the Board of Commissioners of Excise.

C. A. P. XXXIII.

An Act to amend the several Acts for the Encouragement of the Irish Fisheries. [4th June 1829.]

• WHEREAS the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries have been and are now in the Habit of advancing, to or for Fishermen, small Sums in the Way of Loan, out of the annual Sum of Five thousand Pounds disposable for that Purpose under an Act made in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the further Encouragement and Improvement of the Irish Fisheries, as amended by an Act made in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend the several Acts for the Encouragement and Improvement of the British and Irish Fisheries; and such Sums are advanced, not by paying the Sums into the Hands of the Fishermen, but by expending the same in building and repairing Boats for them, and also in supplying them with various Implements and Materials necessary for following the Occupation of Fishing; and the Commissioners have hitherto required Promissory Notes or other Securities to be returned into by the said Fishermen, for the punctual Repayment of the Sums so advanced for their Use, with legal Interest thereon, so as thereby to preserve, without Diminution, a reproductive Fund for encouraging regular and industrious Habits among the poorer Classes of Fishermen inhabiting the Coasts of Ireland; and the said Fund having already been the Means of affording great Relief, and producing great Public Advantage, it is expedient to afford every Facility for the prompt Recovery of the Money advanced for such Purposes: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act any Promissory Note or other Security for any Sum not exceeding the Amount of Ten Pounds given or entered into for the Purpose herein-before mentioned (which are now by Law recoverable by Civil Bill before Assistant Barristers) shall and may be used for and recovered, in the Name of the said Commissioners or their Secretary, or any Officer or other Person to whom, by their Direction or Appointment, such Notes or Securities shall have been or shall be made payable, before any Two Justices assembled in any Petty Sessions to be held in or near the Place where the Person or Persons said shall have been last known to reside.

II. And be it enacted, That whenever in any Proceeding before Assistant Barristers in Cases which shall remain determinable before them, or in any Proceeding before Justices in Petty Sessions under this Act, it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of any such Assistant Barristers or Justices respectively, that Service of Process could not be effected in the usual and accustomed Manner upon any Fisherman, or his Society or Societies named in any Note or Security, but that a true Copy of such Process had been affixed, Fourteen Days at the least before the Day appointed for the Party or Parties to appear, upon the Door or some other conspicuous Part of the House or usual or last known Place of Residence of the Person or Persons so to be sued respectively as aforesaid, and upon the Door of the Parish Church in which such House or Place of Residence shall be situate, and upon the Door of the Roman Catholic Chapel, if any there shall be in such Parish, and that the same had remained so affixed there for One Hour at least between the Hour of Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon and Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, it shall and may be lawful for such Assistant Barristers or Justices respectively to hear and determine any such Suit as aforesaid, although the Defendant or Defendants shall not appear.

III. And be it further enacted, That any Costs of Proceedings at Petty Sessions attendant on the Recovery of the Money secured by Promissory Notes or Securities, shall not exceed the Rate of Charge Promissory Notes for Sums not exceeding 10*li*, given for the Purpose herein mentioned, all, may be used for and recovered at Petty Sessions. Personal Service on certain Cases not required.

Expenses at Petty Sessions established for Saloon by Civil Bill before Assistant Barristers under an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty-sixth Year of His said late Majesty, for the better and more convenient Administration of Justice, and for the Recovery of Small Debts in a summary Way at the Sessions of the Peace; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries to make special Agreements with any Attorney or Attorneys, or other legal Assistant or Assistants, for the Expense of the Recovery of the sums secured by any such Provisionary Notes or Securities, not exceeding the Amount of the Fees payable under the said recited Act.

IV. And he is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries, so far as the Return of the Funds entered in them for the Encouragement of the said Fisheries will admit thereof, to enter into any Contract for the Erection of any Piers, or for the Advance or Repayment of any Loans under the said recited Acts, although the Term necessary for the Completion of such Works, or for the Repayment of such Loans, may extend to a Period beyond the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and Thirty, any Thing in the said Acts, or in any other Act or Acts relating to the said Fisheries, or to the Duration of the said Acts or any of them, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act for consolidating and amending the Statutes in Ireland relating to Offences against the Person. [4th June 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Statutes in England relative to Offences against the Person; and it is expedient that Provision should be made in Ireland for the like Purposes, and that the Statutes now in Force in Ireland relating to such Offences should be repealed, and that the Provisions thereof should be consolidated and amended: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this present Act, and the several Matters herein contained, shall extend to Ireland, and not to England, Wales, or Scotland; and that this Act shall commence and take effect in Ireland on the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine; and that the several Statutes and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts, heretofore and mentioned, shall continue in Force in Ireland until and throughout the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and no longer; and that from and after the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, the several Statutes and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts, heretofore and mentioned, specified, and set forth, shall cease and determine, and shall be repealed (except only so far as is heretofore expressed and provided for); that is to say, the several Statutes and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts, passed in the Parliament of England, heretofore specified and set forth, and which, by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Seventh, intituled An Act conforming all the Statutes made in England, are in Force in Ireland; namely, so much of the Great Charter made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Third, as relates to Inquisition of Life or Member; and so much of a Statute made in the Fifty-second Year of the same Reign, as relates to Murder; and so much of a Statute made in the Third Year of the Reign of King Edward the First, as relates to Inquests of Murder, and the Writ of Odio et Atit, and to any Person receiving or taking away by Force any Person as therein mentioned; and so much of a Statute made in the Tenth Year of the same Reign, intituled The Statute of Buggery, as relates to Buggery; and so much of a Statute made in the Sixth Year of the same Reign, as relates to any Person killing another by Murther, or in his own Defence, or in other Manner without Felony; and so much of a Statute made as Whoremaster in the Thirteenth Year of the same Reign, as relates to the Writ of Odio et Atit, and to Rape; and so much of a Statute made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Second, commonly called Arrest of Clerg, as relates to laying violent Hands on a Clerk; and so much of a Statute made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, as relates to Buggery; and so much of a Statute made in the Twenty-fifth Year of the same Reign, as relates to Petit Treason; and so much of a Statute made in the Fifth Year of the same Reign, as relates to the Arrest of Persons of Holy Church; and so much of an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second, as relates to the like Arrests; and so much of a Statute made in the Sixth Year of the same Reign, as relates to Rishers and to Women ravished; and so much of a Statute made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Fourth, as relates to cutting the Tongues or putting on the Eyes of any of the King's lige People, and to any Assault upon the Person of a Knight of the Shire in Parliament; and so much of a Statute made in the Second Year of the Reign of King Henry the Fifth, as relates to Persons fleeing for Murders, Manslaughters, Robberies, and Betters; and so much of a Statute made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King Henry the Sixth, as relates to any Assault or Affray made in any Lord, Knight of the Shire, Citizens, or Burghs being and attending at the Parliament or other Council of the King; and an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Seventh, intituled An Act against taking away of Wines against their Wills, and an Act passed in the same Year, intituled An Act that the Treasurer, Treasurer, and Controller of the King's House shall inquire of Officers due within the same; and also the following Statutes and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts, passed in the Parliament of Ireland; (that is to say,) an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Sixth, intituled An Act that it shall be lawful to carry hogs Meas to kill or take notorious Thieves, and Thieves found robbing, gawling, or breaking Houses, or taken with the Murther; and an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the same Reign, intituled An Act to amend an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to make conspiracy to murder Felony without Benefit of Clergy'; and also the following Statutes and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts, made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom; that is to say, an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for the further Prevention of malicious shooting and attempting to discharge loaded Fire Arms, stabbing, wounding, poisoning, and the malicious using of Mines to procure the Murther of Women, and also the malicious setting Fire to Buildings; and also for repealing a certain Act made in England in the Twenty-first Year of the late King James the First, intituled 'An Act to prevent the destroying and murdering of Bastard Children'; and also an Act made in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Anne, also intituled 'An Act to prevent the destroying and murdering of Bastard Children', and for making other Provisions in law thereof; and an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Child-stealing; and 40th Act passed in the same Year, intituled An Act to render more easy and effectual

Redden

Redress for Assaults in Ireland (save only so far as the said Act relates to Proceedings by Civil Bill); and as an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the same Reign, to amend the said last-mentioned Act; and as much of an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to remove Doubts and to remedy Defects in the Law, with respect to certain Offences committed upon the Sea or under the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty, as refers to the Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, herein-before mentioned; and as much of an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the present Reign, intitled An Act for the Amendment of the Law of Revenue, as relates to the Offences of assaulting, beating, and wounding therein mentioned; and as an Act passed in the Third Year of the present Reign, intitled An Act for the further and more adequate Punishment of Persons convicted of Manslaughter, and of Servants convicted of robbing their Masters, and of Accessories before the Fact in Grand Larceny and certain other Felonies; and as much of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the present Reign, intitled An Act to provide for the more effectual Punishment of certain Offences in Ireland with hard Labour, as relates to any Assault; and the several herein-before intitled Statutes and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts, are hereby repealed accordingly, so far as relates to Ireland, and to Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of Ireland; save and except so far as any of the said Statutes and Acts, or Parts of Statutes and Acts respectively, or any of them, may repeal the Whole or any Part of any other Act or Acts; and save and except as to Offences committed before or upon the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, which shall be dealt with and punished as if that Act had not been passed.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Acts and Parts of Acts continuing or perpetuating any of the Statutes or Acts, or Parts of Statutes or Acts, herein-before repealed, so far only as relates to such Continuance or Perpetuation, from and after the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

III. And be it enacted, That every Offence which before the Commencement of this Act would have amounted to Petit Treason shall be deemed to be Murder only, and as greater Offence; and all Persons guilty in respect thereof, whether as Principals or as Accessories, shall be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished as Principals and Accessories in Murder.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Murder, or of being an Accessary before the Fact to Murder, shall suffer Death as a Felon; and every Accessary after the Fact to Murder shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or to be imprisoned with or without hard Labour in the Common Goal or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Four Years.

V. And be it enacted, That every person convicted of Murder shall be executed according to Law on the Day next but One after that on which the Sentence shall be passed, unless the same shall happen to be Sunday, and in that Case on the Monday following; and the Body of every Murderer shall, after Execution, either be directed or hung in Chains, as to the Court shall seem meet; and Sentence shall be pronounced immediately after the Conviction of every Murderer, unless the Court shall see reasonable Cause for postponing the same; and such Sentence shall express, not only the usual Judgment of Death, but also the Time hereby appointed for the Execution thereof; and that the Body of the Offender shall be directed or hung in Chains, whichever of the Two the Court shall order: Provided always, that after such Sentence shall have been pronounced it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to stay the Execution thereof, if such Court or Judge shall so think fit.

VI. And be it enacted, That whenever Direction shall be ordered by such Sentence, the Body of the Murderer, if executed in the County of Dublin or in the County of the City of Dublin, shall be immediately conveyed by the Sheriff or Sheriffs, or his or their Officers, to the Hall of the Surgeons Company in the City of Dublin, or to such other Place as the said Company shall appoint, and shall be delivered to such Person as the said Company shall appoint, for the Purpose of being directed; and the Body of the Murderer, if executed elsewhere, shall in like Manner be conveyed, for the Purpose of being directed, to any School of Surgery in the County or Place in which such Execution shall take place, if there shall be such a School in such County or Place, and if not, then to the Hall of the Surgeons Company in the City of Dublin, or such other Place as the said Company shall appoint, in like Manner as if such Execution had taken place in the County of Dublin or in the County of the City of Dublin.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Murder shall, after Judgment, be confined in some safe Place within the Prison, apart from all other Prisoners, and shall be fed with Bread and Water only, and with no other Food or Liquor, except in case of receiving the Sacrament, or in case of any Sickness or Wound, in which Case the Surgeon of the Prison may order other Necessaries to be administered; and no Person but the Gaoler and his Servants, and the Chaplain and Surgeon of the Prison, shall have Access to any such Convict, without the Permission in Writing of the Court or Judge before whom such Convict shall have been tried, or of the Sheriff or his Deputy: Provided always, that in case the Court or Judge shall think fit to require the Execution of such Convict, such Court or Judge may by a Licence in Writing release, during the Period of the Respite, all or any of the Restraints or Regulations herein-before directed to be observed.

VIII. And be it enacted, That all Persons conspiring, confederating, and agreeing to murder any Person, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as Felons.

IX. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall solicit, encourage, persuade, or endeavour to persuade, or who shall propose to any Person to murder any other Person, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

Murder or Manslaughter committed Abroad may be tried in Ireland.

X. And be it enacted, That if any of His Majesty's Subjects shall be charged by Ireland with any Murder or Manslaughter, or with being accessory before the Fact to any Murder, or after the Fact to any Murder or Manslaughter, the same being respectively committed on Land out of the United Kingdom, whether within the King's Dominions or without, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace of the County or Place where the Person so charged shall be, to take cognisance of the Offence so charged, and to proceed therein as if the same had been committed within the Limits of his ordinary Jurisdiction; and if any Person so charged shall be committed for Trial, or admitted to Bail to answer such Charge, the Offence so charged may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished in the County or Place in which such Person shall be so charged, in the same Manner as all Respects as if such Offence had been committed in that County or Place; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Person from being tried in any Place out of Ireland, in the same Manner as such Person might have been tried before the passing of this Act.

Trial of Murder and Manslaughter, where the Death or Cause of Death only happens in Ireland.

XI. And be it enacted, That where any Person being feloniously stricken, poisoned, or otherwise hurt upon the Sea, or at any Place out of Ireland, shall die of such Stroke, Poisoning, or Hurt in Ireland, or, being feloniously stricken, poisoned, or otherwise hurt at any Place in Ireland, shall die of such Stroke, Poisoning, or Hurt upon the Sea, or at any Place out of Ireland, every Offence committed in respect of any such Case, whether the same shall amount to the Offence of Murder or of Manslaughter, or of being accessory before the Fact to Murder, or after the Fact to Murder or Manslaughter, may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished in the County or Place in Ireland in which such Death, Stroke, Poisoning, or Hurt shall happen, in the same Manner as all Respects as if such Offence had been wholly committed in that County or Place.

Punishment of Manslaughter.

XII. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Manslaughter shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Four Years, or to pay such Fine as the Court shall award; and it shall be lawful for the Court to direct that the Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement during the Whole or any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, or Imprisonment with hard Labour.

The like as to a Woman not quick with Child.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person, with intent to procure the Miscarriage of any Woman then being quick with Child, unlawfully and maliciously shall administer to her, or cause to be taken by her, any Poison or other noxious Thing, or shall use any Instrument or other Means whatever with the like intent, in any such Offender, and every Person counselling, aiding, or abetting such Offender, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof shall suffer Death as a Felon; and if any Person with the intent to procure the Miscarriage of any Woman not being or not being proved to be then quick with Child, unlawfully and maliciously shall administer to her, or cause to be taken by her, any Medicine or other Thing, or shall use any Instrument or other Means whatever, with the like intent, every such Offender, and every Person counselling, aiding, or abetting such Offender, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the

Sent for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years, nor less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Three Years, and, if a Male, to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in Addition to such Imprisonment.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if any Woman shall be delivered of a Child, and shall, by secret burying or otherwise disposing of the dead Body of the said Child, endeavour to conceal the Birth thereof, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanour, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and it shall not be necessary to prove whether the Child died before, at, or after its Birth: Provided always, that if any Woman tried for the Murder of her Child shall be acquitted thereof, it shall be lawful for the Jury by whose Verdict she shall be acquitted to find, in case it shall so appear in Evidence, that she was delivered of a Child, and that she did, by such secret burying or otherwise disposing of the dead Body of such Child, endeavour to conceal the Birth thereof, and thereupon the Court may pass such Sentence as if she had been convicted upon an Indictment for Concealment of the Birth.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of the abominable Crime of Buggery, committed either with Mankind or with any Animal, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

XIX. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of the Crime of Rape shall suffer Death as a Felon.

XX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and carnally know and abuse any Girl under the Age of Ten Years, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon; and if any Person shall unlawfully and carnally know and abuse any Girl, being above the Age of Ten Years and under the Age of Twelve Years, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanour, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for such Term as the Court shall award.

XXI. And Whereas upon Trials for the Crimes of Buggery and Rape, and of carnally abusing Girls under the respective Acts hereto-before mentioned, Offenders frequently escape by reason of the Difficulty of the Proof which has been required of the Completion of these several Crimes: For Remedy thereof, be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary in any of those Cases to prove the actual Emission of Seed in order to constitute a carnal Knowledge, but that the carnal Knowledge shall be deemed complete upon Proof of Penetration only.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall by Force take or carry away any Woman or Girl against her Consent, with Intent that such Person or any other Person shall marry or defile her, every such Offender, and every Accessory before the Fact in such Offence, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon; and every Accessory after the Fact to such Offence shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for Life or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That when any unmarried Girl under the Age of Eighteen Years shall have any Interest, whether legal or equitable, present or future, absolute, conditional, or contingent, in any Real or Personal Estate, or shall be an Heiress presumptive or next of Kin to any One having such Interest, if any Person shall fraudulently allure, take, or carry away, or cause to be allured, taken, or conveyed away, such Girl out of the Possession and against the Will of her Father or Mother, or of any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of her, and shall contract Matrimony with her, or shall defile her, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanour, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to such Imprisonment, not exceeding the Term of Three Years, as the Court shall award, and shall be incapable of taking any Estate or Interest, legal or equitable, in any Real or Personal Property of such Girl; and such Property shall, upon such Conviction, be vested, from the Time of such Marriage, in such Trustees as the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal in Ireland shall appoint, for the sole and separate Use of such Girl, in the like Manner as if such Marriage had not taken place.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully take or cause to be taken any unmarried Girl under the Age of Sixteen Years, out of the Possession and against the Will of her Father or Mother, or of any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of her, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanour, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to suffer such Punishment, by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award.

XXV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall maliciously, either by Force or Fraud, lured or take away, or decoy or entice away, or detain any Child under the Age of Ten Years, with Intent to deprive the Parent or Parents, or any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of such Child, of the Possession of such Child, or with Intent to steal any Article upon or about the Person of such Child, to whomsoever such Article may belong; or if any Person shall, with any such Intent as aforesaid, receive or harbour any such Child, knowing the same to have been by Force or Fraud lured, taken, decoyed, enticed away, or detained, as herein-before mentioned; every such Offender, and every Person counselling, aiding, or abetting such Offender, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and, if a Male, to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit).

in Addition to each Imprisonment: Provided always, that no Person who shall have claimed to be the Father of an illegitimate Child, or to have any Right to the Possession of such Child, shall be liable to be prosecuted by virtue hereof, on account of his getting Possession of such Child, or taking such Child out of the Possession of the Mother, or any other Person having the lawful Charge thereof.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person, being married, shall marry any other Person during the Life of the former Husband or Wife, whether the Second Marriage shall have taken place in Ireland or elsewhere, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and any such Offence may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished in the County where the Offender shall be apprehended or be in Custody, as if the Offence had been actually committed in that County: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Second Marriage contracted out of Ireland by any other than a Subject of His Majesty, or to any Person marrying a Second Time whose Husband or Wife shall have been continually absent from such Person for the Space of Seven Years then last past, and shall not have been known by such Person to be living within that Time, or shall extend to any Person who at the Time of such Second Marriage shall have been divorced from the Bond of the First Marriage, or to any Person whose Marriage shall have been declared void by the Sentence of any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall arrest any Clergyman upon any Civil Process while he shall be performing Divine Service, or shall, with the Knowledge of such Person, be going to perform the same, or returning from the Performance thereof, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall suffer such Punishment, by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall, in consequence of any unlawful Combination or Conspiracy respecting any Trade, Business, or Manufacture, or respecting any Person concerned or employed therein, unlawfully and maliciously assault any Person with Intent to do to such Person any grievous bodily Harm, every such Offender shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Three Years, and, if a Male, to be Once, Twice, or Thrice privately whipped (if the Court shall think fit), in Addition to such Imprisonment.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously assault, beat, or wound any Person, so as thereby to endanger the Life of such Person, or so as thereby to inflict upon such Person any grievous bodily Harm, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Three Years, and, if a Male, to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped, in Addition to such Imprisonment, if the Court shall think fit.

XXX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall assault and strike or wound any Magistrate, Officer, or other Person whatsoever lawfully authorized, on account of the Exercise of his Duty in or concerning the Preservation of any Vessel in Harbour, or of any Vessel, Goods, or Effects wrecked or stranded or cast on Shore, or lying under Water, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for such Term as the Court shall award.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged with and convicted of any of the following Offences or Misdemeanors, that is to say, of any Assault with Intent to commit Felony; of any Assault upon any Peace Officer or Revenue Officer in the due Execution of his Duty, or upon any Person acting in Aid of such Officer; of any Assault upon any Person with Intent to resist or prevent the lawful Apprehension or Detention of the Party so assaulting, or of any other Person for any Offence for which he or they may be liable by Law to be apprehended or detained; in any such Case the Court may sentence the Offender to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and may also (if the Court shall so think fit) fine the Offender, and require him to find Sureties for keeping the Peace.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall beat, wound, or use any other Violence to any Person with Intent to deter or hinder him from selling or buying any Wheat or other Grain, Flour, Meal, Malt, or Potatoes, in any Market or other Place, or shall beat, wound, or use any other Violence to any Person having the Care or Charge of any Wheat or other Grain, Flour, Meal, Malt, or Potatoes, whilst on the Way to or from any City, Market Town, or other Place, with Intent to stop the Conveyance of the same, every such Offender may be convicted thereof before Two Justices of the Peace, and imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months: Provided always, that no Person, who shall be punished for any such Offence by virtue of this Provision, shall be punished for the same Offence by virtue of any other Law whatsoever.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be convicted on any Indictment for an Assault, whether with or without Battery and wounding, or either of them, such Person may, if the Court shall so think fit, in Addition to the Judgment which shall be considered proper for the Offence, be ordered and adjudged to pay to the Prosecutor his actual and necessary Costs and Expenses of Prosecution, and such moderate Allowance for the Loss of Time as the Court shall by Affidavit or other Inquiry and Examination ascertain to be reasonable; and unless the Sum so awarded shall be sooner paid, to be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding Three Months, in Addition to the Term of Imprisonment (if any) to which the Offender may be sentenced for the Offence.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court, by Warrant under Hand and Seal, so order that such Sum as shall be so awarded shall be levied by Deputies and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, and paid to the Person prosecuting, and that the Surplus (if any) arising from such Sale shall be paid to the Owner; and in case such Sum shall be so levied, the Imprisonment awarded until Payment of such Sum shall thereupon cease.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That the Power hereby given to award such Compensation as aforesaid shall not prevent any Person from being a competent Witness on any Indictment.

XXXVI. And Whereas it is expedient that a summary Power of punishing Persons for common Assaults and Batteries should be provided under the Limitations hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, That when any Person shall unlawfully assault or beat any other Person, it shall be lawful for Two Justices of the Peace, upon Complaint of the Party aggrieved, to hear and determine such Offence, and the Offender, upon Conviction thereof before them, shall forfeit and pay such Fine as shall appear to them to be most, not exceeding, together with Costs (if ordered), the Sum of Five Pounds, which Fine shall be paid to the Treasurer or other proper Officer of the Infirmary of the County, City, Town, or Place wherein such Conviction shall take place, or in case there shall not be any Infirmary therein, then to the Treasurer or other proper Officer of such other public Charity therein as such Justices shall direct; and if such Fine as shall be awarded by the Justices, together with Costs (if ordered), shall not be paid, either immediately after the Conviction or within such Period as the said Justices shall at the Time of the Conviction appoint, it shall be lawful for them to commit the Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless such Fine and Costs be sooner paid: but if the Justices, upon the Hearing of any such Case of Assault or Battery, shall deem the Offence not to be proved, or shall find the Assault or Battery to have been justified, or as inflicting as not to merit any Punishment, and shall accordingly dismiss the Complaint, they shall forthwith make out a Certificate under their Hands, stating the Fact of such Dismissal, and shall deliver such Certificate to the Party against whom the Complaint was preferred.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person against whom any such Complaint shall have been preferred for any common Assault or Battery shall have obtained such Certificate as aforesaid, or having been convicted shall have paid the whole Amount adjudged to be paid under such Conviction, or shall have suffered the Imprisonment awarded for Nonpayment thereof, in every such Case he shall be released from all further or other Proceedings, Civil or Criminal, for the same Cause.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case the Justices shall find the Assault or Battery complained of to have been accompanied by any Attempt to commit Felony, or shall be of Opinion that the same is, from any other Circumstance, a fit Subject for a Prosecution by Indictment, they shall obtain from any Adjudication thereupon, and shall deal with the Case in all Respects in the same Manner as they would have done before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall authorize any Justice of the Peace to hear and determine any Case of Assault or Battery in which any Question shall arise as to the Title to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Interest therein or accruing thereupon, or as to any Bankruptcy or Insolvency, or any Execution under the Process of any Court of Justice.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Master of a Merchant Vessel shall, during his being Abroad, force any Man on Shore, or wilfully leave him behind in any of His Majesty's Colonies or elsewhere, or shall refuse to bring Home with him again all such of the Men whom he carried out with him as are in a Condition to return when he shall be ready to proceed on his Homeward-bound Voyage, every such Master shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be imprisoned for such Term as the Court shall award; and all such Offences may be prosecuted by Indictment or by Information, in the Suit of His Majesty's Attorney-General, in the Court of King's Bench, and may be alleged in the Indictment or Information to have been committed in the County of the City of Dublin; and the said Court is hereby authorized to issue One or more Commission, if necessary, for the Examination of Witnesses Abroad; and the Depositions taken under the same shall be received in Evidence on the Trial of every such Indictment or Information.

XL. And be it enacted, That every Accessory before the Fact to any Felony punishable under this Act, for whom no Punishment has been herein-before provided, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years nor less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Three Years; and every Accessory after the Fact to any Felony punishable under this Act, for whom no Punishment has been herein-before provided, shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and every Person who shall counsel, aid, or abet the Commission of any Misdemeanor punishable under this Act shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as a principal Offender.

XLI. And be it enacted, That all indictable Offences mentioned in this Act, which shall be committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of Ireland, shall be deemed to be Offences of the same Nature, and liable to the same Punishments, as if they had been committed upon the Land in Ireland, and may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, and determined in the same Manner as any other Offences committed Payment may be ordered by Deputies of Offender's Goods.

XLIII. And for the more effectual Prosecution of Offences punishable upon summary Conviction by virtue of this Act, be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged on the Oath of a credible Witness, before any Justice of the Peace, with any such Offence, the Justice may summon the Person charged to appear before any Two Justices of the Peace at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and if he shall not appear accordingly, then (upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons upon such Person by delivering the same to him) the Justices may either proceed to hear and determine the Case at once, or may issue their Warrant for apprehending such Person and bringing him before them; or the Justice before whom the Charge shall be made may (if he shall so think fit) issue such Warrant, in the first Instance, without any previous Summons.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Prosecution for every Offence punishable on summary Conviction by virtue of this Act shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months after the Commission of the Offence, and not otherwise.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That the Justices before whom any Person shall be summarily convicted of any Offence against this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall require; (that is to say,)

'BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord

No Certiorari,
&c.

XLV. And be it enacted, That no such Conviction shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any of His Majesty's superior Courts of Record; and no Warrant of Commitment shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein, provided it be therein alleged that the Party has been convicted, and there be a good and valid Conviction to sustain the same.

An Act to prevent Arrests upon Meane Process where the Debt or Cause of Action is under Twenty Pounds, and to regulate the Practices of Arrests, in Ireland. [4th June 1829.]

28 G. 3. c. 26.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the more effectual Prevention of frivolous and vexatious Arrests and Suits, and to authorize the issuing of Warrants upon _____ *Executions in certain Cases, it was amongst other Things enacted, that from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and three no Person should be arrested or held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any Court within those Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England and Ireland, for a Cause of Action not originally annexed to such Sure for which such Person was by the Law then in being liable to be arrested and held to Bail, over and above and exclusive of any Costs, Charges, and Expenses that might have been incurred, recovered, or become chargeable in or about the suing for or recovering the same or any Part thereof: And Whereas by an Act passed in the same Year, intituled *An Act to regulate the Process of His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, in Personal Actions in Ireland, more beneficial, and also to prevent frivolous and vexatious Arrests, and to amend in much of an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for enlarging the Time for Trials by Jury in the City and County of Dublin, and for making the Process of the Court of Exchequer more efficient, as relates to compelling the Appearance of Defendants in Personal Actions,' it is amongst other Things enacted, that from and after the First Day of Michaelmas Term in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three no Person shall be held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, in that Part of the said United Kingdom called Ireland, where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of Ten Pounds or upwards, nor out of any inferior Court where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of Forty Shillings or upwards; and that in all Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of Ten Pounds or upwards in any of the said superior Courts, or to Forty Shillings or upwards in any such inferior Court (and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall proceed by Way of Process against the Person, he, she, or they shall not arrest or cause to be arrested the Body of the Defendant or Defendants, but shall serve him, her, or them personally with a Copy of the Process; and if such Defendant or Defendants shall not appear at the Return of the Process, or within Eight Days after such Return, in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Affidavit being made and filed in the proper Court, of the personal Service of such Process as aforesaid (which said Affidavit shall be filed gratis, to enter a Common Appearance or file Common Bail for the Defendant or Defendants, and to proceed therein as if such Defendant or Defendants had entered his, her, or their Appearance, or filed Common Bail; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And Whereas it is expedient to extend and render more effectual the Provisions of the said recited Acts) he is therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine no Person shall be held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any Court in Ireland, where the Cause of Action shall not have originally annexed to the Sum of Twenty Pounds or upwards, over and above and exclusive of any Costs, Charges, and Expenses that may have been incurred, recovered, or become chargeable in or about the suing for or recovering the same or any Part thereof; and that in all Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to Twenty Pounds or upwards, exclusive of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses as aforesaid, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall proceed by the Way of Process against the Person, he, she, or they shall not arrest or cause to be arrested the Body of the Defendant or Defendants, but shall serve him, her, or them personally with a Copy of the Process and Proceedings thereupon, in such Manner as by the said last recited Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third is provided in Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to Ten Pounds or upwards in any superior Court, or to Forty Shillings or upwards in any inferior Court; and that where the Cause of Action in any Court shall not amount to the Sum of Twenty Pounds, exclusive of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses as aforesaid, no Special Writ or Writs, nor any Process specially thereto expressing the Cause or Causes of Action, shall from and after the said First Day of August be used forth or issued from any Court, in order to compel any Person or Persons to appear before in such Court, and all Proceedings and Judgments that shall from and after the said First Day of August be had on any such Writ or Process shall be and are hereby declared to be void and of no Effect.

II. And Whereas by the said first-recited Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Persons arrested upon Mens Proceps were enabled, in lieu of giving Bail to the Sheriff, to deposit in the Hands of the Sheriff the Sum intimated upon the Writ, together with Ten Pounds in Addition to such Sum to answer the Costs which might accrue up to the Time of the Return of the Writ, and also such further Sum, if any, as should have been paid for the King's Fine upon any original Writ, and should thereupon be discharged from such Arrests: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, and to enable Persons who have been arrested to deposit or pay into the Court in which the Writ shall be returnable the Sum intimated upon the Writ, together with an additional Sum as a Security for Costs, to abide the Event of the Suit, instead of putting in and perfecting Bail in the said Action: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases in which any Defendant shall have been discharged from Arrest, upon making such Deposit as is required by the said last-mentioned Act, and the Sum so deposited shall have been paid into Court, it shall be lawful for each Defendant, instead of putting in and perfecting Special Bail in the Action, according to the Course and Practice of the Court, to allow the Sum so deposited with the Sheriff, and by him paid into Court as aforesaid, together with the additional Sum of Ten Pounds to be paid into Court by such Defendant as a further Security for the Costs of the Action, to remain in the Court to abide the Event of the Suit, and in all Cases where any Defendant shall have been arrested and shall have given Bail to the Sheriff, or shall have been arrested and remains in Custody, it shall be lawful for such lastmentioned Defendant, instead of putting in and perfecting Special Bail, to deposit and pay into the said Court the Sum insured upon the Writ, together with the Amount of the King's Fee, if any, upon the original Writ, and the further Sum of Twenty Pounds as a Security for the Costs of the Action, there to remain to abide the Event of the Suit; and thereupon the said Defendant may and he is hereby required to enter a Common Appearance or file Common Bail in the Action, within such Time as he would have been required to have put in and perfected Special Bail in the Action, according to the Course of the said Court, or, in Default thereof, the Plaintiff in the Action is hereby empowered to enter such Common Appearance or file Common Bail for the said Defendant, and the Cause may proceed as if the Defendant had put in and perfected Special Bail: and in case Judgment in the said Action shall be given for the Plaintiff, he shall be entitled, by Order of the Court, upon Motion made for that Purpose, to recover the said Money so remaining in or so deposited or paid into the Court as aforesaid, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to satisfy the Sum recovered by the Judgment, and the Costs of the Application; and if Judgment be given in the said Action for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff discontinues his Suit, or be otherwise barred, or in case the Sum deposited and paid into Court be more than sufficient to satisfy the Plaintiff, the said Money so deposited or paid into Court, or so much thereof as shall remain, shall, by Order of the Court, upon Motion to be made for that Purpose, be repaid to such Defendant.

Defendant may receive such Deposit and Payment out of Court upon perfecting Special Bail. Defendant who has perfected Special Bail may lodge Money in Court, and obtain Execution on the Bail-Place.

III. Provided always, and he it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Defendant who hath made his Election to make such Deposit and Payment as aforesaid, at any Time in the Progress of the Cause before Juries found in Law or Fact, or final or interlocutory Judgment signed, to receive the same out of Court, by Order of the said Court, upon putting in and perfecting Special Bail in the Cause, and Payment of such Costs to the Plaintiff as the said Court shall direct.

IV. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Defendant who shall here put in and perfected Special Bail in any Cause, upon Motion to the Court in which the Action is brought, if the Court shall so think fit, to deposit and pay into Court the Sum which would have been deposited and paid to cause the Defendant had originally elected so to do, together with such further Sum to answer the Costs as the Court may direct, to abide the Event of the said Suit, and to be disposed of in Manner aforesaid; and thereupon shall be lawful for the said Court to direct a Common Appearance to be entered or Common Bail to be filed for the Defendant, and an Execution to be entered upon the Bail-Place in the said Cause.

Repeal of Acts authorizing Arrests where Cause of Action amounts to less than 20*l.* Act is amended only in Ireland.

V. And he it further enacted, That so much of any Act or Acts hitherto passed for the Recovery of Debts within certain Districts and Jurisdictions, which may have authorized the Arrest and Imprisonment of Debtors when the Cause of Action amounts to less than Twenty Pounds, exclusive of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby, from and after the said First Day of August, repealed.

VI. Provided always, That the Provisions of this Act shall extend only to that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act to continue until the End of the next Session of Parliament, and to amend the Acts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland. [4th June 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session holden in the First and Second Years of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland, to continue in force until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and theretofore until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and so longer; and which Act was amended by an Act passed in the Third Year of His present Majesty's Reign; and by an Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His present Majesty's Reign both the said Acts were continued, and are in Force until the End of the present Session of Parliament: and it is expedient that the said Acts should be further continued and amended; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Two first-mentioned Acts shall be and the said Acts are hereby continued, and shall remain in Force from the passing of this Act until the End of the Session of Parliament next ensuing the present Session, as amended by this Act.

II. And he it enacted, That during the Period between the last Day of Twenty Three and the First Day of November in every Year the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors under the said Acts shall have full Power and Authority to regulate and appoint the Stipends of the said Court, at such Times as to the said Court shall appear fit and necessary, for the due Administration of Justice in the said Court; provided that the said Court shall not be adjourned at any Time during the said Period for more than Two Calendar Months at any One Time.

CAP. XXXVII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to Corcoran in Ireland.

[4th June 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intitled An Act for lowering Sheriff's Fees on Executions, whereby, after making that through the great Corruption and Partiality of Sub-Sheriffs and their Bailiffs it had become very difficult difficult to have any Meise Process or Execution duly executed, but that Returns were made that the Party against whom such Process or Execution issued was not to be found, and that he had no Lands or Goods, although the contrary was true, it was enacted, that where any Sheriff should, on any Meise Process or Execution, return that the Person against whom such Meise Process or Execution should issue could not be found, or that he had not any Goods or Lands, in such Case the Party Plaintiff might take out the same or any other Meise Process or Execution, directed to all or any of the Coroners of the said County, who should and might execute the same without any further Direction or regard to the said Sheriff, any former Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; and that thereupon the said Coroner or Coroners should be authorized and empowered to take Bail for the Appearance of such Person or Persons taken by him or them on Meise Process, as the Sheriff might have done, and should be liable to an Action in case of any Escape of any Person in his or their Custody on such Meise Process or Execution, as the Sheriff should have been if the said Writ had been executed by him, and that the said Coroner or Coroners should and might take such Fees, and no other or more, for Execution of the said several Writs, than as was by the said Act appointed; and in case the said Coroner or Coroners should commit any Person or Persons so taken by them to the County Gaol, the Gaoler was thereby directed and required to receive and detain them: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Third Year of His present Majesty's Reiga, intitled An Act to regulate the Qualifications of Persons holding the Office of Coroner in Ireland, it was amongst other Things enacted, that no Writ or Process in any Civil Suit or Action should in any Case be awarded to any Coroner in Ireland, except in Cases in which the Sheriff to whom such Process should be awarded should be interested in the Suit, or should be of Kindred either to the Plaintiff or Defendant, by which said last-mentioned Enactment the said Provisions of the said Act of Queen Anne were repealed: And Whereas such Repeal has been found to be of mischievous Consequence: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act of the Third Year of His present Majesty as is herein-before recited shall and the same is hereby repealed, and that the said Provisions of the said Act of Queen Anne shall be and the same are hereby revived and re-enacted.

S. G. 4. c. 115.

II. And Whereas by the said Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty it was enacted, that no Person should be capable of being elected or chosen to the Office of Coroner for any County in Ireland who should not have an Estate of the Value therein mentioned, but no Provision is by the said Act made with respect to the Qualification of Persons electing Coroners of Counties: And Whereas it has been found that such Persons have, in consequence of the Number of Persons claiming a Right to vote therein, been in some Instances much prejudiced, to the great inconvenience of Sheriffs holding such Elections, and to the interruption of their other Duties, and to the Danger of the public Peace: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act no Person shall be permitted to vote at any Election for the Office of Coroner in any County in Ireland, unless such Person shall be, at the Time when he claims to vote, qualified by Law to vote at an Election for a Knight of the Shire to serve in Parliament for such County: of which Qualification the Certificate by Law prescribed of their Registry at the Parish of such Person shall be sufficient Evidence.

Part of S. G. 4. c. 115. repealed, and certain Provisions of it are revived.
No Person to vote at Elections for Coroners, unless entitled to vote for Knights of the Shire.

III. And Whereas at Inquests held by Coroners upon the Bodies of deceased Persons great Difficulty exists in procuring the Attendance of Witnesses duly qualified to give Evidence as to the Cause of the Death of such Persons, by reason of the Want of any Power to remunerate such Witnesses for their Trouble and Loss of Time: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Coroner, before whom any Physician, Surgeon, Apothecary, Chemist, or other Person practising Medicine or Surgery, shall, in pursuance of a Summons from such Coroner, attend and be examined relative to the Death of any deceased Person, to grant to each Witness an Order, signed by such Coroner, upon the Treasurer of the County or County of a City within which such Inquest shall be held, for such Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds, as to such Coroner shall seem fit; and the Treasurer upon whom such Order shall be given shall pay the same to the Person presenting it; and the Amount of every such Payment shall be raised of the County or County of the City by the Grand Jury, in like Manner as other Sums authorized to be presented and levied by such Grand Jury.

Enabling Coroners to remunerate Witnesses with retainering Inquests.

IV. And be it enacted, That no Election for the Office of Coroner shall continue longer than Ten Days from the Day of the Delivery of the Writ for holding such Election.

Time of Elections limited.

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Attempts to murder in certain Cases in Scotland.

[4th Jan 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to make Provisions in Scotland for the further Prevention of malicious shooting and attempting to discharge loaded Fire Arms, murther, cutting, wounding, poisoning, and disabling His Majesty's Subjects; which Act did not extend to the Punishment of Cases of Attempts to murder by means of Suffocation, Strangulation, and Drowning: And Whereas it is expedient that a suitable Punishment should attach to such Cases, and that the Provisions relative to all the aforesaid Offences should be included in One Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the before-recited Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall be and the same is hereby repeated, except as to any Offences against the same committed before the passing of this Act, which shall be dealt with and punished as if this Act had not been passed.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall, within Scotland, wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully shoot at any of His Majesty's Subjects, or shall wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully present, point, or level any Kind of loaded Fire Arms at any of His Majesty's Subjects, and attempt, by drawing a Trigger or in any other Manner, to discharge the same at or against his or their Person or Persons; or shall wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully stab or cut any of His Majesty's Subjects, with intent, as so doing, or by means thereof, to murder or to maim, disfigure, or disable such His Majesty's Subject or Subjects, or with intent to do some other grievous bodily Harm to such His Majesty's Subject or Subjects; or shall wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully administer to or cause to be administered to or taken by any of His Majesty's Subjects any deadly Poison or other noxious and destructive Substance as Thing, with intent thereby, or by means thereof, to murder or disable such His Majesty's Subject or Subjects, or with intent to do some other grievous bodily Harm to such His Majesty's Subject or Subjects; or shall wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully attempt to suffocate or to strangle or to drown any of His Majesty's Subject or Subjects, with the intent thereby, or by means thereof, to murder or disable such His Majesty's Subject or Subjects, or with intent to do some other grievous bodily Harm to such His Majesty's Subject or Subjects; such Person so offending, and being lawfully found guilty, Actor, or Art and Part of any One or more of the several Offences herein-before enumerated, shall be held guilty of a Capital Crime, and shall receive Sentence of Death accordingly.

III. And be it enacted, That if any Person in Scotland shall, from and after the passing of this Act, wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully burn at or otherwise apply to any of His Majesty's Subject or Subjects any Sulphuric Acid, or other corrosive Substance calculated by external Application to burn or injure the Human Frame, with intent in so doing, or by means thereof, to murder or maim or disfigure or disable such His Majesty's Subject or Subjects, or with intent to do some other grievous bodily Harm to such of His Majesty's Subject or Subjects, and where in consequence of such Acid or other Substance being so wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully thrown or applied with intent as aforesaid, any of His Majesty's Subjects shall be maimed, disfigured, or disabled, or receive other grievous bodily Harm, such Person, being thereof lawfully found guilty, Actor, or Art and Part, shall be held guilty of a Capital Crime, and shall receive Sentence of Death accordingly.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if it shall appear, upon the Trial of any Person accused of any of the several Offences herein-before enumerated, that under the Circumstances of the Case, if Death had ensued, the Act or Acts done would not have amounted to the Crime of Murder, such Person shall not be held guilty of a Capital Crime, or be subject to the Punishment aforesaid.

V. And be it enacted, That nothing contained in this or in any other Statute entitling a Capital Punishment shall be held to affect or impair the Power of the Prosecutor to restrict the Pains of Law.

C. P. XLI.

An Act to amend the Laws for the Regulation of the Buttery Trade in Ireland. [18th June 1829.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of the Buttery Trade in Ireland, it is amongst other Things enacted, that Public Weighmasters or Joint Public Weighmasters and Tasters of Buttery shall, in Manner therein mentioned, be appointed in and for every City, Town Corporate, Place of Export, or Market Town in Ireland, from which Buttery is commonly shipped for Exportation, or wherein Buttery is bought or sold or exposed to Sale for the Purpose of Trade; and that no Person shall buy, sell, or expose for Sale any empty Cask or Casks for packing of Buttery within any City or Liberties thereof, Town Corporate, Place of Export, or Market Town in Ireland, before such Cask or Casks shall be weighed and branded by the Public Weighmaster or Joint Public Weighmaster, his or their Deputy or Deputies, in Manner therein mentioned; and that in case any Person shall buy, sell, or expose to Sale, within any City or Liberties thereof, Town Corporate, Place of Export, or Market Town, any empty Cask or Casks for packing of Buttery, not weighed and branded as aforesaid, every such Person shall incur certain Penalties and Forfeitures therein mentioned; and it is thereby further enacted, that all and every Cask or Casks of Buttery which shall be brought into any City or Liberties thereof, Town

Corporate,

Corporate, Sea-port or Place of Export, or Market Town, for Sale or for Exportation, shall, before the same is sold or exposed to Sale in or exported from such City or Liberties thereof, Town Corporate, Sea-port or Place of Export, or Market Town, be brought to some One of the Weigh-houses therein mentioned, there to be tasted, weighed, and proved by the said Weighmaster or Weighmen, Taster or Tasters of such City, Town Corporate, Sea-port or Place of Export, or Market Town, as the Case may happen to be, he, or their Deputy or Deputies, who is and are thereby required strictly, according to their respective Offices, to inspect the same, and before he or they mark or brand or approve the same, to see that such Butter be merchantable, and in case any such Butter shall not appear merchantable, such Proceedings are to take place, and such Forfeitures are to be incurred, as therein particularly mentioned; and when such Butter shall appear to be merchantable, the said Weighmaster or Weighmen, his or their Deputy or Deputies, shall and is and are thereby required to weigh the same, and to brand and mark on the Side of each Cask the given Weight thereof; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any Land-waiter, or other Revenue Officer intrusted with the lading or putting on board any Butter for the Purpose of being exported from Ireland, shall permit or suffer any Cask or Casks of Butter to be shipped or laden on board of any Ship, Boat, or Vessel, in order to be exported as Merchandise, without having been previously weighed, branded, and marked by the Weighmaster of the Sea-port or Place of Export where such Butter shall be shipped or put on board, as thereby directed, every such Land-waiter, or other Revenue Officer, who shall so offend, shall incur such Forfeitures as therein mentioned: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for the further Regulation of the Butter Trade in Ireland, it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act no Person shall sell or expose to Sale any Cask or Casks within any City or Liberties thereof, Town Corporate, Place of Export, or Market Town in Ireland, for packing of Butter for Sale or Export, or shall make up or pack any Butter in any Cask or Casks to be exposed to Sale or for Export in such City, Town Corporate, or Market Town, or Place of Export, unless such Cask or Casks be made of good seasoned Oak or Ash, Sycamore or Beech, whereof no Part to be of Dog Timber, and shall be full bound and made tight, and that each Cask shall hold Pickle, with Head and Bottom equally doled, and set to the Cross with good and sufficient Hoops on each Cask, or well rigged with good fresh Green Twigs; and it is thereby further enacted, that nothing therein or in any former Act contained shall extend to oblige the Proprietor of any Butter conveyed by Inland Navigation to the Port of Waterford, for Shipment there, to subject such Butter to inspection and branding at the Weigh-house of the City of Waterford; provided always, that such Butter shall have already undergone Examination, and been duly proved and branded according to Law at some sales of the Weigh-houses legally established in the Market Town where the said Butter was first exposed to Sale, and that the Brands so affixed, and designating the Quality and Quantity thereof and Place of branding, will remain without being effaced or obliterated at the Time of Shipment of such Butter from the Port of Waterford: And Whereas by another Act passed in the said Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for reviving, amending, and making perpetual an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the better Regulation of the Butter Trade of the City of Cork and the Liberties thereof, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; and by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for amending the several Acts in Force for making roads and convenient Streets, Ways, and Passages in the City of Cork and the Liberties thereof, and for paving, cleansing, lighting, and otherwise improving the said City, and for regulating the Court of Conservator established therein, various Regulations were made respecting the making or causing to be made, and the selling or exposing to Sale, of any Cask or Casks for the packing of Butter for Sale within the City of Cork or Liberties thereof, or for Export from the said City, and respecting the making up and packing of Butter in Casks, and the causing of Butter to be made up and packed in Casks, for Sale within the said City or Liberties, or for Export from the said City, and respecting the Sale or Exposure to Sale of Butter in Casks within the said City or Liberties, and respecting the overhauling of any Firkin or Keg intended for the packing of Butter, and respecting the outward Stowage of any Cask wherein Butter shall be packed for Sale or Exportation, and respecting the taking out of Butter from any Firkin or Keg by taring, and respecting the shipping or Exportation of any Firkin or Keg of Butter from the said City or Liberties thereof: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of the Butter Trade in Ireland, it is enacted, that nothing in the said recited Act so passed as aforesaid in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, or in any former Act contained, shall extend to oblige the Proprietor of any Butter conveyed to the City of Dublin for Shipment there, to subject such Butter to inspection and branding in the City of Dublin, unless such Butter be sold or exposed for Sale in the said City: And Whereas it is expedient to amend the Laws for the Regulation of the Butter Trade in Ireland, in the Manner hereinafter provided; he it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That nothing in the said recited Acts or in any former Act contained, nor any Charter or Charties heretofore granted, nor any Law, Custom, or Usage now or at any Time heretofore in Force, shall extend or be construed to extend to oblige any Person or Persons, or any Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, to subject any empty Cask or Casks for packing of Butter to be weighed and branded, in the Manner therein mentioned, within any City or Liberties thereof, Town Corporate, Sea-port, Place of Export, or Market*

Market Town in Ireland; or to oblige any Person or Persons, or any Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, to have any Cask or Casks of Butter brought to any of the Weigh-houses aforesaid to be taxed, weighed, and proved by such Weighmaster or Weighmasters, Taster or Tasters as aforesaid, before the same is or are sold or exposed to Sale in or exported from any such City or Liberties thereof, Town Corporate, Sea-port or Place of Export, or Market Town; or to render any Butten, not being merchantable, liable on that Account to any Forfeiture; or to subject any Land-waster or other Revenue Office to any Forfeiture or Penalty for permitting any Cask or Casks of Butter to be shipped or laden on board of any Ship, Boat, or Vessel, in order to be exported as Merchandise, without having been previously weighed, branded, and marked as before mentioned; or to oblige any Person or Persons selling or exposing to Sale Casks for packing of Butter, or making up or packing any Butter in any such Cask or Casks, to observe the Regulations in the said Acts or any of them contained, respecting the Materials of which or the Manner in which such Casks shall be made; or to oblige any Person or Persons buying or selling or exposing for Sale any supply Casks, or any Butten in Casks, to observe or comply with the Regulations herein-before mentioned or referred to, or any of them.

abolish the Offices of Weigh-masters,
Tasters, &c.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to abolish the Office of any Weighmaster or Taster or Deputy Weighmaster or Taster of Butten, or to prevent any Person or Persons offering any Butter in Casks or any supply Casks for the packing of Butter for Sale in Ireland, or about to export any such Butter or Casks, from requiring any such Weighmaster or Taster to weigh, taste, and prove, inspect, mark, and brand, any Cask or Casks of Butten, or any supply Cask or Casks for the packing of Butter, in the Manner in and by the said Acts prescribed, and subject and according to and in pursuance of all and every the Provisions, Rules, and Regulations in and by the said Acts in that behalf contained and made.

Annual Compensation to Weighmasters, in consequence of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, from Time to Time in order and direct that an annual Compensation or Allowance may be made and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to Weighmasters who may sustain any Loss in the Amount of their legal Fees in consequence of the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that no such Compensation or Allowance shall be made or paid to any Person who shall have been appointed to be a Weighmaster at any Time after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, nor to any Person being a Weighmaster appointed before the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, except such Person shall have been appointed to such Office by virtue or under the Authority of some Letters Patent in Force before the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of His late Majesty's Reign, or by virtue of some Charter of a City or Town Corporate in which a Weighmaster was in Discharge of the Duties of the Office of Weighmaster on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve.

Accounts shall show the Rates of Fees received, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every such Account shall state the Rate of each of the several Fees received by such Weighmaster, and for what Purpose and under what Authority such Fees have been received, and any other Matter and Thing which the said Commissioners of the Treasury may require to be informed of, and if the said Commissioners shall be dissatisfied with any such Account or any Article therein, or any Deficiency in any such Statement, or if any such Information be withheld when required, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to refuse to pay such Compensation, until they shall be fully satisfied with respect to any such Account, and every Matter and Thing therein contained.

Made of ac-
Amount of Compensation.

V. And for ascertaining the Amount of any Compensation to be granted under this Act, be it enacted, That every Person who shall apply for such Compensation shall lay before the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, within One Month after the First Day of January in each and every Year after the passing of this Act in which such Compensation shall be claimed, an Account of all legal Fees actually received by such Weighmaster for the Performance of the several Duties appertaining to the said Office of Weighmaster during the Year ending on the Thirty-first Day of December then next preceding, verified on the Oath of such Person, or his Deputy or Deputation, made before any Justice of the Peace, or before any Magistrate of the Town or Place in which such Person shall have executed such Office (which Oath such Justice or Magistrate is hereby authorized and empowered to administer); and if in any such Account the gross Amount of such Fees for each Year shall appear to be less, in consequence of the Provisions of this Act, than the usual Amount of legal Fees received by such Weighmaster on the Average of Three Years preceeding the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to order and direct that a Sum equal to the Amount of the Deficiency below such Average shall be paid to such Weighmaster out of the Consolidated Fund.

Account of Compensation to be laid before Parliament
yearly.

VI. And be it further enacted, That an Account of all Compenations made under this Act shall be laid before Parliament by the Commissioners of the Treasury within Fourteen Days after the Twenty-fifth Day of March in each and every Year, if Parliament shall be then sitting; or otherwise, within Fourteen Days after the First Meeting of Parliament in every Year after each Twenty-fifth Day of March.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fourth Year of His present Majesty, for the Amendment of the Laws respecting Charitable Loan Societies in Ireland. [13th June 1829.]

4 G. 4. c. 22.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the Amendment of the Laws respecting Charitable Loan Societies in Ireland, whereby certain Powers

Power and Authority were given to Treasurers, Clerks, and Officers of such Societies; and it is expedient to amend the said Act in such Particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases of the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any Treasurer, Clerk, or Officer of any such Society, at any Time before or after the passing of this Act, who shall have been or shall be appointed under the said entitled Act, all Cash and all Funds and Securities of or belonging to any such Society respectively, which at the Time of such Death, Resignation, or Removal shall have been or shall be in the Hands, Power, Custody, or Possession, or under the Control or Command of any such Treasurer, Clerk, or Officer so dying, resigning, or being removed, shall be and become vested, and shall be deemed to have actually vested, for the Use of such Society, in the Person or Persons who shall have been or shall be placed in the Room or appointed to the Office of such Treasurer, Clerk, or other Officer; and that any and every Treasurer, Clerk, or other Officer of any such Society, from Time to Time, for the Time being, shall have the same Power of suing for and recovering all and every Sum and Sums of Money, and of enforcing all and every Security or Securities, which were due or owing, or which were given in his Predecessor, or to any Person having previously held such Office, as under the said entitled Act could be enforced or executed by the Treasurer, Clerk, or Officer resigning, dying, or being removed, or to whom such Money was due or owing, or such Securities were given.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Treasurer, Clerk, or Officer of any such Society, to whom any Power of suing for or recovering any Sum or Sums of Money for the Use of any such Society is given by the said entitled Act or this Act, shall and may, and he is hereby authorized, empowered, and required to cause all and every such Sum or Sums of Money so recovered to be levied and paid in like Manner as any other Sum of Money recovered by any Person or Persons may be levied and paid according to Law.

Cash and Funds in the Hands of any deceased Treasurer, &c. of any Society, to be vested in his Successor, who may use an Authorization given to his Predecessor.

Treasurer, &c. may cause such Sums to be levied and paid.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs.

[15th June 1829.]

WHEREAS several Acts were passed in the Sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for consolidating the Laws of the Customs, and it is found necessary to make certain Alterations and Amendments therein: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty first Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, the several Enactments hereinafter contained shall come into and be and continue in full Force and Operation, for all the Purposes mentioned therein.

II. And Whereas by One of the said Acts, intitled An Act for the Management of the Customs, it is enacted, that the District comprehending the City, Suburbs, and Liberties of Dublin, and the Port of Dublin, and the several Creeks and Harbours thereof, and all Parishes, Parts, and Places of the City and County of the City of Dublin and County of Dublin, and all and every the Barrows, Parts, and Places of the same, shall be subject to the Rule and Government of the Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners of Customs in Ireland, in all Matters relating to the collecting, managing, and levying all Revenues of Customs within the same; and that all Complaints and Informations for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, for any Offence against or any Breach of any Act or Acts in Force in Ireland relating to the Revenues, Matters, and Things under the Management of the said Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners in Ireland, which shall be committed within the said District, shall (subject to such Appeal as is thereinbefore mentioned) be heard and determined by the said Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners, or any Two of them, who shall give Judgment and award Execution accordingly: And Whereas by the said last-mentioned Act it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners in Ireland, or any Two or more of them, and they are thereby authorized and empowered, from Time to Time, to appoint so many and such Subordinate Commissioners or Sub-Commissioners, in and for any and every District in Ireland (except in the District of Dublin), as the said Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, shall from Time to Time find necessary, to be approved of by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, for the Purpose of hearing and determining all Complaints and Informations for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture imposed by any Act or Acts in Force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Customs for any Offence against or any Breach of any Act, and to give Judgment and award Execution accordingly: And Whereas by another of the said Acts, intitled An Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, it is provided, that all the Powers vested in any Justices of the Peace by virtue of that Act shall be and the same are thereby vested in the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in and for Ireland, or any Two of them, and the Sub-Commissioners lawfully appointed in Ireland to hear and determine Complaints and Informations for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture imposed by that or any other Act relating to the Revenue of Customs, or any Three or more of such Sub-Commissioners, so far as regards any Offences committed in Ireland against that or any other Act relating to the Revenue of Customs: And Whereas it is expedient to make other Provisions for the Recovery of such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much of the said Two last-mentioned Acts as is hereinbefore recited, and also to much of an Act made in the said Sixth Year of His Majesty's Beign, intituled An Act to repeal the Statute Duties and Drawbacks on Flax Glass in Great Britain; and to impose other Duties and another Drawback in lieu thereof, throughout the United Kingdom; and to continue the Jurisdiction and Powers for recovering Penalties under Customs and Excise Laws in Ireland, until further Provision can be made, in relation to the Jurisdiction and Powers for recovering Penalties under Customs Laws in Ireland, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, except as to any Proceedings, which at any Time before the Commencement of this Act may have been or may be instituted under the Authority of the said Act or any of those.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures incurred or imposed by any Act relating to the Revenue of Customs, or for the Prevention of Smuggling, now in Force or hereafter to be made, for any Offence which at any Time after the Commencement of this Act shall be committed in Ireland, shall and may be used for, prosecuted, and recovered in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, or in the Name or Name of some Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs, by Agents of Debt, Bill, Pleas, or Information in the Court of Exchequer in Dublin, or by Information before any Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Ireland; and that all Powers and Provisions in the said recited Acts or any of them, or in any other Act or Acts contained, relating to the Recovery and Application of any such Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, shall extend, and shall be deemed, taken, and construed to extend, to the Recovery of any Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures in the said Court of Exchequer, or before any Justice of the Peace, in pursuance of this Act, and to the Application thereof, to all intents and Purposes as if such present Provisions were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

IV. And Whereas by One of the said Acts, intituled An Act for the general Regulation of the Customs, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful to re-import into the United Kingdom, from any Place, in a Ship of any Country, any Goods (except as therein excepted) which shall have been legally exported from the United Kingdom, and to enter the same by Bill of Store; And Whereas it is expedient to limit the Time for entering such Goods by Bill of Store: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Entry by Bill of Store shall be received, unless the Goods for which such Entry is required shall be re-imported into the United Kingdom within Six Years from the Date of their Exportation therefrom; but such Goods shall be deemed to be Foreign Goods, whether originally such or not, and shall also be deemed to be imported for the first Time into the United Kingdom.

V. And Whereas by the said last mentioned Act certain Restrictions are imposed on Spirits imported into the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to amend the same: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act as prohibits the Importation of Spirits in Bottles into the United Kingdom, except in Cases containing not less than Three Dozen repeated Quart Bottles, shall not extend or be deemed to extend to prohibit the Importation of Spirits into the United Kingdom in square-tipped Vessels, provided such Spirits are contained in Glass Bottles, any Law, Customs, or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

VI. And Whereas by the Laws now in Force certain Articles subject to an Inland Duty of Excise are required to be stamped, to denote the Payment of such Duty; and to prevent Fraud in the Evading of such Duty, it is expedient that Foreign Articles of a similar Description, when imported into the United Kingdom, should be stamped with such Mark or Stamps as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs may deem necessary, in order to distinguish the Foreign from the British Article: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and they are hereby authorized, after any Goods have been entered at the Custom House, and before the same shall be discharged by the Officers and delivered into the Custody of the Importer or his Agent, to mark or stamp such Goods in such Manner and Form as they may deem it and proper for the Security of the Revenue, and by such Officer as they shall direct and appoint for that Purpose.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Order made by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in respect of marking or stamping any Goods, shall be published in the London Gazette and Dublin Gazette.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time forge or counterfeit any Mark or Stamp to resemble any Mark or Stamp which shall be provided and used for the Purpose of this Act, or shall forge or counterfeit the Impression of any such Mark or Stamp, or shall sell or expose to Sale, or have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, any Goods with a counterfeit Mark or Stamp, knowing the same to be counterfeit, or shall use or affix any such Mark or Stamp to any other Goods required to be stamped as aforesaid, other than that to which the same was originally affixed, all and every such Offender or Offenders, and his, her, or their Aiders, Abettors, and Accessories, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

IX. And Whereas it is no longer necessary to distinguish Salt Cloth of British Manufacture from Foreign Salt Cloth, by any Impression or Stamp of the Maker's Name and Place of Abode: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for further encouraging and regulating the Manufacture of British Salt Cloth, and for the more effectual carrying the Duties now payable on Foreign Salt Cloth imported into this Kingdom, as directs that the Name and Place of Abode of the Manufacturer of any British Salt Cloth shall be stamped on the same, and also so much of the said Act as imposes any Penalty relating thereto, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

X. And Whereas by One other of the said Acts, intituled An Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, all Beasts belonging to the Whale or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, found within certain Limits, are for-

* Repeal.

"Be it, unless the Owners thereof have obtained a Licence for navigating the same from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs: And Whereas it is expedient to dispense with such Licences for Boats in the North and West Highlands of Scotland: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Owners of Boats used in Fishing on the Coasts of the North and West Highlands of Scotland shall not be required to obtain Licences for navigating the same from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, under the Provisions of the said recited Act: Provided always, that if such Boats shall be employed in Snuggling, the Owner or Owners thereof shall be liable to a Penalty equal to the Value of such Boat as employed in Snuggling as aforesaid, over and above any other Penalty to which the Parties may be liable on account of such Snuggling Transaction."

"XI. And Whereas by the said last-recited Act it is enacted, that all Vessels and Boats belonging in the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, having false Bulk Heads, false Haws, double Sides or Bottoms, or any secret or disguised Place whatsoever in the Construction of the said Vessel or Boat, for the Purpose of concealing Goods, or having any Hole, Pipe, or other Device in or about the said Vessel or Boat, adapted for the Purpose of running Goods, shall be forfeited: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the said Act to Foreign Vessels or Boats, not being square-rigged, coming to or arriving at any Port of the United Kingdom: Be it therefore enacted, That all Foreign Vessels or Boats not being square-rigged, coming to or arriving at any Port of the United Kingdom, having on board any Goods liable to the Payment of Duties, or prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom, concealed in false Bulk Heads, false Haws, double Sides or Bottoms, or any secret or disguised Place whatsoever in the Construction of the said Vessel or Boat, for the Purpose of concealing Goods, shall be forfeited."

"XII. And Whereas One other of the said Acts was passed in the said Sixth Year of His Majesty's Kings, included in an Act for registering British Vessels, and it is expedient to amend the same, by empowering Persons executing the Office of Collectors of Duties in any British Possessions within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, not under the Government of the Company, and where a Custom House is not established, together with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of any such Possessions, to make Registry of British Vessels, and grant Certificates thereof, under the Provisions of the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person duly appointed to execute the Office of Collector of Duties in any Port or Place in the British Possessions within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, not being under the Government of the said Company, and where a Custom House is not established, together with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of any such Possessions, to make Registry of British Vessels, and grant Certificates thereof, under the Provisions and Regulations of the said recited Act: any Thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding."

"XIII. And Whereas it is expedient to empower the Collectors and Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs only to make Registry of British Vessels, and grant Certificates thereof, under the Provisions and Regulations of the said last-mentioned Act, in those Colonies where the Offices of the Customs have been appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are under the Control and Management of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act as requires the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief in the Colonies, Plantations, Islands, and Territories to His Majesty belonging, in Asia, Africa, and America, where the Collectors and Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs have been appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are under the Control and Management of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to be a Party to the Registry of British Vessels to be there registered, and the granting Certificates thereof, under the Provisions and Regulations of the said Act, shall be and the same is hereby repealed: any Thing in the said Act, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding."

"XIV. And Whereas One other of the said first-mentioned Acts was passed for granting Duties of Customs, and it is expedient to amend the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, That instead of the Duties and Drawbacks imposed and allowed by the said last-mentioned Act, or by any other Act upon the several Articles mentioned in the Table contained in the said Act, and denominated a Table of New Duties Towards, 1825, the several Duties and Drawbacks set forth in Figures in the said Table shall, in respect of such Goods as are mentioned therein, be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, and be allowed, in like Manner as if such Duties and Drawbacks had been imposed in and by the said last-mentioned Act, or by any other Act, and had been set forth in the Tables thereto annexed; (that is to say,)"

C.A.P. XLIV.

An Act for improving the Police in and near the Metropolis.

[15th June 1829.]

WHEREAS Officers against Property have of late increased in and near the Metropolis; and the local Establishments of Nightly Watch and Nightly Police have been found inadequate to the Prevention and Detection of Crime, by means of the frequent Unfitness of the Individuals employed, the Insufficiency of their Number, the limited Sphere of their Authority, and their Want of Connection and Co-operation with each other: And Whereas it is expedient to substitute a new and more efficient System of Police in lieu of such Establishments of Nightly Watch and Nightly Police, within the Limits hereinafter mentioned, and to constitute an Office of Police, which, acting under the immediate Authority of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall direct and control the Whole of such new System of Police within those Limits: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to cause a new Police Office to be established in the City of Westminster, and by Warrant under His Sign Manual to appoint Two fit Persons as Justices of the Peace of the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Hertford, Essex, and Kent, and of all Liberties therein, to execute the Duties of a Justice of the Peace at the said Office, and in all Parts of those several Counties, and the Liberties therein, together with such other Duties as shall be hereinafter specified, or as shall be from Time to Time directed by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for the more efficient Administration of the Police within the Limits hereinafter mentioned; and His Majesty may remove either of the said Justices, if he shall see Cause so to do, and may, upon any Vacancy in the said Office by Death, Removal, or otherwise, appoint another fit Person as a Justice of the Peace of the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Hertford, Essex, and Kent, and of all Liberties therein, to execute the Duties aforesaid, in lieu of the Person making such Vacancy; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint any Person to be a Justice of the Peace by virtue of this Act, and for such Person, during the Continuance of his Appointment, to execute the Duties of a Justice of the Peace for the several Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Hertford, Essex, and Kent, and for all Liberties therein, although he may not have any such Qualification by Estate or as required by Law in the Case of any other Person being a Justice of the Peace for any County: Provided always, that no such Person shall Act as a Justice of the Peace at any Court of General or Quarter Sessions, nor in any Matter out of Sessions, except for the Preservation of the Peace, the Prevention of Crimes, the Detection and Commitment of Offenders, and in carrying into Execution the Purposes of this Act.

II. And be it enacted, That every Person to be appointed a Justice of the Peace by virtue of this Act shall, before he shall begin to execute the Duties of his Office, take the following Oath before some Justice or Justice of One of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; (that is to say,)

I, A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, execute all the Powers and Duties of a Justice of the Peace, under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the Police in and near the Metropolis.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to direct that an annual Salary, not exceeding the Sum of Eight hundred Pounds, shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to each of the Justices to be appointed under this Act, and that the same shall be payable quarterly.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Whole of the City and Liberties of Westminster, and such of the Parishes, Townships, Precincts, and Places in the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, and Kent, as are enumerated in the Schedule to this Act, shall be constituted, for the Purposes of this Act, into One District, to be called "The Metropolitan Police District;" and a sufficient Number of fit and able Men shall from Time to Time, by the Directions of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, be appointed as a Police Force for the Whole of such District, who shall be sworn in by One of the said Justices to Act as Constables for preserving the Peace, and preventing Robberies and other Felonies, and apprehending Offenders against the Peace, and the Men so sworn shall, not only within the said District, but also within the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Hertford, Essex, and Kent, and within all Constables attending at the Watchhouse in the Night may take Aid by Recognizance from Persons brought before the Petty Magistrate; such Recognizance to be conditioned for the Appearance of the Parties before a Magistrate.

In Default of Appearance Recognizance to be forfeit.

Time of Hearing may be postponed.

His Majesty may appoint a Person to be the Receiver of Liberties therein, have all such Powers, Authorities, Privileges, and Advantages, and be liable to all such Duties and Responsibilities, as any Constable duly appointed now has or hereafter may have within his County: but by virtue of the Common Law of this Realm, or of any Statute made or to be made, and shall obey all such lawful Comands as they may from Time to Time receive from any of the said Justices for conducting themselves in the Execution of their Office.

V. And be it enacted, That the said Justices may from Time to Time, subject to the Approbation of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, frame such Orders and Regulations as they shall deem expedient, relative to the general Government of the Men to be appointed Members of the Police Force under this Act; the Places of their Residence; the Classification, Rank, and particular Services of the several Members; their Distribution and Inspection; the Description of Arms, Accoutrements, and other Necessaries to be furnished to them; and which of them shall be provided with Horses for the Performance of their Duty; and all such other Orders and Regulations, relative to the said Police Force, as the said Justices shall from Time to Time deem expedient for preventing Neglect or Abuse, and for rendering such Force efficient in the Discharge of all its Duties; and the said Justices may at any Time suspend or dismiss from his Employment any Man belonging to the said Police Force when they shall think him negligent in the Discharge of his Duty, or otherwise unfit for the same; and when any Man shall be so dismissed, or cease to belong to the said Police Force, all Powers vested in him as a Constable by virtue of this Act shall immediately cease and determine.

VI. And be it enacted, That if any Victualler or Keeper of any House, Shop, Room, or other Place for the Sale of any Liquors, whether spirituous or otherwise, shall knowingly harbour or entertain any Man belonging to the said Police Force, or permit such Man to abide or remain in his House, Shop, Room, or other Place during any Part of the Time appointed for his being on Duty, every such Victualler or Keeper as aforesaid, being convicted thereof before any Two Justices of the Peace, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay such Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds, as they shall think meet.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Man belonging to the said Police Force, during the Time of his being on Duty, to apprehend all loose, idle, and disorderly Persons whom he shall find disturbing the Public Peace, or whom he shall have just Cause to suspect of any evil Design, and all Persons whom he shall find between Sunset and the Hour of Eight in the Forenoon lying in any Highway, Yard, or other Place, or loitering therein, and not giving a satisfactory Account of themselves, and to deliver any Person so apprehended into the Custody of the Constable appointed under this Act, who shall be so Attendant at the nearest Watch-house in order that such Person may be secured until he can be brought before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law, or may give Bail for his Appearance before a Justice of the Peace, if the Constable shall deem it prudent to take Bail, in the Manner hereinafter mentioned.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall assault or resist any Person belonging to the said Police Force in the Execution of his Duty, or shall aid or incite any Person so to assault or resist, every such Offender, being convicted thereof before Two Justices of the Peace, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay such Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds, as the said Justices shall think meet.

IX. And be it enacted, That when any Person charged with any Petty Misdemeanor shall be brought, without the Warrant of a Justice of the Peace, into the Custody of any Constable appointed under this Act, during his Attendance in the Night-time at any Watch-house within the Metropolitan Police District, it shall be lawful for such Constable, if he shall deem it prudent, to take Bail by Recognizance, without any Fee or Reward, from such Person, conditioned that such Person shall appear for Examination before a Justice of the Peace, at some Place to be specified in the Recognizance, at the Hour of Ten in the Forenoon next after such Recognizance shall be taken, unless that Hour shall fall on a Sunday or on Christmas Day or Good Friday, and in that Case at the like Hour on the succeeding Day; and every Recognizance so taken shall be of equal Obligation on the Parties entering into the same, and liable in the same Proceedings for the returning thereof, as if the same had been taken before a Justice of the Peace; and the Constable shall enter, in a Book to be kept for that Purpose in every Watch-house, the Names, Residence, and Occupations of the Party and his Surety or Sureties, if any, entering into such Recognizance, together with the Condition thereof, and the Sum respectively acknowledged, and shall lay the same before such Justice as shall be present at the Time and Place when and where the Party is required to appear; and if the Party does not appear at the Time and Place required, or within One Hour after the Justice shall cause a Record of the Recognizance to be drawn up, to be signed by the Constable, and shall return the same to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, with a Certificate at the Back thereof, signed by such Justice, that the Party has not complied with the Obligation therein contained; and the Clerk of the Peace shall make the like Returns and Schedules of every such Recognizance as of Recognizances forfeited in the Sessions of the Peace; and if the Party not appearing shall apply, by any Person on his Behalf, to postpone the Hearing of the Charge against him, and the Justice shall think fit to consent thereto, the Justice shall be at Liberty to enlarge the Recognizance to such further Time as he shall appoint, and when the Matter shall be heard and determined, either by the Dismissal of the Complaint, or by binding the Party over to answer the Matter thereof at the Sessions, or otherwise, the Recognizance for the Appearance of the Party before a Justice shall be discharged without Fee or Reward.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint a proper Person to receive all Sums of Money applicable to the Purposes of this Act, who shall be called "The Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District;" and His Majesty may remove any such Receiver, if he shall see Cause as to do, and may upon any Vacancy in that Office, by Death, Removal, or otherwise, appoint another Person to be such Receiver; and the Receiver for the Time being shall give Security to His Majesty, in a Bond, with Two Sureties, in such Sum as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland shall direct, such Bond to be conditioned for the faithful Performance of his Duty by such Receiver, and for the due Application of all Moneys paid to him under this Act; and the Receiver for the Time being shall receive all Sums of Money applicable to the Purposes of this Act, and shall keep an exact and particular Account thereof, and shall immediately pay all Moneys, Bills, and Notes by him received under this Act into the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England; and the same shall be placed to an Account in the Books of the said Governor and Company, which shall be entitled "The Account of the Public Moneys of the Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District," ~~showing the State of the Receipts for the Time being~~; and the said Receiver shall draw out of the Bank from Time to Time such Sums of Money as may be necessary for the Payment of the Salaries, Wages, and Allowances to be paid as hereinafter mentioned to the Persons belonging to the Police Force appointed under this Act, and also for the Payment of all other Charges and Expenses in carrying this Act into Execution; and every Draft or Order for Money on the Bank of England drawn by the Receiver shall be countersigned by One of the Justices appointed under this Act; and all Drafts and Orders so drawn and countersigned, but not otherwise, shall be a sufficient Authority to the Bank to pay the Amount thereof to the Persons named in them, or to the Bearer of them.

XI. And he it enacted, That the Receiver shall account for the due Application of all Moneys so to be drawn by him out of the Bank of England, and shall, once in every Six Months, and otherwise, if required by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, make out and sign a full and particular Account of all Moneys which shall have been received by him under this Act, and how much thereof hath been paid by him, and for what Purposes, together with proper Vouchers for the Receipts and Payments; and such Account shall be delivered, for the Purpose of being examined and audited, either to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, or to any other Person or Persons whom such Principal Secretary of State may from Time to Time direct: and the Receiver, if directed in account before the said Commissioners, shall be subject to the same Regulations and Penalties in that Respect as any Public Accountant.

XII. And he it enacted, That the Receiver, out of the Moneys so received by him, shall be allowed to partly satisfy and exceeding Sums lawfully payable, to be payable quarterly; and the Receiver, out of the same Moneys, shall from Time to Time pay to the Persons belonging to the Police Force appointed under this Act, such Salaries, Wages, and Allowances, and at such Periods, as One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall direct, and also any extraordinary Expenses which they shall appear to have necessarily incurred in apprehending Offenders and executing the Orders of either of the Justices appointed under this Act, such Expenses being first examined and approved of by One of the said Justices; and the Receiver shall likewise pay any further Sums which such Principal Secretary of State shall direct to be paid to any of the Persons belonging to the said Police Force, as a Reward for extraordinary Diligence or Exertion, or as a Compensation for Wounds or serious Injuries received in the Performance of their Duty, or as an Allowance to such of them as shall be disabled by bodily Injury received, or shall be worn out by Length of Service; and he shall also pay all other Charges and Expenses which such Principal Secretary of State shall direct to be paid for carrying this Act into Execution.

XIII. And he it enacted, That upon the Death, Retirement, or Removal of any Receiver appointed under this Act, the Balance of Cash for which he shall at that Time have Credit on his Account, as Receiver, with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall, as soon as a Successor shall be appointed to the Office of Receiver, actually vacated in such Successor, and shall be immediately transferred to the Account of such Successor, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act; and the Receiver for the Time being is hereby required to issue his Drafts or Orders, countersigned as aforesaid, for all unsatisfied Charges and Demands payable out of the Moneys in the Bank, although the same shall have accrued in the Time of any former Receiver.

XIV. And he it enacted, That if any Person having resigned or having been removed from the Office of Receiver shall neglect, within Twenty-one Days after Notice for such Purpose, to account for and pay to any succeeding Receiver all such Sums of Money as shall remain in his Hands applicable to the Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Receiver for the Time being, in his own proper Name only, or by his Name and Description of Office, to sue for and recover the same from such Person, with Double Costs of Suit, as in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, in which Action it shall be sufficient for such Receiver to declare as for Money had and received to the Use of such Receiver for the Purposes of this Act; and the Defendant in the Action may, at the Discretion of any Judge of such Court, be held to Special Bail in such competent Sum as the Judge shall order; and the Court in which the Action shall be brought may, at the Instance of either of the Parties, refer the Account in Dispute to a summary Master to be appointed by any Officer of the Court or other fit Person, who may examine both Plaintiff and Defendant upon Oath (which Oath the said Master shall have Power to administer), and upon the Report of such Master, unless either of the Parties shall show good Cause to the contrary, the Court may make a Rule, either for the Payment of such Sum as upon the Report shall appear to be due, or for staying the Proceedings in the Action, and upon such Terms and Conditions as to the Court shall appear reasonable; or the Court may order Judgment to be entered up by Certificate, for such Sum as upon the Report shall appear to be due.

XV. And he it enacted, That in case of the Death of any Person during the Time that he shall be holding the Office of Receiver, or wherby shall have resigned or been removed from such Office, the Receiver of Moneys applicable to the Purposes of this Act, who shall give Security.

Six Calendar Months after he shall have quitted the same, be capable of giving his Vote for the Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Hampshire, Essex, or Kent, or for any City or Borough within the Metropolitan Police District, nor shall, by Word, Message, Writing, or in any other Manner, endeavour to persuade any Elector to give, or demand any Elector from giving, his Vote for the Choice of any Person to be a Member to serve in Parliament for any such County, City, or Borough; and if any such Justice, Receiver, or Person belonging to the Police Force shall offend therein, he shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered, by any Person who will sue for the same, by Action of Debt, to be commenced within Six Calendar Months after the Commission of the Offence; and One Moiety of the Sum so recovered shall be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to the Receiver appointed under this Act, to be by him added to and applied as Part of the Funds for the Purposes of the Police under this Act: Provided always, that nothing in this Enactment contained shall subject any such Justice, Receiver, or Person belonging to the Police Force, to any Penalty for any Act done by him as or concerning any of the said Elections in the Discharge of his official Duty.

XIX. And Whereas some Time must elapse before a new Police Force can be appointed throughout the Whole of the Metropolitan Police District: Be it therefore enacted, That the Watchmen and others of the Night Police already appointed in any Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place within the Limits of the said District, may, notwithstanding the passing of this Act, continue to act in their respective Appointments, and shall be subject to the same Authorities as heretofore, until it shall be notified by the Justices appointed under this Act, that a new Police will be ready to undertake the Charge of any such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, on some Day to be specified in the Notice of the said Justices; which Notice shall be fixed on the Door of the Church or Chapel, or some other conspicuous Part of the Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, on Two Sundays previous in the Day named for the same to take effect; and upon the Day so named the Night Watch and other Night Police appointed within any such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, previously to or independently of this Act, shall be discontinued: and all Powers and Authorities for raising and levying any Rate in any such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, the Whole or any Part of which Rate shall be applicable to the Payment of the Night Watch or Night Police, or any Expenses incident thereto, shall, so far as such Powers and Authorities relate to any whole Rate so applicable, or to that Part of any Rate which shall be so applicable, cease and determine: and all Watch-houses and Watch-houses in any such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, and all Arms, Accoutrements, and other Necessaries provided at the Public Expense for the Night Watch and Night Police therein, shall be given up to such Person as shall be named by the said Justices, for the Use and Accommodation of the Police to be appointed under this Act: and in case any Person having the Charge, Control, or Possession of any Watch-house, Watch-bait, Arms, Accoutrements, or Necessaries as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to give up the same as herein-before required, every such Offender, being convicted thereof before any Two Justices of the Peace, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay, over and above the Value of the Property not given up, such Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds, as the said Justices shall think meet; and where there shall be any Building in any such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place as aforesaid, a Part only of which Building shall have been heretofore used as a Watch-house, such Part shall be given up every Day from the Hour of Four in the Afternoon until the Hour of Nine in the Forenoon, for the Use and Accommodation of the Police Force to be appointed under this Act: and if any Person having the Charge, Control, or Possession of any such Building shall neglect or refuse to give up such Part thereof for the Purpose aforesaid, or to permit free Access thereof or Egress therefrom, during any Portion of the Time above prescribed, every such Offender, being convicted thereof before any Two Justices of the Peace, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay such Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds, as the said Justices shall think meet.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Rate for defraying the Expenses of the Night Watch or Night Police in any Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, made previous to the Day on which the Police Force to be appointed under this Act shall undertake the Charge thereof, shall be levied and collected in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to effect or alter any Powers or Authorities for raising and levying any Rate in any such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, so far as such Rate may relate to paving, lighting, cleansing, or any other Object, except the Night Watch, Night Police, or any Expenses incident thereto.

XXI. And Whereas there are certain Parishes, Townships, Precincts, and Places in the Metropolitan Police District, in which Mosaic have been borrowed or advanced, and Debts contracted for the building of Watch-houses, and for various Expenses connected with the Night Watch and Night Police therein, and such Mosaic and Debts remain unpaid, and it is expedient that the same should be discharged: Be it therefore enacted, That all such Mosaic and Debts in any Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, of which the Police to be appointed under this Act shall undertake the Charge, shall, notwithstanding any Thing heretofore contained, be chargeable upon the Rates out of which such Mosaic or Debts have been heretofore in Part paid, or would have been payable if this Act had not been passed; and such Rates shall be from Time to Time assessed and levied for the Payment of such Mosaic and Debts until the same shall be entirely discharged and satisfied.

XXII. And be it enacted, That the Justices appointed under this Act, subject to the Approbation of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, may order such a Number of Watch-houses as they shall from Time to Time think fit to be placed or fixed in such Parts of the Highways in any of the ridges, Townships, Precincts, and Places within the Metropolitan Police District, as the said Justices shall deem most convenient.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That as soon as the Police to be appointed under this Act shall take charge of any Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, whether Parochial or Extra-parochial, within the Metropolitan Police District, it shall be lawful for the Justices appointed under this Act, forthwith, and so from Time to Time, subject to the Approbation of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to issue a Warrant under their Hands to the Overseers of the Poor of every such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place; by which Warrant they shall command the said Overseers, out of the Money collected for the Relief of the Poor in such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, to pay the Amount mentioned in the Warrant for the Purpose of the Police under this Act, or to levy such Amount as a Part of the Rate for the Relief of the Poor in such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, and that the Overseers shall pay over the Amount mentioned in the Warrant, to the Receiver to be appointed under this Act, within Forty Days from the Delivery of such Warrant to any One of the Overseers: Provided always, that the Sum to be paid for the Purpose of the Police under this Act shall not exceed in the Whole in any One Year the Rate of Eight-pence in the Pound on the full and fair annual Value of all Property taxable for the Relief of the Poor within such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place, such full and fair annual Value to be computed according to the last Valuation for the Time being acted upon in assessing the County Rate; and that the Warrant shall specify the Rate in the Pound at which the Sum mentioned therein shall be computed.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That where any Persons other than the Overseers of the Poor shall, by virtue of any Office or Appointment, be authorized and required to make and collect or cause to be collected the Rate for the Relief of the Poor in any Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place within the Metropolitan Police District, such Persons, by whatsoever Title they may be called, shall be deemed to be Overseers of the Poor within the Meaning of this Act, and to be included under and denoted by the Words "Overseers of the Poor," for all the Purposes of this Act, as fully as if they were commonly called or known by the Title of Overseers of the Poor.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the Overseers of the Poor of every Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place within the Metropolitan Police District, to whom any such Warrant as aforesaid shall be issued, shall pay the Amount mentioned in the Warrant out of any Money in their Hands collected for the Relief of the Poor; and if there be no such Money in their Hands, or an insufficient Sum, they shall levy the Amount required as a Part of the Rate for the Relief of the Poor, and shall for that Purpose proceed in the same Manner, and have the same Powers, Remedies, and Privileges as for levying Money for the Relief of the Poor; and such Overseers shall pay to the Receiver the Amount mentioned in the Warrant within the Time specified for that Purpose, and at the Time of making any Payment to the Receiver shall deliver to him a Note in Writing signed by them, specifying the Amount so paid, which Note shall be kept by the Receiver as a Voucher for his Receipt of that particular Amount: and the Receipt of the Receiver, specifying the Amount paid to him by the Overseers, shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Overseers for such Amount, and shall be allowed as such in passing their Accounts with their respective Parishes, Townships, Precincts, or Places.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That in case the Amount ordered by such Warrant as aforesaid to be paid by the Overseers in any Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place in the Metropolitan Police District, shall not be paid to the Receiver within the Time specified for that Purpose in the Warrant, the Justices appointed under this Act, upon Complaint thereof made to them by the Receiver, may issue their Warrant for levying the Amount, or so much thereof as may be in Arrear, by Arrest and Sale of the Goods of all or any of the said Overseers: and in case the Goods of all the Overseers shall not be sufficient to pay the same, the Arrears thereof shall be added to the Amount of the next Levy which shall be directed to be made in such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place for the Purpose of the Police under this Act, and shall be collected by the like Methods, and the said Justices, in case of any Default or Neglect of any Overseer or Overseers, or in any other Case in which One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall so direct, may appoint Two or more Persons to act as Overseers of the Poor within any Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place in the Metropolitan Police District, for levying the Money for the Purpose of the Police under this Act; and the Persons so appointed shall proceed in the same Manner, and shall have the same Powers, Remedies, and Privileges, and shall be subject to the same Regulations and Penalties, with reference to the levying of such Money, as if they had been appointed Overseers of the Poor by virtue of any Law or Laws now in Force.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That where any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments within the Metropolitan Police District shall be occupied by any Ambassador, Agent, or other Public Minister of any Foreign Prince or State, or by the Servant of any such Ambassador, Agent, or Minister, or by any other Person not liable by Law to the Payment of the Poor's Rate, all such Money as would by virtue of this Act have been payable for the Purpose of the Police by the Occupier of such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, if such Occupier had been liable to the Relief of the Poor, shall in such Case be paid by and recoverable from the Landlord or Owner thereof, who shall for this Purpose be deemed the Occupier thereof, and shall be liable to all such Proceedings for Nonpayment of such Money as any Person is by Law liable to for Nonpayment of Poor Rate.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That any Justice appointed under this Act, or any Person having an Order for that Purpose under the Hand of any such Justice, may inspect any County Rate made or to be made for any County, any Part of which shall be situate within the Metropolitan Police District, and may also inspect any Returns concerning all or any of the Parishes, Townships, Precincts, and Places, whether Parished or Extra-parished in the said District, delivered or to be delivered in pursuance of any of the Acts relating to County Rates, and may take Copies or Extracts from any such Returns or Returns without Payment of any Fee or Reward; and if any Person having the Custody of any such Return or Returns shall wilfully neglect or refuse to permit any such Justice or other Person to inspect the same, or to take Copies or Extracts from the same, within Two Days after such Order shall have been produced and shown to him, or a Copy thereof left at his usual Place of Abode, he shall, on Conviction thereof before any Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay for every such Offence such Sum, not exceeding Ten Pounds, as they shall think meet.

XXX. And he is enacted, That an Account of all Moneys received and expended for the Purposes of this Act, made up to the Thirty-first Day of December in each Year, shall annually be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Thirty Days thereafter, if Parliament be then sitting, or within Thirty Days after the first Meeting of Parliament subsequent to the closing of the Session, and such Account shall specify the total Sum charged upon and received from every Parish, Township, Precinct, and Place for the Purposes of this Act, the Rate in the Pound at which such Sum shall have been computed, and the total annual Value of the entire Property in every such Parish, Township, Precinct, and Place, as such total annual Value shall be stated in the last Valuation for the Time being acted upon in assessing the County Rates; and such Account shall also specify the different Heads of Expenditure for the Purposes of the Police, and the Amount actually expended under each.

XXXI. And Whereas it is expedient to provide for those Precincts and Places in the Metropolitan Police District in which no Rate is made for the Relief of the Poor, or in which Property may be deemed not to be rateable thereto: Be it therefore enacted, That the respective Inhabitants and Occupiers of all Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in any Precinct or Place, whether Parished or Extra-parished, in the Metropolitan Police District, although such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments may not be rated to the Relief of the Poor, or may be deemed not to be rateable thereto, shall nevertheless be liable to contribute to the Expenses of the Police under this Act, as if the Property so inhabited or occupied were rateable and rated to the Relief of the Poor; and the Justices appointed under this Act may from Time to Time, by Warrant under their Hands, appoint a proper Person to be an Assessor, for the Purpose of assessing the full and fair annual Value of such Property, and rating the same to a Police Rate to be levied under this Act: Provided always, that the Sum to be levied as a Police Rate shall not exceed in the Whole in any One Year the Rate of Eight-pence in the Pound on the full and fair annual Value of such Property: and such Assessor shall, within Forty Days after the Delivery to him of the Warrant of his Appointment, make, sign, and return to the said Justices an Assessment for the Precinct or Place named in such Warrant; and the Assessment shall be duly written in a Book, and shall specify, in different Columns, the Names of the respective Inhabitants or Occupiers of all Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, the full and fair annual Value of the same, and the Amount of Police Rate charged on the Inhabitants or Occupiers thereof; and, when the Premises shall be unoccupied, the full and fair annual Value thereof to let; and every such Assessor shall be allowed for his Travels and Expenses such Reimbursement as One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall direct, and the same shall be paid out of the Amount of the Police Rate which shall be collected after such Assessment.

XXXII. And he is enacted, That when such Assessment shall have been allowed by the Justices appointed under this Act, public Notice of such Assessment, and of the Place where the same may be inspected, shall be given by Selling such Notice on the Door of the Church or Chapel, or some other conspicuous Part of the Precinct or Place to which such Assessment shall relate, upon the Sunday next or next but One after the same shall have been so allowed; and any Person in whose Custody such Assessment may be shall permit every Inhabitant or Occupier of Property included in such Assessment to inspect the same, and to make any Extracts therefrom, without Payment of any Fee or Reward; and if such Person shall wilfully neglect or refuse to permit any such Inhabitant or Occupier to inspect such Assessment, or to make any Extract therefrom, he shall on Conviction thereof, before any Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay for every such Offence such Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds, as the Justices shall think meet.

XXXIII. And he is enacted, That the Justices appointed under this Act shall from Time to Time nominate One or more Persons or Persons for levying the Amount of Police Rate charged in every such Assessment, who shall proceed in the same Manner, and shall have the same Powers, Remedies, and Privileges, and shall be subject to the same Regulations and Penalties, with Reference to the levying of such Police Rate, as if he or they were an Overseer or Overseers of the Poor in a Precinct or Place rated to the Relief of the Poor, and shall pay over the Amount of such Police Rate to the Receiver to be appointed under this Act, or in Default thereof shall be proceeded against in the same Manner as Overseers are by this Act to be proceeded against for Nonpayment.

XXXIV. Provided always, and he is enacted, That if any Person, who shall have paid the Amount of Police Rate charged upon him by the Assessment made by an Assessor appointed under this Act, shall think himself aggrieved by such Assessment, on the Ground that such Assessment includes any Property for which he is not rateable under this Act, or that it assesses his rateable Property beyond its full and fair annual Value, or that any Person or Persons in or are omitted out of such Assessment, or that the Property of any Person or Persons is assessed below its full and fair annual Value, the Person so aggrieved may appeal to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions which shall be holden for the County in which the Cause of Appeal shall have arisen, not less than Twenty-two Days after public Notice of such Assessment shall have been given as herein-before mentioned, provided that the Person so intending to appeal shall give to the Receiver to be appointed under this Act a Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and of the Cause and Matter thereof, Ten clear Days at the least before such Session; and shall also, within Three Days after his Notice of Appeal, enter into a Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace of the County, with Two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal at the said Session, and to abide the Order of the Court: thereupon, and to pay such Costs as shall be by the Court awarded; and in case such Person shall appeal on the Ground that any Person or Persons is or are omitted out of the Assessment, or that the Property of any Person or Persons is assessed below its full and fair annual Value, the Party to appealing shall not only give such Notice of Appeal to the Receiver, and enter into such Recognizance as aforesaid, but shall also give a like Notice of Appeal to the Person or Persons so intimated in the Event of such Appeal as aforesaid, and shall enter into a like Recognizance within the Times herein-before respectively mentioned; and the Person or Persons so intimated shall, if he or they shall desire it, be heard upon the Appeal; and the Justice of the Peace at such Session, or some Adjournment thereof upon due Proof of the Notice having been given, and of the Recognizance having been entered into as aforesaid, shall hear and determine the Matter of the Appeal in any summary Manner, and shall make such Order thereon, with or without Costs to either Party, as the said Justice shall think proper; and in case the said Justice shall think the Appellant entitled to Relief, they shall order the Assessment to be amended in such Manner as may be necessary for giving him Relief, and shall also order any Money paid by him which he was not liable to pay to be returned to him; and in case he shall have appealed on the Ground that any Person or Persons is or are omitted out of the Assessment, the said Justice may order the Name or Names of such Person or Persons to be inserted in the Assessment, and to be therein rated at such Amount as they shall deem just; and in case the Appellant shall have appealed on the Ground that the Property of any Person or Persons is assessed below its full and fair annual Value, the said Justice may order the Amount at which such Person or Persons is or are rated in the Assessment to be altered in such Manner as they shall deem just; and the proper Officer of the Court shall in each of the Cases aforesaid forthwith amend the Assessment accordingly, but the Amendment shall not be quashed or altered with respect to any other Persons named therein; and the Determination of the Justice at any such Session or Adjournment shall be final and conclusive.

XXIV. And Whereas Circumstances may occur which may render it expedient that the Provisions of this Act should be extended to other Places in Addition to the Places which are enumerated in the Schedule to this Act, He it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty from Time to Time, by the Advice of His Privy Council, to order that any Parish, Township, Precinct, and Place, whether Parochial or Extra-parochial, to the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Hertford, Essex, and Kent, of which any Part shall be situate within Twelve Miles of Charing Cross in the City of Westminster; shall, after a certain Day to be named in such Order, be added to and form Part of the Metropolitan Police District, and be placed under the Charge of a Police to be appointed under this Act; and all Provisions herein-before contained with regard to the Discharge of the Night Watch and Night Police appointed previously to or independently of this Act, the Counties of their Powers, the Commission of the Peace for levying Watch Rates, the giving up of Watch-houses, or Parts of Buildings used as Watch-houses, Watch-houses, Arms, Ammunition, and other Accessories, together with the Penalties for Neglect or Refusal in that behalf, the Exception as to any Watch Rates previously made, and the Power to assess and levy Rates for Duties previously incurred, and also all Provisions herein-before contained with regard to the levying of Money for the Purposes of the Police, the levying thereof as a Part of the Poor's Rate, the Amount of such Levy, the Payment thereof to the Receiver, the Proceedings against Overseers for Default, the Addition of Arrears in the next Levy, the Appointment of Persons to act as Overseers, and all Provisions with regard to the Assessment of Property, and the rating of the same to a Police Rate by Assessors appointed under this Act, and with regard to the Powers and Duties of such Assessors, as well as all other Matters whatsoever previous to, concomitant with, or consequent or contingent upon such Assessment, shall apply and be enforced to every Parish, Township, Precinct, and Place which shall by Order in Council be added to the Metropolitan Police District, as fully and effectually as if such Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place had been originally included in such District by virtue of this Act.

XXV. And be it enacted, That no Misnomer or inaccurate Description of any Parish, Township, Precinct, or Place mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, or in any Order in Council to be made as aforesaid, shall prevent or in anywise affect the Execution of this Act, but that this Act and every Part thereof shall apply and be enforced to every such Parish, Township, Precinct, and Place, as fully and effectually to all intents and Purposes as if the same had been correctly named and described in such Schedule or Order in Council, provided that the same be designated therein to common intent and Understanding; and every Parish shall for all the Purposes of this Act be deemed to be included under and denoted by the Word "Parish."

XXVI. And for the more effectual Prosecution of Offences punishable upon summary Conviction by virtue of this Act, be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged, as the Oath of a credible Witness, with any such Offence before any Justice of the Peace, the Justice may summon the Person charged to appear before any Two Justices of the Peace, at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and if the Person charged shall not appear accordingly, then upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons, by delivering a Copy thereof to such Person, or by delivering a Copy to the Wife or Servant or some inmate of the Family of such Person, at his usual Place of Abode, the Justice before whom he ought to have appeared may either proceed to hear and determine the Case ex parte, or may issue their Warrant for apprehending such Person, and bringing him before them: Provided always, that the Prosecution for any Offence punishable upon summary Conviction by virtue of this Act shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months after the Commission of the Offence, and not otherwise.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That every Sum which by any Justices of the Peace shall be adjudged to be paid for any Offence against this Act shall be paid to the Receiver appointed under this Act, to be by him added to and applied as Part of the Funds for the Purposes of the Police under this Act: and so Person, although liable to the Payment of Money for the Maintenance of the Police under this Act, shall by reason thereof, or by reason of the Application of any Penalty to the Use of the Police Funds, be deemed to be an incompetent Witness before any Court or Justice or Justices of the Peace in any Proceeding whatever for any Offence against this Act, or in any Matter relating to the Money to be raised for the Maintenance of the Police, within any other Matter mentioned or referred to, and no Justice of the Peace shall be disabled from acting in the Execution of this Act by reason of his being liable to the Payment of any Money for the Maintenance of the Police under this Act.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Justices of the Peace, by whom any Person shall be convicted and adjudged to pay any Sum of Money for any Offence against this Act, may adjudge that such Person shall pay the same either immediately or within such Period as they shall think fit; and that in Default of Payment at the Time appointed, he shall be imprisoned in the Common Goal or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, where the Sum to be paid shall not exceed Five Pounds, and for any Term not exceeding Four Calendar Months, where the Sum shall not exceed Ten Pounds, and for any Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months in any other Case; the Imprisonment to cease in each of the Cases aforesaid upon Payment of the Sum due.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Justices before whom any Person shall be summarily convicted of any Offence against this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case may require; that is to say,

“BE it remembered, That on the Day of is the Year of our Lord

XL. And be it enacted, That no Conviction, Order, Warrant, or other Matter, made or purporting to be made by virtue of this Act, shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari or otherwise from any of His Majesty's Courts of Records at Westminster; and no Warrant of Commitment shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein, provided that it be thereon alleged that the Party has been convicted, and there be a good and valid Conviction to sustain the same; and where any Justices shall be made for levying any Money by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Summons, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceedings relating thereto; nor shall the Party distraining be deemed a Trespasser at all, on account of any Irregularity afterwards committed by him, but the Person aggrieved by such Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage, if any, in an Action upon the Case.

XLI. And, for the Protection of Persons acting in the Execution of this Act, be it enacted, That all Actions and Prosecutions to be commenced against any Person for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act shall be laid and tried in the County where the Fact was committed, and shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not otherwise; and Notice in Writing of such Actions, and of the Cause thereof, shall be given to the Defendant One Calendar Month at least before the Commencement of the Action; and in any such Action the Defendant may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and no Plaintiff shall recover in any such Action if Tender of sufficient Amounts shall have been made before such Action brought, or if a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court after such Action brought, by or on Behalf of the Defendant; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff shall become Nonvult, or discontinue any such Action after Issues joined, or if, upon Recovery or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant shall recover his full Costs as between Attorney and Client, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath by Law in other Cases; and though a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against

s. G. 4. c. 43. is amended by
s. G. 4. c. 45 and this Act
continued.

Secretary of State may direct that the Horse and Foot Patrol be placed under the new
when established.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Third Year of the present Reign, intitled An Act for the more effectual Administration of the Office of a Justice of the Peace in and near the Metropolis, and for the more effectual Prevention of Depredations on the River Thames and its Vicinity, for Seven Years, which Act was amended by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the present Reign, intitled An Act to amend an Act for the more effectual Administration of the Office of Justice of the Peace in and near the Metropolis: And Whereas it is expedient to continue the said first-mentioned Act as the same is amended by the said last-mentioned Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act of the Third Year of this Reign, as the same is amended by the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign, and by this Act, shall continue and be in Force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and then cease until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

II. And Whereas, in case of the Establishment of a new Police Office for the Administration of the Peace in and near the Metropolis, it may be expedient that the Horse and Foot Patrol, now acting under the Orders of the Chief Magistrate of the Public Office in Bow Street, should be placed under the Orders of such new Police Office: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to direct that such Horse and Foot Patrol shall be under the Orders of the Justices of such new Police Office when the same shall be established; and that any of such Justices shall have Power to administer, to all Persons who now do or hereafter may belong to such Horse and Foot Patrol, an Oath to the same Effect as the Chief Magistrate of the Office in Bow Street is empowered to administer by the said recited Act of the Sixth Year of this Reign; and the Persons taking such Oath shall have Power to act as Constables within the same Counties and Places as are mentioned in the said last-mentioned Act, and shall in such Counties and Places have all such Powers, Authorities, Privileges, and Advantages as any Constable now has or hereafter may have within his Constabulary; and it shall be lawful for each Principal Secretary of State to direct that the Receiver appointed under the said recited Act of the Third Year of this Reign shall, out of the Monies issued to him out of the Consolidated Fund, pay over in each Year to each Person as may be appointed, Receiver of Monies applicable to the Purposes of such new Police, such Sum of Money as may now by Law be applied to the Maintenance of the said Horse and Foot Patrol, the same to be hereafter applied towards defraying the Charges and Expenses of the said Horse and Foot Patrol, after the same shall be placed under the Orders of such new Police Office.

For removing Debts on to the Application of Penalties and Forfeitures recovered in favour of the Justices.

III. And Whereas it is expedient to remove all Debts respecting the Application of such Penalties and Forfeitures as may be recovered before any Justice or Justices at any of the Offices mentioned in the said Act of the Third Year of this Reign: Be it therefore enacted, That where by any Act or Acts any Penalties or Forfeitures, or Shares of Penalties or Forfeitures, are or shall be recoverable in a summary Manner before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, and by such Act or Acts respectively the same are or shall be limited and made payable to His Majesty, or to any Body Corporate, or to any Person or Persons whatsoever, none and except the Informer who shall sue for the same, or any Party aggrieved, in every such Case the same, if recovered or adjudged before any Justice or Justices at any of the said Offices, shall, notwithstanding any Thing in such Act or Acts respectively contained, be recovered for and adjudged to be paid to the Receiver for the Time being mentioned in the said Act of the Third Year of this Reign, to be by him applied for the Purposes of the said Act; and the same shall not in any Case be recovered by or adjudged to be paid to any other Person than the said Receiver, unless such Person be the Informer or the Party aggrieved; and each of the Justices at the said Offices, and their Clerks, and the said Receiver, are hereby released and indemnified from all Claims and Demands, except those of His Majesty, in respect of any Penalties or Forfeitures, or Shares of Penalties or Forfeitures, which before the passing of this Act shall have been received at any of the said Offices, and claimed and retained for or on Behalf of the said Receiver.

C A P. XLVI.

An Act for more effectually executing an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for the better Regulation of Drunkenness in the several Counties of England and Wales. [19th June 1829.]

s. G. 4. c. 46.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of Drunkenness in the several Counties of England and Wales, the Court of Quarter Sessions are empowered in certain Cases to make Orders for altering existing Divisions, and for constituting new Divisions for holding Petty Sessions, whereby in many Cases Parts of a Hundred, Wapentake, Ward, or other District in the Nature of a Hundred, will be ordered, for the Purposes aforesaid, from the same Body thereof, and such Hundred or other like District will thereafter be separate in Two or more Divisions: And Whereas by direct Acts it is required of High Constables to give Notice to, or to serve Process on, Petty

Constables,

Constables, Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, Surveyors of the Highways, and others, similar Duties may be cast upon High Constables by future Acts, and the Labour of executing such Duties will be increased by the Severance of the Hundred or other like Districts under the Provisions of the said recited Act, and Difficulties may arise in the due Execution of Processes in such Cases: For Remedy thereof, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever the Court of Quarter Sessions shall, under the said Provisions, make an Order for changing any Parish, Tithing, Township, or Place from one Division to another, or an Order for constituting any new Division, and it shall appear to the Court that any Inconvenience will arise from such Change if the High Constable or High Constables shall continue liable to perform the Duties aforesaid in respect to the Whole of his or their Hundred or other like District, the same Court of Quarter Sessions shall make an Order for remedying such Inconvenience, either by directing that where there are more than One High Constable, such Duties shall be divided between them, in such Manner as to the Court shall seem fit, or, if Circumstances shall so require, that the High Constable or High Constables shall be entirely excused from the Performance of a certain Portion of those Duties, and that the same Portion shall be performed by the High Constable of any other Hundred, or by some Petty Constable, Tithingman, or other Peace Officer, or by some other Person or Persons to be specified in the Order; and every such Order shall be binding on all Justices, Officers, and Persons whatsoever.

II. Provided always, That neither this Act, nor any Order to be made by virtue thereof, shall prejudice or affect the Rights of any Lord of any Hundred, Manor, or other Franchise, nor any Person claiming under him, otherwise than as to the Service of Process in the Cases heretofore mentioned or referred to.

Court of Quarter Sessions, on making Order for Division of any District, may at the same Time make Order exempting the Duties of the High Constable.

Act made to affect the Rights of Lords of Manors.

C A P. XLVII.

An Act to continue for One Year, and until the End of the next Session of Parliament, and to amend, Two Acts made in the Forty-seventh and Fiftieth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the preventing improper Persons from having Arms in Ireland.

[10th June 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to prevent improper Persons from having Arms in Ireland, and that the said Act was made in the Fifth Year of His said late Majesty's reign, the said recited Act of the Forty-seventh Year of His said late Majesty's reign was continued, and amended: And Whereas, by an Act made in the Fifth Year of His said late Majesty's reign, the said recited Act of the Forty-seventh and Fiftieth Years were continued, and are in Force until the End of this present Session of Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Two recited Acts of the Forty-seventh and Fiftieth Years of His said late Majesty should be further continued and amended: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, as the said Act is amended by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His said late Majesty, and by this Act, shall be and the said Acts are hereby continued, and shall be and remain in Force, from the passing of this Act, for One Year, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, as the same are amended by this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by any Order to be signed by him or their Chief Secretary, or in the Absence of such Secretary, then by the Under Secretary, as witness or magistrate any Penalty, Forfeiture, or Punishment which may have been or may be incurred by any Person or Persons for any Offence against the said recited Acts or either of them, upon such Terms and subject to such Conditions as to such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall seem fitting and expedient.

C A P. XLVIII.

An Act to authorize the Sale and Transfer of the Stocks or Funds standing in the Books of the Bank of Ireland on account of the Office of the Clerk of the Pleas in the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, and the Payment and Application of the Produce of such Stocks or Funds to the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

[10th June 1829.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to make Provision for amending, for a Time to be limited, the Profits of the Office of Clerk of the Pleas of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, it was among other Things enacted, that certain Persons, Clerks, and Officers in the said Act mentioned should deliver and transmit to the Auditor General of the Exchequer of Ireland One or more Accounts or Accounts, stating the several Sums of Money received for or on account of or by reason of the Fees or pecuniary Profits of or by or under Colour of the said Office of Clerk of the Pleas in the said Court, or of the several other Places or Offices in the said Act mentioned, during the several Periods and at the several Times and in Manner as the said Act mentioned and directed; and it was by the said recited Act also

eracted, that each and every Person who should deliver any such Account under the Provisions of the said Act should pay or cause to be paid into the Bank of Ireland, to an Account to be kept in the Books of the said Bank, and to be intitled "In the Matter of the Office of Clerk of the Pleas in the Court of Exchequer," the Amount of all Sums in such Account intitled to be received (subject to such Deduction as in the said Act is provided); and it was by the said recited Act further enacted, that all Money which should be paid into the said Bank to the Account in the said Matter should, under the Orders of the said Court of Exchequer, be laid out and invested in the Purchase of such Irish Government Stock as the said Court should direct, to the Credit of the said Account in the said Matter, and that the Interest of such Stock, and all Accumulation thereon, should in like Manner and under the like Orders be from Time to Time so laid out and invested; and it was by the said recited Act moreover enacted, that all Sums which should be so paid in to the said Bank of Ireland under the Provisions of the said Act should, notwithstanding the Expiration or Repeal of the said Act, remain in the Bank until Provision should be made by some other Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed for the Purpose of directing and authorizing the Payment and Application of the same, and to be paid and applied in such Manner as should or might be directed or authorized by such Act: And Whereas several Sums of Money have from Time to Time been paid into the Bank of Ireland in pursuance of the Provisions of the said recited Act, and, together with certain Interest thereof and Accumulation thereon, have been, under the Orders of the said Court of Exchequer, laid out and invested in the Purchase of Irish Government Stock in Manner by the said recited Act directed; and there is now standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, to the Credit of the said Account in the Matter of the Office of the Clerk of the Pleas in the Court of Exchequer, the Sum of Seventy-seven thousand six hundred and thirty-four Pounds One Shilling and Sixpence in the Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum Consolidated Annuities, transferable at the Bank of Ireland, and One Year's Interest remains due on the said Sum to the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine; and it is expedient that Provision should be made for directing and authorizing the Application of such Sum, and all Interest due thereon, to the Public Service: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at any Time after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, to order and direct that the said Sum of Seventy-seven thousand six hundred and thirty-four Pounds One Shilling and Sixpence so standing in the said Stocks, Funds, or Annuities, to the Credit of the said Account at the Bank of Ireland, shall and may be sold and disposed of by the said Governor and Company of the said Bank, or by the Cashier of the said Bank, at such Times and in such Manner and under such Regulations as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct and appoint; and the said Governor and Company or Cashier of the said Bank shall sell and dispose of the same accordingly: and the Produce of the said Stocks, Funds, or Annuities which shall be so sold and disposed of, and also the Amount of any Sum or Sums of Money which shall be due for Interest or Dividends thereon, or which shall be standing in the Books of the said Bank of Ireland to the Credit of the said Account, and which shall not have been received in any Stocks, Funds, or Annuities pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act, shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer in Dublin according to the Course of the said Exchequer, and shall be there carried in the Account of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be applied in such Manner as any other Monies carried to the Account of the said Consolidated Fund may by Law be applied.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled *An Act for the better Support of Her Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, all the Maroons, Messengers, Lards, Tensurers, Batts, Tilden, Woods, or other Household Monies (Advancements of Chamber and Vicarages only excepted), in England, Wales, and the Town of Bristol upon-Tweed, which then belonged or should thereafter belong to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Executors, were rendered inalienable, except for Term and Estates not exceeding Three Lives or Thirty-one Years, or in some Cases Fifty Years; And Whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Management and Improvement of the Land Revenue of the Crown in Ireland, and for other Purposes relating thereto, the Land*

Revenue

Revenues of the Crown of Ireland were rendered inalienable, except in the Manner and under the Powers and Provisions in that Act mentioned and contained: And Whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain, it was enacted, that the Revenues accruing to His Majesty by Rents of Lands, or for Fees of Leases of the same or any of them (except the Revenue of the Duchy of Cornwall), should, during His then present Majesty's Life, be carried to and made Part of the General or Aggregate Fund, and be, during the said Term, issued and applied in the Manner therein mentioned, except the Moneys which should be necessary to defray Expenses incurred in the Collection and Management of the said Revenues: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for repealing the several Statutes of Customs and Rates, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties comprising the Public Revenue, for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, the Produce or Manufactures of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain undischarged Moneys, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt, it was enacted, that the Revenues arising as aforesaid should, during the Life of His said Majesty, be carried to and made Part of a Fund to be called "The Consolidated Fund:" And Whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of the present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, it was enacted, that the Produce of all the Hereditary Rates, Duties, Payments, and Revenues in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, which, during the Life of His late Majesty, were by the Acts therein recited, in any or either of those, carried to and made Part, first of "The Aggregate Fund" and afterwards "The Consolidated Fund" of Great Britain, and all the Hereditary Revenues in that Part of the United Kingdom which were, by an Act of the Parliament of Ireland therein recited, carried to and made Part of "The Consolidated Fund" of Ireland, and which Hereditary Rates, Duties, Payments, and Revenues in England and Ireland respectively, at the Time of the Demise of His late Majesty, made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, should, during the Life of His present Majesty (subject to the Exception aforesaid), continue to be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that, after the Demise of His present Majesty, the same should be payable to the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors: And Whereas Sums amounting to the Whole to the Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds have been advanced out of the Consolidated Fund, under the Powers and for the Purposes of the following Acts, or some of them; (that is to say,) an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled *An Act for making a more convenient Communication from Mary-le-bone Park to the Northern Parts of the Metropolis, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in Chancery Lane, within the Liberty of Westminster, and for making a more convenient Passage for the river; another Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the further Improvement of the Land Revenue of the Crown; another Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to alter and enlarge the Powers of an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, intitled 'An Act for the further Improvement of the Land Revenue of the Crown'; another Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to enlarge the Time and Powers for carrying the New Street Act into Execution, and to extend the Provisions of an Act for ratifying an Agreement made with Lord Gage; and for the better Management and Improvement of the Land Revenue of the Crown; and another Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to sell out certain Bank Annuities now standing in their Names, and to apply the Produce thereof in Part Payment of a Loan of Three hundred thousand Pounds due to the Royal Exchange Assurance Company; and to facilitate the Sales of Fire-arm Arms, and of small Portions of the Land Revenue of the Crown; and for other Purposes: And Whereas it is provided, that the said Sums, whenever the Produce of the Land Revenues of the Crown in England shall come to be carried into and form Part of the said consolidated Fund, shall be and become a Loan upon such Land Revenue, and such Land Revenue will be thenceforth charged with the Repayment into the Consolidated Fund of the said Sums amounting to Six hundred thousand Pounds, together with Interest for the same: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to authorize the Application of Part of the Land Revenue of the Crown for the Repair and Improvement of Buckingham House the Land Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are authorized to direct the Application of such Portion of the Produce of Land Revenues of the Crown as they shall think necessary and expedient towards the Payment of the Expenses of repairing and improving Buckingham House, and the Buildings, Offices, and Grounds belonging thereto: And Whereas under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to amend in Chancery Cross, the Burnell, and Philip adjacent, the Powers of an Act for making a more convenient Communication from Mary-le-bone Park; and to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue to grant Leases of the Site of Carlton Palace, the Commissioners for executing that Act have borrowed for the Purposes thereof, on the Security of certain Parts of the Land Revenues of the Crown in England, the Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds: And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for the Management and Improvement of the Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, and for other Purposes relating

II. And he is further enacted, That all other Acts heretofore passed relative to His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks, and Chases, and to the Land Revenues of the Crown, in England and in Ireland or either of them, as far as the same are inconsistent with or repugnant to the Powers and Provisions of this Act, but not further or otherwise, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

III. Provided nevertheless, and he is further enacted, That the Repeal of the said several Acts hereby repealed shall not operate to revive any Act thereby repealed, nor shall the same annul or prejudice any Sale, Purchase, Composition, Grant, Lease, Enfranchisement, Exchange, Contract, Agreement, Bond, Mortgage, Security, Indemnity, Exonerations, Compensation, Charge, Responsibility, or other Act, Matter, or Thing, which at the Time of passing this Act shall have been made, done, given, effected, or agreed, or which shall have been confirmed, by Statute and by virtue of such Acts, or any or either of them, but the same shall remain as good, valid, and effectual, and all the Provisions in the said Acts respectively contained, for the Benefit or Security either of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or of any of the Parties to or with whom or in whose Favour any such Sale, Composition, Grant, Lease, Enfranchisement, Exchange, Contract, Agreement, Bond, Mortgage, Security, Indemnity, Exonerations, Compensation, Confirmation, Charge, Responsibility, or other Act, Matter, or Thing shall have been made, done, given, effected, granted, or confirmed, or with whom any other Transaction shall have taken place, under the Provisions of the said Acts respectively, shall, so far as regards His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and such Parties respectively, and all Parties claiming under them or them, remain and be of as full force and virtue as if the said Acts had not been hereby in any Manner repealed: and in case any Contract shall have been entered into, or any Proceeding instituted, before the Commencement of this present Act, under and by virtue of the said Acts or any of them, which shall not have been fully performed or completed, the same shall be proceeded with, performed, and completed under the Provisions of the said Acts, in the same Manner as if the same had not been hereby repealed, unless the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall think it more expedient to proceed with, perform, and complete the same under the Provisions of this Act, and in that Case the same shall and may be proceeded with, performed, and completed under the Provisions of this Act.

IV. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That the Repeal of the said Acts shall not extend or operate to exempt any Person or Persons from any Penalty or Punishment imposed by such Acts, or any or either of them, in respect of any Crime, Offence, or other Matter or Thing committed or done previously to the passing of this Act, but that such Punishment or Penalty shall and may be inflicted in the same Manner as if the Act or Acts by which the same is imposed had not been hereby in any Manner repealed.

V. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That notwithstanding the Repeal of the said Act of the Fifty-second Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, hereby repealed, the Woods, Woodlands, Harbours, and Fisheries thereby made Part of the Manor of King's Clee, shall continue a Part of that Manor, and not of the Manor of Dudley.

VI. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That notwithstanding the Repeal of the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, hereby repealed, such of the Beasts Somerly of William Henry White, therein named, and by the said Act vested in the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, as have not been already sold under the Provisions of that Act, shall be and remain vested in the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, upon the Trusts and for the Purposes, and with and subject to the Powers and Provisions, in and by the same Act declared and contained of and concerning the same, as fully and effectually as if the said Act had not been repealed, or the Provisions thereof, with respect to the said Beasts, had been re-enacted by this Act.

VII. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That notwithstanding the Repeal of the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, hereby repealed, the several Powers and Provisions thereby given to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Treasury, to borrow a Sum or Sums of Money, by way of Mortgage or Lease, on the Credit of the Possessions and Land Revenues in Ireland, in the Manner and for the Purposes therein mentioned, and the several Chances and Provisions therein contained for the Benefit or Security of the Mortgagees, or relating to such Mortgages, and also the several Powers and Provisions contained in the said Act relating to the Application of the Monies to raise from the Sale or Exchange of any Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, previously to their being applied to the same Purposes or Monies arising from Sales and Exchanges of Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England, shall remain and continue in Force, Operation, and Effect, as fully and effectually as if the said Act had not been repealed, or the said several heretofore mentioned Powers and Provisions had been re-enacted in and by this Act.

VIII. And he is further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all Houses, Harbours, Castles, Lordships, Manors, Forests, Chases, Woods, Parks, Mannors, Lands, Tithes, Fisheries, Franchises, Services, Rents, and other Land Revenues, Possessions, Tenements, and Harbours whatsoever (Admissions of Churches and Vicarages only excepted), which now do belong to His Majesty or hereafter shall belong to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, within the Obedience and Survey of the Court of Exchequer in England or Wales, in Ireland, in the Isle of Man and its Dependencies, and the the Idle of Alderney, whether in Possession, Remainder, or Reversion, (which said Manors, Hundreds, Castles, Lordships, Minors, Forests, Chases, Woods, Parks, Messuages, Lords, Tithes, Fisheries, Franchises, Services, Rents, and other Land Revenues, Possessions, Tenements, and Hereditaments, are hereinafter, for the Sake of Distinction, called "The Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates.") shall be under the Management of the present Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and of their Successors, so be from Time to Time appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by His or Their Letters Patent: and the said Commissioners, and their Successors shall continue to be called "The Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues;" and all Acts of Parliament, Deeds, Bonds, Contracts, Agreements, and other Instruments in which the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues are named or mentioned, shall apply to the said Commissioners for the Time of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, appointed and to be appointed as aforesaid, in the same Manner as they would have done if the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third had not been heretofore repealed.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and their Successors, shall from Time to Time observe, perform, fulfil, and keep all and singular the Orders, Rules, Instructions, and Directions, not being contrary to the Provisions of this Act, which from Time to Time shall be made or given to them by the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, touching or concerning the Execution and Discharge of the Duties of their Office.

X. And be it further enacted, That any Commissioner to be hereafter appointed as aforesaid shall, before he shall set on possession of such Appointment, take the following Oath, to be administered by the Chief Baron or One of the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer; (that is to say),

"I, A. B. do swear, That I will truly, honestly, faithfully, and diligently execute the Duties of a Commissioner of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues."

"So help me GOD."

XI. And be it further enacted, That the present First Commissioner shall, so long as he shall remain such First Commissioner, continue to receive the Salary of Two thousand Pounds per Annum, and the other present Commissioners shall, so long as they shall respectively remain such Commissioners, continue to receive the Salary of One thousand two hundred Pounds each, granted to them respectively by the Letters Patent by which they have been appointed; and that by the Letters Patent by which any future Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall be appointed, His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, may grant to the several Persons therein named as such Commissioners the following Salaries and Allowances: (that is to say,) to the Person first named therein, who shall be Chairman of the Commission, a Salary of Two thousand Pounds per Annum, and to the other Commissioners a Salary of One thousand two hundred Pounds per Annum each; which Salaries shall be clear of all Fees and Deductions, and shall be paid by Four equal quarterly Payments, on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October in every Year, and the first Payment of his Salary to every Commissioner who shall hereafter be appointed shall be made on each of the said quarterly Days of Payment as shall first arrive after the Day of his Appointment; and if any present or future Commissioner shall resign or be removed from his Office, or die in the Interval between any Two of the aforesaid Days of Payment, such Commissioner, his Executors or Administrators, shall be paid a proportionable Part of his Salary for the Time which shall have elapsed since the last quarterly Day of Payment thereof; and if any future Commissioner shall be appointed in the Interval between any Two of the aforesaid Days of Payment, he shall be entitled, on each of the said quarterly Days of Payment, as shall first arrive after his Appointment, to a proportionable Part only of his Salary for the Time which shall have elapsed since his Appointment.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, from Time to Time as they shall think proper, to remove any Deputies, Clerks, Receivers, Surveyors, or other Officers already appointed to or exercising or enjoying any Office connected with or relating to the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, or who shall be hereafter appointed under the Provisions of this Act; and that it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners, from Time to Time as they may think proper, to appoint such Deputies, Clerks, Receivers, Surveyors, and other Officers as shall be necessary or proper for the due Execution of this Act, and to remove them at Pleasure; and all and every the Deputies, Clerks, Receivers, Surveyors, and other Officers, already appointed and to be appointed as aforesaid, shall have, receive, and enjoy such Salaries respectively, and payable at such Days or Times respectively, as shall be in that Behalf from Time to Time directed by the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Officer to be appointed to any Office by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Authority of this Act, shall take the following Oath, to be administered to him by any One or more of the said Commissioners, or if the said Commissioners shall direct, and any such Officer shall be sworn before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, thus by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate; (that is to say),

"I, A. B. do swear, That I will truly, honestly, faithfully, and diligently execute the Duties of the Office to which I have been appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues from Time to Time to appoint such Persons as they shall think fit, to be the Stewards of any Hundreds, Honors, Mannors, or Lordships, being Part of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, with Power and Authority to hold and keep all and singular Hundred Courts, Courts Leet, Views of Frankpledge, Courts Baron, and customary and other Courts within the Limits and Precincts of such Hundreds, Honors, Mannors, or Lordships respectively, and to perform and execute all Things belonging or incident to such Offices; and also from Time to Time in like Manner to appoint such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners should think fit, to execute all usual and customary forestal Offices, and to preserve the Deer, Beasts and Birds of Chase or Warren, and other Game, within any such Hundreds, Mannors, or Lordships, or any of the Royal Forests, Parks, Chases, or Warrens, or the Mannors or Precincts thereof, being Part of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates; and also to preserve the Fish belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in any of the Waters within the Limits Precincts aforesaid; and on His Majesty's Behalf to grant Licenses to any Person or Persons to hunt, hawk, fish, and fowl within any such Hundreds, Honors, Mannors, Lordships, Forests, Parks, Chases, Warrens, and Waters respectively, and the Precincts thereof, and Places thereto adjoining, and to take and kill any such Deer, Beasts or Birds of Chase or Warren; also to take, seize, and destroy all unlawful Dogs, Nets, Gears, and Engines used for the taking or destroying of Deer, Beasts or Birds of Chase or Warren, or other Game and Fish, and the same Appointments and Licenses respectively, or any of them, again at Pleasure to revoke; and also to allow to any such Stewards, Gamekeepers, or other Officers respectively, such Salaries, Wages, or Emoluments as the said Commissioners, with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, shall deem an adequate Remuneration for their Care and Trouble in executing the Duties of their respective Offices or Employments; and all such Appointments as to be made as aforesaid shall be good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and have such and the like Force and Effect as if the same had been made by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the First Commissioner of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being shall and may receive and send Letters and Packets then from the Duty of Postage, in such Manner and under such Restrictions as other Officers mentioned in an Act made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in relation to the sending and receiving Letters and Packets free from the Duty of Postage, and also in another Act, made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to authorize the sending and receiving Letters and Packets, Votes, Proceedings in Parliament, and printed Newspapers, by the Post, free from the Duty of Postage, by the Members of the Two Houses of Parliament of the United Kingdom, and by certain Public Officers therein named, and for reducing the Postage of such Votes, Proceedings, and Newspapers when sent by any other Persons, and thereby permitted in respect of their Office, to send and receive the same.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That when any Thing is by this Act or shall by any future Act be required, directed, or permitted to be done by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, the same may be done by any Two of them, unless express Provision to the contrary shall be made by such further Act, and if done by any Two of them shall be as valid and effectual as if done by all of them; and when any Thing is by this Act or shall by any future Act be required, directed, or permitted to be done by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, relative to the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, the same may be done by any Three of them, unless express Provision to the contrary shall be made by such future Act, and if done by any Three of them, shall be as valid and effectual as if done by all of them.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this Act, or to be contained in any Mortgage, Contract, Lease, or other Instrument hereby authorized to be entered into, made, taken, or executed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any of them, shall extend to charge the Person or Person of all or any of the Commissioners executing any such Mortgage, Contract, Lease, or other Instrument, or the Heirs, Executors, or Administrators of the same Commissioners, or any of them, or their or any of their own proper Lodes, Tenements, Goods, or Chattels, with or for the Performance of all or any of the Covenants, Conditions, or Agreements in the same Mortgage, Contract, Lease, or other Instrument to be contained, as the Part of the same Commissioners or any of them; but the Amount of all Sums, Costs, Charges, Damages, and Expenses which shall or may be recovered in any Suit or Suits at Law or in Equity against them, the said Commissioners or any of them, or against their or any of their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, for or by Reason or Means of any such Mortgage, Contract, Lease, or other Instrument, or the Covenants, Conditions, or Agreements therein contained; and also all the Costs, Charges, Damages, and Expenses which the said Commissioners or any of them, or their or any of their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, shall bear, pay, expend, or be put to, or which shall be accounted to them, for or by Reason or Means of any such Mortgage, Contract, Lease, or other Instrument, or any Covenants, Conditions, or Agreements therein contained, or any Actions or Actions, Suits or Suits, to be brought or prosecuted by or against them or any of them aforesaid, shall respectively be paid and discharged by and out of the Monies to be raised, arise, or be received from the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates.

the Mode of attending the Accounts of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, it was enacted, that from and after the respective Deaths of William Henry Cooper and Frederick Grey Cooper, Sons of Sir Grey Cooper Bartonet, Henry Shelly and Thomas Johnson Esquires, the then Auditors of the Land Revenue in England and Wales, the said Offices respectively should cease and determine; and further, that if during the Continuance of the Patent granted to William Henry Cooper and Frederick Grey Cooper a Vacancy should happen in the Offices of Auditor for Chester, Derby, Lincoln, and Nottingham, or in the Office of the Auditor for the Principality of Wales, by the Deaths of the said then Auditors for the Counties of Chester, Derby, Lincoln, and Nottingham, and of the Principality of Wales respectively, the Duty assigned to each of the said Offices should be performed, by and with the Approbation and under the Authority and Appointment of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, by the Persons who should then be the Acting Deputies in the respective Departments, subject to such an Allotment of the Fees and Emoluments of Office, and under such other Regulations, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury should think fit to direct, and the Surplus of such Fees should be carried to the Consolidated Fund; and further, that all the Accounts theretofore examined, tried, and audited by or in the Offices of the several Auditors of the Land Revenue of the Crown in England and Wales, or in either of them, should, after the Determination of the respective Intervals of each of the aforesaid Counties respectively, be examined, tried, and audited by the Commissioners for examining and auditing the Public Accounts of the Kingdom, appointed under the Authority of an Act of the Twenty-fifth Year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better examining and auditing the Public Accounts of the Kingdom; and they were thereby invested with all the same Powers and Authorities for the examining, trying, and auditing the several Accounts aforesaid, as were then vested in them by virtue of the said Act of the Twenty-fifth Year of His late Majesty, for the examining, trying, and auditing the Public Accounts of the Kingdom, or as were then vested in the said respective Counties by any Law, Usage, or Custom; and it was by the said Act further enacted, that all Leases and Grants within the said respective Audits which from and after the Abolition of each of the said Offices respectively shall be made and granted of any Part or Parts of the Land Revenue of the Crown in England and Wales, and all such Assignments and Assignments which should from such Periods respectively be made of any Lease or Grant from the Crown, should be enrolled and entered in the Office of the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, in the same Manner and Form as they had been used and accustomed to be enrolled and entered in the respective Offices of the said Auditors of the Land Revenue; And Whereas since the passing of the said Act the Offices of Auditors for Chester, Derby, Lincoln, and Nottingham, and for the Principality of Wales have ceased and determined by the Deaths of the said Henry Shelly and Thomas Johnson Esquires, but the said William Henry Cooper and Frederick Grey Cooper are still living, and since the Deaths of the said Henry Shelly and Thomas Johnson respectively the Duties of their said Office have been performed, pursuant to the said Act, by Acting Auditors in the said Offices respectively; He it is therefore enacted, That until the Determination of the said remaining Office of Auditor of the Land Revenue, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, on the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the present Acting Auditors in the said Offices of Auditors of the Land Revenue of the Crown for the Counties of Chester, Derby, Lincoln, and Nottingham, and for the Principality of Wales, or of any Persons who may be appointed such Acting Auditors under the said Act, to appoint any other Persons to be such Acting Auditors, subject to such an Allotment of the Fees and Emoluments of Office, and under such other Regulations, as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners shall think fit to direct, and to restore the said present and future Acting Auditors at pleasure.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That until the Determination of the said remaining Office of Auditor of the Land Revenue of the Crown in England, the Accounts of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue shall be examined, tried, and audited by the said remaining Auditors, and by the said present and future Acting Auditors; which said Acting Auditors shall be said they are hereby invested with the same Powers and Authorities for the examining, trying, and auditing the said Accounts, and subject to the Performance of the same Duties, and liable to the same Control, as the said Auditors of the Land Revenue for the Counties of Chester, Derby, Lincoln, and Nottingham, and the Principality of Wales, were by Law, Usage, or Custom invested with or subject and liable to at the Time of passing the said recited Act; and after the Determination of the said remaining Office of Auditor of the Land Revenue of the Crown in England the said Accounts of the said Commissioners shall be examined, tried, and audited by the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, pursuant to the Provision of the said last-recited Act.

XX. And be it further enacted, That until the Determination of the said remaining Office of Auditor of the Land Revenue the Acting Auditor for Wales for the Time being, or the Receiver for the Time being of the Rents, Issues, Revenues, and Profits of the Possessions and Land Revenue of the Crown in Wales, or any other Person to be appointed for that Purpose by the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Treasury, shall have the same Powers of auditing and allowing the Accounts of the Sheriffs of Wales, and for giving Quittances and administering Oaths in respect of such Accounts, as by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Henry the Eighth, intituled An Act for certain Orderance in the King's Majesty's Dominions and Principality of Wales; and an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled An Act for the better regulating the Office of Sheriff, and for accounting ascertaining their Fees, and the Fees for suing out their Writs and paying their Accounts, are given to the Auditors of the Principality of Wales.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That any One of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being may sit and vote as a Member of the House of Commons of the United Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that only One of such Commissioners shall be capable of sitting at the same Time.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues from Time to Time to demise and lease, and to enter into any Contract or Agreement for demising and leasing, to any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, any Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, for any Term not exceeding Thirty-one Years from the Time of making the Lease or Agreement for a Lease.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in any of the Instances hereinafter mentioned it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues from Time to Time to demise and lease, or to enter into any Contract or Agreement for demising and leasing, any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, to any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years from the Time of making such Lease or Agreement, [that is to say,] of Tenements or Hereditaments, the greater Part of the yearly Value of which shall at the Time of making the Lease or Agreement consist of any Building or Buildings, of Land or Ground proper for the Erection of any Houses or other Buildings thereupon, with or without Gardens, Yards, Carriages, or other Appurtenances to be used therewith, and where the Lessee or intended Lessee shall covenant or agree to erect a Building or Buildings thereon of greater yearly Value than such Land or Ground, of Land or Ground proper for Gardens, Yards, Carriages, or other Appurtenances to be used with any other House or other Building erected or to be erected on any Ground belonging either to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or to any other Proprietor, or proper for any other Purpose calculated to afford Convenience or Accommodation to the Occupiers of any such House or Building.

XXXIV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That no Land or Ground proper for Gardens, Yards, Carriages, or other Appurtenances, to be used with any House or other Building erected or to be erected on any Ground belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or proper for any other Purpose calculated to afford Convenience or Accommodation to the Occupier or Occupiers of any such House or Building, shall, under the Provision herebefore contained, authorizing the same to be demised for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years, be demised or agreed to be demised for any Term which shall extend beyond the Duration of the subsisting Lease or Lessee of the House or Building to which the same shall be intended to be attached.

XXXV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That the Powers of leasing herebefore given shall not extend to the demising or leasing of any of the Royal Forests, Parks, or Chases in England, or any Part or Parts thereof.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That any Lease hereby authorized to be made may be made either to take effect as a Lease in Possession or as a Lease of the Reversion, subject to any existing Lease, or by way of future Interest, provided the same be not made for any Term which will extend beyond Thirty-one Years; or where a Lease for a Term of Ninety-nine Years is hereby authorized to be made, then provided such Lease be not made for any Term which will extend beyond Ninety-nine Years from the Time when such Lease shall be made, or if made in pursuance of a previous Agreement, then from the Time when such Agreement shall have been made.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That in all Leases to be granted under the Authority of this Act the Rents shall be reserved and made payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, free and clear of all Manner of Taxes and Assessments whatsoever; and in each such Lease there shall be contained a Provision or Condition for Re-entry on Nonpayment of the Rent thereby reserved, or Nonobservance or Nonperformance of the Covenants therein contained, and on the Part of the Lessee or Lessees to be observed or performed; and the Lessee or Lessees agreed in each such Lease shall execute a Counterpart thereof; and in no Lease shall the Lessee or Lessees be made responsible for Waste, except in Leases of Mines, Minerals, Quarries, or Collieries, and in Leases to be made under the Power herebefore given of leasing for a Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years, in which Leases the Lessee or Lessees may be made responsible for Waste, if the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall think proper.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in every Lease to be granted under the Power herebefore given there shall be reserved and made payable during the Whole of the Term thereby granted such clear yearly Rent as to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall appear a reasonable Rent or Consideration for such Lease, without taking any Fine for the same, except as hereinafter mentioned.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in estimating the Amount of any Rent to be reserved on any Lease to be granted under the Powers of this Act it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to take into Consideration the Surrender of any existing Lease of the Property comprised in the Lease to be so granted, or any Part thereof; and the Acceptance of such Surrender shall not be considered in the taking a Fine within the Meaning of the said last-mentioned Provision.

One Commissioner may sit in Parliament.

Commissioners may grant Leases for 31 Years.

Leases of certain Buildings, and of Ground for Building on, or for building Gardens, &c. may be made for 99 Years.

Leases for Gardens not to extend beyond Duration of Lease of House in which same shall be attached.

As to Royal Forests, &c.

Leases may be either in Possession or Reversion.

Provision to be inserted in granting Leases.

Leases to be at Rack Rent, except in the Cases after mentioned.

Effect.

XXX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in any Lease to be granted under any of the Powers herein-before given, of any Land or Ground, Tenements or Hereditaments, where at the Time of granting such Lease (or if such Lease shall be granted in pursuance of a previous Agreement, at the Time when such Agreement shall have been made,) there shall not be any substantial Building or Buildings upon the Land or Ground to be demised, and the Lessee or Lessees shall agree to erect on such Land or Ground any Building or Buildings of greater yearly Value than the Land or Ground demised or agreed to be demised, it shall be lawful to reserve, during any Period not exceeding the first Three Years of the Term thereby granted, a rental thereon, or such other Rent only as to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall seem fit.

XXXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in any Lease to be granted for any Term not exceeding Twenty-one Years, under the Power herein-before given, of any Land or Ground, Tenements or Hereditaments, where at the Time of granting such Lease, or (if such Lease shall be granted in pursuance of a previous Agreement) at the Time when such Agreement shall have been made, there shall be any substantial Building or Buildings upon the Land or Ground to be demised, and the Building or Buildings thereupon shall not require or shall not be intended or agreed to be rebuilt, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to take a Fine on the granting of any such Lease, provided that such Fine shall not be taken in lieu of any further Part than One Third of such annual Sum as it shall appear to them would have been a reasonable Rent or Consideration for such Lease in case no Fine had been taken, the Remainder of such annual Sum being reserved by way of Rent; and the Amount of the Fine to be so taken shall not be less than the Sum to which the Portion of the annual Sum in lieu of which it shall be taken would have amounted during the Term to be granted, deducting a Discount, to be computed by way of Compound Interest, at no higher Rate than the highest legal Rate of Interest in England, if the Property to be demised shall be in England or Wales, or than the highest legal Rate of Interest in Ireland, if the Property to be demised shall be in Ireland.

XXXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That any Lease of the Profits of Pits and Past Fines arising within the Principality of Wales and County Palatine of Chester, the Profits of Tolls, Markets, and Fairs, Tithes, Fisheries, Ferries, and other Articles of uncertain Produce, may be granted at such Rent only, or at such Rent and for such Fine, as to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall seem proper.

XXXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in any Leases of Mines, Collieries, or Quarries, it shall be lawful to reserve either an annual Rent in Money, or any annual Rent in Money and such Share of the Produce in Kind, or such Rent or Duty upon the Quantity or Value of such Produce, as the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall think proper.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from Time to Time, to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for the Sale of, and absolutely to make Sale and dispose of, for such Sum or Sums of Money as to them shall appear a sufficient Consideration for the same, any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, not being Part or Parcel of any of the Royal Forests, Parks, or Chases in England.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall have contracted or agreed with any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, under the Authority of this Act, for the Sale to him, her, or them of any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates (not being any subsisting Lease which may have been purchased or taken as hereinafter mentioned), the Purchaser or Purchasers, in case the Purchase Money shall amount to the Sum of One hundred Pounds, shall cause the same to be paid into the Bank of England, or if the Hereditaments purchased shall be situated in Ireland, then either into the Bank of England, or the Bank of Ireland, at his or their Option; and the Cashiers of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, as the Case may be, or One of such Cashiers, shall, upon the Production of any Note signed by the said Commissioners, specifying the Sum to be so paid, and that it is to be so paid to their Account, accept and receive the same, and carry the same to the Account of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and give a Receipt for the same without Fee or Reward; but if such Purchase Money shall not amount to the Sum of One hundred Pounds, it shall not be necessary for the Purchaser or Purchasers to pay the same into the Bank of England, or Bank of Ireland, but he or they may, at his or their Option, either pay the same into the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland as aforesaid (in which Case the Cashiers, or One of them, of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, as the Case may be, shall accept and give a Receipt for the same as aforesaid,) or to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any One of their Receivers, or any Agent to be appointed by them for that Purpose; and the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall, on the Production of the Receipt of the Cashiers, or of One of the Cashiers of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, for such Purchase Money, or in case the same shall not amount to One hundred Pounds, then either on the Production of such Receipt or on the Payment to them, their Receiver or Agent, of such Purchase Money, execute to the Purchaser or Purchasers a Conveyance, under their Hands and Seals, of the Premises agreed to be sold, and give a Receipt for the Purchase Money Money under their Hands; and every such Conveyance and Receipt may be according to the Forms for those Purposes respectively set forth in the Schedule to this Act amended, or in any other Forms which may be deemed more convenient; and every such Conveyance and Receipt shall be attested, as to the Execution and signing thereof by the said Commissioners, by at least One Witness, and every such Conveyance shall be void and sufficient to pass all the Estate, Right, and Interest of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in and to the Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which the same shall relate, to the Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, therein named as the Grantee or Grantees, for such Estate or Estates, to such Uses, and upon and for such Trusts, Interests, and Purposes (if any), as shall in and by such Conveyance, or by Reference therein to any other Instrument or Instruments, or Deed or Deeds, be expressed or declared of or concerning the same.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That where any Quit Rent or other Rent shall be sold under the Authority of this Act, it shall be expressed in the Conveyance thereof whether the same is to become extinguished, or whether the same is to be held and enjoyed by the Purchaser or Purchasers, or his, her, or their Trustee or Trustees; and in all Cases where the Conveyance shall express that the Rent is to become extinguished, the same shall, immediately upon the Execution of the Conveyance, cease and become extinguished; and in all Cases where the Conveyance shall express that the Rent is to be held and enjoyed by the Purchaser or Purchasers, or his, her, or their Trustee or Trustees, the same shall, from and after the Execution of the Conveyance, become and remain vested in the Purchaser or Purchasers, and his, her, or their Trustee or Trustees, and his, her, or their Heirs or Successors and Assigns, and shall be paid and payable to them by Two equal half-yearly Payments on the Twenty-fifth Day of March and the Twenty-sixth Day of September in every Year; and every such Purchaser or Trustee, his or her Heirs, Successors and Assigns, shall have the like Remedy for recovering such Rents by Distress, and by impounding and selling the Goods, Chattle, or Effects distrained, as in case of Rents-charges.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Rent charged upon or issuing out of any Lands or Hereditaments in Ireland shall be purchased under the Authority of this Act, which shall not be extinguished, but shall subsist for the Benefit of the Purchaser, the Fees hereinafter made payable in respect of such Rent by the Persons subject to the same shall be considered for all Purposes as Part of the Rent so purchased, and shall be payable to the Purchaser, his Heirs or Successors and Assigns, together with the Rent, in the same Manner as the said Fees would have been payable, under the Provisions hereinafter contained, to the Receiver of such Rents if the same had not been sold; and the Purchaser of every such Rent, his Heirs or Successors and Assigns, shall have the same Remedies for recovering the said Fees as are herein-before given for recovering the Rent itself.

XXXVIII. And Whereas in many Grants of Lands and Hereditaments in Ireland, by Letters Patent from the Possessors of His Majesty reserving Rents, several Denominations or Parts of Land are granted by the same Grant, and in some of such Grants the several Proportions of Rent for the several Denominations or Parts of Land, or for some of them, are set forth, and in others of such Grants the several Proportions of Rent for the several Denominations or Parts of Land are not set forth, but the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, in all Cases where Lands or Hereditaments comprised in One Grant from the Crown and jointly liable to One Rent have become subdivided amongst several Proprietors, exercises a Jurisdiction of apportioning such Rent as between the several Proprietors of the Lands and Hereditaments subject thereto, with a Reservation of the Right of the Crown: And Whereas in the Empowerment of Persons to purchase, under the Provision of this Act, the Rents charged on their Lands and Hereditaments, it will be desirable that any Person asked of or interested in any Lands or Hereditaments liable jointly with other Lands or Hereditaments, to a Gross Rent, which shall have been as apportioned by the original Grant, or by the Court of Exchequer, should be enabled, by the Purchase of that Proportion of the Gross Rent which by such Apportionment shall have been made specifically payable in respect of their Lands and Hereditaments, entirely, to exonerate such their Lands and Hereditaments, as well from the Portion of Rent as specifically made payable in respect thereof, as also from all Liability in respect of the other Portions of the Gross Rent charged on the Lands comprised in the same Grant; He it therefore further enacted, That whenever any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, shall purchase under the Act, in order that the same may become extinguished, any Portion of any Rent which shall have been as apportioned, either by the original Grant or by the Court of Exchequer as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Lands and Hereditaments upon which the Portion of Rent as purchased shall have been as specifically charged shall be and the same are hereby exonerated and discharged, not only from the Portion of Rent as purchased, but also of and from all other Portions of the Rent reserved by the same Grant: any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, that any such Exonerations and Discharges shall not prejudice or affect the Right of the Crown to recover against the Remainder of the Lands and Hereditaments comprised in the same Grant the remaining Portions of the Rent thereby reserved.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, having any Estate or Interest in any Hereditaments which may be subject to any Rent or Rents, or any Manorial, Feudal, or other Rights hereby authorised to be sold, or contract for and purchase of the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues such Rent or Rents, or such Manorial, Feudal, or other Rights, the Statutes of Mortmain or any other Act or Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Conveyance of Rents sold to express whether the same shall be extinguished or enjoyed by the Purchaser

Fees payable in respect of Rents purchased shall be considered as part of the Rent purchased and shall be payable to the Purchaser, his Heirs or Successors and Assigns

XL. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Committee or Committees of any Lands, or the Guardian or Guardians of any Infant, or the Trustee or Trustees for any Feme Covert, or other Person under any Incapacity, which Lands, Infant, Feme Covert, or other incapacitated Person may be interested in any Hereditaments upon which any Rent or Rents hereby authorized to be sold may be charged, or which may be subject to any Manorial, Feudal, or other Rights hereby authorized to be sold, to contract with and purchase of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues such Rent or Rents, or such Manorial, Feudal, or other Rights, on Behalf of such Lands, Infant, Feme Covert, or other incapacitated Person, and to apply any Monies in their or his Hands belonging to such Lands, Infant, Feme Covert, or other incapacitated Person for that Purpose; and this Act, without any further Authority, except in the Instance hereinafter mentioned, shall be a sufficient Indemnity to every such Committee, Guardian, and Trustee, for the Application of the Money applied in such Purchase, and in Payment of the Expenses attending the same: Provided nevertheless, that if the Purchase Money shall exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, the same shall not be so applied, without the Sanction and Authority of the Court of Exchequer in England, if the Hereditaments charged with such Rent or subject to such Rights shall be in England or Wales, or of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland; if the Hereditaments charged with such Rent or subject to such Rights shall be in Ireland; which Sanction and Authority the said Courts respectively are hereby empowered to give, on Petition, in a summary Way or otherwise, as to the said Courts respectively shall seem fit.

XLII. And Whereas Cases may occur in which it may be desirable that Rents, or Manorial, Feudal, or other Rights hereby authorized to be sold, should be purchased, in order that the same may become established; but by reason of the Hereditaments subject thereto not being vested in any Person for an Estate of Fee Simple in Possession, or by reason of some Incapacity in the Owner thereof, special Provisions may be expedient for facilitating such Purchases; He it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Trustee for Life or Lives, Tenant in Tail or Tenant for any determinable Fee, of any Hereditaments upon which any Rent or Rents hereby authorized to be sold may be charged, or which may be subject to any Manorial, Feudal, or other Rights hereby authorized to be sold, and for the Committee or Committees of any Lands, the Guardian or Guardians of any Infant, or the Trustee or Trustees for any Feme Covert, or other Person under any Incapacity, or the Husband of any Feme Covert, which Lands, Infant, Feme Covert, or other incapacitated Person shall be Owner of or beneficially interested in any such Hereditaments as aforesaid for Life, in Tail or in Fee, either absolutely or determinable, by any Deed or Deeds, or Instrument or Instruments in Writing, to raise any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpose of purchasing such Rent or Rents, or Manorial, Feudal, or other Rights, and paying the Expenses attending such Purchase, by Mortgage of the said Hereditaments, either in Fee Simple or for any Term of Years, or by Sale of a sufficient Part thereof, or otherwise, to charge and incumber the same with such Sum or Sums, and the Interest thereof, in such Manner as he or they shall think proper; and every such Sale, Mortgage, Charge, and Incumbrance shall be good and valid in the Law against all Tenants in Remainder or Reversion, and all other Persons interested in or entitled to the Premises so sold, mortgaged, charged, or incumbered, and all other Persons entitled to or claiming any Debt, Charge, or Incumbrance affecting the Premises so sold, mortgaged, charged, or incumbered, and such Mortgages, Charges, and Incumbrances shall have Priority over all other Debts, Charges, and Incumbrances on the same Premises: Provided nevertheless, that if such Purchase Money shall exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds the same shall not be so raised, without the Sanction of the Court of Exchequer in England, if the Premises sold or incumbered shall be in England or Wales, or of the Court of Chancery in Ireland; if the Premises sold or incumbered shall be in Ireland; which Sanction the said Courts are hereby respectively authorized to grant, upon Petition, in a summary Way or otherwise, as to the said Courts respectively shall seem fit.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from Time to Time to exchange any Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, hereinafter authorized to be sold, for any other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments belonging to any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate whatsoever; and for that Purpose to enter into such Contracts or Agreements as to the said Commissioners shall seem proper; and for the Purpose of effecting any such Exchange of any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, of which the Fee Simple and Inheritance shall be vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to convey to the Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate respectively, with whom the said Exchange is proposed to be made, or in such Manner as he or they shall direct or appoint, the Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown as proposed to be given in Exchange on the Part of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof, and every such Conveyance by the said Commissioners shall be attested, as to the Execution thereof by the said Commissioners, by at least One Witness, and may be in the same Form as that set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed for Conveyances on Sales of any Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues, or in any other Form which may be found more convenient; and every such Conveyance of the said Commissioners shall be valid and sufficient to pass all the Estate, Right, and Interest of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in and to the Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which the same shall relate, to the Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, therein named as the Grantor or Grantors, for such Estate or Estates, in such Uses, and upon and for such Trusts, Intent, and Purpose (if any), as shall in and by such Conveyance, or by Reference thereto to any other Deed or Instrument, be expressed or declared of or concerning the same; and the Conveyance of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be received in Exchange on the Part of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, may be according to the Form for that Purpose set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or in any other Form which to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues may seem more proper; and the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments so received in Exchange shall, on the Execution of the Conveyance thereof respectively, become Part of the Possessions and Land Revenues of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, within the Ordering and Survey of the Court of Exchequer, and subject to the same Provisions, Powers, and Authorities in every Respect, including the Powers and Provisions in this Act contained, as the other Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Power of Exchange herein-before given, to convey any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, which shall be held in Perpetuity or otherwise, in Exchange for any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments held by the Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, with whom the Exchange shall be made, for any particular Estate or Interest, or for any Term of Years, or to give any Lease which may have been taken, or purchased, under the Powers hereinafter given, in Exchange for any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments held in Perpetuity or only for any particular Estate or Interest, or for any Term of Years.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to agree, on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Receipt or Payment of any Sum of Money for equalising any Exchange to be made under the Authority of this Act; and all Sums of Money so agreed to be received on the Part of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall be paid into the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, or to the said Commissioners, their Receiver or Agent, in the same Manner as heren-before directed with regard to Purchase Money on any Sales by the said Commissioners.

XLV. And Whereas it is desirable that His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, should be at Liberty to grant any Lands or Hereditaments, Part of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, for any of the Purposes herein mentioned, whenever He or They shall be graciously pleased so to do: Be it therefore enacted, That the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall at any Time hereafter have full Power and Authority, out of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, to give and grant to and vest in any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, and their Heirs and Successors respectively, for such Estate or Interest therein as to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall seem meet, any Building proper to be used as or converted into, or any Ground proper for the Site of any Church or Chapel, with or without a Cemetery or Burial Ground thereto, or any Ground proper for a Cemetery or Burial Ground, to any Church or Chapel, and any House, with its Appurtenances, and with or without a Garden thereto, proper for the Residence of the Spiritual Person who may serve such Church or Chapel, or any Ground proper for the Site or Sites of any such Residence, or of any Parochial or District School, any Thing in this Act or any other Law or Statute to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and such Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons, and their Heirs, Successors, Executors, or Administrators, shall have full Capacity and Ability to take, hold, and enjoy the same; and whenever it shall be the Pleasure of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to make a Grant for any of the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, to issue a Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands to any such Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons as aforesaid; which Warrant shall be exempt from any Stamp Duty whatsoever, and shall, if the same shall relate to a Grant in England and Wales, be enrolled in Manner hereinafter mentioned, and if the same shall relate to a Grant in Ireland, shall be enrolled in the Office of Record in Ireland in which the Records or Base Rolls of the King's Rems shall be preserved, and the Enrolment of the said Warrant shall be certified at the Foot or on the Back thereof by the proper Officer or Officers by whom the same shall be enrolled, under his or their Hand or Hands, and the said Warrant, when so enrolled, shall be returned with such Certificate of Enrolment to the Grantor or Grantors of such Lands and Premises: and from and immediately after such Enrolment thereof, the Grantor or Grantors named in such Warrant, and his or their Heirs, Successors, Executors, or Administrators, shall, by Force of this Act, be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be in the actual Seisin or Possession of the Premises in the said Warrant specified, and shall hold and enjoy the same, either absolutely and in Perpetuity, or for such limited Estate, Term, or Interest, and under and subject to such Reservations of Rent or other Acknowledgments, Conditions, or Restrictions, and upon such Trusts and for such Purposes, as shall be specified, inserted, directed, or contained in such Warrant; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to enable His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to grant more than Five Acres in any One Grant for any of the Purposes aforesaid, or to grant any Premises in any One Instance which shall exceed in Value the Sum of One thousand Pounds.

XLVI. And

Power to exchange Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown for particular Estates, &c.

Power to give or receive Money for equalising Exchanges.

His Majesty may grant Sites for Churches, &c.

For enrolling voided Leases, Sales, &c.

XLVI. * And Whereas there may be Cases in which Leases, Sales, Exchanges, or Grants of Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England or Ireland, made or purporting to be made under Acts heretofore passed relating thereto, are invalid by reason of the Provisions of the said Acts not having been duly complied with, or on other Grounds, and it is expedient that Power should be given to confirm such Leases, Sales, Exchanges, and Grants in Cases hereinafter mentioned: He it therefore enacted, That in any Case where a Lease, Sale, Exchange, or Grant heretofore made under the Authority or supposed Authority of any Act heretofore passed relating to the Land Revenues of the Crown in England or Ireland, shall be defective, void, or liable to be set aside by reason of the Parties by whom the same shall purport to have been made not having been duly authorised to make the same, or by reason of any Survey which ought to have been first made having been omitted to be made, or by reason of the Conveyance, Deed, or Instrument by which such Lease, Sale, or Exchange or Grant shall have been made or effected not having been duly enrolled, or by reason of the Provisions of the Act under which the same shall purport to be made not having been duly complied with, or by reason of such Lease, Sale, Exchange, or Grant not having been in fact authorised by such Act, or not having been within the Powers and within the true Intent and Meaning of such Act, or having been made after such Act shall or fact have been repealed, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, in case such Lease, Sale, Exchange, or Grant shall not be absolutely void, to confirm the same, either in Whole or in Part, and either absolutely or conditionally, and on such Terms as to the said Commissioners shall seem meet, or in case such Lease, Sale, Exchange, or Grant shall be absolutely void, to make any Lease or Grant of the Lands and Hereditaments to which the same shall have related, or any of them, or any Part thereof, for the Purpose of giving to any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Public, Corporate, or Collegiate, an Estate or Interest therein not greater or more beneficial than the Estate or Interest which he, she, or they would have had under such prior Lease, Sale, Exchange, or Grant, in case the same had been valid.

Commissioners
may take Leases of Manors, &c.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to take, on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, of and from any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Public, Corporate, or Collegiate, any Lease of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for such Period, at such Rent, and with or without any Fine, and subject to such Covenants, Conditions, and Provisions, and on such Terms, as to the said Commissioners shall seem meet, and to enter into such Contracts and Agreements for that Purpose as to the said Commissioners shall seem proper.

and may purchase Leases.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues at any Time to purchase, of and from any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Public, Corporate, or Collegiate, any Lease or Term of Years which may be then subsisting of and in any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, whether the same shall or shall not be a Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, and to enter into such Contracts and Agreements for that Purpose as to the said Commissioners shall seem proper.

Commissioners
may assign Leases to trastees or Trustees
for His Majesty.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where any Lease shall be taken by the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and in every Case where any Lease, not being a Lease of any Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, shall be purchased or taken in Exchange by the said Commissioners, on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, the said Commissioners shall cause such Lease to be granted or assigned, as the Case may be, to such Person or Persons, as the said Commissioners shall think proper, as a Trustee or Trustees for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall indemnify such Trustees respectively, and their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, of and from the Heirs and Executors in and by such Leases respectively reserved and contained, and on the Part of the Lessees to be paid, observed, and performed.

Leases pur-
the Authority of this Act may be either merged or kept on foot.

L. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any subsisting Lease of any Part of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates shall be purchased or taken in Exchange by the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or shall have been contracted for under any of the Acts hereby repealed, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners either to cause the same to be surrendered to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in order that the Residue of the Term for which such Lease shall have been granted may merge in the Inheritance and become extinguished, or to cause the same to be assigned to any Person or Persons as a Trustee or Trustees for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in order that the same may be kept on foot distinct from the Inheritance.

Where Leases purchased or received in Exchange may be merged.

LI. And be it further enacted and declared, That the Powers of Sale and Exchange herein-before given to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall extend to the enabling them to sell or exchange any Lease which shall have been purchased or taken under the Provisions herein-before contained, or which shall have been contracted for under any of the Acts hereby repealed, and shall not have been surrendered and merged, and that whenever the said Commissioners for the Time being shall have contracted or agreed with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Public, Corporate, or Collegiate, under the Authority of this Act, for the Sale to him, her, or them of any such Lease, the Purchaser or Purchasers of such Lease shall pay the Purchase Money in the same Manner as herein-before directed with respect to any other Part or Parts of the said Possessales and Land Revenues of the Crown in which this Act relates; and the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, on any Sale of any such Lease, shall, on the Production of the Receipt of the Cashiers, or of One of the Cashiers of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, for the Purchase Money, or in case the same shall not amount to One hundred Pounds, then either on the Production of such Receipt or on the Payment to them, their Receiver or Agent, of such Purchase Money, or in case of an Exchange, or the Conveyance or Assignment of the Lands and Hereditaments to be received in Exchange being executed, cause the Trustee or Trustees in whose the said Lease shall be then vested to assign the same to the Purchaser or Purchasers, or as he or they shall direct, and every such Assignment shall be good, valid, and effectual, and the Persons claiming under such Assignment shall hold the said Lease discharged from any Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and the said Commissioners shall in and by such Assignment, or by any separate Instrument, at the Option of such Purchaser or Purchasers, in case of a Sale, acknowledge the Payment of the Purchase Money.

LII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues from Time to Time to contract for and purchase, for and on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, any Mannors, Lordships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Fee Simple, or any Copyhold Lands or Hereditaments the Freehold of which shall be in the Crown, or any Rents, Pensions, Annuities, Feud Rights, Rights of Common, or other Charges or Rights, whether in Fee Simple or not, which shall be letting out of or charged upon or extend over any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in which this Act relates, which shall in their Judgment be desirable to be purchased for and on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; and all such Mannors, Lordships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Rents, Pensions, Annuities, or other Charges, so to be purchased, shall be conveyed or surrendered to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and such Conveyances may be either according to the Form set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed for the Conveyance to His Majesty of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments received in Exchange, or in any other Form which to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall seem more proper; and all Mannors, Lordships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which shall be so purchased, and shall not become tenant by the Conveyance or Surrender thereof, shall, on the Completion of the respective Purchases thereof, become Part of the Possessions and Land Revenues of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Right of the Crown, and subject to the same Privileges, Powers, and Authorities in every Respect, including the Powers and Privileges in this Act contained, as the other Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in which this Act relates.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Bodies Politic or Corporate, Ecclesiastical or Civil, and for all Trustees for the Time being, possessed of or entitled to any Leases or Terms of Years, or any Mannors, Lordships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Rents, Pensions, Annuities, or other Charges or Rights which the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall be desirous of purchasing under the Powers herein-before given, and for all Trustees for any Interest short of an absolute Interest therein, and for the Guardians or Guardians or Committee or Committee of any Person interested therein who shall be so Infant, Lunatic, Idiot, or otherwise incapacitated of acting for himself or herself, to contract and agree with the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, for the absolute Sale of such Leases, Terms, Mannors, Lordships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Rents, Pensions, Annuities, or other Charges, or Rights, and to assign, release, convey, or surrender the same accordingly; and every such Contract, Agreement, Assignment, Release, Conveyance, and Surrender shall be as good, valid, and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as if the same were made by a Person absolutely entitled to the Property sold, and under an Disability or Incapacity.

LIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Purchase shall be made from any Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or Person or Persons under any Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid, or not having Power to sell, except under the Powers herein-before contained, the Value of the Property purchased shall be ascertained by Two able practical Surveyors, One of whom shall be nominated by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being, and the other by the Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons, contracting or agreeing to sell the same; and if such Two Surveyors shall not agree as the Valuation thereof, then by such Third Surveyor as the Two so appointed shall for this Purpose nominate; and each of the said Two Surveyors, if they shall agree in and make their Valuation, or if not, then the Surveyor as to be nominated by them as aforesaid, shall annex to their or his Survey, Estimate, or Valuation, when completed, an Oath, or (being One of the People called Quakers) an Affirmation, to be subscribed by him, and taken before and certified by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, in the same Form and in the same Effect as herein-before set forth for Oaths or Affirmations, to be annexed to Valuations made on any Lease, Sale, or Exchange of any Part of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in which this Act relates; and the Price or Consideration to be paid or given for such Purchase shall in no Case be less than the Sum at which the same shall be estimated and valued in such Survey, Estimate, or Valuation as aforesaid.

LV. And be it further enacted, That where any Purchase shall be made from any Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or Person or Persons under any Disability or Incapacity, or not having Power to sell, except under the Powers herein-before contained, the Purchase Money, in case the same shall amount to the Sum of Fifty Pounds, shall with all convenient Speed be paid into the Bank of England,

Tax Redemption Act to the Surveyor
General.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers which by the last before-mentioned Act are given to the Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of the Crown, for the Purpose of enabling him to redeem the Land Tax charged on the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, and other Revenues of the Crown within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer for the Time being, of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and all the Provisions in the said Act contained, which apply to the said Surveyor General, shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, apply to the said Commissioners, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Commissioners had been named in the said Act instead of the said Surveyor General.

but all Sales for Redemption of the Land Tax to be made under the Authority of this Act.

LIX. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That after the passing of this Act no Sale shall be made under the Authority of this and last-mentioned Act of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, Manns, Minerals, Cellaries, Woods, Wood-grounds, Fens, Marshes, Waste Lands, or other Hereditaments belonging to the Crown within the Survey of the Exchequer, for the Purpose of raising Money for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged upon any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, Rents, or other Revenues of the Crown, it being intended and hereby declared that all Sales which after the passing of this Act shall be made of any Part or Parts of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, for raising Money for the Redemption of Land Tax, or for any other of the Purposes to which the Monies to arise from such Sales is hereby directed to be applied, shall be made under the Powers and Provisions of this Act and of no other.

be made under

LX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Purchase or Sale, except any Purchase or Sale where the Purchase Money shall not exceed One Hundred Pounds, and no Exchange, Lease, or Grant, Grant, shall be made by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Power of this Act, without the previous Authority of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to be signified by some Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands: Provided nevertheless, that such Authority may be given under generally for any particular Class of Cases, or for any particular Purchase, Sale, Exchange, Lease, or Grant, and either with or without any Condition or Restriction, as to the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being may seem meet.

LXI. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That before the seeking or entering into any Agreement for making any Lease, or the making of any Purchase, Sale, or Exchange, by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Power herein-before contained, a Survey of the Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown proposed to be leased, sold, or given in Exchange, where the same shall be capable of such Survey, and an Estimate of the Value thereof, and also, in the Case of a Purchase or an Exchange, a like Survey and Estimate of the Land, Tenements, or Hereditaments proposed to be purchased or received in Exchange, shall be taken and made by such able and practical Surveyor or Surveyors as shall be named for that Purpose by or under the Order and Direction of the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and the said Surveyor or Surveyors shall certify, by a Report in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, what in his or their Judgement is the true and fair Worth or Value of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be by them surveyed and valued, and every Person who shall be employed to make any Survey or Estimate as aforesaid shall swear upon Oath (or, being of the People called Quakers, an Affirmation,) taken and subscribed by him before any One of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, that the Form whereof shall be as follows:

' [A. B. do swear, [or, being a Quaker, do solemnly affirm,] That the Survey and Estimate, or Account, hereto annexed, was faithfully and expertly made by me; that the Value of the Property therein contained is justly estimated therein, according to the best of my Skill and Judgement; and that all the Particulars stated in the said Survey or Estimate, or Account, are true, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief.

LXII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That where, from the Nature of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which shall be so proposed to be leased, purchased, sold, or given, or received in Exchange, or from any Circumstances relative thereto, the Worth or Value thereof cannot be known or ascertained by the Means of a Survey or Inspection thereof, or where the Value of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall be previously known to be so small or inconsiderable that it shall not be deemed expedient to incur the Expence of taking a Survey thereof, or when such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, being in Ireland, shall have been previously surveyed and valued, by Order of and under the Direction of any Commissioners appointed by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to enquire into the State of the Crown Lands in Ireland, at any Time since the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and a Report of such Survey and Valuation shall have been made on Oath, and shall, previously to such Lease, Agreement, Purchase, Sale, or Exchange being made, have been deposited in the Office of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, then and in any such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make such Lease, or enter into any Agreement for such Lease, or to make such Purchase, Sale, or Exchange, without causing such Survey or Estimate to be taken or to be previously made.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Deeds or Instruments whereby any Estates, Manors, Lordships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in England or Wales shall be hereafter purchased, sold, leased, or exchanged, under the Authority of this Act, shall, within six Months after the Date of such Deeds or Instruments respectively, be enrolled as hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) under the Determination, as herein-before mentioned, of the Persons remaining Office of Auditor of the Land Revenue of the Crown, the same shall be enrolled in the Office of the Auditors or Acting Auditor performing the Duty of Auditor of the Land Revenue of the Crown for the District in which the Premises comprised in such Conveyance, Lease, Deed, or Instrument shall be situate, or if situate in more than One of the Districts for which Auditors of the Land Revenue of the Crown in England and Wales were heretofore appointed, then in the Office of the Auditors or Acting Auditor for any One of such Districts; and after the Determination of the said present remaining Office of Auditor of the Land Revenue of the Crown, the said Leases, Conveyances, Deeds, and other Instruments shall be enrolled in the Office of the Commissioners for settling the Public Accounts; and until the Determination of the said said remaining Office of Auditor, the usual Fee shall be paid for such Enrolment; and after the Determination of the said Office, such Fee shall be paid for such Enrolment as the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time appoint, not exceeding such Fees as have been used and accustomed to be taken; and the Fees on the Enrolment of any Lease, Conveyance, Deed, or other Instrument by which any Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown shall be determined, granted, sold, or given in Exchange, shall be paid by the Lessee, Purchaser, or Grantee, and in other Cases by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and a Minute or Docket of every such Lease, Grant, Deed, or other Instrument shall be entered and preserved by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues in their Office.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Auditors and Acting Auditor shall and they are hereby required to enrol every Deed and Instrument which is hereby directed to be enrolled in their respective Offices in Order of Time, so the same shall respectively be brought to their Offices for that Purpose, and certify under their Hands, or under the Hand or Hands of their Deputy or Deputies for the Time being, upon the said Deeds or Instruments respectively, what is enrolled, the Fact of their having been so enrolled.

LXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in Cases of Sales where the Purchase Money shall not amount to the Sum of One hundred Pounds, it shall not be necessary to enroll the Conveyances by which such Sales shall be carried into Effect; but the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall make in every Year transmit to the Office in which the Conveyance if the Purchase Money had amounted to One hundred Pounds would have been to be enrolled, under the Provisions here-before contained, a Statement of the Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown which shall have been so sold, and of the Sum for which the same shall have been sold, and the Names of the respective Purchasers, and such Statement shall be enrolled in the Books of such Office.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Conveyance, Deed, or Instrument whereby any Estate, Manors, Lordship, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in England or Wales, or any Term of Years or Interest therein, shall be conveyed or assigned to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or to a Trustee or Trustees for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, under the Authority of this Act, shall, when so enrolled as herein-before directed, without any Enrolment or Acknowledgment thereof in any Court or Courts of Law or Equity, or any Registry thereof, be as good and available, and of the like Force and Effect, in all Respects, and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been or was enrolled in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, or as if a Memorial had been entered or registered in the Office appointed for registering Deeds and other Conveyances of Lands and Tenements in the County or Counties in which the same Estates or any of them are situate; any Act, Law, Practice, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Deed, Certificate, Receipt, or other Instrument, which shall appear to have been made, given, or executed under the Authority of this Act, or of any Act heretofore passed relating to the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, shall have written thereon a Memorandum of its having been enrolled in the Office of the Auditor or Auditors or Acting Auditor or Auditors of His Majesty's Land Revenues for the District within which the Hereditaments in which the same shall relate shall be situate, or of the Commissioners for auditing Public Accounts, and such Memorandum shall purport to be signed by the said Auditor or Auditors, or Acting or Deputy Auditor or Auditors, or One of them, or the said Commissioners in One of them, or their Deputy, such Memorandum shall, in the Absence of Evidence to the contrary, be sufficient Proof of the Deed, Certificate, Receipt, or other Instrument having been duly made, granted, given, or executed by the Party or Parties by whom the same shall purport to have been signed or executed, and of its having been duly enrolled, as stated in such Memorandum, and of the Provision of the Act, under which the same shall appear to have been made, granted, given, or executed, having been duly complied with, and such Memorandum shall be receivable in Evidence, without Proof of the Handwriting of the Signatory therein.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Enrolment of any Deed or other Instrument, or Minutes or Docters, before the Auditor or Acting Auditor of the Land Revenues, or in the Office of the Commissioners for auditing Public Accounts, or the Entry of any Deed or other Instrument in the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, has been or shall be omitted or delayed beyond the Period provided for the Enrolment and Entry thereof respectively, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, for any reasonable Cause to them shown for the Omission or Delay, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to permit the making of any such Enrolment, or Entry ex post facto, and the same respectively, when made under such Authority, shall be as valid and effectual as if made within the Period limited for that Purpose.

LXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever, under the Powers of Sale heretofore given, the Freehold of any Copyhold or Customary Tenement Parcel of or holden of any Manor belonging to the Crown shall be sold by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, for the Purpose of enfranchising such Copyhold or Customary Tenement, or any Manorial Rights Parcel of any Manor belonging to the Crown shall be sold by the said Commissioners, the Deed or Instrument by which such Sale shall be effected shall not only be enrolled in the Court Rolls of the Manor of or to which such Copyhold or Customary Tenement or such Manorial Rights shall have been Parcel or Appurtenant, by the Steward of such Manor, or his lawful Deputy, who is hereby required forthwith to enrol such Deed or Instrument, upon the Production thereof to him; and such Steward or Deputy Steward, having enrolled the said Certificate and Receipt, or other Instrument as aforesaid, shall attest the same under his Hand, and return the same to the Purchaser or Purchasers.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall cause Duplicates of all Conveyances, Deeds, or Instruments whereby any Estates, Manors, or Lordships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland, which shall be heretofore purchased or taken in Exchange by them for or on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, under the Authority of this Act, shall be conveyed to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for Him or Them, and of all Leases to be made or granted by the said Commissioners under the Authority of this Act, of any Messuages, Lands, or other Hereditaments in Ireland, and of all Grants, Deeds, or other Instruments by which any Part of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland shall be granted, sold, or exchanged, under the Powers of this Act, to be transmitted to the Office of Record in Ireland in which the original Rentals or Rent Rolls of the King's Demesne shall be preserved, and every such Duplicate shall be there preserved, and shall be and remain of Record among the other Records and Manuscripts preserved in such Office.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That not only the original Conveyance, Lease, Grant, Deed, or other Instrument by which any Manor, Lordship, Messuages, Lands, or Hereditaments in Ireland shall be demised, granted, sold, or exchanged under the Provisions of this Act, but also the Duplicate thereof is to be so transmitted as aforesaid, or a Copy of such Duplicate, attested by the Officer for the Time being in whose Custody the same shall remain, and which Copies the said Officer is hereby authorized and required to grant to any Person applying for the same, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for every such Copy, and if the same shall consist of more than Seventy-two Words, then of a further Fee of One Shilling for every Seventy-two Words over the first Seventy-two Words, shall be admitted in all Courts of Law and Equity as Evidence of the Title of the Purchasers, Grantees, Lessees, and all Persons claiming under them, in the Messuages, Lands, or other Hereditaments to which such Leases, Grants, Deeds, or other Instruments shall respectively relate.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That every Conveyance, Deed, or Instrument, whereby any Manor, Lordship, Messuage, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland, or any Term of Years of Interest therein, shall be conveyed or assigned to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or to a Trustee or Trustees for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, under the Authority of this Act, or any Lease to be made or granted by the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Authority of this Act, of any Manor, Messuages, Lands, or other Hereditaments in Ireland, and every Grant, Conveyance, Deed, or other Instrument which shall be made or executed under the Authority of this Act, or of relating to any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, shall, without any Enrolment thereof in any Court or Courts of Law or Equity, or any Registry thereof, be as good and available, and of the like Force and Effect, in all Respects and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been or was enrolled in any of His Majesty's Courts in Dublin, or as if a Memorial had been entered or registered in the Office appointed for registering Deeds and other Conveyances of Lands and Tenements in Ireland, under an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fifth of Her late Majesty Queen Anne; the said Act, or any other Act, Law, Practice, or Usage, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

LXXIII. And for the Protection of all Persons, and Bodies Politic, Corporate, and Collegiate, to or with whom Leases, Sales, Exchanges, or Grants may be made under the Authority or supposed Authority of this Act, and of all Parties claiming under them, be it further enacted, That no Person, or Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, claiming under any Deed or Instrument by which any Lease, Sale, or Exchange or Grant shall be made or purport to be made by the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Authority of this Act, and shall be duly enrolled under the Provisions herein-before contained, shall be bound to enquire whether the said Commissioners shall have been duly authorized by the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to make the same or not, or whether the Survey herein-before directed to be made shall have been actually made or not; or whether, in Cases of Sales, Exchanges, or Leases in Ireland, a Duplicate of the Conveyance, Deed, or Instrument by which such Sale, Exchange, or Lease shall have been made or effected shall have been duly transmitted to Ireland, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, or whether the Provisions of this Act in other respects shall have been duly complied with or not; or whether such Lease, Sale, Exchange, or Grant shall have been in fact authorized by this Act or not, or whether it shall or not have been within the Provisions and within the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; but every Deed or Instrument by which any Lease, Sale, Exchange, or Grant shall purport to be made under the Authority of this Act, after the same shall have been duly enrolled, pursuant to the Provisions herein-before contained, be good, valid, and effectual, as against His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, for the Purposes for which the same shall have been executed.

LXXIV. And to prevent any Question as to the Liability of Purchasers and other Persons paying Money under the Authority of this Act, be it further enacted, That no Person, or Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, paying any Sum of Money under the Authority of this Act, or in pursuance of any Provision herein contained, shall be bound to see to the Application or be answerable for the Misapplication or Nonapplication of the Money so paid by him, her, or them.

LXXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained or to be done in pursuance thereof, shall not extend or be construed to take away, abridge, or diminish any of the Fees, Perquisites, or Allowances which the aforesaid Auditors of His Majesty's Land Revenues, whose Offices have not yet determined, are lawfully or by ancient Usage entitled to take, receive, or be allowed for the Execution of any of the Duties of their respective Offices.

LXXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Repeal of the said Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, hereby repealed, shall not operate or extend to revive any Salaries, Wages, Fees, or Perquisites thereby abolished; and that the Fees now paid in the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, upon the Assignment of Leases, and upon Searches for such Copies of Leases, Grants, or other Documents, shall continue to be paid to them and their Successors, and shall be accounted for and applied in the same Manner as other Monies arising

dent within the Districts for which they are appointed.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be appointed a Receiver of the Issues, Revenues, and Profits of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, for any County, Hundred, District, or Division in England or Wales (except in London or Middlesex), shall be by Profession a Surveyor of Lands or Land Steward, and accustomed to act as such, or otherwise skilled in the Management and Cultivation of Lands, and competent in the Superintendence thereof; and every Receiver already appointed or to be appointed under this Act shall be resident within the County, Hundred, Division, or District, or One of the Counties, Hundreds, Divisions, or Districts, if his Appointment doth or shall extend to more than One, in or for which he has been or shall be so appointed to act as Receiver, and not elsewhere, unless the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall think it expedient to dispense with such Residences; and in case any Receiver to be appointed as aforesaid, or any Receiver already appointed as aforesaid, for any County, Hundred, District, or Division in England or Wales, shall cease to reside as aforesaid in any Parts of the County, Hundred, District, or Division, or of any One of the Counties, Hundreds, Districts, or Divisions, in or for which he has been or shall have been so appointed to act as Receiver as aforesaid, without such Dispensation as aforesaid, his Appointment as such Receiver shall immediately thereupon cease, determine, and be void, but without Prejudice to any Party by whom any Money may have been paid to him hereof, and without actual Knowledge of his Appointment having so ceased.

account to Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That all Receivers appointed and to be appointed of the Issues, Rents, and Profits of any of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to which this Act relates, shall from Time to Time, and at such Times as they shall respectively be required so to do by the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, render Accounts to the said last-mentioned Commissioners of all Monies received by them respectively, and of all other Acts, Matters, and Things done by them respectively, on account of or in relation to the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, and the said Accounts shall be tried and examined by the said last-mentioned Commissioners, and shall from Time to Time be incorporated with and form Part of the Accounts of such Commissioners to be from Time to Time audited and passed in the Manner hereinafter directed;

directed; and when the Accounts of the said Receiver, incorporated as aforesaid, shall have been so audited and passed, the Receipts of the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, for the Balance of such Accounts, shall be good and effectual Discharges to the said Receivers respectively.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any One of them, and they are hereby respectively authorised, to receive a Verification and take an Examination upon Oath touching and concerning any Account, Survey, Estimate, Report, or other Matter or Thing relating to the said Commissions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, or to direct such Verification to be made before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Receiver, Deputy, or Assistant, or other Person, shall in such Verification or Examination upon Oath as aforesaid be guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, or shall wilfully false-swear himself in regard to any of the Matters aforesaid, such Person so offending shall be liable to be punished in such Manner as is provided by the Laws and Statutes now in Force for the Punishment of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Receiver appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid shall at the End of every Month (unless otherwise directed by the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues,) transmit all Sums received by him during the Month to the said Commissioners; and every such Receiver who shall at any Time have received or got into his Hands any Sum of Money belonging to the Crown exceeding the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, shall, unless he shall have previously received Instructions to the contrary from the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, forthwith transmit the same to the said Commissioners; and in case any Receiver shall have so got into his Hands any Sum exceeding the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and shall not forthwith transmit the same to the said Commissioners, or apply or dispose of the same in such other Manner as he shall have been directed to do by the said Commissioners, shall be charged and chargeable with Interest for every such Sum after such Rate, not exceeding the Rate of Ten Pounds for every One hundred Pounds by the Year, as the said Commissioners for the Time being shall in that Behalf appear, from the Day or Days or Times, at which it shall have been so received, until it shall be transmitted by him to the said Commissioners, or paid over by him in the Manner by them directed.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Person so to be appointed a Receiver as aforesaid shall, before he shall exercise or execute the said Office, or in anywise intermeddle in the Revenue or Revenue thereof, enter into such Bond or Obligation, in such Penalty, and with such Sureties, as the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall direct or require, for the faithfully answering and accounting for the Rents, Issues, and Profits to be by him received by virtue of such his Appointment, and for the doing, executing, and performing all such Services and Duties as are hereby required, or shall by the said Commissioners for the Time being be from Time to Time directed or required to be done or performed in relation to such Office as aforesaid; and every such Bond shall have the Effect of a statute Staple to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, for the answering and Payment of all and every Sum or Sums to become payable by virtue thereof; and every Bond as given by any Receiver shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the Execution thereof, be sent in the Office of the Auditor of His Majesty's Land Revenues; and every such Bond shall be deposited and kept in the Office of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

LXXXVI. And in lieu of Provisions to a similar Effect contained in the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for the Management and Improvement of the Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, and for other Purposes relating thereto; be it further enacted, That every Receiver appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid, in Ireland, shall, upon Payment of any Quit Rent, Crown Rent, Composition or other Rent due and payable to the Crown in Ireland, or of any Part thereof, give to the Person paying the same a full and clear Receipt or Acquittance for what he shall receive, under his Hand, wherein he shall state the Sum so by him received, and for what Rent, and for what Land or Hereditaments, and as what Account the same shall be paid to him, and shall and may demand and receive from the Persons from whom he shall receive any such Quit Rent, Crown Rent, Composition or other Rent, the respective Fees hereinafter mentioned, and no more or other Fee; (that is to say,) for every Acquittance they shall give for every Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings the Sum of Sixpence, and no more; for every Sum above Twenty Shillings and not exceeding Five Pounds, the Sum of One Shilling and no more; for every Sum above Five Pounds and not exceeding Fifteen Pounds, the Sum of One Shilling and Sixpence and no more; and for every Sum above Fifteen Pounds, the Sum of Two Shillings and no more; and where any such Acquittance shall be for Half a Year's Rent only, a Fee shall be paid equal to only Half the Fee which would have been payable for the whole Year's Rent.

LXXXVII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That where One Person shall stand chargeable in respect of different Lands or Hereditaments held by him with the Payment of several and distinct Rents, or where more than One Year's Rent shall be paid at the same Time, and One Acquittance only shall be given for what shall be so paid, the said Receiver may demand and receive a distinct Fee, according to the Rate aforesaid, for each of the Rents, and for each Year or Half Year's Rent, which shall be so paid, and which shall be included in such Acquittance.

LXXXVIII. And

Commissioners to take Verifications and Examinations upon Oath.

Penalty on Receivers taking false Oaths.

Receivers to transmit all Sums received monthly.

Receivers keeping Money in hand to be charged with Interest.

Receivers to give Security.

Receivers of Quit Rents in Ireland to give Acquittances the Particulars.

Fees to be taken for such Receipts.

Distinct Fees may be taken for several Acquittances in One Acquittance.

Receivers in Ireland to Interest.

LXXXVIII. And for preventing any Prejudice to the Person paying any such Crown, Quit Rent, or Composition Rent, by the Loss of any Acquittance to be given pursuant to this Act, be it further enacted, That every such Receiver in Ireland an aforesaid shall every Year prepare a Book wherein he shall enter all the Receipts or Acquittances by him given for all the aforesaid Rents, under his Hand, and in the Presence of the Parties paying the same respectively; which Receipts the said Parties, or any other on their behalf, may set their Names to, for every whole Entry for said Receivers shall and may demand and receive Two-pence (over and above the Fees aforesaid), and the said Receivers respectively shall yearly return the said Books, under their Hands and on their Oaths, into the Office of Public Records in Ireland wherein the Two-penny Books of the Collection of Crown Rents heretofore returned pursuant to the Provisions in that behalf of an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, intitled An Act for making the Collector's Receipts for Quit Rent, Crown Rent, and other Rents due to the Crown, full and legal Discharges for the same, and for limiting their Fees thereon, are or shall be deposited, and the same shall then remain and be kept, not only as a Charge on such Receivers respectively, but also as a Discharge to the Subject for all Sums thereby appearing to be paid as aforesaid.

LXXXIX. And Whereas the Rents due to the Crown in Ireland have hitherto been received by the Collectors of Excise, and it will be most convenient that the same should continue to be collected and received by them, until Receivers thereof shall be duly appointed under the Provisions hereinafter contained; Be it therefore further enacted, That until Receivers of the Rents, Issues, Revenues, and Profits of His Majesty's Honours, Castles, Lordships, Towns, Manors, Lands, Rents, Services, and other Hereditaments and Possessions in Ireland, shall have been duly appointed under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the several Collectors of Excise for the Time being, in the Districts in which any such Honours, Castles, Lordships, Towns, Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Services, and other Hereditaments or Possessions shall be situated, or in which such Rents, Issues, Revenues, and Profits shall be respectively payable, to continue to receive the said Rents, Issues, Revenues, and Profits; and such Collectors shall have all the Powers and Authorities heretofore given to the Receivers to be appointed under this Act, and shall exercise and perform all the Offices and Duties which the said Receivers are hereby authorized and required to exercise and perform, and shall be subject to the same Provisions and Penalties in every respect as the said Receivers are hereby subjected to, except so far as the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall otherwise specially direct, by any Writing under their Hands; and such Collectors shall be entitled to demand and receive the several Fees which the Receivers to be appointed under this Act are heretofore authorized to receive.

XC. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Person who hath been or shall be appointed a Receiver of the Issues, Revenues, and Profits of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, by virtue of such his Appointment, alone and without any further Order, Warrant, or Authority whatsoever, by himself or any Person whom he shall for that Purpose depute, to make any Distress or Distresses for any Rent or Rents which shall be due, to arrest, or unpaid, from any Lessee or Lessees, Occupier or Occupiers, Tenant or Tenants of any of the Estates or Possessions which shall be in the Collection, Receipt, or Management of such Receiver, or from any Person or Persons liable to the Payment of any Quit Rent or other Rents within the Collection, Receipt, or Management of such Receiver, and the Goods, Chattels, and Effects so distrained in impound, sell, and dispose of, and all Sheriffs, Mayors, Justices, Bailiffs, Constables, Headboroughs, and other Officers and Ministers of Justice, are hereby directed and required to be aiding and assisting such Receiver or his Substitute in the making such Distress or Distresses, and the impounding, selling, and disposing of the Goods, Chattels, or Effects so to be taken or distrained, or in all other Matters relating therein, or to the Execution of the said Office, as Occasion shall require: Provided always, that every such Receiver shall and he is hereby required, in making or causing to be made any such Distress, and in relation to any Question or Questions at Law or otherwise which may arise thereupon, to obey and conform to all such Orders and Regulations as shall be given him in that behalf by the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That if any Lessee or Lessees, Occupier or Occupiers, Tenant or Tenants of any Part of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, the annual Rent whereof payable to the Crown shall exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds, shall be in Arrear for, or hold in his, her, or their Hands or Custody, any Rent or Rents, or Issues, Profits or other Profits or Produce due or belonging to the Crown, arising from any Part of such Possessions or Land Revenues, for the Space of Three Calendar Months after he, she, or they shall have been applied to, either personally or by Letter from the Receiver authorized and empowered to receive the same, for the Payment thereof, without paying over the same to such Receiver, then and in such Case every such Person liable to the Payment of and who ought to have paid the same shall be charged and chargeable with Interest for such Arrear, to be calculated after the Rate of Five Pounds for every Cent hundred Pounds by the Year, upon the Sum or respective Sums so in Arrear, from the Day or Time or Times upon or at which the same became due, up to the Day or Time upon or at which the same shall be actually paid, and that such Interest shall and may be added to the Rent or Issues Profits or other Profits or Produce as is aforesaid, and shall be recovered and received by the same Ways and Means as Rents are by this Act made recoverable, together with all Costs and Expenses to be sustained or incurred in or about the Recovery thereof.

XCII. And

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to give any Notice, make any Claim or Demand, and to depose or authorize any Person or Persons to make an Entry, which shall be requisite or expedient to be given or made, by or on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, with a view either to compel any Tenant, Lessee, or Occupier of any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates to quit or distress up the Possession thereof, or to compel the Performance of any Covenant, Contract, or Engagement in relation thereto, or to recover Possession on Nonperformance of any Covenant, Contract, or Agreement, or to compel the Payment of any Sum of Money which ought to be paid in respect thereof, and to give any other Notice, make any other Claim or Demand, and depose any Person or Persons to make any other Entry, which shall or may be requisite or expedient to be given or made, by or for or on the Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, touching any of the said Possessions or Land Revenues; and that every such Notice, Claim, or Demand which shall be given or made in Writing under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any Two of them, for any of the Purposes aforesaid, and every Entry which shall be made by any Person or Persons depose or authorized by the said Commissioners to make the same, on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, into or upon any of the said Estates or Possessions, shall be good, valid, and effectual to all intents and Purposes whatsoever, and shall have such and the like Force and Effect as if the same were respectively given or made by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; and all such Notices, Claims, Demands, or Entries shall respectively be deemed, construed, and taken to have been given and made by or on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, with the Consent and Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Treasury, in any Case where it shall seem to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues expedient so to do, to make any Composition or Agreement with any Person or Persons for any Arrears of Rent or Rents which may be due or owing to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in respect of any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates; and from and after the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money so agreed upon, His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall be barred from suing for or in any Manner recovering any such Arrears of Rent so compounded for as aforesaid, any Act, Law, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Dispute, Doubt, or Difference shall at any Time hereafter arise between the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and any other Person or Persons whatsoever, touching or concerning the Boundaries, Extent, or Amount of any of the Lands, Tenements, Possessions, Rents, or Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, or any Right of Common, Right of Way, or other Right or Easement whatsoever claimed or to be claimed in respect of or as appurtenant to, or in, over, upon, or out of the same Lands, Tenements, Possessions, Rents, and Land Revenues, or any of them respectively, or otherwise howsoever in respect of or in relation thereto, then and in every such Case, and so often as the same shall happen, it shall and may be lawful so and for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Treasury, to join and concur with the Person or Persons with whom any such Dispute, Doubt, or Difference shall arise as aforesaid, in referring the same to the Arbitration, or Arbitration and Unperage, of such One or more Person or Persons, and upon such Terms and on such Manner, in all Respects, as they the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, by and with such Consent as aforesaid, shall think fit; and for that Purpose to make, sign, seal, and enter into such Agreement or other Contract for Reference, for and on Behalf of His Majesty, as may be deemed advisable, and to perform the Award to be made in pursuance of any such Reference: Provided always, that every such Submission to Arbitration, or the Agreement or other Contract for the same, and the Award to be made in pursuance thereof, or a Duplicate of the same respectively, shall, within Three Calendar Months from the Date of each such Award, be enrolled in the Office of His Majesty's Auditor or Acting Auditor or Auditors of the Land Revenues for the Time being in England and Wales, or in the before-mentioned Office of Record in Ireland, as the Case may be, and when so enrolled shall be binding and conclusive on His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and either the Party or Parties to each such Reference respectively, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns; and that such Enrolment shall at all Times be good and sufficient Evidence of such Submission, Agreement, or other Contract and Award respectively, and of the making, signing, sealing, or executing of the same, and of the Contents thereof respectively, and be received as such Evidence in all Courts of Law and Equity whatsoever.

XV. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to abolish the Office of the Wardens, Chief Justices, and Justices in Eyre North and South of Trent, it was enacted, that upon the Termination of the then existing Intercity in the respective Offices of Wardens, Chief Justice, and Justices in Eyre of His Majesty's Forests, Chases, Parks, and Warrens North and South of Trent respectively, the same should be abolished;

Commissioners empowered to give Notices, make Claims, and enter into Entries, &c.

Power to Commissioners to compound for Rents, &c.

Dispute regarding Boundaries, &c. to be settled by Arbitration.

On Abolition of the Office of Chief Justices in Eyre the Warden thereof to vest

missioners.

'abolished;' Be it further enacted, That from and after such Abolition all the respective Powers and Authorities belonging to the said Offices respectively shall, upon the ceasing of such Offices respectively, become vested in the First Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, without any special or other Appointment for that Purpose; and every such First Commissioner for the Time being shall and he is hereby empowered and required to perform all the Duties belonging to the said Offices respectively; but such First Commissioner shall not have, take, or receive any Salary, Fee, or Emolument whatsoever in respect thereof.

XCVI. " And Whereas many Perpetuaries, Encroachments, and Trespasses have been made and continued upon the Soil of His Majesty within the Boundaries of some of the Royal Forests, which have been used and occupied by the Person or Persons in Possession thereof, or others under whom they claim, without any effectual Interruption by or on the Part of His Majesty: And Whereas in some Cases it will be expedient to permit such Persons to continue in Possession under certain Regulations, and in others to make Compositions for the Surrender of such Possessions: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases of Perpetuaries or Encroachments in any of the Royal Forests, which Perpetuaries or Encroachments shall appear to have been enclosed or used and occupied by the Person or Persons then in Possession thereof, or by any Person or Persons under whom the same are respectively claimed to be held, without any effectual Interruption by or on the Part of His Majesty for any Period not less than Ten Years, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to make Satisfaction or Compensation in Money, in Consideration of the Renewal, Abatement, or Redemption of any such Encroachment or Perpetuity, or to grant to the Person or Persons in Possession of such Encroachment or Perpetuity a Lease for any Term not exceeding Three Lives or Thirty-two Years, either of such Encroachment or Perpetuity, or any other Part or Parts of the Forest in law thereof, as to the said Commissioners shall under the Circumstances of the Case appear reasonable and proper; provided that there shall be reserved in every such Lease such annual Rent or Rents to be paid to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, as under all the Circumstances of the Case shall by the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues be deemed reasonable and proper.

Power to grant
Leases of Forests for
ways.

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to grant any Lease, for any Term not exceeding Thirty-one Years, of any Part of the Royal Forests for the Purpose of making any Railway, Turnpike, or Inclined Plane, or for erecting any Steam Engine or other Works or Machinery, with a Licence in such Lease to make or erect the same, and to mine, get, and carry away any Stone, Slate, Coal, Ore, or Mud in any of the Royal Forests, under such Modifications and Restrictions, for such yearly Rent, and upon such Terms and Conditions, as to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues may seem expedient: Provided always, that no such Lease or Licence for the Purpose of making such Railway, Turnpike, or Inclined Plane, or of erecting such Steam Engine or other Works or Machinery, shall be granted in any Case where the Use of the same would interfere with or in any Way abridge or prove inconsistent with the Exercise of the Rights vested in either of the Companies established by Two Acts passed in the Forty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the one intitled An Act for making and maintaining a Railway or Turnpike from the Summit of the Hill above Churchbury Engine in the Forest of Dean, in the County of Gloucester, to a certain Place in the said Forest called Cinderford Bridge; the other intitled An Act for making and maintaining a Railway from the River Wye, at or near to a Place called Ludbrook, in the Parish of Beardsdon, in the County of Gloucester, to or near to a place called Lower Forge, below Newnham, in the Parish of Lydney, in the said County, and for making other Railways therein mentioned, in the Forest of Dean, in the County of Gloucester, without the previous Consent and Concurrence of the Companies incorporated under the said Acts.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from Time to Time, to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for the Sale or Exchange of, and absolutely to dispose of, either by way of Sale for such Sum or Sums of Money as to them shall appear a sufficient Consideration for the same, or by way of Exchange for any other Lands or Hereditaments, with or without giving or receiving any Sum of Money for Equality of Exchange, any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates, which shall consist of any Parcel of Land in any of the Royal Forests which are or may be wholly or in Parts surrounded by, intermixed with, or contiguous to other Lands not the Property of the Crown, and which Parcel of Land shall not be suited for the Growth of Timber, or any Waste or other Lands in any of the Royal Forests which shall not exceed in Value in any One Instance the Sum of One thousand Pounds, or of any Rights or Interests which His Majesty now hath, or which He, His Heirs or Successors, may have, near Parcels of Land in any of the Royal Forests, the Property of any of His Majesty's Subjects, and which Rights and Interests shall be considered as of little Value to the Crown, or of any Rights of Forest, Free Chase, and Free Warren in or belonging to any of the Royal Forests, extending over the Lands of any of His Majesty's Subjects, independent of and not being appurtenant to any existing Manor or Lordship; and every such Sale and Exchange shall be carried into Effect in such and the like Manner as is heretofore directed with respect to other Parts of the Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates.

Power of Leases of Parts of the Forests.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That all Leases which shall be granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Authority of this Act, of any Part of the Royal

Royal Forests, may be taken according to the Form for that Purpose set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or in any other Form which to the said Commissioners may seem more expedient.

C. And Whereas the Number of unlawful Inclosures, Purprestures, Encroachments, and Trespasses in the Royal Forests has of late Years been much increased, and the Possessors of many of such Encroachments, and the Houses and Buildings erected thereon, though at different Times obtained and thrown down by the Keepers or other Officers of the said Forests, have again been reinstated by the Trespassers who originally made them, or by others subsequently occupying or claiming the same: And Whereas it is expedient that more effectual Provision should be made for the Prevention of such Offences, and for the Punishment of the Offenders in future: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all such unlawful Inclosures, Purprestures, Encroachments, and Trespasses, which shall have been wilfully made or caused or procured to be made by any Person or Persons in and upon any of the Royal Forests, or shall be wilfully held, occupied, and made use of by any Person or Persons subsequently occupying or claiming the same, (save and except such as have been demised or sold, or in respect of which any Treaty for a Demise or Sale shall or may be pending, under the Provision for that Purpose heretofore contained, between the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and the Party or Parties who shall be pretended Owners or actual Occupiers thereof,) shall and may be enquired of by the Verderers of the respective Forests within which such unlawful Inclosures, Purprestures, Encroachments, or Trespasses shall have been made in the Courts of Attachment of the said Forests respectively; and the Person or Persons guilty of making, continuing, and renewing any such unlawful Inclosure, Purpresture, Encroachment, or Trespass, save as aforesaid, shall and may be prosecuted for the same in the said Court or Courts; and upon Proof being made thereof on the Oath of One credible Witness, the Verderers of the said respective Forests, or any Two of them present at the said Court or Courts, shall have Power and they are hereby authorized to fine any Person or Persons so offending, for every such Offence, any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be recovered and applied in Manner hereinafter provided for, and so order and direct every such unlawful Inclosure, Purpresture, Encroachment, and Trespass (save as aforesaid) to be abated by the Regarders, Under Foresters, Under Keepers, or other Officers of the said Forests respectively, who are hereby authorized and empowered to abate the same accordingly: Provided nevertheless, that in case it shall be wanted upon by any Person or Persons who shall be proceeded against in any of the said Attachment Court or Courts as hereinbefore directed, that the Place wherein the Inclosure, Purpresture, Encroachment, or Trespass shall have been or shall be alleged to have been made was not within the Boundaries of any of the said Forests, or within the Lands belonging to His Majesty within the same, the said Verderers shall not proceed to Comission, but shall certify the Personment of such Offender to His Majesty's Attorney General, to the End that such Proceeding may be had therein by Information of Intrusion, or otherwise, as by Law might have been had before the passing of this Act.

C1. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Verderers of any of the said Forests, or any Two of them, at any Court of Attachment holden for any of the said Forests, by Warrant or Warrants under their Hands and Seals, to nominate and appoint any Person or Persons to be the Officers or Officers of the said Court or Courts, Forest or Forests, for the Purpose of executing the Judgments and Orders of the said Court or Courts from Time to Time given and made; and the Person or Persons so appointed shall, during the Time mentioned in such Warrant or Warrants, or until the same shall be recalled, or their Appointment or Appointments revoked by the said Verderers, have full Power and Authority to execute the Judgments and Orders of the said Court or Courts within the said respective Forests, in such and the same Manner and by such and the same Means as any Constable or other Peace Officer can or may by Law execute the Warrant of any Justice of the Peace for any County; and the said Verderers, or any Two of them, shall and may fix and allow such Fees to be paid to or taken by such Officers and Officers as the said Verderers shall in their Discretion think fit.

CII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Verderers of any of the said Forests, or any Two of them, at any Court of Attachment to be holden for any of the said Forests, to enquire into the Conduct and Behaviour of the Regarders, Under Foresters, Under Keepers, or other Officers of the said Forests, in their said Office, and if the said Verderers shall find that any Regarder, Under Forester, Under Keeper, or other Officer shall have wilfully omitted to perform the Duty of his Office in preventing Purprestures and Encroachments, or in any other Respect, it shall be lawful for the Verderers of any of the said Forests, or any Two of them, (having due Proof made before them on Oath of one such lawful Negligent, Omission, or Default,) and they are hereby authorized, to let and impose a Fine, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Pounds, on such Regarder, Under Forester, Under Keeper, or other Officer, for every such his said Act, Neglect, Omission, or Default, to be recovered and applied as hereinafter mentioned.

CIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent His Majesty from proceeding by Information in the Court of Exchequer, or from having Recourse to any other Law which may now exist, for the Punishment of Offences of the Nature heretofore mentioned, in all Cases where such Proceedings shall be deemed more advisable than those which are authorized by this Act.

CIV. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties heretofore imposed in respect of any Offences in the Royal Forests, and not heretofore directed to be recovered before the Verderers of any of the said Forests in the said Courts of Attachment, shall and may be recovered in a summary Way before any Justice or Justices of the Peace for any County, Riding, Division, or Place in which the

CVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Surveyor of any Turnpike Road or any Highway, or for any other Person, to dig, get, or carry away, or cause to be dug, got, or carried away, any Stone or Gravel, or other Materials whatever, for the making or repairing of any Road or Way, or for any other Purpose, in or from any of His Majesty's Forests, Woods, or Woodlands, without the Consent in Writing of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being for that Purpose first had and obtained.

Application of Monies to arise from Sales, &c.
in the Forests.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That all Sums to be received under the Authority of this Act, for or in respect of any Sales, Exchanges, or Leases in any of the Royal Forests, shall be applied in the Payment of the Purchase Monies on the Purchase of any Rights of Common, Past Rights or other Rights, or of any Lands or other Hereditaments in the said Royal Forests which may be purchased under the Authority of this Act, and in Payment of the Monies to be paid for Equality of Exchange on any Exchange in any of the Royal Forests which may be made under the Authority of this Act, and of the Expenses of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues in relating to such Purchases and Exchanges, and in the Payment of any Monies which may be agreed to be paid, by way of Compensation for the Inconvenience of Paraprestments and Encroachments in any of the said Royal Forests, and, subject thereto, shall be applied in or towards the maintaining of the said Forests, and the Payment of the Expenses attending the Management thereof.

Application of Monies arising
from Sales, &c.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That, subject to the Provision herein-before contained with respect to the Application of Monies to arise from Sales, Exchanges, and Leases in the Royal Forests, and also subject, as to the Monies to arise from Sales and Exchanges in Ireland, to the Provision contained in the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty as to the Application of the Monies to arise from the Sale or Exchange of any Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, previously to their being applied to the same Purposes as Monies arising from Sales and Exchanges of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England, all Sums to be received under the Authority of this Act for or in respect of any Sales of any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, or for Equality of Exchange on any Exchange of any of the said Possessions and Land Revenues, shall be applied in the Payment of the Purchase Monies on the Purchase of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, or other Hereditaments under the Authority of this Act, or in the Purchase of any Lease of any Part of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown which may be bought in under the Authority of this Act, and in Payment of the Monies to be paid for Equality of Exchange on any Exchange to be made under the Authority of this Act, and of the Expenses of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues in or relating to such Purchases and Exchanges, and in the Payment of the Monies to be paid for the Redemption or Purchase of any Land Tax which may be redeemed or purchased under the Provision herein-before contained, and of the Expenses of the said Commissioners in or relating to such Purchase or Redemption, and in the Discharge of any Incumbrances which now or hereafter are or may be charged upon or affect any of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which this Act relates.

Sums arising from Sales not immediately wanted to be applied to in excess of the Three per Cent.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to cause any Sums already received or which shall hereafter be received for or in respect of any Sales or Exchanges of any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, and which may not be immediately wanted for the Purposes to which the same are hereby made applicable, to be laid out in the mean Time in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, or Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer or of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in which Name the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are hereby authorized and required to permit Transfers to be made of the Annuities to be so purchased; and such Transfers shall be accepted by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, in the Name and on Behalf of the said Lord High Treasurer or the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

CX. And

CX. And be it further enacted, That the Amount of the Dividends of the Stocks and Annuities to be purchased as last aforesaid shall from Time to Time, as the said Dividends shall become due, be placed by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to the Credit of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues in their Account with the Bank; and so much of the Dividends as shall have become due in respect of Stocks purchased with Monies which shall have arisen from the Sale or Exchange of any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England or Wales, the Isle of Man and its Dependencies, or the Isle of Alderney, shall be applied and disposed of by the said Commissioners in the same Manner and for the same Purpose as and considered in all Respects as Part of the annual Income of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England and Wales; and so much of the said Dividends as shall have become due in respect of Stocks purchased with Monies which shall have arisen from the Sale or Exchange of any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, shall be applied and disposed of by the said Commissioners in the same Manner and for the same Purpose as and considered in all Respects as Part of the Sum to be received under the Authority of this Act for or in respect of the annual Income of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland.

CXI. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as it shall be necessary or expedient to raise, by Sale of any of the Stocks or Annuities to be so purchased as aforesaid, any Sum of Money for the Purpose to which Monies to be received under the Authority of this Act from Sales or Exchanges of any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown are hereby respectively made applicable, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, to sell out all or any Part of the said Stocks or Annuities; and the Sum raised by the Sale of the said Stocks and Annuities shall be paid into the Bank of England, and be placed to the Credit of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and so much of the said Monies as shall have been raised by the Sale of Stock purchased with Monies which shall have arisen from the Sale or Exchange of any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England or Wales, the Isle of Man and its Dependencies, or the Isle of Alderney, shall be applied and disposed of by the said Commissioners in the same Manner and for the same Purpose as and considered in all Respects as Part of the Sum to be received under the Authority of this Act for or in respect of any Sales or Exchanges of any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England and Wales, the Isle of Man and its Dependencies, or the Isle of Alderney; and so much of the said Monies as shall have been raised by the Sale of Stock purchased with Monies which shall have arisen from the Sale or Exchange of any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, shall be applied and disposed of by the said Commissioners in the same Manner and for the same Purpose and considered in all Respects as Part of the Sum to be received under the Authority of this Act for or in respect of any Sales or Exchanges of any of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Stock which shall be sold by the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, under the Provisions heretofore contained, may be transferred by any Person or Persons to be appointed by him or them for that Purpose, by any Letter of Attorney, under the Hand and Seal of the said Lord High Treasurer, or under the Hand and Seal of any Three of the said Commissioners for the Time being, and attested by Two or more credible Witnesses; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall and they are hereby authorized and required to permit all such Transfers to be so made.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That the annual Income of all the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, to which this Act relates, including Taxes on Leases, and all other Sums received in respect of such Leases or otherwise, for or in respect of the said Possessions and Land Revenues (except from Sales or Exchanges), shall be applied in Manner following: [that is to say,] in the first Place, in Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses attending the Management of the said Possessions and Land Revenues; in the next Place, in the Payment and Discharge of any annual Sum or Sums of Money or any Pensions already charged or to be charged thereon respectively, and in the Payment of any other Principal Sum and the Interest of any Principal Sum or Sums of Money which is already or may be hereafter charged upon the said Possessions and Land Revenues; in the next Place, so much of the Monies to arise from the said annual Income to the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being shall from Time to Time think proper shall be applied towards the Payment and Discharge of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the Repairs, Alterations, and Improvements of Buckingham House, and the Buildings, Officers, and Grounds appertaining and belonging thereto; provided that the Sum to be so applied under this Act to such Repairs, Alterations, and Improvements shall not exceed the Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, over and above the Sum of Three hundred and forty-six thousand Pounds which has been already applied thereto previous to the passing of this Act; and, subject to the Application aforesaid, the said annual Income shall, during the Life of His present Majesty, be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and from and after the Death of His present Majesty (whom God long preserve) shall be payable and paid to the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors.

CXIV. And Whereas by the Acts heretofore recited, by which it was provided that the Sums amounting to Six hundred thousand Pounds, heretofore mentioned, should become a Loan upon the Land Revenues of the Crown in England, whosoever the Produce of the said Land Revenues should cease to be carried to the Consolidated Fund, it was also provided that the said Sums should in that Event bear Interest from the respective Times when the same were advanced; and it is reasonable that Dividends of Stock as purchased or to be applied in same Manner as annual Income of Land Revenues in England and Ireland respectively;

and Stock so purchased to be sold when wanted.

Transfers may be made by Power of Attorney.

Application of annual Income of Land Revenues.

The Land Revenues, on whose Receipts by the Crown, to be charged with the Repayment of certain Sums expended in their Improvements.

‘the said Land Revenue, as retained by the Crown, shall only be charged with Interest on the said Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds from the Time of such Redemption; and it is also reasonable, in case of the Principal Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds, heretofore mentioned to have been borrowed under the Authority and for the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty or any Part thereof, should be paid off out of the annual Income of the said Possessions and Land Revenue of the Crown, whilst the same shall be carried to the Consolidated Fund, that so much of the said Principal Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds as shall be so paid off should, in the Event of the said Land Revenue of the Crown being resumed, be a Charge thereon, with Interest from the Time of such Redemption:’ Be it therefore enacted, That whenever the annual Produce of the Possessions and Land Revenue of the Crown shall cease to be carried unto and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be retained by the Crown as Part of its Hereditary Revenue, the same shall be charged and chargeable with the Repayment into the said Consolidated Fund of the said Principal Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds before mentioned, and of so much of the said Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds as shall have been paid off out of the annual Income of the said Possessions and Land Revenue as aforesaid, together with Interest for the same at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time when the annual Income of the said Possessions and Land Revenue shall so cease to be carried to the Consolidated Fund and be retained by the Crown, and such Land Revenue shall thereupon be applicable to the Repayment of such Principal Sum or Sums, and to the Payment of such Interest for the same as aforesaid, prior to any other Application thereof, except the Charges attending the Management thereof, and the Payment and Discharge of any Sum or Sums now already charged thereon or to be charged thereon under or by virtue of this Act, and the Interest thereof, or of so much thereof as shall from Time to Time remain unpaid and undischarged, and the Interest thereof.

Commissioners to keep Account with the Bank.

CXVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue shall keep an Account with the Bank of England, to be entitled ‘The Woods and Forests Fund,’ and may, if they shall find it more convenient so to do, keep any other distinct Account or Accounts with the said Bank of England; and shall also, so long as they shall find it necessary so to do, keep an Account with the Bank of Ireland; and the said Commissioners, observing the Rules and Regulations hereby prescribed, shall not be answerable, either collectively or individually, for any Money which they the said Commissioners, or any or either of them, shall have paid into the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland.

Commissioners to cause all Sums received by their Agents of England or

land.

CXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue shall cause all Sums of Money, Bills, and Drafts received by them, their Agents or Receivers, either on account of the annual Income of the Possessions and Land Revenue of the Crown of England or Wales, the Isle of Man and its Dependencies, or the Isle of Alderney, or for Fines on Lances, or on the Sale or Exchange of any Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenue, to be paid as soon as conveniently may be into the Bank of England; and shall cause all Sums of Money, Bills, and Drafts received by them, their Agents or Receivers, either on account of the annual Income of the Possessions and Land Revenue of the Crown in Ireland, or for Fines on Lances, or on the Sale or Exchange of any Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenue of the Crown in Ireland, to be paid as soon as conveniently may be, either into the Bank of England or the Bank of Ireland; and all Sums of Money, Bills, and Drafts which shall be received by the said Commissioners on any of the Accounts aforesaid at their public Office in London shall be paid by them into the Bank of England within One Day after the same shall have been so received, or within One Day after any such Bill or Draft shall have been accepted, completed, and perfected, if the same shall not have been accepted, completed, and perfected at the Time it shall have been received; and all Monies, Bills, and Drafts which shall be received by the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, shall be placed to such Accounts, to be opened by the said Bank of England and and Bank of Ireland respectively, as shall from Time to Time be directed by the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and the Drafts or Orders of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any Two of them, shall be sufficient Authority to the said Bank of England and Bank of Ireland respectively to pay and apply and dispose of the said Monies, Bills, and Drafts, to be paid into the said Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, to the Person or Persons or in the Manner in such Drafts or Orders respectively mentioned or specified.

CXXIX. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to reserve out of the Monies to arise from the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown of England, Wales, and Ireland, heretofore placed under their Management, for casual and ordinary Payments, in the Hands of any private Banker, a Sum not exceeding Three thousand Pounds, to be drawn for by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any Two or more of them, from Time to Time on Demand shall require; and if any Time the Sum so reserved shall be reduced below Three thousand Pounds, then it shall be lawful for such Commissioners from Time to Time to make up the same to the Sum of Three thousand Pounds by Drafts upon the Bank of England.

CXX. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall make all Payments required to be made out of the Monies to be deposited in the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, by Drafts under the Hands of any Two or more of them on the said respective Banks, and shall specify in such Draft the particular Service, Salary, or other Charge, Purpose, or Cause for which such Draft shall be given, and every such Draft shall also be marked in the Margin thereof a Figure corresponding to the Page in a Book kept by the said Commissioners, wherein Entry shall be made of the particular Service, Salary, or other Charge, Purpose, or Cause for which such Draft shall be given.

CXXI. And be it further enacted, That all Drafts drawn pursuant to the Directions of this Act, but not otherwise, shall be sufficient Authority to the Bank of England and Bank of Ireland respectively to pay the Amount thereof to the Persons mentioned in such Drafts, or to the Bearer of them.

CXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall and they are hereby authorized and required from Time to Time, when and so often as they shall be required so to do by any Order under the Hand of the Secretary for the Time being to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to transfer any Sum or Sums of Money from the Account in their Banks of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to the Account of the said Commissioners with the Bank of England.

CXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Balance of Cash, together with all unpaid Bills or Drafts, for which the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall from Time to Time have Credits on their Account with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or with the Bank of Ireland, or any private Bankers, shall from Time to Time and at all Times remain and be vested in the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to be applied by them for the Purposes of this Act; and that no Assignment, Transfer, or other Act shall be requisite on the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any Commissioner or Commissioners, or on the Appointment of any new Commissioner or Commissioners, for the Purpose of vesting the same in the surviving Commissioner or Commissioners, or the newly appointed Commissioner or Commissioners, but the same by virtue of this Act shall, on any such Death, Removal, Resignation, or new Appointment, become and be vested in the surviving or remaining Commissioner or Commissioners, or the newly-appointed Commissioner or Commissioners, or if there shall be a new Appointment of the whole Number of Commissioners, then in the new Commissioners, as fully and effectually as if they had been the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues at the Times such Bills, Drafts, and Cash were respectively paid into the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, or such private Bank.

CXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall knowingly and wilfully forge or counterfeit, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in forging or counterfeiting, the Name or Hand-writing of the Lord High Treasurer or of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or of any or either of them, in any Power of Attorney for the Sale or Transfer of any Stock, or the Name or Hand-writing of the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or of any or either of them, to any Draft, Instrument, or Writing whatsoever, for or in order to the receiving or obtaining any of the Money in the Hands or Custody of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or of the Bank of Ireland, or of any private Banker, on account of the said Commissioners, or shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, any Draft, Instrument, or Writing in Form of a Draft made by the said Commissioners, or any or either of them, or shall utter or publish any such, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, with an Intent to defraud the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England or of the Bank of Ireland, or any private Banker, or any Body Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, every Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be and are hereby declared and adjudged to be guilty of Felony.

CXXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall and they are hereby required, within Thirty Days after the Commencement of the Session of Parliament which shall be in the Year One thousand eight hundred and CXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to repeal, interfere with, or in any Manner affect any of the Powers and Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act concerning the Disposition of certain Real and Personal Property of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and also of the Real and Personal Property of His Majesty and of the Queen Consort for the Term being; or of an Act passed in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, to explain and amend the said last-mentioned Act; or of an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, to explain and amend the said Two last-mentioned Acts; or of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of His present Majesty, for extending the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.

CXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland shall be inalienable, except under the Powers and Provisions herein-before contained, and except also that His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall have and enjoy the same Powers, with respect to any Messuages, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland, whether Freehold or Leasehold, which hath since the passing of the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Year of His present Majesty, or within Two Years prior thereto, or hereafter shall become vested in His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by Escheat or Forfeiture, or by reason of their having been purchased by or for the Use of or in Trust for any Alien or Aliens, as by the Acts hereby herein-before mentioned are given with respect to Messuages, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in England.

CXXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend in anywise to impair or affect any Rights or Powers of Control, Management, or Direction which have been or may be exercised by Authority of the Crown, or other lawful Warrant, relative to any Leases, Grants, or Assignments of any of the small Branches of His Majesty's Hereditary Revenue, or in any Suits or Proceedings for recovering of the same, or to Compositions made or to be made on account of any of the said small Branches, or to Paces taken or to be taken, or to Rents, Issues, and Services reserved or to be reserved upon such Grants, Leases, and Assignments, or to the Mitigation or Remission of the same, to any other lawful Act, Matter, or Thing which has been or may be done touching the said Branches, but that the said Rights and Powers shall continue to be used, exercised, and enjoyed in as full, free, ample, and effectual Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had not herein made, and as the same had been or might have been enjoyed by His Majesty up to the Time of passing of this Act; subject nevertheless to all such Restrictions and Regulations as are now in Force in relation thereto, it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that the said Rights and Powers shall not in any Degree be abridged or restrained or affected in any Manner whatsoever by the passing of this Act.

CXXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to repeal, interfere with, or affect any of the Powers or Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled *An Act for making a more convenient Communication from Marylebone Park and the Northern Parts of the Metropolis, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, to Charing Cross, within the Liberty of Westminster, and for making a more convenient Passage for the same; or any of the Powers and Provisions of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to extend to Charing Cross, the Strand, and Piazza adjacent, the Powers of an Act for making more convenient Communication from Marylebone

Park;

Park; and to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue to grant Leases of the Site of Carlton Palace; or any of the Powers and Provisions of a certain other Act, passed in the Sixth Year of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to alter and enlarge the Powers of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His great Majesty, for extending to Charing Cross, the Strand, and Places adjacent, the Powers of an Act for making a more commodious Communication from Mary-le-bone Park; and for enabling the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue to grant Leases of the Site of Carlton Palace; and for other Purposes relating thereto; as in any of the Powers and Provisions of a certain other Act, intitled *An Act to vest in the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue, the Powers of several Acts, for the Improvement of the Streets near Westminster Hall and the House of Parliament, and to authorize the Conversion of the Pavements in certain Parts of the Metropolis into broken-stone Roads.

CXXX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall (withstanding the Reppeal of the said several Acts herein-before mentioned relating to the Land Revenue of the Crown) extend to or be construed to repeal, interfere with, or affect any of the Powers, Privileges, or Authorities therein respectively obtained relating to any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, and Hereditaments within the Ordering and Survey of the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster, or to any of the Rents and Revenues thereof, or to any Purchases, Sales, or Grants made or to be made by or under the Seal of the said Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, or either of them; but that all and singular the said several Powers and Privileges, so far as the same relate to or concern the said Duchy and County Palatine, shall remain, continue, and be in full Force, Operation, and Effect, and the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, and other Hereditaments of and belonging to the said Duchy shall and may remain and continue to be granted and demised by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the like Terms, Estates, and Interests, and the Rents and Revenues thereof to be received and applied, under the Order and Direction of the Chancellor and Council and other Officers of the said Duchy, to and for the like Uses and Purposes, and in like Manner and Form, as before the passing of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, at any Time to abolish or reduce any Office or Offices connected with the Management of the Possessions and Land Revenue of the Crown in Ireland, or the Collection and Receipt of the annual Income thereof, which shall appear to him or them to be rendered useless by the Regulations contained in this Act, and on such Abolition or Reduction to discharge the Officer or Officers by whom such Office shall be held, whether the Appointment of such Officer or Officers shall have been by Letters Patent, Sign Manual, or otherwise; and also, when any Office shall relate to the Management of the said Possessions and Land Revenue, or the Collection and Receipt of the annual Income thereof, and also to other Matters, to discharge any Officer or Officers from the Performance of any Duties connected with the said Management, Collection, or Receipt, without altogether abolishing his or their Office or Offices, whenever such Abolition, Reduction, or Discharge may appear to the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, to be expedient for the Public Service; any Act or Acts, or any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, to cause any Records or other Manuscripts, Documents, Instruments, Maps, Books, or Writings, now kept in any of the Offices which may be reduced or abolished under the Authority of this Act, to be removed from any Office or Offices in which the same are now or shall at any Time hereafter be kept or deposited, to any other Office or Place which the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners shall think proper to appoint for that Purpose.

CXXXIII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That the Provisions herein-before contained shall not extend to any Estates or Possessions in Ireland which may be seized into the Hands of the Crown on Writs of Outlawry, or other Process between Subject and Subject, nor to any Rents usually called Custodian Rents reserved on Leases granted under the Exchange Seal of such Estates or Possessions, nor to the Fine Fines or Post Fines or other Fines or Monies payable on Writs of Entry and Writs of Covenant, or on levying Fines or suffering Common Recoveries in Ireland, nor to the Lighthouse Duties payable in Ireland.

CXXXIV. And Whereas it may be hereafter thought advisable to make some Abolitions with respect to the said Custodian Rents, Fine and Post Fines and other Fines in Ireland, and it is desirable that in this mean Time no Gift, Grant, or Alienation thereof should be made, by which such Abolition might be impeded or prevented: Be it therefore further enacted, That no Gift, Grant, Alienation, Lease, or other Assurance whatsoever, shall at any Time or Times hereafter be made by the King's Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Custodian Rents, or of the said Fine and Post Fines or other Fines or Monies, or of any of them, but that all such Gifts, Grants, Alienations, Leases, or other Assurances shall be ipso facto void, without any Scire facias, Inquisition, or other Proceeding to determine or make void the same.

CXXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to abridge or interfere with any Rights of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or the Chancellor of the Exchequer, for the Time being, or any Grants of the Crown, in respect of any Appointment usually made

B.G.4.1.10

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Employment of Children in Cotton Mills and Factories.

[19th June 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intimated An Act to make further Provisions for the Regulation of Cotton Mills and Factories, and for the better Preservation of the Health of young Persons employed therein: And Whereas the Provisions of the said Act have been defeated and set aside for Want of Form: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be deemed necessary in any Information, Summons, or Warrant issued in pursuance of the said recited Act, to set forth the Name or other Designation of each and every the Partners in any Cotton Mill or Factory, but that it shall be lawful to insert in such Information, Summons, or Warrant, the Name of the ostensible Proprietor or Title of the Firm by which the Proprietors or Proprietors of any such Mill or Factory are usually designated and known.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Service of such Summons or Warrant on any principal Manager, Conductor, or Clerk of any Cotton Mill or Factory, during the usual Hours of working such Cotton Mill or Factory, shall be good and lawful Service.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Information filed, nor any Summons or Warrant served, as directed by the said recited Act, or by this Act, shall be quashed for Informality or Want of Form.

[See post, Cap. 55.]

An Act to extend the Powers of an Act of the Fourth Year of His present Majesty, for enlarging the Powers of Justices in determining Complaints between Masters and Servants, to Persons engaged in the Manufacture of Silk.

[19th June 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intimated An Act to enlarge the Power of Justices in determining Complaints between Masters and Servants, and between Masters, Apprentices, Artificers, and others: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Operation of the said Act: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Provisions of the said Act shall be extended to all Persons engaged, whether as Masters, Servants, Apprentices, or otherwise, in the several Manufactures, Trades, and Occupations mentioned in an Act passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intimated An Act for amending and rendering more effectual the several Laws now in being for the more effectual preventing of Frauds and Abuses by Persons employed in the Manufacture of Hats, and in the Woollen, Linen, Cotton, Iron, Lead, Paper, Hemp, Flax, Malting, and Silk Manufactures, and also for making Provisions to prevent Frauds by Journeyman Dyers, in the same Manner as if such Persons had been specially mentioned therein.

C A P. LIII.

An Act to regulate the Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of certain Ecclesiastical Courts in England.

[19th June 1829.]

WHEREAS the Commissioners authorized and appointed by several Commissions and Warrants, as well from His late Majesty King George the Third, as from His present Majesty, to make a diligent ‘ diligent Examination of the Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments of the several Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of Justice of and within all Ecclesiastical Courts (amongst other Courts) in England, and to enquire what Regulations might be fit to be established respecting such Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments; here, in pursuance of the said several Commissions and Warrants, made Two several Reports to His present Majesty : one dated the Sixteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, as to the Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of Justice of the Court of Arches, Prerogative Court, and Court of Peculiars of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury respectively; and the other dated the Fourth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, as to the Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of Justice of the Consistory Court and Commissary Court of the Lord Bishop of London respectively : And Whereas the said Commissioners have in their said several Reports recommended the Regulation of the Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of Justice of the said several Courts respectively, and it is expedient that such Recommendations of the said Commissioners should be carried into Effect, and that some Provisions should be made for the permanent Regulation of the said Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments :’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Official Principal of the said Court of Arches, together with the Chancellor of the Diocese of London and the Commissary of the Diocese of Canterbury, or together with either of them, and they are hereby required, to take into Consideration the said Reports and Recommendations of the said Commissioners, and to establish and ordain Tables of Fees to be thereupon taken by the several Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of the said several Courts respectively, such Tables respectively to contain the Fees recommended by the said Commissioners in their said Reports to be taken by the several Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of the said several Courts respectively, and no other Fees or Emoluments whatsoever : such Tables of Fees, when so established and ordained, shall be entered or enrolled in the Public Books or Records of the Courts to which they respectively relate, in such Manner as the Persons establishing the same shall think fit.

Tables of Fees to be established and enrolled in the Books of the Courts.

The Fees in such Tables to be the only lawful Fees.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Fees so established and ordained shall, from and after the Enactment and ordaining thereof, and the Entry or Enrolment of such Tables as aforesaid, and after Notice thereof given to the Officers, Clerks, and Ministers respectively where they may concern, in such Manner as the Persons establishing the said Tables shall direct, be the lawful Fees of such Officers, Clerks, and Ministers respectively, and that none other (except such as may be altered or ordained as hereinafter provided) shall be demanded, received, or taken by such Officers, Clerks, and Ministers respectively, under any Colour or Pretence whatsoever.

Power to make Alterations or Additions in such Tables.

III. ‘ And Whereas some Alteration in such Tables of Fees, after the same shall have been so entered * and enrolled as aforesaid, may from Time to Time become expedient and necessary :’ Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Persons for the Time being by whom such Tables of Fees shall be established as aforesaid from Time to Time to alter such Tables of Fees, and also to establish and ordain other reasonable, new, or additional Fees to be demanded, received, and taken by such Officers, Clerks, and Ministers respectively, and to cause such altered, new, or additional Fees to be entered or enrolled in the Public Books or Records of the Courts to which they respectively relate : and which altered, new, or additional Fees, when so entered or enrolled, shall be the lawful Fees of such Officers, Clerks, and Ministers : Provided always, that before such altered, new, or additional Fees shall be entered or enrolled in the Public Books or Records of the Courts to which they respectively relate, and before the same shall be demanded, taken, or received by the said Officers, Clerks, and Ministers respectively, the same shall be approved by the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and the Lord Bishop of London respectively, as the same may relate to their respective Courts, and, if approved by them, shall be submitted to the Consideration of His Majesty’s Privy Council, who may disallow the same or any Part thereof; and Notice shall be given in the London Gazette of such Submission to the Privy Council; and if, within the Space of Three Calendar Months from the Time of giving such Notice, the same shall not be disallowed by the Privy Council, such altered, new, or additional Fees, or such Part thereof as shall not be disallowed, shall, from and after the Exppiration of the said Three Calendar Months, be deemed and taken to be lawful Fees, and shall be entered or enrolled as such in the Public Books or Records of the Courts to which they respectively relate, and added to the respective Tables of Fees accordingly.

Alterations or Additions to be approved previous to their Enactment.

Tables of Fees to be hung up in the Offices in which they relate.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the several Tables of Fees so ordained and established as aforesaid, together with any subsequent Alterations that may from Time to Time be made therein as aforesaid, shall be respectively kept hung up in some conspicuous Part of the Office or Place of Business to which they relate; and that Extracts from such Tables shall be hung up in some conspicuous Part of the Office or Place of Business of each Officer, Clerk, or Minister of the said several Courts respectively, containing such Parts thereof as shall concern such Officer, Clerk, or Minister.

Not to extend to Fees of Proctors.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any Charges or Fees made or received by any Proctor of the same Courts, or of any of them, in respect of Business done by such Proctor in his Character and Profession of Proctor only, and not as such Officer, Clerk, or Minister as aforesaid.

Power to make Regulations for due Performance of Duties.

VI. ‘ And Whereas various important Duties are required to be performed by the Deputy Registrars * and Clerks of Sessions in the Office of the Prerogative Court, and by the other Officers, Clerks, and Ministers employed in the Registry and in other Offices of the several before-mentioned Courts, the due Performance of which it is expedient to regulate and enforce, and to provide for the ‘ due Qualification of the Persons appointed in such Offices.’ Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Persons for the Time being respectively hereinafter authorized to establish Fees, and they are hereby required, forthwith to acquire into the Performance of such Duties, and from Time to Time to make such Regulations respecting the same, and the Performance thereof by the several Officers, Clerks, and Ministers aforesaid, as to them shall seem expedient; which Regulations, having been approved and confirmed by the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, when they relate to the said Court of Arches, Prerogative Court, and Court of Peculiars, or either of them, and having been approved and confirmed by the Lord Bishop of London, when they relate to the said Consistory Court and Commissary Court, or either of them, shall be entered or enrolled in the Public Books or Records of the Courts to which they shall relate respectively, and shall from the Time of such Entry or Enrolment be in Full Force with respect to such Officers, Clerks, and Ministers respectively, and binding upon them and each of them.

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Person shall be appointed to the Office of Deputy Registrar, Escreiv Clerk, Record Keeper, Clerk of the Seal, or Registrar in any of the said several Courts respectively, unless the Appointment of such Person to such Office shall be previously approved by the Judges for the Time being of the said several Courts respectively, and confirmed by the Archbishop of Canterbury or Bishop of London, as such Appointment may relate to the respective Courts of such Archbishop or Bishop, such Approbation and Confirmation to be signified in Writing, and to be registered.

VIII. And be it enacted, That no Person shall be hereafter appointed Clerk of a Seat in the Office of the said Prerogative Court unless he be a Notary Public, and have duly served a Clerkship of Seven Years to a Pastor practicing as such in One of the said Courts; and each Clerk of a Seat shall execute his Duties in Person, except when prevented by reasonable Cause, and when so prevented, he shall procure the Assistance of some other Notary Public, to be approved by the Judge: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or apply to any Clerk of a Seat in the Office of the Prerogative Court, duly appointed thereto before or at the Time of passing this Act.

IX. ‘ And Whereas Delay in the Progress of Causes in the said several Courts, and in the High Court of Delegates, is occasioned by some of the present Rules of Practice, and particularly by Rules respecting Causes proceeding in person consequence, where the Parties cited do not appear.’ Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Judges for the Time being of the said Court of Arches, Prerogative Court, Court of Peculiars, Consistory Court, and Commissary Court respectively, from Time to Time to appoint new and additional Court Days for the Transaction of Business in their several Courts respectively; which new and additional Court Days shall, from and after the Appointment thereof as aforesaid, be regular Court Days for the Transaction of Business, to all Intents and Purposes; and to make Orders of Court for expediting and regulating the Proceedings in their several Courts, and to cause the said Orders to be entered or enrolled in the Public Books or Records of the several Courts to which they respectively relate, and which, when so entered, shall, until altered or revoked by the same Authority, be observed by such Courts respectively; and all such Orders for the expediting or regulating the Proceedings in any Cause, so far as the same are applicable to Cases of Appeal, shall be submitted to the Consideration of the Lord High Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal for the Time being, who may direct the same and any further Order or Orders to be observed as Rules of Practice by the said High Court of Delegates in all Causes to which such Rules and Orders respectively may relate or be applicable, and which Orders, when approved by the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper for the Time being, shall be entered as Rules of Practice in the Register Books of the said Court of Delegation, and be observed as such by the same Court accordingly, until altered or revoked by competent Authority.

X. ‘ And Whereas great and unnecessary Inconvenience and Delay are occasioned by the numerous Holidays now kept in the Office of the said Prerogative Court.’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Holidays shall be kept in the Office of the said Prerogative Court except such as are observed as Holidays at His Majesty’s Head Office of Stamps in London.

XI. ‘ And Whereas great Inconvenience arises from the said Court of Peculiars being held in the Vestry Room of Bow Church.’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Court of Peculiars shall and may be held in the Common Hall or Place of Judicature in Doxford Common; and that all Process from and out of the said Court of Peculiars shall be returnable at such Place in Doxford Common; and all the Business of the said Court of Peculiars shall be done and transacted in the said Place in fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been done and transacted in the said Vestry Room of Bow Church: any Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. ‘ And Whereas great Inconvenience arises from the ceasing of the Functions of the Judges and other Officers, and the Suspension of Business in the several Courts of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and of the Bishop of London respectively, upon any Vacancy of their respective Seats.’ Be it therefore enacted, That upon any Vacancy of the respective Seats of Canterbury and London, after the passing of this Act, the Judges and Officers for the Time being of the several Courts of the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and Bishop of London respectively shall during such Vacancy, and until the issuing of new Commissions to their Heiress, respectively continue to hold their respective Offices; and all Business in the several Offices of such Courts respectively shall be transacted and carried on during such Vacancy, and shall be as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if no such Vacancy had occurred.

Appointment of Deputy Registrars, &c.

As to the Appointment of Clerks of Seats.

Additional Court Days may be appointed, and Orders made for expediting Causes.

Holidays.

Court of Peculiars may be held in Doxford Common.

Officers shall continue and Business be transacted in the said Courts during the Vacancy of the Seats of Canterbury or London.

Upon Death of Judges, the Sergeants, &c. to continue until new Appointments.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death of any of the Judges of the said several Courts, the Sergeants and other Officers of the said several Courts appointed by such Judges respectively shall continue to exercise their respective Offices until a new Appointment shall be made by the Persons having competent Authority so to do.

C. A. P. LIV.

An Act for directing Reports to be made respecting Gaols in Scotland. [19th June 1829.]

WHEREAS the Gaols in Scotland are in general insecure and inconvenient, and it is necessary that sufficient Gaols should be there erected and maintained; And Whereas it is expedient that satisfactory information should be obtained from the Magistrates of Royal Burghs, and from the Justices of Peace in Scotland, in regard to the best Mode of improving the same; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Magistrates of every Royal Burgh of Scotland shall respectively prepare and transmit to One of His Majesty's Secretaries of State, on or before the Fifteenth Day of November next after the passing of this Act, a Report, setting forth the present State of the Gaol of which they respectively have Charge, in point of Accommodation, Security, and Repair; and in particular so say,

Magistrates of Royal Burghs to report the State of the Gaols before 15th November
next.

First: What Number of Apartments such Gaol consists of; how they are respectively heated and ventilated; and what is the Length, Breadth, and Height of each; distinguishing those Apartments generally used for Prisoners confined on Criminal Warrants from those under other Warrants, and distinguishing the Apartments used for Males from those used for Females; also, showing how far each of such Apartments is sufficiently secure.

Second: The Number of Prisoners committed in the Course of the Two immediately preceding Years respectively; specifying the Number of Persons committed for Payment of Penalties under Revenue Statutes; and distinguishing Debtors from those committed on other Warrants, and Males from Females.

Third: The greatest Number of Prisoners confined at any One Time in each of the said Years respectively; distinguishing Debtors from those committed on other Warrants, and the Monthly Average Number of such Prisoners respectively during the said Periods.

Fourth: What Classification of Prisoners the Gaol admits of; whether Debtors have at any Time been confined or made to communicate with Prisoners under Criminal Warrants; and whether Prisoners, prior to Conviction, have been confined in the same Apartment, or have been allowed to communicate with those who have been convicted.

Fifth: Whether any Airing Grounds are attached to the Gaol, and what may be the Extent thereof; what Provision is made, and Accommodations set apart, for Prisoners when sick, and what for Prisoners under Sentence of Death.

Sixth: The Number of Persons employed as Keepers and Under Keepers; the Salaries and Emoluments received by each; and whether they or any of them have any other Employment; and whether they reside within the Gaol, or continue there during the Night.

Seventh: The Period when such Gaol was erected, and when it last received any material Addition, and of what Description and Extent such Addition was.

Eighth: By whom, at what Expence, and whether by any and what Act of Parliament, such Gaol was erected or enlarged, and by whom it is maintained.

Ninth: Whether such Gaol is sufficient for its proper Purpose, in point of Room, Accommodation, Security, and Repair; and if insufficient, in which of such Respects.

Tenth: Which Gaol is insufficient in any of the said Respects, how far it may appear that it requires to be rebuilt, or to be enlarged, and to what Extent; and how far the present Site admits of such rebuilding or Enlargement, including Airing Ground.

Eleventh: Any additional Observations which may be deemed important.

Provided also, that the said Report shall set forth the Measures which may be considered the most proper to be adopted for remedying the Defects which may be so found to exist, and for establishing suitable Gaol Accommodation in the County within which such Burgh may be situated, together with the Mode in which the Expence attending the same ought respectively to be defrayed, and if by more Parties than One, in what Proportion such Parties ought respectively to contribute.

II. And be it enacted, That a Meeting of the Justices of the Peace of every County of Scotland shall be held in the Head Burgh thereof on the Twenty-eighth Day of August next after the passing of this Act, or where there is no Head Burgh in any such County, at the Place where the Magistrates Head Court of Freeholders usually meets, for the Purpose of taking into Consideration the State of the several Gaols situated in such County respectively.

III. And be it enacted, That no Person shall be entitled to have a Voice or Vote in this or any other Meeting of Justices of the Peace of every County, to be held under this Act, who shall not at the Time be possessed of the Freehold of Lands situated in such County valued at not less than One hundred Pounds Scots of valued here, excepting only the Sheriff Depute of the County, and in his Absence the Principal Sheriff Substitute thereof; any of whom, if Qualify Justices, shall be entitled to act as Justices of the Peace under this Act, although they may not be possessed of the said Qualification: Provided always, that in the County of Edinburgh any Justice of the Peace who shall be a proper Warden of Lands in the said County valued at not less than One hundred Pounds Scots of value. Rent shall be settled to act as a Justice under this Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices at the said Meeting, and they are hereby required, to appoint a Committee or Committees of their Number to inspect the said Gaols, and to report to an adjourned Meeting of the said Justices, to be held at such Time and Place as the said Justices may then think fit, in regard to the present State of such Gaols in point of Accommodation, Security, and Repair, as to all and each of the several Particulars in respect to which the Magistrates of Royal Burghs are by the Provisions of this Act as aforesaid required to report.

V. And be it enacted, That the Keepers of Gaols shall give free Access thence to the Members of such Committees, and shall exhibit to them all Records and other Documents relative to such Gaols, and otherwise afford to them every Information touching the same in their Power.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Committees shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to prepare a Report setting forth the State of each Gaol, and to present the same to such adjourned Meeting of the said Justices, who are hereby required to take the same into Consideration, and either then or at a subsequent adjourned Meeting to propose a General Report, comprehending the Particulars so reported from their Committees, and setting forth the Measures most proper to be adopted for remedying the Defects which may be found to exist in such Gaols, and for establishing suitable Gaol Accommodation in the County, together with the Mode in which it shall appear to such Justices that the Expense attending the same ought reasonably to be defrayed, and if by more Parties than One, in what Proportions such Parties ought respectively to contribute.

VII. And be it enacted, That the said Justices shall, and they are hereby required to transmit each Report to One of His Majesty's Secretaries of State on or before the Fifteenth Day of November next after the passing of this Act, and shall cause a Copy thereof to be transmitted to His Majesty's Advocate for Scotland; and the Magistrates of Royal Burghs shall in like Manner cause a Copy of the Reports to be furnished by them as aforesaid to be transmitted to His Majesty's Advocate for Scotland.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the said Reports, as to be transmitted to the Secretary of State, shall also set forth the Mode in which Alimony is in use to be provided for Prisoners in such Gaols, distinguishing Civil Debtors from such Persons as are confined under Revenue Statutes, and Prisoners under Criminal Warrants before Conviction from those subsequent to Conviction; and the said Report shall also set forth any Changes in regard to the Mode of providing such Alimony which may have taken Place, specifying at what Date such Change took Place, and what may have been the Nature of the same, and further, in what Way and at whose Expense it shall appear reasonable to the said Magistrates of Burghs and Justices of the Peace respectively that such Alimony should in future be provided, and if by more Parties than One, in what Proportions such Parties ought respectively to contribute.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be held and taken to be a sufficient Compliance with the Provisions of this Act, that a Report in Terms thereof be furnished by the Magistrates of the Burghs and the Justices of the Peace for any County jointly, where three Parties may mutually agree as to the Terms of the same.

C. A. P. LV.

An Act for the more effectual Recovery of Small Debts, and for diminishing the Expenses of Litigation in Causes of small Amount, in the Sheriff Courts in Scotland. [18th June 1829.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for the more easy Recovery of Small Debts in the Sheriff Courts in Scotland, the Provisions of which have been found beneficial, but Experience has pointed out certain Alterations by which some Benefits will be extended and rendered more effectual, and it is expedient that such Alterations and the former Provisions should be consolidated in One Act; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed from and after the First Day of September next, save and except as to such Causes as shall have been commenced under the Authority of the said recited Act before the said First Day of September next, and shall be then depending; all which Causes shall be carried to a Conclusion, according to the Rules prescribed by the said Act, notwithstanding this Act.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the First Day of September next, it shall be lawful for any Sheriff in Scotland, within his County, to hear, try, and determine in a summary Way, as more particularly hereinafter mentioned, all Civil Causes, and all Prosecutions for statutory Penalties, that may be competently brought before him, wherein the Debt, Demand, or Penalty concluded for shall not exceed the Value of One hundred Pounds Scots, exclusive of Expenses and Fees of Extract: Provided always, that the Pursuer or Prosecutor shall in all Cases be held to have passed them and abandoned any remaining Portion of any Debt, Demand, or Penalty beyond the Sum actually concluded for in any such Cause or Prosecution.

III. And be it enacted, That all such Causes and Prosecutions, which the Pursuer or Prosecutor thereof shall choose to have heard and determined according to the summary Mode hereby provided, shall proceed, except as hereinafter provided in regard to Forfeittings, upon Summons or Complaint, agreeably to the Form in Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act, stating shortly the Origin of Debt or Ground

Debtor.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Pursuer of any Civil Cause may obtain a Warrant, signed by the Sheriff Clerk of the County within which the Defender resides, agreeably to the Form in Schedule (B.) subjoined to this Act, for Arrestment, on the Dependence of the Action, of any Money, Goods, or Effects to an Amount or Extent not exceeding the Value of One hundred Pounds Scots, owing or belonging to such Defender, in the Hands of any Third Party, and may at any Time before Decree is pronounced in the Cause, provided such Time does not exceed Sixty Days from the Date of such Warrant, use Arrestment thereon against such Money, Goods, and Effects owing or belonging to such Defender, either within the County in which such Warrant shall have been issued, or in any other County or Counties: Provided always, that before using such Warrant in any other County, it shall be presented to and indorsed by the Sheriff Clerk of such other County, who is hereby required to make such Indorsement on Payment of the Fee hereinafter mentioned, and provided also, that any Arrestment laid on under the Authority of this Act shall, on the Expiry of Three Months from the Date thereof, cease and determine without the Necessity of a Decree or Warrant of homologation the same, unless such Arrestment shall be renewed by a Special Warrant or Order, duly intimated to the Arrestee, in which Case it shall subsist and be in Force for the like Time and under the like Conditions as under the original Warrant, or unless an Action of Forthcoming, in Manner hereinafter provided, shall have been raised before the Expiry of the said Period of Three Months, in which Case the Arrestment shall subsist and be in Force until the Termination of such Action of Forthcoming.

Perpetrating
new Arrest-
found.

V. And be it enacted, That when any Arrestment shall have been used on the Dependence of any Action, it shall be competent to the Defender to have such Arrestment homologated, on lodging with the Sheriff Clerk of the County in which such Arrestment shall have been used a Bond or Enactment of Caution, by One or more good and sufficient Cautioneers, to the Satisfaction of such Sheriff Clerk, agreeably to the Form in Schedule (B.) subjoined to this Act, or on consigning to the Hands of such Sheriff Clerk the Amount of the Debt or Demand, and a reasonable Sum for Expenses, or on producing to such Sheriff Clerk Evidence of the Defender having obtained Decree of Absolution in the Action, or of his having paid the Sum decreed for, or of his having assigned in the Hands of the Clerk of the Court in which the Action depended the Sum decreed for, or the Amount of the Debt or Demand, and a reasonable Sum for Expenses, when no Decree has yet been pronounced; and a Certificate by the Sheriff Clerk of the County in which such Arrestment shall have been used, of a Bond or Consignment of Caution to the Extent of the Debt or Demand, and Expenses, having been lodged with him, or of Consignation as above provided having been made in his Hands, shall be a sufficient Authority for obtaining a Warrant for having any other Arrestment used on the Dependence of the same Action, without any other Caution being lodged, or any other Consignation being made by the Defender.

Revolving Ar-
Bonds.

VI. And be it enacted, That any Person entitled to pursue an Action of Forthcoming, where the Sum or Demand shall not exceed the Value of One hundred Pounds Scots, exclusive of Expenses and Fees of Extract, who shall choose to have the same heard and determined according to the summary Mode provided by this Act, shall proceed by Summons or Complaint agreeably to the Form in Schedule (C.) subjoined to this Act, concluding for Payment of the Sum for which Arrestment has been used, or for Delivery of the Goods and Effects arrested, which Summons or Complaint, being signed by the Sheriff Clerk of the County in which the Arrestee resides, shall be a sufficient Warrant and Authority to any Sheriff's Officer for summoning the Arrestee and the Common Debtor to appear and answer at a Sheriff Court of the County in which the Arrestee resides, the same not being sooner than the Sixth Day after the Date of Citation, and also for summoning witnesses and Havers for all Parties; and in the Event of the Common Debtor not residing and not being found within the County in which such Action of Forthcoming shall be brought, he may be cited as any other County on the said Warrant, the same being first presented presented to and indorsed by the Sheriff Clerk of such other County, who is hereby required to indorse the same on Payment of the Fee hereinafter mentioned, to appear at a Sheriff Court in the County in which the Arresting Warden, the same not being sooner in such Case than on the Twelfth Day after the Date of Citation: Provided always, that the Arrestor and the Common Debtor shall be cited to appear on the same Court Day, and that a Copy of the said Summons or Complaint, with the Citations annexed thereto, shall be served by the Sheriff's Officer on every Defender personally, or at his Dwelling Place, all in the same Manner and under the like Conditions as to Citation as heretofore provided in other Causes and Prosecutions under Authority of this Act, but always allowing to a Party cited to appear in the Sheriff Court of a different County from that in which the Citation shall be given double the Time required by this Act to be allowed to a Party cited to appear in the Sheriff Court of the County within which the Citation shall be given.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Officer of Court to whom any Warrant as aforesaid for citing Witnesses and Havers shall be entrusted, shall cite such Witnesses or Havers as any Party shall require; and all such Warrants shall have the same Force and Effect in any other County as in the County where they are originally issued, the same being first presented to and indorsed by the Sheriff Clerk of such other County, who is hereby required to indorse the same, on Payment of the Fee hereinafter mentioned; and if any Witness or Haver, duly cited, shall fail to appear, it shall be competent to any Party for whom such Witness or Haver is summoned, to apply for a new Warrant to compel his Attendance at the next Court, or any subsequent Court to which the Case may be adjourned, which Warrant shall require him to attend to give Evidence, under a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, unless a reasonable Excuse be offered and sustained; and every such Penalty shall be paid to the Party applying for the new Warrant as aforesaid, and shall be recovered in the same Manner as other Penalties under this Act, without Prejudice always to Letters of Sacramental Diligence, for compelling Witnesses and Havers to attend as at present competent; and it shall be no Objection to any Witness that such Witness has appeared without Citation, or without having been regularly cited.

VIII. And be it enacted, That when the Parties shall appear the Sheriff shall hear them viva voce, and examine Witnesses or Havers upon Oath, and may also examine the Parties, and may put them or any of them upon Oath, and may pronounce Judgment, and the Decree stating the Amount of the Expenses, if any, found due to any Party, (which may include personal Charges, if the Sheriff think fit,) and containing Warrant for Arrestment, and for Pounding and Imprisonment, shall be annexed to the Summons or Complaint, and on the same Paper with it, agreeably to the Form in Schedule (A.) subjoined to this Act: which Decree and Warrant, being signed by the Clerk, shall be a sufficient Authority for instant Arrestment, and also for Pounding and Sale, and Imprisonment, Six free Days from the Date of the Decree, if the Party against whom it shall have been given was personally present when it was pronounced, but if it was not so present, Pounding and Sale, and Imprisonment, shall only proceed after a Charge of Six free Days, by serving a Copy of the Complaint and Decree on the Party personally or at his Dwelling Place; and if any Decree shall not be collected by Pounding or Imprisonment within a Year from the Date thereof, or from a Charge for Payment given thereon, such Decree shall not be enforced without a new Charge duly given as aforesaid.

IX. And be it enacted, That no Procurators, Solicitors, nor any Persons practising the Law, shall be allowed to appear or plead for any Party without Leave of the Court; nor shall any of the Pleadings, Arguments, Minutes, or Evidence be reduced to Writing, or be entered upon any Record, unless with Leave of the Court first had and obtained, in consequence of any Difficulty in Point of Law, or special Circumstances of any particular Case: Provided always, that when the Sheriff shall order any Pleadings, Arguments, Minutes, or Evidence to be reduced to Writing, every Case in which such Order shall be made shall thereafter be conducted according to the ordinary Forms and Proceedings in Civil Causes and in Prosecutions for statutory Penalties, and shall be disposed of in all Respects as if this Act had not been passed.

X. And be it enacted, That any Defender who has been duly cited personally, or by Two Citations at his Dwelling Place, failing to appear personally or by One of his Family, or by such Person as the Sheriff shall allow, shall be held confessed, and the other Party shall obtain Decree against him; and in like Manner, if the Pursuer or Prosecutor shall fail to appear personally, the Defender shall obtain Decree of Absolutor, unless in either Case a sufficient Excuse for Delay shall be stated, on which Account, or on account of the Absence of Witnesses, or any other good Reason, it shall at all Times be competent for the Sheriff to adjourn any Case to the next or any other Court Day, and to ordain the Parties and Witnesses then to attend.

XI. And be it enacted, That where a Decree has been pronounced in Absence of a Defender, it shall be competent for him, upon comparing the same decreed for to the Hands of the Clerk, at any Time before the Days of the Charge shall elapse, to obtain from the Clerk a Warrant, signed by him, stating Execution of the next Court Day, or to any subsequent Court Day to which the same may be adjourned, and containing Authority for citing the other Party, and Witnesses and Havers for both Parties; and the Clerk shall be bound to certify to the Sheriff on the next Court Day every such Application for Rehearing and Stay granted; and such Warrant being duly served upon the other Party personally, or by Two Citations at his Dwelling Place, in the Manner provided in other Cases by this Act, shall be an Authority for rehearing the Cause; and in like Manner, where Absolutor has been granted in Absence of the Pursuer or Prosecutor, it shall be competent for him, at any Time within One Calendar Month thereafter, upon consigning in the Hands of the Clerk the Sum awarded by the Sheriff in his Decree of Absolutor to the Expenses for this Distinction, and his Witnesses, to obtain a Warrant, signed by the Clerk, for citing the Defender and Witnesses for both Parties, which Warrant, being duly served upon the Defender personally, or by Two Citizens at his Dwelling Place, in the Manner provided in other Cases by this Act, shall be an Authority for rehearing the Cause, as hereby provided in the Case of a Rehearing at the Instance of the Defender; the said Sum of Expenses, awarded by the Sheriff and paid as aforesaid, being in every Case paid over to the Defender, unless the contrary shall be specially ordered by the Court; and of such Warrants for Rehearing shall be in Force, and may be served by an Officer of this County where they are issued, in any other County, without Indentation, or other Authority than this Act.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Sheriff Clerk shall keep a Book, wherein shall be entered all Causes conducted under the Authority of this Act, setting forth the Names and Designations of the Parties, and whether present or absent at the Calling of the Cause, the Nature and Amount of the Claim, and Date of giving it in, the Mode of Citation, the several Deliberations or Interlocutors, and the final Decree, with the Date thereof; which Book shall be signed each Court Day by the Sheriff, and the said Entries by the Clerk shall be according to the Form in Schedule (D.) subjoined to this Act, or with such Addition as the Sheriff shall appoint; and the Sheriff Clerk shall also keep a Book or Books, containing a Register or Registers of all Indentations of Deceives and Warrants issued in other Counties, and of all Warrants for Arrestment on the Dependence, and of all Listings of Arrestment, and of all Reports of Findings, and Sales of Goods and Effects arrested; which Registers shall be open and patred at Office Hours, to all concerned, on Payment of the Fee hereinafter mentioned.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Sheriff may, if he think proper, direct the Sum or Sums found due to be paid by Instalments, weekly, monthly, or quarterly, according to the Circumstances of the Party found liable, and under such Conditions or Qualifications as he shall think fit to annex.

XIV. And be it enacted, That any Decree obtained under this Act may be enforced against the Person or Effects of any Party in any other County, as well as in the County where the Decree is issued: Provided always, that such Decree, or an Extract thereof, shall be first produced to and indorsed by the Sheriff Clerk of such other County, who is hereby required to make such Indorsement, on Payment of the Fee hereinafter mentioned.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Pounding and Sale shall be carried into Effect by the Officer in a summary Way, by getting the Effects pointed out appraised by Two Persons, who may also be Witnesses to the Pounding, and leaving an Inventory or List thereof for the Party whose Effects are pounded, and carrying such Effects either to the nearest Market Town or to the nearest Village, and selling the same to the Highest Bidder by Public Sale, between the Hours of Eleven Forenoon and Three Afternoon, at the Cross or such most Public Place, on previous Notice of at least Two Hours by the Crier, but reserving to the Sheriff, by such General Regulation or Special Order in any particular Case, as he shall think fit, to appoint a different Hour or Place for the Sale, or a longer or different Kind of Notice to be given of the Time of selling, and the Receipt of the Price, if there shall be any, after Payment of the Sum decreed for, and the Expenses, if Expenses are awarded, including what is allowed by this Act for Pounding and Sale, shall be returned to the Owner; or if the Effects are not sold, the same shall be delivered over at the appraised Value to the Creditor, to the Amount of the Sum decreed for, and Expenses, if awarded, and the Allowances for Pounding and Sale; and a Report of the Pounding and Sale and Proceeds, or of the Delivery of the Effects, shall in every Case be made by the Officer to the Sheriff Clerk within Eight Days thereafter, agreeably to the Form in Schedule (D.) subjoined to this Act; and where the Sheriff shall order a Sale of Goods or Effects arrested, the same Course of Proceeding shall be adapted as is above directed in the Case of Pounding and Sale; and no Officer to whom the Enforcement of Decrees or Warrants in Cases falling under this Act may be committed, shall be liable to any Penalty, Fine, or Punishment for selling Goods or Effects, under Authority of such Decrees or Warrants, by public Auction, although such Officer may not be licensed as an Auctioneer; any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. And be it enacted, That all Actions of Damages for Compensation for Loss or Injury by the Act or Acts of any volariable, riotous, or tumultuous Assembly in Scotland, or of any Person engaged in, or making Part thereof, authorized to be brought by an Act passed in the Third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, where the Sum awarded for damages not exceed One hundred Pounds Scots; so also all Actions for Recovery of Accoments by virtue of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the Preservation of the Salmon Fisheries in Scotland, may be heard and determined in the summary Way provided by this Act, and the notwithstanding the Amount of such Accoments shall exceed One hundred Pounds Scots.

XVII. And be it enacted, That on all Times, when the Sheriff of any Shire shall judge it expedient to hold Courts for the Purposes of this Act, whether in Time of Session or of Vacation, or any other than the usual Place or Places for holding the same, or shall be directed so to do by His Majesty's Warrant, as provided in other Cases by Act of Parliament, the Sheriff Clerk is hereby required to attend at each Times and Places, and to find the necessary Accommodation for holding such Courts all on his own Charges and Expenses, in respect of the Fees allowed by this Act.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That no Decree given by any Sheriff in any Cause or Prosecution raised under the Authority of the Act, where the Sheriff shall not have ordered any Findings, Arguments, Minutes, or Evidence to be reduced to Writing, shall be subject to Advocacy, Suspension, or Appeal, or any other Form of Review or Stay of Execution, other than heretofore provided, either on the Merits or on Account of any Objection in the Proceedings, or of any Irregularity or Informality, or on any Ground

IV. And be it further enacted, That a Transcript fairly written on Paper or Parchment, of all such Rules, signed by Three Members, and countersigned by the Clerk or Secretary, with all consents Speed after the same shall be made, altered, or amended, and so from Time to Time after every making, altering, or amending thereof, shall be submitted, in England and Wales and Berwick-upon-Tweed, to the Barrister at Law for the Time being appointed to certify the Rules of Sessing Benders, and in Scotland to the Lord Advocate or any of his Deputies, and in Ireland to such Barrister as may be appointed by His Majesty's Attorney General in Ireland, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether the said Rules of such Society, or Alteration or Amendment thereof, are in Conformity to Law and to the Provisions of this Act; and that the said Barrister or Advocate shall give a Certificate thereof, or point out in what Part or Parts they are repugnant thereto; and that the Fee payable to such Barrister or Advocate for perusing the Rules, or Alterations or Amendments of the Rules, of each respective Society, and giving such Certificate as aforesaid, shall not as any One Time exceed the Sum of One Guinea, which, together with the Expence of conveying the Rules to and from the said Barrister or Advocate, shall be defrayed by such Society respectively; and such Transcript, when certified by the said Barrister or Advocate, shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County wherein such Society shall be formed, and by him laid before the Justices for such County at the General Quarter Sessions, or Adjournment thereof, next after the Time when such Transcript shall have been so certified and returned as aforesaid; and the Justices then and there present are hereby authorized and required to allow and confirm the same; and such Transcript shall be filed by such Clerk of the Peace with the Rolls of the Sessions of the Peace to his County; and a Certificate of the Enactment thereof shall, within Fourteen Days after the End of the said Sessions or Adjournment thereof, be signed by such Clerk of the Peace on a Duplicate Copy to be provided by and returned to such Society, without Fee or Reward: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any Rules, Alterations or Amendments thereof, to be submitted to such Barrister or Advocate, if the same, when deposited with the Clerk of the Peace, are accompanied with an Affidavit of being a Copy of any of the Rules, Alterations, or Amendments of any other Society which shall have been already enrolled under the Provisions of this Act in the same County.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any such Barrister or Advocate shall refuse to certify all or any of the Rules so to be submitted for his Personal Examination, it shall then be lawful for any such Society to submit the same to the Court of Quarter Sessions, together with the Reasons assigned by the said Barrister or Advocate, in Writing, for any such Rejection or Disapproval of any One or more such Rules; and that the Justices of their said Quarter Sessions shall and may, if they think fit, confirm and allow the same, notwithstanding any such Rejection or Disapproval by any such Barrister or Advocate.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Rules of any Society hereafter to be formed shall be allowed unless it shall appear to the Justices to whom the same are tendered that the Tables of the Payment to be made by the Members, and of the Benefits to be received by them, may be adopted with Safety to all Parties concerned.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no such Society as aforesaid shall have the Benefit of this Act, unless all the Rules for the Management thereof shall be entered in a Book to be kept by an Officer of such Society appointed for that Purpose, and which Book shall be open at all reasonable Times for the Inspection of the Members of such Society, and unless all such Rules shall be fairly transcribed, and such Transcript deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County wherein such Society shall be established as aforesaid; but nevertheless nothing contained herein shall extend to prevent any Alteration in or Amendment of any such Rules so entered and deposited and filed as aforesaid, or repelling or annulling the same, or any of them, in the Whole or in Part, or making any new Rules for the Management of such Society, in such Manner as by the Rules of such Society shall from Time to Time be provided; but such new Rules, or such Alterations in or Amendments of former Rules, or any Order annulling or repelling any former Rules in the Whole or in Part, shall not be in Force until the same respectively shall be entered in such Book as aforesaid, and certified, when necessary, by such Barrister or Advocate as aforesaid, and until a Transcript thereof shall be deposited with such Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, who shall file and certify the same as aforesaid; and that no such Rule, or Alteration in or Amendment of any former Rule, shall be binding or have any Force or Effect until the same shall have been confirmed by such Justices, and filed as aforesaid.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Rules from Time to Time made and in Force for the Management of such Society as aforesaid, and duly entered in such Book as aforesaid, and confirmed by the Justices as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several Members and Officers of such Society, and the several Constables thereto, and their Representatives, all of whom shall be deemed and taken to have full Notice thereof by such Entry and Confirmation as aforesaid; and the Entry of such Rules in such Book as aforesaid, or the Transcript thereof deposited with such Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, or a true Copy of such Transcript, examined with the Original and proved to be a true Copy, shall be received as Evidence of such Rules respectively in all Cases; and no Certificate, Supersedeas, Admonition, Reduction, or other legal Process, shall be brought or allowed to restrain any such Rules into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record; and every Copy of any such Transcript deposited with any Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid shall be made without Fee or Reward, except the actual Expence of making such Copy.

IX. And

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Rule confirmed by the Justices of the Peace in Manner aforesaid shall be altered, rescinded, or repealed, unless at a General Meeting of the Members of such Society as aforesaid, convened by public Notice, written or printed, signed by the Secretary or President or other principal Officer or Clerk of such Society, in pursuance of a Resolution for that Purpose by Seven or more of the Members of such Society; which said Resolution and Notice shall be publicly read at the Two usual Meetings of such Society to be held next before each General Meeting for the Purpose of such Alteration or Repeal, unless a Committee of such Members shall have been appointed for that Purpose at a General Meeting of the Members of such Society convened in Manner aforesaid, in which Case such Committee shall have the like Power to make such Alterations or Repeal; and unless such Alterations or Repeal shall be made with the Concurrence and Approbation of Three Fourths of the Members of such Society then and there present, or by the like Proportion of such Committee as aforesaid, if any shall have been appointed for that Purpose.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Rules of every Society formed under the Authority of this Act shall specify the Place or Places at which it is intended such Society shall hold its Meetings, and shall contain Provisions with respect to the Powers and Duties of the Members at large, and of such Committees or Officers as may be appointed for the Management of the Affairs of such Society; Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for any such Society to alter their Place or Places of Meeting whenever they may consider it necessary, upon giving Notice thereof in Writing to the Clerk of the Peace for the County within which such Society shall be held, the said Notice to be given within Seven Days before or after such Removal, and signed by the Secretary or other principal Officer, and also by Three or more of the Members of the said Society; and provided that the Place or Places at which such Society intend to hold their Meetings shall be situate within the County in which the Rules of the said Society are enrolled.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every such Society shall and may from Time to Time, at any of their usual Meetings, or by their Committee, if any such shall be appointed for that Society, elect and appoint such Persons into the Office of Steward, President, Warden, Treasurer, or Trustee of such Society, as they shall think proper, and also shall and may from Time to Time elect and appoint such Clerks and other Officers as shall be deemed necessary to carry into Execution the Purposes of such Society, for such Space of Time and for such Purposes as shall be fixed and established by the Rules of such Society, and from Time to Time to elect and appoint others in the Room of those who shall vacate or die; and such Treasurer, Trustee, and all and every other Officer or other Person whatsoever who shall be appointed to any Office in anywise touching or concerning the Receipts, Management, or Expensures of any Sum of Money collected for the Purpose of any such Society, before he, she, or they shall be admitted to take upon him, her, or them the Execution of any such Office or Trust (if required so to do by the Rules of such Society in which such Officer shall be acting), shall become bound to a Bond, according to the Form prescribed in the Schedule to this Act annexed, with Two sufficient Sureties, for the just and faithful Execution of such Office or Trust, and for rendering a just and true Account according to the Rules of such Society, and in all Matters lawful to pay Obedience to the same, in such penal Sum of Money as by the major Part of such Society at any such Meeting as aforesaid shall be thought expedient, and to the Satisfaction of such Society; and that every such Bond to be given by or on the Behalf of such Treasurer or Trustee, or of any other Person appointed to any other Office or Trust, shall be given to the Clerk of the Peace of the County where such Society shall be established, for the Time being, without Fee or Reward; and in case of Forfeiture it shall be lawful to sue upon such Bond in the Name of the Clerk of the Peace for the Time being, for the Use of the said Society, fully indemnifying and saving harmless such Clerk of the Peace from all Costs and Charges in respect of such Suit; provided that such Bond shall have in Scotland the same Force and Effect as a Bond in the Form or use in Scotland containing a Clause of Reimbursement.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every such Society shall and may from Time to Time elect and appoint any Number of the Members of such Society to be a Committee, the Number thereof to be declared in the Rules of every such Society, and shall and may delegate to such Committee all or any of the Powers given by this Act to be executed, who, being so delegated, shall continue to act as such Committee for and during such Time as they shall be appointed, for such Society, for general Purposes, the Powers of such Committee being first declared in and by the Rules of such Society, confirmed by the Justices of the Peace at their Sessions, and fixed in the Manner hereinbefore directed; and in all Cases where a Committee shall be appointed for any particular Purpose, the Powers delegated to such Committee shall be reduced into Writing and entered into a Book by the Secretary or Clerk of such Society, and a Majority of the Members of such Committee shall at all Times be necessary to concur in any Act of such Committee, and such Committee shall, in all Things delegated to them, act for and in the Name of such Society, and all Acts and Orders of such Committee, under the Powers delegated to them, shall have the like Force and Effect as the Acts and Orders of such Society at any General Meeting thereof could or might have had in pursuance of this Act: Provided always, that the Transactions of such Committee shall be entered in a Book, belonging to such Society, and shall be from Time to Time and at all Times subject and liable to the Review, Allowance, or Disallowance and Control of such Society, in such Manner and Form as such Society shall by their General Rules, confirmed by the Justices and filed as aforesaid, have directed and appointed, or shall in like Manner direct and appoint.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurer or Trustee for the Time being of any such Society, and he, she, and they it and are hereby authorized and required,

XIV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall have or receive any Part of the Moneys, Effects, or Funds of or belonging to any such Society, or shall in any Manner have been or shall be entrusted with the Disposal, Management, or Custody thereof, or of any Securities, Books, Papers, or Property relating to the same, be or her Executors, Administrators, and Assigns respectively, shall, upon Demand made, or Notice in Writing given or left at the last or usual Place of Residence of such Persons, in pursuance of any Order of such Society, or Committee to be appointed as aforesaid, for that Purpose, give in his or her Account at the next Meeting of such Society, or to such Committee thereof as aforesaid, to be examined and allowed or disallowed by such Society or Committee thereof, and shall, on the like Demand or Notice, pay over all the Moneys remaining in his or her Hands, and assign and transfer or deliver all Securities and Effects, Books, Papers, and Property, taken or standing in his or her Name as aforesaid, or being in his or her Hands or Custody, to the Treasurer or Trustees for the Time being, or to such other Person as such Society or Committee thereof shall appoint; and in case of any Neglect or Refusal to deliver such Account, or to pay over such Moneys, or to assign, transfer, or deliver such Securities and Effects, Books, Papers, and Property, in Manner aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for every such Society, in the Name of the Treasurer or Trustees or other principal Officer thereof, as the Case may be, to exhibit a Petition in the Court of Exchequer in England or Ireland, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or the Courts of Great Sessions in Wales respectively, who shall and may proceed thereupon in a summary Way, and make such Order thereon, upon hearing all Parties concerned, as to such Court to their Discretion shall seem just, which Order shall be final and conclusive; and all Assignments, Sales, and Transfers made in pursuance of such Order shall be good and effectual to Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XV. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as any Person owned or possessed of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or other Property, or any Estate or Interest therein, as a Trustee of any such Society, shall be out of the Jurisdiction of or not amenable to the Process of the Court of Exchequer in England or Ireland, or the Court of Session in Scotland, or of the Court of Great Sessions in Wales, or shall be idiot, Lunatic, or of unsound Mind, or it shall be unknown or uncertain whether he or she be living or dead, or such Person shall refuse to convey or otherwise assure such Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Property, or Estate or Interest, to the Person duly accounted as Trustee of such Society in their Court, either alone or together with any co-trustees, Trustees, or Deputies shall require, then and in every or any such Case it shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts respectively to appoint such Person, as to such Court shall seem meet, on Behalf and in the Name of the Person owned or possessed as aforesaid, to convey, surrender, release, assign, or otherwise assure the said Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Property, or Estate or Interest, to such Trustee as duly accounted as aforesaid; and every such Conveyance, Release, Surrender, Assignment, or Assurance shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the Person being out of the Jurisdiction or not amenable to the Process of the said Courts, or not known to be alive, or having refused, or as if the Person being idiot, Lunatic, or of unsound Mind, had been at the Time of the Execution thereof of sound Mind, Memory, and Understanding, and had by himself or herself executed the same.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as it shall happen that all and every Person in whose Name any Part of the annual Stocks, Annuities, and Funds transferable or which hereafter shall be made transferable at the Bank of England, or in the Banks of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any, or shall be standing as a Trustee of any such Society, shall be absent, out of the Jurisdiction or not amenable to the Process of the said Court of Exchequer in England or Ireland, or the Court of Session in Scotland, or the Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, or shall be a Bankrupt, insolvent, or Lunatic, or it shall be uncertain or unknown whether such Trustee is living or dead, that then and in every Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Judges of the said Courts respectively to order and direct that the Accountant General, or the Secretary or Deputy Secretary, or other proper Officer for the Time being of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, do transfer in the Book of the said Company such Stock, Annuity, or Funds standing as aforesaid, to and into the Name of such Person as such Society may appoint, and also pay over to such Person as aforesaid the Dividends of such Stock, Annuity, or Funds; and when and so often as it shall happen that one or more only, and not all or both of such Trustees as aforesaid, shall be so absent, or not amenable to such Process as aforesaid, or a Bankrupt, insolvent, or Lunatic, or it be uncertain whether any one or more of such Trustees is or are living or dead, that then, and in all and every such last-mentioned Case and Cases, it shall and may be lawful as and for the Judges of the said Courts respectively to order and direct that the other and others of such Trustees who shall be forthcoming and ready and qualified to act do transfer such Stock, Annuities, or Funds to and into the Name of such Person as aforesaid, and also that such forthcoming Trustee do also receive and pay over the Dividends of such Stock, Annuities, or Funds, as such Society shall direct; and that all such Transfers and Payments so made shall be and are hereby declared to be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, any former Statute, Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no Fee, Reward, Emolument, or Gratuity whatsoever shall be demanded, taken, or received by any Officer or Minister of such Courts for any Matter or Thing done in such Courts in pursuance of this Act; and that upon the presenting of any such Petition it shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts respectively to assign Counsel learned in the Law; and to appoint a Clerk or Practitioner of such Court, to advise and carry on such Petition on the Behalf of such Society, who are hereby respectively required to do their Duties therein without Fee or Reward.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which Orders shall be made by any of the Courts aforesaid for the Transfer of Stocks or Funds transferable at the Bank of England, the Persons to be named in such Orders respectively for making such Transfers shall be the Secretary, Deputy Secretary, or Accountant General of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being, or One of them, except in Cases where One or more of the Trustees in whose Name such Stocks or Funds shall stand shall be ordered to transfer the same without the Concurrence of any other or others of such Trustees; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and is hereby declared to be a full and complete Indemnity and Discharge to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Officers and Servants, for all Acts and Things done or permitted to be done pursuant thereto, and that such Acts and Things shall not be questioned or impeached in any Court of Law or Equity to their Prejudice or Detriment.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person appointed to any Office by any such Society, and being entrusted with or having in his or her Hands or Possession, by virtue of his or her said Office, any Monies or Effects belonging to such Society, or any Bonds or Securities relating to the same, shall die, or become a Bankrupt or Insolvent, his or her Executors or Administrators or Assignees, or other Persons having legal Right, shall, within Forty Days after Demand made by the Order of any such Society or Committee thereof, or the major Part of them assembled at any Meeting thereof, deliver over all Things belonging to such Society to such Person as such Society shall appoint, and shall pay, out of the Estate, Assets, or Effects of such Person, all Sums of Money remaining due which such Person received by virtue of his or her said Office, before any of his or her other Debts are paid or satisfied; and all such Assets, Estates, and Effects shall be bound to the Payment and Discharge thereof accordingly.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all Real and Heritable Property, Mowens, Goods, Chattels, and Effects whatever, and all Tithes, Securities for Money, or other obligatory Instruments and Endowments or Mortgages, and all other Effects whatsoever, and all Rights or Claims belonging to or had by such Society, shall be vested in the Treasurer or Trustee of such Society for the Time being, for the Use and Benefit of such Society and the respective Members thereof, their respective Executors or Administrators, according to their respective Charters and Statutes; and after the Death or Removal of any Treasurer or Trustee shall vest in the succeeding Treasurer or Trustee for the same Estate and Interest as the former Treasurer or Trustee had therein, and subject to the same Trusts, without any Assignment or Conveyance whatever, except the Transfer of Stocks and Securities in the Public Funds of Great Britain and Ireland; and also shall, for all Purposes of Action or Suit, as well Criminal as Civil, in Law or in Equity, in anywise touching or concerning the same, be deemed and taken to be, and shall in every such Proceeding (where necessary) be stated to be, the Property of the Person appointed to the Office of Treasurer or Trustee of such Society for the Time being, in his or her proper Name, without further Description; and such Person shall be and is hereby respectively authorized to bring or defend, or cause to be brought or defended, any Action, Suit, or Prosecution, Criminal as well as Civil, in Law or in Equity, touching or concerning the Property, Right, or Claim aforesaid of or belonging to or had by such Society; provided such Person shall have been thereto duly authorized by the Consent of the Majority of Members present at any Meeting of the Society or Committee thereof, and such Person so appointed shall and may, in all Cases concerning the Property, Right, or Claim aforesaid of such Society, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, as his or her proper Name, as Treasurer or Trustee of such Society, without other Description; and as such Suit, Action, or Prosecution shall be discontinued or abate by the Death of such Person or his or her Removal from the Office of Treasurer or Trustee, but the same shall and may be proceeded in by the succeeding Treasurer or Trustee in the proper Name of the Person commencing the same, any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; and each succeeding Treasurer or Trustee shall pay or receive like Costs as if the Action or Suit had been commenced in his or her Name, for the Benefit of or to be reimbursed from the Funds of such Society.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer or Trustee, or any other Officer of any Society established under the Authority of this Act, shall not be liable to make good any Deficiency which may arise in the Funds of such Society, unless such Person shall have respectively declared by Writing under their Hands, deposited and registered in like Manner with the Rules of such Society, that they are willing so to be answerable; and it shall be lawful for each of such Persons, or for such Persons collectively, to limit his, her, or their Responsibility to such Sum as shall be specified in any such Instrument or Writing: Provided always, that the said Treasurer, Trustees, and every other the Officers of any such Society, shall be and they are hereby declared to be personally responsible and liable for all Moneys actually received by him, her, or them on account of or to and for the Use of the said Society.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Trustees of any Society established under this Act, at any Time after the Decesse of any Member, have paid and divided any Sum of Money to or amongst any Person or Persons who shall at the Time of such Payment appear to such Trustees to be entitled to the Effects of any deceased intestate Member, the Payment of any such Sum or Sums of Money shall be void and effectual with respect to any Demand of any other Person or Persons in respect of Kin of such deceased intestate Member, or as the lawful Representative or Representatives of such Member, against the Funds of such Society, or against the Trustees thereof: but nevertheless such next of Kin or Representatives shall have Remedy for such Money so paid as aforesaid against the Person or Persons who shall have received the same.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Member of any Society shall die, who shall be entitled to any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Trustees or Treasurer of such Society, and they are hereby authorized and permitted, if such Trustees or Treasurer shall be satisfied that no Will was made and left by such deceased Member, and that no Letters of Administration or Confirmation will be taken out, of the Funds, Goods, and Chattels of such Deceased, to pay the same at any Time after the Decesse of such Member according to the Rules and Regulations of the said Institution: and in the Event of there being no Rules and Regulations made in that Behalf, then the said Trustees or Treasurer are hereby authorized and permitted to pay, and divide the same to and amongst the Person or Persons entitled to the Effects of the deceased Intestate, and that without Administration in England or Ireland, and without Confirmation in Scotland.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That for the more effectually preventing Fraud and Imposition on the Funds of such Societies, if any Officer, Member, or any other Person being or representing himself or herself to be a Member of such Society, or the Nominer, Executor, Administrator, or Assignee of any Member of such Society, or any other Person whatsoever, shall in or by any false Representation or Imposition fraudulently obtain Possession of the Moneys of such Society, or any Part thereof, or, having in his or her Possession any Sum of Money belonging to such Society, shall fraudulently withhold the same, and for which Offence no special Provision is made in the Rules of such Society, it shall be lawful for any One Justice of the Peace residing within the County within which such Society shall be held, upon Complaint made on Oath or Affirmation by an Officer of such Society appointed for that Purpose, to summon such Person against whom such Complaint shall be made to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons: and upon his or her Appearance, or, in default thereof, upon due Proof, upon Oath or Affirmation of the Service of such Summons, it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices residing within the County aforesaid to hear and determine the said Complaint according to the Rules of the said Society, confirmed as directed by this Act; and, upon due Proof of such Fraud, the said Justice shall commit the said Party and award double the Amount of the Money so fraudulently obtained or withheld to be paid to the Treasurer, to be applied by him in the Purposes of the Society as proved as have been imposed upon and defrauded, together with such Costs as shall be awarded by the said Justice, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Shillings; and in case such Person against whom such Complaint shall be made shall not pay the Sum of Money so awarded to the Person and at the Time specified in the said Order, such Justice are hereby required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Person; on whom such Order shall have been made, or by other legal Proceeding, together with such Costs as shall be awarded by the said Justice, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Shillings, and also the Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale or other legal Proceeding, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner; and, in default of such Debts being paid, the said Justice of the Peace shall commit such Person to prison to be kept to hard Labour for such a Period, not exceeding Three Calendar Months, as in them shall seem fit: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the said Society from proceeding by Indictment or Complaint against the Party complained of, and provided also, that no Party shall be proceeded against by Indictment or Complaint, if a previous Conviction has been obtained for the same Offence under the Provisions of this Act.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any such Society, by any Rule at any General Meeting, or otherwise, to dissolve or determine such Society, so long as the Intents or Purposes declared by such Society, or any of them, remain to be carried into Effect, without obtaining the Votes of Consent of Five Sixths in Value of the then existing Members of such Society, to be ascertained in Manner hereinafter mentioned, and also the Consent of all Persons then receiving or then entitled to receive Relief from such Society, either as Annuitants or Sockmen, Age, or Infirmary, to be notified under their Hands individually and respectively; and for the Purpose of ascertaining the Votes of such Five Sixths in Value, every Member shall be entitled to One Vote, and an additional Vote for every Five Years that he may have been a Member: Provided also, that no One Member shall have more than Five Votes in the Whole; and in all Cases of Dissolution, the intended Appropriation or Devotion of the Funds or other Property of such Society shall be fairly and distinctly stated in the proposed Plan of Dissolution, prior to such Consent being given, nor shall it be lawful for such Society by any Rule to direct the Division or Distribution of such Stock or Fund, or any Part thereof, to or amongst the several Members of such Society other than for carrying into Effect the general Intents and Purposes of such Society, declared by them, and confirmed by the Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, according to the Directions of this Act; but that all such Rules for the Dissolution or Determination of any such Society, without such Consent as aforesaid, or for the Distribution or Division of the Stock or Fund of such Society, contrary to the Rules which shall have been confirmed by the said Justices at their Sessions, and filed in pursuance of this Act, shall be void and of none Effect, and in the Event of such Division or Misappropriation of the Funds of such Society, without the Consent hereby declared to be requisite, the Trustee or other Officer or Person aiding or abetting therein shall be liable to the like Penalties as are hereinbefore provided for in Cases of Fraud.

XXVII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That Process shall be made by One or more of the Rules of every such Society, to be confirmed as required by this Act, specifying whether a Reference of every Matter in dispute between any such Society, or any Persons acting under them, and any individual Member thereof, or Persons claiming an interest of any Member, shall be made to such of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace as may act so and for the County to which such Society may be formed, or to Arbitrators to be appointed in Manner hereinafter directed, and if the Matter in dispute shall be referred to Arbitration, certain Arbitrators shall be named and chosen at the first Meeting of such Society, or General Committee thereof, that shall be held after the Enrolment of its Rules, none of the said Arbitrators being personally interested, directly or indirectly, in the Funds of the said Society, of whom a certain Number, not less than Three, shall be chosen by Ballot on each such Case of Dispute, the Number of the said Arbitrators and Mode of Ballot being determined by the Rules of such Society respectively, the Names of such Arbitrators shall be duly entered in the Book of the said Society in which the Rules are entered as aforesaid; and in case of the Death, or Refusal or Neglect of any or all of the said Arbitrators to act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Society, or General Committee thereof, and they are hereby required, at their next Meeting, to name and elect One or more Arbitrator or Arbitrators as aforesaid to act in the Place of the said Arbitrator or Arbitrators as dying, or refusing or neglecting to act as aforesaid; and whatever Award shall be made by the said Arbitrators, or the major Part of them, according to the true Purport and Meaning of the Rules of such Society, confirmed by the Justices according to the Directions of this Act, shall be in the Form to this Act annexed, and shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties, and shall be final, to all Intents and Purposes, without Appeal, or being subject to the Control of One or more Justices of the Peace, and shall not be removed or removable into any Court of Law, or restrained or restrainable by the Injunction of any Court of Equity; and should either of the said Parties in dispute refuse or neglect to comply with or conform to the Decision of the said Arbitrators, or the major Part of them, it shall and may be lawful for any One Justice of the Peace residing within the County within which such Society shall be held, upon good and sufficient Proof being adduced before him of such Award having been made, and of the Refusal of the Party to comply therewith, upon Complaint made by or on Behalf of the Party aggrieved, to summon the Person against whom such Complaint shall be made to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and upon his or her Appearance, or in default thereof, upon due Proof, upon Oath, of the Service of such Summons, any Two Justices of the Peace may proceed to make such Order thereupon as to them may seem just; and if the Sum of Money so awarded, together with any Costs not exceeding the Sum of Ten Shillings, as to such Justice shall seem meet, shall not be immediately paid, then such Justice shall, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, cause such Sum and Costs as aforesaid to be levied by Distress or by Distress and Sale of the Mowies, Goods, Chattle, Securities, and Effects belonging to the said Party or to the said Society, or other legal Proceedings, together with all further Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale or other legal Proceedings, returning the Overplus (if any) to the said Party, or to the said Society, or to One of the Treasurers or Trustees thereof; and in default of such Distress being forced, or such other legal Proceedings being effectual, then to be levied by Distress and Sale of the proper Goods of the said Party, or of the Officer of the said Society, or neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, by other legal Proceedings, together with such further Costs and Charges as aforesaid, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner: Provided always, that whatever Sum shall be paid by any such Officer, as levied on his or her Property or Goods in pursuance of the Award of Arbitrators or Order of any Justice, shall be repaid, with all Damages accruing to him or her, by and out of the Monies belonging to such Society, or out of the first Monies which shall be thereafter received by such Society.

XXVIII. And he it further enacted, That if by the Rules of any such Society it is directed that any Matter in dispute as aforesaid shall be decided by Justices of the Peace, it shall and may be lawful for any such Justice, on Complaint being made to him of any Refusal or Neglect to comply with the Rules of such Society by any Member or Officer thereof, to summon the Person against whom such Complaint shall be made to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and upon his or her Appearance, or in default thereof, upon due Proof, on Oath or Affirmation, of the Service of such Summons, it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices to proceed to hear and determine the said Complaint according to the Rules of the said Society; and in case the said Justice shall adjudge any Sum of Money to be paid by such Person against whom such Complaint shall be made, and such Person shall not pay such Sum of Money to the Person and at the Time specified by such Justice, they shall proceed to enforce their Award in the Manner herein-before directed to be used in case of any Neglect to comply with the Decision of the Arbitrators appointed under the Authority of this Act.

XXIX. And he it further enacted, That every Sentence, Order, and Adjudication of any Justice under this Act shall be final and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be subject to Appeal, and shall not be removed or removable into any Court of Law, or restrained or restrainable by the Injunction of any Court of Equity, and that no Suspension, Advocation, or Reduction shall be competent.

XXX. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Society established under the Authority of this Act from Time to Time to subscribe the Whole or any Part of the Funds of such Society into the Funds of any Institution which shall have taken the Benefit of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, entitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Savings Banks, subject to the Provisions in the said last-recited Act contained relating to Friendly Societies.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Society established under Authority of this Act to pay directly into the Bank of England any Sum of Money not being less than Fifty Pounds, or to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, upon the Declaration of the Treasurer or Treasurers of such Society, or any Two or more of them, that such Monies belong exclusively to the Society for which such Payment is intended to be made; and the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England are hereby required to receive all such Monies, and to place the same to the Account named in the Names of the said Commissioners for the Time being in the Books of the Bank of England, denominated "The Fund for the Friendly Societies;" and in case any such Declaration shall not be true, then and in every such Case the Sum so paid shall be forfeited to the said Commissioners; and all the Clauses and Provisions of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Savings Banks, with respect to the Accounts of Banks for Savings, and the Regulation of Receipts, Certificates, or Orders concerning the same, shall be applicable to the Monies so paid into the Bank of England under the Authority of this Act, as if the same had been repeated therein: Provided nevertheless, that every Society formed and enrolled previous to the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, under the Provisions of an Act made and passed in the One and Fifty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Regty, intituled An Act for the further Protection and Encouragement of Friendly Societies, and for preventing Frauds and Abuses therein, shall, on paying Money directly into the Bank of England as aforesaid, be entitled to receive Receipts bearing Interest at the Rate of Three-pence per Centum per Annum, any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: provided also, that no Friendly Society which already has invested or may hereafter invest any Money with the said Commissioners, shall be entitled to re-deposit any Sum or Sums of Money with them, without the Consent of the said Commissioners, or on their Behalf by the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller General under the said Commissioners.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That a Member may become a Member of any such Society, and shall be empowered to execute all Instruments, give all necessary Acquittances, and enjoy all the Privileges and be liable to all the Responsibilities appertaining to Members of matured Age, notwithstanding his or her Incapacity or Disability in Law to act for himself or herself: Provided always, that such Member be admitted into such Society by and with the Consent of his or her Parents, Masters, or Guardians.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Rules of every such Society shall provide that the Treasurer, Trustees, Stewards, or other principal Officer thereof shall, once in every Year at least, prepare or cause to be prepared a general Statement of the Funds and Effects of or belonging to such Society, specifying in whose Custody or Possession the said Funds or Effects shall be then remaining, together with an Account of all and every the various Sums of Money received and expended by or on Account of the said Society since the Publication of the preceding periodical Statement; and every such periodical Statement shall be attested by Two or more Members of such Society appointed Auditors for that Purpose, and shall be countersigned by the Secretary or Clerk of such Society; and every Member shall be entitled to receive from the said Society a Copy of such periodical Statement, on Payment of such Sum as the Rules of such Society may require, not exceeding the Sum of Sixpence.

XXXIV. And Whereas it is desirable, for the better Security of such Societies, that correct Calculations of Tables of Payment and Allowances, dependent on the Duration of Sickness and the Probabilities of Human Life, may be constructed for their Assistance: And Whereas the present existing Data on these Subjects have been found imperfect and inefficient: Be it therefore further enacted, That every such Society established or to be established under the Authority of this Act shall, within Three Months after the Expiration of the Month of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and so again within Three Months after the Expiration of every further Period of Five Years, transmit to the Clerk of the Peace for the County wherein such Society is held a Return of the Rate of Sickness and Mortality experienced by the said Society within the before-mentioned Period of Five Years, according to the Form prescribed in the Schedule appended to this Act, a Copy whereof shall be annexed to the Index of such Society respectively.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Clerks of the Peace shall, within One Month after the Expiration of the Month of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and so again within One Month after the Expiration of every further Period of Five Years, transmit to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State a List of the Societies which have been enrolled during such Period under this Act, specifying their Names, the Places where they have been established, and Date of Enrolment, and Time of ceasing to exist, if such Case should arise, and also a Copy of the Returns of Sickness and Mortality hereto-before directed to be made to them according to the Schedule (A.): a Copy of which List, with the Schedule attached to it, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month next ensuing, if Parliament shall be sitting, or within One Month after the Time when Parliament shall next sit.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That should any such Society refuse or neglect to transmit or cause to be transmitted the aforesaid Returns of Sickness and Mortality in the Manner and within the Time hereto-before directed, the Clerk of the Peace within such County shall give immediate Notice to such Society, that unless the said Return is made within Twenty-one Days from the Date of such Notice, the said Society will, and thereupon shall, cease to be entitled to the Privileges of this Act, unless good and sufficient Cause be shown to the Justices at their then next ensuing General or Quarter Sessions why such Returns could not be made.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Copy of Rules, Power, Warrant, or Letter of Attorney granted or to be granted by any Persons or Trustees of any Society established under this Act, for the Transfer of any Sum in the Public Funds standing in the Name of such Trustee, nor any Receipts given for any Dividend in any Public Stock, or Fund or Interest of Stockholder, Bill, nor any Receipt, nor any Entry in any Book of Receipts, for Money deposited in the Funds of any such Society, nor for any Money received by any Member, his or her Executors or Administrators, Assigns or Assignees, from the Funds of such Society, nor any Bond nor other Security to be given to or an Assent of any such Society, or by the Treasurer or Trustee or any Officer thereof, nor any Death or Order, nor any Form of Association, nor any Appointment of any Agent, nor any Certificate or other Instrument for the Revocation of any such Appointment, nor any other Instrument or Document whatever required or authorized to be given, issued, signed, made, or produced in pursuance of this Act, shall be subject or liable to or charged with any Stamp Duty or Duties whatsoever.

Exemption from Stamp Duties.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Word "Society" in this Act shall be understood to include Friendly Society or Societies, Institutions or Institutions; the Word "Rules" to include Rules, Orders, and Regulations; the Word "County" to include County, Riding, Division, or Place; and the Words "Treasurer or Trustee" to include Treasurers or Trustees; and the Word "Person" to include Persons; and the Word "Book" to include Books; and the Word "Bond" to include Bonds; "Name" to include Names; "Account" to include Accounts; "Member" to include Members and Honorary Members; "Clerk of the Peace" to include Town Clerk; unless it be otherwise specially provided.

Construction of Act.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall extend to all Friendly Societies hereafter to be established, and also to Societies already established, as soon as they shall think fit to conform to the Provisions thereof.

Act to extend to all present and future Societies.

XL. And be it further enacted, That provided Societies already enrolled shall not conform to the Provisions of this Act within the Space of Three Years from the passing of this Act, the said Societies shall then cease to be entitled to the Privileges and Provisions of any or either of the hitherto before repealed Acts: Provided nevertheless, that the Provisions of the hitherto before repealed Acts shall continue in Force as to all Societies established under any or either of them before the passing of this Act for the said Space of Three Years, or until they shall assent to conform to the Provisions of this Act.

Societies already enrolled to conform to this Act within Three Years.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed a Public Act, and shall extend to Great Britain and Ireland and Heretofore-Tenured, and be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whatsoever, without the same being specially shown or pleaded.

C A P. LVIII.

An Act to repeal an Act of the Parliament of Ireland, of the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, for uniting several Parishes, and building several Parish Churches in more convenient Places, so far as relates to the Parishes of Owen and Drumtrough in the Diocese of Elphin.

[19th June 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intitled An Act for uniting several Parishes, and building several Parish Churches in more convenient Places, whereby, after reciting that the Parishes of Owen and Drumtrough in the Diocese of Elphin were fit to be united, and that the ancient Church of Owen within the said Parish of Owen was conveniently situated for the Parishes to repair unto, were the same repealed, it was enacted, that it should and might be lawful so and for the Bishop of the said Diocese, with the Approbation of the Archbishop of the Province, and the Consent of the respective Parsons, Incumbents, and the major Part of the Inhabitants of the said Parishes, to order the Church to be rebuilt at Owen in the said Parish of Owen, and to unite the said Parishes of Owen and Drumtrough; and that the said Parishes so united should be called by the Name of the Parish of Owen; and that the Inhabitants of the said United Parish should from Time to Time be liable to and chargeable with building and keeping in Repair the said Church of Owen, which was for ever to be deemed and taken to be the sole Parish in all Income and Purposes whatsoever: And Whereas after the passing of the said Act the said Parishes of Owen and Drumtrough were successively united with Three other Parishes, namely, the Parish of Downtown, the Parish of Kilcrusheen, and the Parish of Ballymattell, all in the said

' Diocece of Ely, which Union still subsists: And Whereas, in consequence of the great Extent of the said Union, it may be expedient hereafter to dissolve the said Parish, or to divide the said Union into Two Parts, One to consist of the said Parishes of Orms and Drumsough, and the other to consist of the said Parishes of Downham, Alkington, and Sollygaskill: And Whereas no Church has since the passing of the said Act been built or rebuilt, pursuant thereto, in the said Parishes thereby united, or either of them; and the said Union of the said Five Parishes now contains only One Church, which is in the said Parish of Downham, and is extremely remote from other Parts of the said Union: And Whereas the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits of the several Benefices in Ireland have granted the Sum of Nine hundred Pounds, late Irish Currency, for building a Church in the said Parish of Drumsough, being Part of the Union created by the said Act; and a Site for such new Church has been selected in the Village of Ballymore in the said Parish, as being more eligible than the Site of Orms, mentioned in the said Act; but such new Church cannot, by reason of the said Act, be erected at any other Place in the said Union of Orms and Drumsough than Orms aforesaid, which has no various Adjoining lands become unfit for that Purpose: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne as is herein-before recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Here repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Bishop of the said Diocese, with the Approbation of the Archbishop of the Province, and the Consent of the respective Parsons of the said Parishes of Orms and Drumsough, to order or direct such new Church to be erected in the said Village of Ballymore, or any other Place in either of the said Parishes which to such Bishop shall appear most convenient.

A new Church to be erected in the Village of Ballymore.

III. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Second Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled An Act for real Union and Division of Parishes, reciting that there might be Occasion therefor for making an Act or Acts of Parliament for the uniting or dissolving of particular Parishes or Parts of Parishes, or erecting particular Churches, it was enacted, that all such Acts of Parliament for the aforesaid Purposes only, or any of them, should be deemed as Public and General Acts in all Courts and by all Persons, and that no Fees should be paid or taken by any Person or Persons for passing any such Act of Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that a like Provision should be made in this Case: Be it therefore enacted, That this present Act shall be deemed a Public and General Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such in all Courts, and by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded, and that no Fees shall be paid or taken by any Person for passing the same.

C A P. LIX.

An Act to amend an Act of the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, for consolidating the Trusts of the several Turnpike Roads in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, North of the River Thames, and to make and maintain Two New or Branch Roads to communicate with the said Metropolis Roads. [15th June 1829.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for consolidating the Trusts of the several Turnpike Roads in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, North of the River Thames, the several Roads in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, North of the River Thames, which are particularly mentioned and described in the First Schedule thereto annexed, were placed under the Management of Commissioners appointed and to be appointed by and under the said Act: And Whereas it is desirable that the said Commissioners should be empowered to make and maintain the New or Branch Roads hereinafter described, and that such Alterations and Amendments as are hereinafter mentioned should be made in the said recited Act: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being acting in Execution of the said recited Act to make and maintain the Three several New or Branch Roads hereinafter described; (that is to say,) a new Road from the Stamford Hill Road in the Parish of Tottenham, in the said County of Middlesex, nearly opposite to certain Trees called the Stone Sakers, passing across Hagger Lane, across the Green Lane Roads near to the Termination of Manor Road and Hagger Wood Lane, across Broad Green Lane, along Hogg Lane, across Duncroft Lane, now called Hagger Road, passing at Holloway across the Road from London to Highgate, and terminating in the Common Turn Road in the Parish of Islington, in the said County of Middlesex; also a new Road, or Diversion of the old Road, from and out of the said Stamford Hill Road, between the North and South Mile Stones on the Enfield Highway in the Parish of Enfield, in the same County of Middlesex, commencing at the Wheelwright's Yard nearly opposite a Road leading from Enfield Highway aforesaid to Forty Hill in the said Parish of Enfield, and terminating at the Baker's Shop; and also a New Road or Branch Road from the Lea Bridge Road, or at or near the Sixth Mile Stone on the said Road, in the Parish of Walthamton, in the County of Essex, passing across Epping Forest, and terminating at the Turnpike Road from London to Epping, in the County of Essex, about Three hundred Yards on the London Side of the Castle Inn in the Parish of Woodford, in the said County of Essex.

12. And Whereas Two several Maps or Plans describing the respective Lines of the said Two several first-mentioned intended New or Branch Roads, and the Lands and Hereditaments through which the same are respectively intended to be carried, together with Two several Books of Reference containing Lists of the Names of the Owners or reputed Owners and Occupiers of such Lands and Hereditaments, have been deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Middlesex; and a Map or Plan describing the Line of the said intended New or Branch Road lastly described, and the Lands and Hereditaments through which the same is intended to be carried, together with a Book of Reference containing a List of the Names of the Owners or reputed Owners and Occupiers of such Lands and Hereditaments, hath been deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Essex: Be it therefore enacted, That the said several Maps or Plans and Books of Reference shall remain in the Custody of the respective Clerks of the Peace for the said Counties of Middlesex and Essex for the Time being, to the End that all Persons may at all reasonable Times have Liberty to inspect and peruse the same respectively, and to take Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom, paying to such Clerks of the Peace respectively the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection, and after the Rate of Sixpence for every One hundred Words of such Copies or Extracts; and the said Commissioners shall not, in making the said intended New or Branch Roads, deviate more than One hundred Yards from the Line described in the Map or Plan applicable to each particular Road respectively, without the Consent in Writing of the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporation, or Corporations, through whose Lands or Hereditaments such Deviation shall be made.

13. And be it further enacted, That, for the Purpose of making the said intended New or Branch Roads, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners not only to purchase, take, and use the Lands and Hereditaments through which the said New or Branch Roads are in the said Maps or Plans and Books of Reference described as intended to be carried, but also to purchase, acquire, take down, and use the Houses, Buildings, Orchards, Gardens, and other Hereditaments mentioned and described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or such of them as the said Commissioners shall think proper.

14. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make the said New or Branch Roads, and every of them, into, through, across, or over any Lands or Grounds described or intended to be described on either of the said Maps or Plans, and, for the Purpose of making the same, to purchase, take down, and use any of the Houses, Buildings, Orchards, Gardens, and other Hereditaments described or intended so to be in the said Schedule herein annexed, or any of them, although the same Lands, Grounds, Houses, Buildings, Orchards, Gardens, and other Hereditaments, or the Name or Names of the Owner or Owners or Occupier or Occupiers thereof, may happen to be erroneously stated or omitted in the said Books of Reference, or in the said Schedule to this Act annexed, in case it shall appear to any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County in which such Lands, Grounds, Houses, Buildings, Orchards, Gardens, or other Hereditaments shall be situate, and shall be certified by Writing under their Hands, that such Error or Omission proceeded from Mistake.

15. And inasmuch as the projected Line of the said New or Branch Road from the Seven Sisters to the Common Town Road is intended to cross the Channel or Course of the New River Cut or Stream, within the Prebendal Manor and Estate of Stoke Newington: Be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the said Commissioners to alter or divert the Course of the said New River, or, in building the Bridge which will be requisite where such Road will cross the said River, to narrow the Channel thereof, or in any Manner impede the free Course of the said Cut or Stream, without the Concurrence and Consent of the Governor and Company of the said New River, to be signified by some Writing under the Hand of their Surveyor for the Time being.

16. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the said Commissioners shall not make the said intended New or Branch Roads within the Space of Seven Years from the passing of this Act, then and in such Case it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners to make the same without the Consent in Writing of the Owners of the Lands over and through which such Roads shall thereafter be made first had and obtained.

17. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of January next after the passing of the Act, the Roads mentioned and described in the Fifth, Eighth, and Eleventh Parts of the First Schedule annexed to the said recited Act shall come to be maintained, repaired, lighted, watched, or watered by the Commissioners acting in Execution of that Act, with the Exceptions hereafter mentioned; (that is to say,) as much of the Road mentioned and described in the said Fifth Part of the said First Schedule to the said Act as lies between the Carriage Bridge over the Regent's Canal at Moles Mill and Kilburn Bridge, in the County of Middlesex; and the following Roads and Parts of Roads mentioned and described in the said Eighth Part of the said First Schedule in the said Act; (that is to say,) the Road commencing at the Angel at Ilkington, but in the Parish of Chesham, and leading from thence through Mollins to Highgate Gatehouse; the Branch Road diverging at the Turnpike Gate at Ilkington, running to the West of the Town of Ilkington, and joining with the said last-mentioned Road at Mollins; and commonly called the Black Road; the Road from Lower Street, Ilkington, by Newington Green, called the Lower Road; the Road called Cross Street, from the Upper Street to the Lower Street; and the Road from Ball's Pond Gate to Kingley; the Road commencing at Battle Bridge, and leading from thence, by Saint Pious Church, through Kentish Town, to Highgate Gatehouse; the Road commencing at Saint Map and Book of Reference deposited with the Clerk of the Peace to remain there, and be open to Inspection.

James's

Roads not to deviate from Plan.

Power to take down Houses, &c. mentioned in Schedule.

Errors in Book of Reference or Schedule not to impede Execution of Act.

Course of the New River not to be diverted or impeded.

The New Roads to be made within Seven Years.

After 1st Jan. next, certain Roads are to be repaired by the Commissioners under recited Act.

James's Chapel, in the Parish of Saint Pancras, leading from thence through Camden Town, and ending with the said last-mentioned Road at or near a Public House called the Black Horse, in Kentish Town; the Road leading from the said last-mentioned Road to Hampstead, and terminating at or near a Public House called the Red Lion; the Branch Road from the said Highway to the said Hampstead Road, called Fizz Lane; which Roads and Parts of Roads so excepted shall, for all Purposes of maintaining, repairing, watching, lighting, and watering the same respectively, continue subject to the Provisions of the said recited Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Roads and Parts of Roads which, under the Provision lastly herein-before contained, shall, from and after the said First Day of January, cease to be maintained and repaired, watched, watered, or lighted, by the said Commissioners acting in Execution of the said recited Act, shall from thenceforth be deemed and considered to be common Highways, and shall be maintained, repaired, watched, watered, and lighted by the Parishes in which the same are respectively situate, by the respective Surveyors or Persons appointed or to be appointed under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into One Act of Parliament the Statutes now in being for the Amendment and Preservation of the public Highways in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for other Purposes; and the Expenses thereof may and shall be assessed and levied, under the Provisions of the said Act, upon the Whole of each Parish or Parishes, any Act of Parliament, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the watching, lighting, or watering any Parts of the said Roads which are at present watched, watered, or lighted under any Act or Acts of Parliament; but the Provisions of this Act shall in such Case only extend to the maintaining and repairing of such Parts of the said Roads.

X. And Whereas the Parishes of Saint Marylebone and Paddington extend on either Side to the Centre of the Road from Oxford Street to the said Carriage Bridge over the Regent's Canal at Meads Hill, being a Portion of the Roads mentioned and described in the Fifth Part of the First Schedule annexed to the said recited Act, and heretofore deemed to be maintained and repaired as common Highways by the Parishes in which such Roads are situate; and for the Purposes of such Maintenance and Repair it will be expedient that such Road shall be maintained and repaired by the said several Parishes in proportion, as for that Purpose next hereinafter specified. Be it further enacted, That the Parish of Saint Marylebone shall maintain and repair so much of the Carriageway of the said Road, from Chancery to Chancery, as extends Northward from Oxford Street to the South Side of Chapel Street, in a Line across to the South Side of Broad Street; and the Parish of Paddington shall maintain and repair the remaining Portion of the said Road as far as the South Side of the said Carriage Bridge over the Regent's Canal at Meads Hill; and that for the Purpose of such Repair and Maintenance the said Two several Portions of the said Road shall be deemed to be within the said Parishes of Saint Marylebone and Paddington respectively, and shall be subject to the sole Orders, Control, and Jurisdiction of the Vestrymen of the said Parishes respectively, as the Case may be; and that no Alteration whatsoever shall be made in the Level of the Chancery of the said Road, or any Partion thereof, without the mutual Consent of the Vestries of the said Two Parishes for that Purpose in Writing first had and obtained: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to alter the Boundaries of the said Two several Parishes, nor to vary any Jurisdiction as to the Footways of the said Road, or as to the Houses, Tenements, Buildings, or Hereditaments abutting on the said Road, and the Parochial Rates or Assessments thereon: but that the Boundaries of the said Two several Parishes, and the Jurisdiction over the Footways of the said Road, and the present and all future Parochial Rates or Assessments upon the Houses, Tenements, Buildings, or Hereditaments abutting on the said Road, shall continue in full Force and Effect as if this Act had not been made: any Thing heretofore contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Roads and Parts of Roads within the said Parish of Saint Pancras, and by this Act declared to be common Highways, shall be subject to the same Control and Management, and be required and maintained from the same Funds (except as to Limitation of Expenditure, as the Highways and Footpaths within the said Parish are by Law subject and liable to be and chargeable upon; any Thing heretofore contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XII. And be it further enacted, That within One Calendar Month next after the said First Day of January the said Commissioners acting in Execution of the said recited Act shall cause all the Toll Gates, Bars, and Sole Gates which have been set up upon or by the Side of the several Roads and Parts of Roads which, under the Provision heretofore contained, will, from and after the said First Day of January, cease to be maintained, repaired, watched, watered, and lighted by the said Commissioners, to be pulled down and removed, and the Materials to be sold, and the said Commissioners shall apply the Monies arising from such Sale to the general Purposes of the said Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of January no Rate or Assessment shall be made, under the Authority of the said recited Act, upon any Person, by reason of his or her inhabiting, holding, using, possessing, occupying, or enjoying any House, Shop, Warehouse, Coach-house, Stable, or other Building, Yard, Garden, or Ground within Two hundred Yards of that Part of the Road mentioned and described in the Fifth Part of the First Schedule annexed to the said Act, which will, under the Provision heretofore contained, cease to be maintained, repaired, watched, watered, or lighted by the Commissioners acting in Execution of the said recited Act or within One hundred Yards of any Part Such Roads from that Period to be deemed common Highways, and to be maintained and repaired as such.

Not to extend to watching and lighting in certain Cases.

The Maintenance of the Road from Oxford Street to Meads Hill divided between the Parishes of Marylebone and Paddington.

Highways in the Parish of Saint Pancras subject to the same Control as other Parts of the Parish.

Tollgates to be removed from such Roads.

No Rate for Houses on such Roads.

of the Roads mentioned and described in the Eighth Part of the First Schedule annexed to the said Act, which will also, under the Provisions herein-before contained, cease to be maintained, repaired, watched, watered, and lighted by the said Commissioners; but in all other Respects the Powers of rating given by the said recited Act, and all Provisions relating thereto, shall continue in full Force and Virtue.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, from Time to Time, as and when they shall receive the same, pay to the Vestry of the said Parish of Paddington, or as they shall direct, Three equal Eleventh Parts of the clear yearly Rents and Profits which shall arise from the Lands and Hereditaments conveyed by the said Indenture of the Nineteenth Day of December in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, from and after the said First Day of January next; and the said Due Eleventh Part of the said Rents and Profits shall be applied by the said Vestry in or towards the repairing, improving, watching, watering, and lighting of so much of the Road from London to Harrow as lies between the South Side of Chapel Street aforesaid and the first Carriage Bridge over the Grand Junction Canal on the Harrow Road; and that the said Commissioners shall pay to the Vestrymen of the Parish of Saint Marylebone, or as they shall direct, Three equal Twentieth Parts of the said last-mentioned Rents and Profits, to be by the said last-mentioned Vestrymen applied in or towards the repairing, improving, watching, watering, and lighting of so much of the Road from Saint Giles's Place to Harrow-on-the-Hill as, under the Provisions herein-before contained, will be maintained, and repaired by the said Parish of Saint Marylebone; and that the said Commissioners shall also pay to the said Vestry of the Parish of Paddington, or as they shall direct, Two equal Thirty-ninth Parts of the clear yearly Rents and Profits which shall arise from the Lands and Hereditaments conveyed by the said Indenture of the Sixth Day of July, in the Twenty-first Year of Queen Elizabeth, and be received by the said Commissioners after the said First Day of January next, to be by the said Vestry applied in or towards the repairing, improving, watching, watering, and lighting of so much of the Road from Saint Giles's Place to Edgware as, under the Provisions herein-before contained, will be repaired and maintained by the said Parish of Paddington; and shall also pay to the said Vestrymen of the Parish of Saint Marylebone, or as they shall direct, Seven equal Thirty-ninth Parts of the said last-mentioned clear yearly Rents and Profits, to be by the said last-mentioned Vestrymen applied in or towards the repairing, improving, watching, watering, and lighting of so much of the said Road from Saint Giles's Place to Edgware as, under the Provisions herein-before contained, will be maintained and repaired by the said last-mentioned Parish; and the said Commissioners shall apply the Residue of the clear yearly Rents and Profits which shall arise from the Lands and Hereditaments conveyed by the said Indenture of the Nineteenth Day of December in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, towards the repairing and improving of the Roads comprised in the Sixth District hereinafter described; and shall apply the Residue of the clear yearly Rents and Profits which shall arise from the Lands and Hereditaments conveyed by the said Indenture of the Sixth Day of July in the Twenty-first Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, Elmsfield, is the first Place, towards the repairing and improving of the Roads comprised in the Seventh and Eighth Districts hereinafter described, and, subject thereto, in or towards the repairing and improving of the Roads comprised in the said Sixth District.

XVI. And Whereas Edward Horatio, Citizen and Brewer of London, by his Will, bearing Date the first Day of February One thousand six hundred and ten, gave to the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Art or Mystery of Brewers of the City of London, and their Successors, Two Closes of Meadow called London Fields, with the Appurtenances, situate in or near Holloway in the Parish of St. Martin, in the said County of Middlesex, to the Intent that the said Master, Wardens, and Commonalty should employ all the Rents and Profits thereof (except Forty Shillings) upon the repairing and amending of the Highway between Tyburn and Edgware (in the said Will called Edgware) in the said County of Middlesex: And Whereas it is proper that proportionate Parts of the said Rents and Profits (the Whole of which are, under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year aforesaid, accounted for and paid over to the Commissioners acting in Execution of that Act,) should be paid over by the said Commissioners to the said Parishes of Puddington and Saint Marylebone, by whom Portions of the said Road from Tyburn to Edgware will, under the Provisions herein-before contained, be maintained and repaired: So it therefore further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall (from Time to Time, as and when the same shall be received by them,) pay to the Vestry of the Parish of Puddington, or as they shall direct, One equal Sixteenth Part of the said last-mentioned Rents and Profits which shall arise after the said first Day of January next, to be applied by the said Vestry in or towards the repairing and amending of so much of the Road from Tyburn to Edgware as, under the Provisions herein-before contained, will be maintained and repaired by the said Parish of Puddington; and shall pay to the Vestrymen of the Parish of Saint Marylebone, or as they shall direct, One other equal Sixteenth Part of the said last-mentioned Rents and Profits, to be by the said last-mentioned Vestrymen applied in or towards the repairing and improving of so much of the Road from Tyburn to Edgware as, under the Provisions herein-before contained, will be maintained and repaired by the said Parish of Saint Marylebone; and shall apply the Balance of the said last-mentioned Rents and Profits in or towards the repairing and improving of the Roads comprised in the Seventh and Eighth Districts hereinafter described.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said first Day of January the several Tolls mentioned in the Second Schedule to the said recited Act, and by the said Act authorized to be taken, shall cease to be payable.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said first Day of January the several Roads for the Time being under the Superintendence and Management of the Commissioners acting in Execution of the said recited Act shall, for the Purpose of collecting Tolls thereon, be divided into the following Districts; (that is to say.)

The first District, comprising that Part of the Great Western or Old Brompton Road beginning at the West Side of the Great Sewer commonly called the Banstead Sewer, at Kingsbridge, and continuing through the Towns of Kensington, Hammer-smith, and Brompton, to Brompton Bridge; the Road from Kingsbridge to Fulham Bridge; and from Fulham, through Fulham Fields, to the Corner of the Garden Wall formerly belonging to Michael Innes deceased, opposite the Chapel at Hammer-smith; and from Fulham Green to the said Great Western Road near the East End of the Town of Hammer-smith; and from the House known by the Sign of the Ball and Horns, at Brompton, to Earl's Court, and from thence to the said Great Western Road near Holland House; and from the West Side of the said Sewer called Banstead Sewer, near Chelsea Bankers, to the North End of Battersea Bridge in the Parish of Chelsea; and from Chelsea Church, along Hogmore Lane, to the said Great Western Road near the East End of the Town of Kensington; and from Chelsea Hospital by Blackheath, to the Road leading from Kingsbridge to Fulham; and from the King's Arms in Fulham to the Entrance to the King's Road; which said several Roads lie within the Parishes of Saint Margaret Westminster, Saint Mary Abbot Kensington, Saint Luke Chelsea, All Saints Fulham, Chiswick, Edling, and Hammersmith, in the said County of Middlesex:

Act.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That for or in respect of any Horse or other Beast drawing any Waggon, Cart, or other such Carriage laden with Hay or Straw, no more than One Half of the Tolls by this Act authorized to be taken shall be demanded or taken on any of the Roads comprised in the North, Eleventh, Twelfth, and Thirteenth Districts respectively.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when the Toll by this Act authorized to be taken shall have been once paid in either of the aforesaid Districts, for or in respect of any Horse or other Beast, Cattle or other Stock, no further Toll shall be demanded or taken during the same Day (except in the Cases hereinafter mentioned), for or in respect of the same Horse or other Beast, Cattle or other Stock, at any other Gate or Bar within the same District, or on returning or repassing through the same Gate or Bar; but the Payment of Toll in any One of the aforesaid Districts shall not entitle the Party paying the same to any Exemption from Toll during the same Day within any other of the aforesaid Districts, unless in Cases which may be specially provided for by the said Commissioners under the Provisions of this Act or of the said recited Act.

XXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Horse or other Beast drawing any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other such Carriage, shall be exempt from Toll in any of the said Districts by reason of any previous Payment of Toll within the same District during the same Day, unless such Horse or other Beast shall at the Time of such previous Payment of Toll have been drawing the same Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other Carriage as that which he shall be drawing at the Time when such Exemption shall be claimed.

XXVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Horse or other Beast drawing any Post Chaise or other Carriage entering with any Person or Persons therein, and passing through any of the said Gates or Bars in any of the said Districts, shall be exempt from Toll, unless a Ticket be produced denoting the Toll by this Act authorized to be taken to have been then already paid on that Day by the Person or Persons then in or being such Post Chaise or other Carriage.

XXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Tolls hereby made payable shall be paid on each of the said Districts for every Horse or Beast drawing any Stage Coach, Van, Curricle, Waggon, or other Carriage, conveying Passengers or Goods for Pay, Hire, or Reward, for such Time of passing along any of the Roads in that District.

XXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Tolls hereby made payable shall be paid in each of the said Districts for every Horse or Beast drawing any Hackney Coach, Chaise, or Cabriolet, for each Time of passing through any Gate or Bar in that District, unless the Person or Persons by whom the same shall for the Time being be hired shall have then already during the same Day paid Toll for the same within that District, and shall produce a Ticket denoting such Payment, or unless such Hackney Coach, Chaise, or Cabriolet shall be returning empty after having set down a Person or Persons who shall during the same Day have paid Toll for the same.

XXX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Horse or other Beast drawing any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage laden with Bricks, Tiles, Stone, Lime, Timber, Coal, Iron in Bars, or Lead in Sheets, shall be exempt from Toll in any of the said Districts by reason of any previous Payment of Toll within the same District, except in Cases where such Horse or other Beast shall at the Time of such previous Payment of Toll have been going with the same Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, empty, or laden with Bricks or Ashes for making Bricks, to Stock the Load which he shall be drawing at the Time when such Exemption shall be claimed.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That on all the Roads within each of the said Districts One Half more than the Toll heretofore made payable in that District for any Horse or other Beast drawing shall be demanded and taken for any Horse or other Beast drawing any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other such Carriage having the Felloes of the Wheels thereof of less Breadth than Four and a Half Inches at the Bottom or Sides thereof, or any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other such Carriage having the Tires of the Wheels convex, or in any other Respect not of a flat Surface, or shall not have the Nails thereof counter-sunk, or so as to form a flat Surface; and One Fourth more than the said Toll heretofore made payable in that District for any Horse or other Beast drawing shall be demanded and taken for any Horse or other Beast drawing any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other such Carriage having the Bottom or Sides of the Felloes of the Wheels of Four and a Half Inches, but of less Breadth than Six Inches: any Thing in an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to amend the General Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to charge additional Toll for any Cart not drawn by more than One Horse or Two Oxen.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the several Provisions, Restrictions, and Exemptions contained in the Second Schedule to the said recited Act shall be and the same are hereby repeated; but that in all other Respects the Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Act, with respect to the Tolls by that Act authorized to be taken, and the collecting, letting, Advancement, Reduction, and Alteration thereof, and with respect to the Application of the Monies arising therefrom, shall, except so far as they are in any Manner altered or varied by this Act, extend and be applicable to the Tolls by this Act authorized to be taken, and the Monies to arise therefrom, in the same Manner and as fully as if they had been specially re-enacted with Reference to the said Tolls by this Act authorized to be taken, and the Monies to arise therefrom; and that all other the Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses,

Matters,

Mutten, and Things contained in the said recited Act, (except such of them as are by the said Act confined to any One or more Road or Roads, and except so far as the same are varied, altered, or otherwise provided for by this Act,) shall extend and apply to the said New or Branch Roads hereby authorized to be made, and to the making, maintaining, and repairing thereof, and to all Purposes connected therewith or relating thereto, in the same Manner and as fully as if the same had been expressly embodied in and re-enacted by this Act with Reference to the said intended New or Branch Roads, or as if the said intended New or Branch Roads had been comprised and described in the First Schedule to that Act.

XXXIII. And in Addition to the Powers by the said recited Act given to the Commissioners acting in Execution thereof, for reducing, advancing, and altering the Tolls on the aforesaid Roads, he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners at any Time to direct that the Payment of any Toll to be specially appointed by the said Commissioners for that Purpose, and which Toll may be either of greater Amount than those herein-before authorized to be taken, or not, as to the said Commissioners shall seem proper, shall entitle the Party paying the same to an Exemption from any further Payment of Toll during the same Day in respect of the Horse, Cattle, or other Beast in respect of which the same shall be paid, not only within the District in which the same shall be paid, but also in all or any or either of the others of the aforesaid Districts; and when and so often as the said Commissioners shall make any such Direction as aforesaid, they shall appoint a particular Ticket to be issued, denoting such special Exemption; and any Party passing through any Gate or Bar in the District to which any such Direction shall relate, shall, at his or her Option, be entitled, either to the ordinary Ticket for exempting from further Toll within the same District only (in which Case only the ordinary Toll shall be demanded), or to a Ticket denoting the special Exemption, in which Case the Toll appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners shall be demanded and taken, and so long; and if any Collector or Gatekeeper shall issue a Ticket denoting any such special Exemption as aforesaid, on Payment of any less Toll than the Toll appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners, he shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; which Forfeiture or Penalty may and shall be recovered, levied, and applied in the Manner directed by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the several Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, with respect to the Penalties inflicted by that Act.

XXXIV. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for repealing several Acts made in the Eighth, Tenth, Thirteenth, and Eighteenth Years of the Reign of the late Majesty, for regulating the Nightly Watch and Baudin, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of Saint Marylebone, in the County of Middlesex, and for the better Relief and Maintenance of the Poor thereof, and for divers other Purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual Provisions for those Purposes, it was provided and enacted, that the Trustees for the Time being for repairing the Road from Saint Giles's Pound to Alders Bridge should pay to the Vestrymen for putting that Act in Execution, or to such Person or Persons as should be by them authorized to receive the same, the annual Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year aforesaid, the said annual Sum of Five hundred Pounds became payable by the said Commissioners acting in Execution of that Act; And Whereas, under the Provisions herein-before contained, the Tolls out of which the said Annuity was payable will cease, and no other Tolls will be levied in lieu thereof; and it is proper therefore that the said Annuity should also cease; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said First Day of January the said Annuity shall cease, determine, and be no longer payable; any Thing in the said recited Act of the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, or in the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and so much of the said Act of the Thirty-fifth Year aforesaid, or of any other Act, as authorizes the said Vestrymen, or the Commissioners of the said Annuity, to seize any Turnpike Gate, or to collect any Tolls, or to erect any Gate where the Turnpike at Tyburn stood at the Time of the passing of that Act, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That towards defraying the Expence of paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the Road from Saint Giles's Pound to Tyburn aforesaid (which Road is now called Upper Street), there shall be paid in the said Vestrymen, three and after the said First Day of January next next ensuing, the several Sums following; that is to say, the Sum of One hundred Pounds per Annum by the Parish of Saint George Hanover Square, the Sum of Sixty-two Pounds Ten Shillings per Annum by the Parish of Saint James Westminster, and the Sum of Forty-one Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Four-pence by the Parish of Saint Andrew within the Liberty of Westminster; such Payments to be made by Two equal half-yearly Payments on the First Day of July and First Day of January in each and every Year; and that the said several Sums shall be payable from Time to Time out of the Rate or Rates made or to be made for paving, cleansing, and lighting the said respective Parishes, and the Commissioners, Trustees, Commissioners, and other Persons acting under any Act or Acts of Parliament for paving, cleansing, or lighting the said Parishes, are hereby authorized and required to pay the same to the Vestrymen of the said Parish of Saint Marylebone, in the Proportions and at the Times herein-before mentioned: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend in any Way to affect or have relation to any Question of Boundary or Limit of the said Parish of Saint Marylebone, or of the said several Parishes of Saint George Hanover Square, Saint James Westminster, and Saint Andrew within the Liberty of Westminster, or of any of them, but that such Boundary or Limit shall remain in the same Manner and to the same Effect as if this Act had not been passed.

Commissioners may direct that Payment of Toll on any One Direction shall exempt from Payment on any other.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Annuities, Rents, and other Charges which previously to the passing of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year aforesaid were chargeable upon the Tolls taken on any of the Roads which, under the Provisions herein-before contained, will from and after the said First Day of January, cease to be under the Care and Management of the said Commissioners acting in Execution of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year aforesaid, or otherwise payable in respect of such Roads or any of them, shall, from and after the said First Day of January, cease to be payable by the said Commissioners, but shall from thenceforth be payable and paid by the respective Parties by whom the Roads, on the Tolls of which the same were chargeable or in respect of which the same were payable, will be thenceforth maintained under the Provisions herein-before contained.

XXXVII. * And Whereas it is desirable to provide more summary and effectual Means for the Prevention or Removal of such Buildings, Pavements, and other Matters and Things as by the said recited * Act of the Seventh Year aforesaid are declared to be common Nuisances: Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in Execution of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year aforesaid, or their Surveyor, or any Person or Persons authorized by them or him, to cause any Building, Shop, Shed, or Stall, or any Pavement, which has been erected, made, or laid down contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act, to be pulled down or removed by the Party or Parties by whom the same shall have been erected, made, or laid down, or by the Owner or Owners or Occupier or Occupiers thereof for the Time being, as to the said Commissioners or their Surveyor, or other Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid, shall seem meet: and in case such Owner or Owners or Occupier or Occupiers, or other Party or Parties, shall refuse or neglect to pull down or remove the same within One Calendar Month after Notice in Writing for that Purpose shall be given to him, her, or them, or to his, her, or their Dwelling House or Place of Abode, or in case any Person or Persons shall after the passing of this Act erect, make, or set up any Building, Shop, Shed, or Stall, or lay down any Pavement, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act, he, she, or they shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds, and the Nuisance shall and may be removed by the said Commissioners or their Surveyor, or any Person or Persons authorized by them or him for that Purpose; and it shall be lawful for any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, upon Proof of such Refusal or Neglect to them made upon Oath, to grant Warrants for Distress for laying, as well the Expenses of taking down or removing such Nuisance, as also the Penalty hereby imposed, by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods and Chattels, the Overplus (if any) to be rendered to the Owner or Owners on Demand; and the Penalty so recovered shall be applied towards the general Purposes of the said recited Act and of this Act.

XXXVIII. * And Whereas Doubts have been entertained whether the said Commissioners acting in * Execution of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year aforesaid are by that Act empowered to authorize * Hackney Carriages to stand or ply for Hire on any Part of the Roads mentioned and described so the * First Schedule thereto annexed: For removing such Doubts, it is hereby declared and enacted, That the said Commissioners are by the said recited Acts so empowered.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted and declared, That the Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Seventh Year aforesaid, for preventing the Erection or building of any Heard, Pools, Bars, Rails, Boards, or other Inclosures, were only intended to extend, and shall only be deemed to extend, to the Prevention of any Heard, Pools, Bars, Rails, Boards, or other Inclosures being built or erected on any of the Roads mentioned and described in the First Schedule to that Act annexed.

XL. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers and Means of removing Nuisances, preventing Encroachments and Annoyances, which, by virtue of the said Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, were given in and vested in the said Commissioners, shall, so far as the same relate to the Roads by this Act to be considered as common Highways, be given to and exercised by the several Parties or Persons in whom shall be or are vested by Law the Charge and Control of the said Roads, as so full, ample, and beneficial Manner, as all Intents and Purposes, and subject to the same Conditions and Restrictions, as the same could have been used and exercised by the same Commissioners in case this Act had not been made.

XLI. Provided always, and be it further declared and enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to pre-judice, diminish, alter, or take away any of the Rights, Powers, or Authorities vested in the Commissioners of Sewers for the Limits of Holborn and Finsbury Division, the Parish of St. Leonard Shoreditch, and the Liberty of Norton Folgate, in the County of Middlesex, and the Barons and Citizens of the same; but all the Rights, Powers, and Authorities vested in them shall be as good, valid, and effectual as if this Act had not been made.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and this Act, shall be deemed and taken to be Public Acts, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded.

And every such Transfer or Assignment shall be enrolled in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenues of the Crown for the County of Middlesex, on Payment of the usual Fees; and a Minute or Docket thereof shall be entered and preserved in the Office of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and an Extract or Memorial thereof shall be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose by the Clerk to the said Commissioners for executing this Act; which Extract or Memorial shall specify and contain the Date, Names of the Parties, and Sums of Money thereby transferred, to which Book any Person interested shall at all reasonable Times have Access, and shall have free Liberty to inspect the same without Fee or Reward; and for the entering of every such Transfer the said Clerk shall be paid by the Person to whom such Transfer shall be made the Sum of One Guinea, and no more; and every such Transfer, after such Entry shall be made thereof as aforesaid, shall entitle the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, and Companies, to whom the same shall be made, and his or her Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, to the Benefit of the Security thereby transferred, and to receive the Money due thereon when the same shall become payable, and the Interest thereof in the mean Time.

Power of the Treasury for raising Money by virtue of this Act shall be a sufficient Authority.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Warrant or Authority of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, under his or their Hand or Hands, or under the Hand of any Three of them, for the raising any Sum or Sums of Money by virtue of this Act, in Part of the said Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds, shall be a sufficient Warrant or Authority to the Person or Persons advancing the same, that the Sum or Sums to be expressed in or authorized by such Warrant or Warrants to be raised do or doth still remain to be raised under or by virtue of the Powers of this Act, and that the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Company or Companies, advancing the same, shall not be bound to enquire what Sum or Sums of Money have or hath been previously raised, or do or doth remain to be raised, under the Powers or Provisions of this Act; but that the Sum or Sums of Money is or by every such Warrant expressed or authorized to be raised shall be raised and taken, so far as respects the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Company or Companies, advancing or paying the same, to be a Sum or Sums yet remaining to be raised under the Powers and Provisions of this Act, over and above all other Monies which shall have been previously raised by virtue of this Act, or of the Powers or Authorities hereto contained; any Thing hereto contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

When the annual Produce of the Land Revenues shall be retained by the Crown, it shall be charged with Payment of the Money hereto retained Interest.

VII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the annual Produce of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown shall cease to be charged unto and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be retained by the Crown as Part of its hereditary Revenue, the same shall be charged and chargeable with the Payment to the Consolidated Fund of so much of the said Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds (if any) as shall have been borrowed under the Authority of this Act, and afterwards paid out of the annual Income of the said Possessions and Land Revenues as aforesaid previously to such Resumption, together with Interest for the same at the Rate of Four Pounds per Cent. per Annum, to be computed from the Time of such Resumption; and such Land Revenues shall be thenceforth applicable to the Repayment of such Principal Sum, if any, and Interest for the same as aforesaid, prior to any other Application thereof, except the Charges according to the Management thereof, and the Payment and Discharge of any Sum or Sums now already charged therein or to be charged thereon by virtue of this or any other Act, and the Interest thereof, or of so much thereof as shall from Time to Time remain unpaid and undischarged.

Commissioners empowered to make Vacant under St. Martin's Church-pard.

VIII. And Whereas by the said in Part recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Act to take or use, for the Purposes of the said Act, so much of the Burial Ground of the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields as lay on the South Side of the said Church as might be required for the Purpose, and the Ground so taken and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof should be and were thereby vested in the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Purposes of the said Act; and it was thereby further enacted, that the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Act should be and were thereby empowered and required, out of the Monies to be applied for the Purposes of the said Act, to purchase or otherwise provide a Piece or Parcel of Ground, to be approved by the Lord Bishop of London and the Vicar of the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields for the Time being, to be appropriated in enlarging that Part of the then present Burial Ground as was situated on the North and East Sides of the said Church, such additional Ground to be used as and for a Burial Ground for the Parishioners of the said Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields; and to procure the same to be consecrated and settled for that Purpose, in such Manner as the Lord Bishop of London for the Time being, or such Person as he should appoint, should direct; and to cause such Burial Ground to be made under Pavement, and enclosed in such Manner as the Lord Bishop of London, and the Vicar of the said Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields for the Time being should approve; and the said Commissioners should cause a proper Gate or Gates to be erected as an Entrance thereto, with Locks and other Fittings; and such new Burial Ground, and the Soil thereof, and the Freehold and Inheritance of the same in Fee Simple, should be vested in the same Manner, and should be subject to the same peculiar Jurisdiction and Regulations, as the then present Burial Ground of the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to alter and enlarge the Powers of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for extending to Chertsey Cross, the Strand, and Places adjacent, the Powers of an Act for making a new convenient Communication from Mary-le-bone Park, and for enabling the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods,

Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue, to grant Leases of the Site of Carlton Palace, and for other Purposes relating thereto, it was amongst other Things enacted, that whereas, at any Time after the passing of the now-repealed Act, it should be necessary, in pursuance and Execution of the said therein and herein before in Part recited Act, to open or disturb any Graves or Graves, or any Burial Vault or Vaults, in the said Burial Ground of the said Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields on the South Side of the said Church, it should be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act, with the Consent of the Vicar and Churchwardens for the Time being of the said Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, or the major Part of them, to remove and carry away the Remains of any such Person or Persons as should have been interred or deposited in such Grave or Graves, Vault or Vaults, and place the same either in such new Burial Ground as by the said therein and herein before in Part recited Act the said Commissioners were empowered and required to provide, or in any other Churchyard or consecrated Ground, in such Manner as the Lord Bishop of London for the Time being, or such Person or Persons as he might appoint, should direct; and that the Expenses of such removing and carrying away and placing (not exceeding in any one Case the Sum of Ten Pounds) should be paid by the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said therein and herein before in Part recited Act, out of the Monies to be applied for the Purpose of the said Act: And Whereas, for the greater Accommodation of the Inhabitants of Bales within the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields aforesaid, and in order more effectually to enable the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to remove the Remains of the Persons now interred in the present Burial Ground of the said Parish, the said Commissioners have proposed to make a Vault or Vaults for that Purpose under the present Churchyard, on the North, East, and South Sides of Saint Martin's Church aforesaid: Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as aforesaid, shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, by and with the Consent of the Vicar and Churchwardens of the said Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, or the major Part of them, when and as soon as they shall think it expedient so to do, to make, form, and complete a Vault or Vaults under the North, East, and South Sides of the present Churchyard of the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields aforesaid, or under such Part or Parts thereof as they shall think necessary and proper for that Purpose; such Vault or Vaults to be approved by the Lord Bishop of London, and to be used as and for a Burial Vault or Vaults for the Parishioners of the said Parish.

IX. And be it further enacted, That whenever at any Time after the passing of this Act it shall be necessary, in pursuance and Execution of the said in Part recited Acts, or of this Act, or either of them, to open or disturb any Grave or Graves, or any Burial Vault or Vaults, in the Burial Ground of the said Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty aforesaid, with the Consent of the Vicar and Churchwardens for the Time being of the said Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, or the major Part of them, to remove and carry away the Remains of any such Person or Persons as shall have been interred or deposited in such Grave or Graves, Vault or Vaults, and place the same either in such new Burial Ground as by the said in Part recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty the said Commissioners are empowered and required to provide, or in the Vault or Vaults herein-before authorized to be made by them, or in any other Churchyard, Vault, or consecrated Ground, in such Manner as the Lord Bishop of London for the Time being, or such Person or Persons as he may appoint, shall direct; and that the Expenses of such removing, carrying away, and placing (not exceeding in any one Case the Sum of Ten Pounds), shall be paid by the said Commissioners acting in Execution of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as aforesaid, out of the Monies to be applied for the Purpose of the said Act.

X. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty it is enacted, that the said Commissioners for executing the said Act should and they were thereby authorized, from Time to Time, to appoint fit and convenient Places in such of the Streets, Squares, Ways, Passages, and Places to be made and improved under or by virtue of the said Act, or which had been made or improved by the said recited Act, as they should deem proper, for the Stands for Hackney Coaches, Hackney Chariots, and Cabriolets; and it was thereby further enacted, that if any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage should be left to stand or remain in any of the Streets, Squares, Ways, Passages, and Places to be made, altered, or improved under or by virtue of the said Act, with or without Horses, for any longer Time than should be necessary for the loading and unloading; or if any Hackney Coach, Hackney Chariot, Cabriolet, Stage Coach, Post Chaise, or other Carriage let to Hire, should be left to stand or remain in any of such Streets, Squares, Ways, Passages, or Places, other than in such Situations as should be appointed for Stands for such Carriages as aforesaid, with or without Horses, for any longer Time than should be reasonable and necessary for taking up or setting down Passengers, for loading or unloading their Luggage or other Loading (except for Repair as one of Accident); then and in every such Case the Owner or Driver of every such Carriage should, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings: And Whereas the greater Part of the Houses and Buildings on the North Side of the Strand, extending from the East End of Enter Change to Charing Cross aforesaid, will be taken down and rebuilt under the Powers vested in the said Commissioners by the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as aforesaid; but as some Portion of such last-mentioned Houses and Buildings will not be removed or taken down, Doubts have been entertained whether the whole Line of the said Street called the Strand, ex-

For removing Bales as in the Provisions of 7 G. 4. c. 13 respecting the Stands for Hackney Coaches in the Strand.

* tending from the East End of Exeter Change to Charing Cross aforesaid, is within the said recited
 * Provisions of the said Act, and it is expedient that such Deeds be removed : ' Be it therefore further enacted, That the said last herein-before recited Provisions contained in the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as aforesaid, and the Powers and Remedies thereby given to and vested in the said Commissioners for carrying the said Act into Execution, shall extend to and be deemed and taken to comprise and include the Whole of the said Lane of Street called the Strand, extending from the East End of Exeter Change to Charing Cross aforesaid, for the Purposes therein mentioned and declared.

Commissioners
 empowered to take on Lease the Houses forming the Angle of Pall Mall and Cockspur Street.

XL. - And Whereas it would be an Accommodation to the Public, and a great Addition to the Im-
 * propriety contemplated by the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present * Majesty, if the Commissioners therein named were authorized and empowered to take down the pro* jecting Parts of the Houses forming the Angle of Pall Mall and Cockspur Street, situate in the Parishes * of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields and Saint James Westminster, or One of them, now or here in the several * Occupations of Montague Leguon and Edward Morgan, and to lay Part of the Ground on which such * Houses are erected and built into the public Street, for the Purpose of widening the same : but as such
 * Alteration and Improvement is not included in the Improvements authorized to be made by the said
 * recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the same cannot be effected * without the Aid and Authority of Parliament : ' Be it therefore further enacted, That in order to enable the said Commissioners to take down and remove the said projecting Parts of the Houses forming the said Angle of Pall Mall and Cockspur Street aforesaid, and to widen the said last-mentioned Street, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being for carrying the said recited Act into Execution, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to purchase the said Houses forming the Angle of Pall Mall and Cockspur Street aforesaid, now or here in the several Occupations of Montague Leguon and Edward Morgan, with the Appurtenances, and any subsisting Leases, Tenants, Estates, and Interests therein, or Charges thereon, or such of them, or such Part or Parts thereof respectively, as the said Commissioners shall think proper : and in case the Whole of the said Houses and Premises shall not be so purchased, to take, on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, of and from any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, any Lease or Leases of the said several Houses and Premises, or any Part or Parts thereof, for such Period, at such Rate, and with or without any Fine, subject to such Covenants, Conditions, and Provisions, and on such Terms as to the said Commissioners shall seem meet, and to enter into such Contracts and Agreements for the Purposes aforesaid as to the said Commissioners shall seem proper : and it shall be lawful for all Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, Tenants in Tail or for Life, Heirs, and Guardians, Trustees, and Executors in Trust for charitable or other Purposes, Committees, Executors, and Administrators, and all other Trustees and Persons whatsoever, not only for and on Behalf of themselves, their Heirs and Successors, but also for and on Behalf of the Person or Persons entitled in Remainder or Reversion, or for any other future Interest, and also for and on Behalf of their Cousins Tenants or Wards, whether Infants, being unborn, Lunatics, Idiots, Frenzy, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, and to and for all Person or Persons who are or shall be seized, possessed of, or interested in their own Right, or entitled to Dower or other Interest therein, and particularly for the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter Westminster, and to and for all and every other Person or Persons whatsoever, who are or shall be seized or possessed of or interested in the said Houses and Hereditaments herein-before mentioned, or any of them, or any Part thereof respectively, to contract for, sell, and convey the same, and every or any Part thereof, to the said Commissioners, and to grant any Lease or Leases of such or of such Parts of the said several Houses and Premises as shall not be absolutely sold, or any Part or Parts thereof, to the said Commissioners, or to such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for such Period, at such Rate, and with or without any Fine, and subject to such Covenants, Conditions, and Provisions, and on such Terms, as to such Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, shall seem meet, and to enter into such Contracts and Agreements for the Purposes aforesaid as to the said Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or Person or Persons, shall seem proper :
 and all Contracts, Agreements, Bargains, Sales, Leases, Conveyances and Assurances, Acts and Deeds, which shall be made by such Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Trustees or Tenants, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, shall be valid and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever : and all Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, and all Persons whatsoever, contracting, conveying, or dealing as aforesaid, are hereby admonished for or in respect of any such Contract, Sale, or Deed, which he, she, or they, or any of them, shall respectively make by virtue or in pursuance of this Act : and all and every Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Trustee or

VOLUME THE ELEVENTH,

Containing the Acts passed 7 & 8 GEO. IV. 9 GEO. IV. and 10 GEO. IV.
 (1827, 1828, 1829.)

☞ In this Index the Acts which relate to IRELAND or SCOTLAND exclusively, are classed under those General Heads; but arranged in Subdivisions according to the several Subjects, with References to and from other Parts of the Index.

Other Acts respecting particular Places are to be looked for, according to their several Subjects, by referring to the General Heads, under which the Acts are respectively arranged in Alphabetical Order of the Names of Places; such, for example, are Bridges, Caves, County Rates, Coals, Harbours, Ferries, Fairs, &c. — the Acts under the Titles Judicature and Townships, are classed in Alphabetical Order of the Counties in which the Inclosure takes place, or the Road begins.

All the Acts relating to Individuals or to Corporations are arranged in Alphabetical Order of the Names of the Persons or Corporations, under the general Title, Personal Acts.

The Public Local and Personal Acts are referred to in the Roman Numerals, by which their Series is distinguished in the respective Sessions.

Minute References are also made from one Head to another; and from the various Heads, under which the Subject may be looked for, to the Head under which the Statute is actually entered.

(Pr.) denotes Private Acts printed by the King's Printer, the printed Copies whereof may be given in Evidence.
